Sunday, July 18, 2021 • Game # 65

Day Air Ballpark • Dayton, Ohio • 2:05 p.m.

TV: Dayton's CW (26) • Radio: 980 WONE Fox Sports

Great Lakes Loons (36-29) at Dayton Dragons (35-29)

RH Clayton Beeter (0-3, 4.50) vs. LH Jacques Pucheu (3-1, 4.75)

Today's Game: The Dayton Dragons (affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds) meet the Great Lakes Loons (affiliate of the Los Angeles Dodgers) in the last game of a six-game series.

2021 Season Series: Dayton 10, Great Lakes 7. Current Series: Great Lakes 4, Dayton 1.

Last Game: Saturday: Great Lakes 13, Dayton 3 (suspended game from Friday). Dayton 4, Great Lakes 1 (game two). Great Lakes hit four home runs in game one including two by Brandon Lewis, the second of which was a grand slam. The Dragons came back to win the second game as Noah Davis tossed six strong innings in a seven-inning game, allowing just one run. Alex McGarry had three hits and Victor Ruiz added two hits and two RBI.

Season Highs from Last Games: Largest Margin of Defeat: 10 (lost 13-3, matched season high, G1); Most Home Runs Allowed, Game (Individual): 3, Hoffman (G1); Most Strikeouts, Dayton Batters (Team): 17 (G1).

Current Homestand: The Dragons are 5-6 on the current homestand, which is scheduled for 12 games featuring six games each against West Michigan and Great Lakes. The team batting average on the homestand is .270 (96-355). The Dragons have hit just two home runs on this homestand. The team ERA on the homestand is 6.25 (95 IP, 66 ER). The Dragons have committed seven errors in the 11 games.

High-A Central League Playoffs: Major League Baseball has announced that leagues at three classifications, including the High-A Central League, will conduct playoffs in September. The top two teams in each league, regardless of division, will meet in a best-of-five series.

The Mythical First Half Division Title: The Dragons were the winners of the "Mythical First Half" East Division title as the midpoint of the season concluded with games on Sunday. Note that the league is not utilizing a split-season format in 2021. There is no First Half or Second Half, and no First Half championship race in 2021 in the High-A Central League. The Midwest League was split into two equal halves for every season from 1988-2019, and from 1956-1981. The league did not play a split season from 1982-87.

Player Notes

- Francisco Urbaez is second in the league in batting average at .337. He is batting .364 over his last 39 games since May 29 and has a 12-game hitting streak, batting .413 (19 for 46) with six doubles. The hitting streak is one short of the team season high in 2021 of 13 by Brian Rey.
- Victor Ruiz is batting .361 with nine doubles over his last 16 games to raise his average from .213 to .277.
- Mariel Bautista is batting .323 over his last nine games and hit his first home run of the season in the last series vs. West Michigan.
- Quin Cotton is batting .316 on the homestand (9 games) with five RBI.
- Reliever Braxton Roxby over his last four appearances: 5.2 IP, 1 H, 0 R, 1 BB, 11 SO.
- Reliever Matt Gill over his last three appearances: 5.2 IP, 3 H, 0 R, 0 BB, 7 SO.

Team Notes

- The Dragons snapped a season-high six-game losing streak with the win in last night's second game.
- Dayton is in second place, one-half game behind Great Lakes in the High-A Central League East Division.
- Dayton had maintained sole possession of first place from June 8 until Thursday night's loss dropped them to second place. They have held at least a share of first place after 51 of the 64 games they have played this season. They have not been lower than second place in the standings at the end of a night and have not been more than one and one-half games out of first at any time this season.
- The Dragons are 9-1 in one-run games at home, and 12-2 when scoring first at home.
- The Dragons are 21-9 overall in games decided by two runs or less, the best mark in the league.
- BATTING: The Dragons hit .300 as a team during the series with West Michigan to start this homestand. Their previous highest average in a series this season was .261, vs. Fort Wayne, June 15-20. They are batting .230 during the current series with Great Lakes...The Dragons have hit only two home runs on the homestand and only one over the last 10 games.
- FIELDING: The Dragons have committed only 54 errors in 64 games, ranking second in the league in team fielding.
- The Dragons roster is headlined by outfielder Michael Siani. Siani is listed by Baseball America as the "Best Athlete" and "Best Defensive Outfielder" in the Reds organization. He is ranked as the Reds 10th best prospect overall. Other Dragons players ranked by Baseball America are RHP Lyon Richardson (#13), RHP Noah Davis (#15), and OF Jacob Hurtubise (#41).

Comeback Kids: June 8 and 9, the Dragons won two games in two nights despite trailing by five or more runs in each game. They had six such comebacks in the last five years (697 games), averaging 1.2 comebacks per season in games when trailing by five or more runs. The June 8 win after trailing 7-0 matched the largest comeback for the Dragons over at least the last 15 seasons. Records on comebacks date back to 2006. The Dragons have battled back to win five times after trailing by at least four runs since May 18. Over the last five years, they averaged 2.2 wins per season when trailing by at least four runs. The Dragons have won eight games in 2021 after trailing by at least three runs, compared to the five-year average of 5.6 per season. The Dragons have lost two games that they led by three runs or more this season.

Dragons "On the Air"

You can follow the Dragons through various media outlets in 2021. Every home and road game will be broadcast on radio on WONE 980-AM. Games are also available at wone.com, on a mobile device through either the Dragons mobile app or the iHeart Radio app, or on HD Radio on 104.7 HD 2 WTUI. Additionally, the Dragons will televise 25 home games on Dayton's CW (Channel 26, available on Spectrum Cable channels 13 and 1013; available on DirecTV and Dish Network channel 26). All 60 home games are available on MiLB TV (subscription required through milb.com).

Dragons Manager/Coaches:

Jose Moreno is in his first season as Dragons manager and his second year in the Reds organization. The 2021 season is Moreno's 22nd year as a coach, instructor, or coordinator in professional baseball. As a manager, he has won three league championships with affiliated clubs, guiding his teams to titles in 2002, 2007, and 2010. Moreno also led his teams to back-to-back championships in the Venezuelan Winter League in 2019-20 and 2020-21. Moreno was a catcher in Cleveland Indians and Baltimore Orioles farm systems.

Wapakoneta, Ohio native Brian Garman joins the Dragons in 2021 as pitching coach. Garman was slated to serve as the Dayton pitching coach in 2020 before the season was canceled. He served as a pitching coach in the Los Angeles Angels system for the previous two seasons, working at Rookie-level Orem (Pioneer League) in 2019 and Advanced-A Inland Empire (California League) in 2018. Garman pitched at Wapakoneta High School and the University of Cincinnati before being drafted by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 17th round in 2010. He spent four years as a pitcher in the Brewers system, reaching the Double-A level.

Hitting coach Daryle Ward returns to the Dragons in 2021 after serving in the same position in Dayton in 2017-18. He is in his sixth year in coaching in the Cincinnati Reds organization. He served as the hitting coach with the Goodyear Reds in the Arizona League in 2016 and with the Chattanooga Lookouts in 2019. He was slated to return to Chattanooga in 2020 before the season was canceled. Ward played professionally for 22 seasons from 1994-2015. He spent seven full seasons and parts of four others in the Major Leagues, primarily as a left fielder and first baseman. His father, Gary Ward, was a Major League All-Star selection with both the Twins and Rangers as part of a 12-year Major League playing career.

Darren Bragg returns to the Dragons in his 15th year as a coach or instructor in the Reds organization. He will serve in a newly named position within the Reds organization, carrying the title of development coach. Bragg was the Dragons hitting coach for two seasons in 2007-08, helping the club to the playoffs in both years as he worked with future Reds Todd Frazier, Zack Cozart, Chris Heisey, Drew Stubbs, Juan Francisco, and others in Dayton. Bragg served as the Reds minor league outfield coordinator from 2009-18 before returning to a coaching assignment with an individual team. He was the bench coach at Double-A Chattanooga in 2019 and was slated to fill the same role with Daytona in 2020 before the minor league season was canceled. Bragg spent 11 years as a player in Major League Baseball from 1994-2004, appearing in 916 big league games with nine teams.

Quin Cotton

School: Grand Canyon

Acquired: 8th round, 2019 draft

Home: Aurora, CO

Joined Club: Start of Season

Notes: Drafted/signed after his junior year at Grand Canyon University of the Western Athletic Conference (WAC)...GCU has been an NCAA Division I program since 2014 and has produced some strong players, though Cotton is the first to be drafted by the Reds since the school moved up to D1. Cotton had back-to-back big seasons at Grand Canyon in 2018-19. In his sophomore year of 2018, he batted a conference-leading .390 and won the WAC Player of the Year award. In 2019, he hit .331 and was 2nd Team All-Conference. His 21 doubles ranked second in the WAC. He combined to hit nine home runs over the 2018-19 seasons in 116 games at GCU...After being drafted by the Reds, Cotton was assigned to Billings and became their lead-off hitter...Selected as a 2019 Pioneer League all-star.

James Free

School: University of the Pacific

Acquired: NDFA, 2019

Home: Stockton, CA

Joined Club: Start of Season

Notes: Signed with the Reds as an undrafted free agent following the 2019 draft after a successful three-year career at the University of the Pacific. Had been projected by Baseball America as a player who would be taken in the first 10 rounds...Had a huge freshman season at Pacific in 2017 when he posted an OPS of over 1.000 while leading the conference in both home runs (14) and RBI (54) and batting .343 in 52 games. Those numbers earned him NCAA Freshman All-American honors. He fell off as a sophomore in 2018 to .283 with seven home runs but bounced back in 2019. As a junior in 2019, hit .335 with eight home runs in 49 games with a .541 slugging percentage...After signing with the Reds, Free was assigned to Billings. As late as August 17, 2019, Free was batting .312 and had compiled a .624 slugging percentage. He had seven home runs in 93 at-bats. But over his final 16 games, he went 9 for 62 (.145) to finish at .245. His final slugging percentage of .452 was the best on the team among players with at least 100 plate appearances. Blasted a home run in Billings' three-game playoff series. Free started all three playoff games and hit third in the Billings lineup, playing first base or designated hitter...Native of Walnut, California, about 25 miles east of downtown Los Angeles. He played at Damien High School and was a teammate for all four seasons with Nick Lodolo, the 2019 Dragons pitcher who was the Reds #1 draft pick last summer. Former Cardinals slugger Mark McGwire and the late former Reds pitcher Frank Pastore are also products of Damien High School. Free was a high school star and in 2015, he was selected to play in the WWBA World Championships in Jupiter, Florida, earning All-Tournament Team honors. Among his teammates was 2019 Dragons starting pitcher Lyon Richardson, who was also a high school star at the time from Florida.

Acquired: 7th round, 2019 draft

Home: Canoga Park, CA

Joined Club: Start of Season

Notes: Highest-drafted catcher by the Reds in 2019, taken in the seventh round, the same round where the Reds selected Dragons 2018 catcher Mark Kolozsvary and 2019 Dragons catcher Jay Schuyler...Helped UCSB to the Big West Conference championship in 2019 and a trip to the NCAA Regional...Spent three years at UCSB and was the starter in 2018 and '19, his sophomore and junior years. He had a huge season in 2019 when he was selected 2nd Team All-American (Baseball America), Big West Conference Player of the Year, and a finalist for the Buster Posey Award as college baseball's best catcher. He played in all 56 of his team's games and batted .368 with seven home runs and a .545 slugging percentage. After signing with the Reds, Yang went to Billings, made the all-star team, and hit a home run in the all-star game. He was selected by Baseball America as the #19 prospect in the Pioneer League, the second highest ranking among catchers...Yang is a Los Angeles area native and had a notable high school career at El Camino Real Charter School (Christopher Knight, who was Peter in the Brady Bunch, is one of many famous ECR alumni). His team won the Los Angeles City Section championship at Dodger Stadium in both his junior and senior years, and he was the LA City Section Player of the Year in 2015, selected from among athletes at about 100 high schools.

Noah Davis

School: UC Santa Barbara
Acquired: 11th round, 2018 draft
Home: Huntington Beach, CA
Joined Club: Start of Season

Notes: Ranked as the #15 prospect in the Reds organization by Baseball America entering 2021. The Reds drafted Davis in the 11th round in 2018, knowing that he would miss all of that season and part of 2019 after undergoing Tommy John elbow surgery. Davis made 30 starts at UCSB, serving as a full-time starting pitcher as a freshman and sophomore before being limited to eight innings as a junior due to the injury. He posted a career record of 15-9 with a 4.58 ERA. Davis was on the mound for some big games in college and high school. As a freshman at UC Santa Barbara in 2016, he was the team's #2 starting pitcher behind ace Shane Bieber, the 2020 American League Cy Young Award winner. Davis helped UCSB to its first-ever trip to the College World Series as the team finished the year as the #7 team in the nation. Davis was the starting pitcher for their second game of the 2016 College World Series as his team beat powerful Miami. Davis allowed just one run on two hits over six innings in that game. Davis returned to UCSB in 2017 and was his team's top starter, going 7-4 with a 4.63 ERA. At Huntington Beach High School, Davis was a California All-State selection and pitched his team to a state championship. After being drafted by the Reds in 2018, Davis battled back from reconstructive elbow surgery to return to the mound by June of 2019. He made five short rehab starts with the AZL Reds and then joined the Billings roster on July 28. He was limited to a maximum of 75 pitches at Billings but made eight starts, posting a fine ERA of 2.10. Davis was a college teammate at UC Santa Barbara of Dragons catcher Eric Yang, who caught Davis at Billings in 2019 after Davis returned to the mound following his rehab assignment.

Spencer Stockton

School: Jacksonville University

Acquired: MiLB FA, 2019

Home: Wellington, FL

Joined Club: Start of Season

Notes: Acquired by the Reds after making seven starts for the Utica Unicorns of the United Shore Professional Baseball League, an entry-level independent league in the Detroit area. Three days after Stockton had played in the league's all-star game as a starting pitcher, the Reds signed him to a Minor League contract. Stockton's 2019 season was an amazing one, as he climbed from the USPBL, making his last start on June 27 against a team called the Westside Woolly Mammoths, all the way to becoming the Cincinnati Reds Minor League Pitcher of the Month in August...Played four years of college baseball at Jacksonville University in the Atlantic Sun Conference, posting strong numbers every year. In 2018, he helped his team earn a bid in the NCAA tournament and was Jacksonville's starting pitcher against the University of Florida, the Regional's #1 seed. He finished the 2018 season with an 8-6 record and a 3.59 ERA, but he was not drafted...After being acquired by the Reds, was initially sent to the AZL Reds in Goodyear, Arizona and made six appearances there including four as a starter, going 3-1 with a 2.14 ERA. He was promoted to Greeneville in early August and made four appearances with the G-Reds, going 2-1 with a 1.96 ERA. Overall in August, Stockton made six appearances in the Reds system, posting an ERA of 1.50 as he allowed just six runs in 36 innings. Those numbers earned him the Reds Minor League Pitcher of the Month honor for August.
