ON THE BUMP: RHP Brandon Woodruff begins a Major League rehab assignment with the Nashville Sounds on Saturday night. The two-time National League All-Star pitcher missed all of 2024 after recovering from right shoulder surgery. He has made two previous rehab starts with the Sounds, one coming in 2023 and his first in 2022. Woodruff through one inning in Cactus League play with the Brewers this spring and was placed on the 15-day IL on March 27 (retroactive to 3/24 with a surgery recovery designation). In 2023, Woodruff made 11 starts with Milwaukee, going 5-1 with a 2.28 ERA and produced seven quality starts. He is the Brewers franchise leader in ERA (min. 500.0 IP) with his career 3.10 ERA and is tied with Corbin Burnes with a 1.05 WHIP for the best mark among pitchers with at least 500.0 IP in their Milwaukee career. He is eighth all-time in strikeouts in Brewers' franchise history with 788 and has produced 19 10+ strikeout games in his career with Milwaukee, the second-most behind Corbin Burnes (23).

DAZ OUTTA HERE: Outfielder Daz Cameron made quite the first impression. After being acquired by the Brewers from Baltimore on Monday, the son of former Sound, and 17-year MLB vet Mike Cameron, homered in his first two at-bats in his Sounds debut batting out of the leadoff spot. It's his first multi-HR game since July 21, 2023, when he was with Triple-A Norfolk. He's the first Sound with a multi-HR game in 2025 with the last coming by way of Chris Roller on September 3, 2024, at First Horizon Park against the Gwinnett Stripers. The last leadoff home run before Cameron came on August 29, 2024, when Isaac Collins did so against Charlotte. It's the second time in Cameron's career that he has hit a home run in his first game with a new club. The last time he did it was in the big leagues last season when he made his A's debut on May 23rd against the Colorado Rockies.

KARLOS: RHP Carlos Rodriguez carried a perfect game into the top of the sixth inning for the Sounds on Friday night. The Brewers' no. 23-ranked prospect started his outing by striking out each of the first six batters he faced. He was the second Nashville starter to not allow a hit through his first five innings against Memphis this week, joining Logan Henderson who did it on Wednesday night. A one-out single off the bat of Gavin Collins broke up the perfect game and a two-out walk on his 92nd pitch was the end of the line for Rodriguez. His 5.2 IP is the longest a Nashville pitcher has worked this season, breaking a six-way tie that he, Logan Henderson (twice), Jacob Misiorowski (twice), and Bruce Zimmermann (relief) had going entering the night.

HE HIT IT (AL)FAR(O): Jorge Alfaro joined Caleb Durbin, Jared Oliva, and Daz Cameron atop the team lead for home runs with his seventh inning two-run shot off Riley O'Brien. Alfaro took on the biggest part of the park, taking a 81 MPH curveball to straight away center field for a 403-foot home run and 5.2 seconds of hang time. Alfaro's first home run of the season was hit last Thursday night on the road in Gwinnett. It was the 20th home run of his Triple-A career, 87th regular-season minor league home run, and 135th career affiliated home run.

STRIKE FIRST: After Friday night's game, the Sounds improved to 6-3 on the year when scoring first. The Sounds have scored first in all four of the games so far to begin the series against Memphis including runs in the first inning in each of the last three games.

DON'T CRY BECAUSE IT'S OVER: Entering Thursday's game with a consecutive scoreless streak of 24.1 IP dating back to Saturday night in Gwinnett, the Sounds, and Jacob Misiorowski saw both of their streaks come to an end. As a team the Sounds made it 27.0 IP between runs when Memphis scored with two outs in the top of the third inning. Misiorowski entered the game having pitched his first 8.2 IP of 2025 without allowing a run and 12.2 IP overall in Triple-A after ending the 2024 season with four straight one-inning scoreless relief appearances. His 11.1 IP to start the season gave him the team-high in scoreless innings so far, surpassing Logan Henderson who got to 10.0 IP after his five scoreless in Wednesday's game. With a pair of earned runs in the top of the sixth charged to Blake Holub, the Sounds also saw their bullpen streak of 38.0 IP without allowing an earned run come to an end. The streak dated back to Sunday, March 30th and covered seven full games.
