NEWS AND NOTES

FARM REPORT: In the updated Baseball America Top 100 Prospect Rankings released earlier today, the Milwaukee Brewers have eight prospects currently inside the Top 100, led by no. 4-overall prospect Jesus Made, who is slated to begin his season tonight with Double-A Biloxi. Four of the eight prospects are currently on Nashville's active roster: INF Cooper Pratt (#51), INF Jett Williams (#66), RHP Logan Henderson (#88), and OF Luis Lara (#99).

NUKE ADAMS: First baseman Luke Adams crushed a grand slam in the bottom of the second inning which also marked his first hit of the season in Friday's win over Charlotte. Adams now has four grand slams in his professional career with his last coming on June 15, 2025, when he was with Double-A Biloxi. Adams, the Brewers no. 13-rated prospect also had two grand slams during his 2024 campaign. Since the start of the 2023 season, Adams ranks sixth in the Brewers farm system with 34 home runs and has recorded 11 home runs each of the last three seasons with Low-A Wilson (2023), High-A Wisconsin (2024), and Double-A Biloxi (2025). Nashville's last grand slam came on Sept. 14, 2025, when Oliver Dunn hit one against the Gwinnett Stripers. Since making his professional debut in 2022 Adams' four grand slams rank T-15th among all minor leaguers during the span. Other notable Sounds on the list include: Wes Clarke (T-5th, 5), and Daz Cameron (T-15th, 4). Current Pirates farm hand Billy Cook leads the way with seven grand slams since the start of the 2022 season.

COLE-THE-MAN CROW: Right-hander Coleman Crow earned his first career Triple-A win after spinning his first career Triple-A quality start in his fourth appearance with Nashville. Crow worked 6.0 IP while allowing two runs on four hits and had five strikeouts and issued two walks. He began the night retiring the first nine batters he faced. Crow now owns 17 career quality starts and has earned a quality start every time he has gone the minimum 6.0 IP to qualify. It's the first quality start for a Nashville pitcher since Tucker Davidson went 6.2 scoreless innings on September 12 vs. Gwinnett. The Sounds had 26 quality starts from the pitching staff a season ago, which ranked tied for seventh in Triple-A and the Sounds were 20-6 when getting a quality start in 2025.

TAKE QUERO: Brewers no. 8-rated prospect Jeferson Quero launched his first home run of the season and first since hitting a three-run blast on September 18, 2025 on the road in Louisville. Quero was held hitless in his first three Triple-A games of the season but now has a hit in back-to-back games for Nashville Thursday and Friday night. Since making his Triple-A debut Quero has played in nine games against Charlotte and has six hits, three of which have been for extra bases (HR, 2 2B, 7 RBI).

PRIVATE JETT: Infielder Jett Williams finished the night going 1-for-5 and swiped his fourth stolen base of the season. Williams leads the team in stolen bases, passing teammate Greg Jones and is currently tied for 1st in the International League. Williams eclipsed 30+ stolen bases with Single-A St. Lucie (32) during the 2023 season and Double-A Binghamton (32) last year.

HIGH-FIVE: The Sounds produced their most runs in any single inning so far in 2026 with their five-run second inning on Friday. The Sounds hadn't scored more than three runs in any of the first six games. Nashville scored 5+ in an inning 21 times during the 2025 season including 14 games with a five-run inning. The five-run second inning was the most since Nashville dropped five on Louisville in the top of the ninth inning on September 21, 2025, to close out the season offensively.

KNIGHTS IN SHINING ARMOR: The Sounds took care of business over Charlotte during their 18 matchups during the 2025 season. Nashville won the season series 13-5, including a 8-4 record at First Horizon Park. The Sounds also own the head-to-head matchup all-time with a 56-30 record against the Knights and are 36-15 in the all-time series at First Horizon Park.
