THIS WEEK'S STARTERS (SUBJECT TO CHANGE)

SPENCER SCHWELLENBACH

NEBRASKA | SAGINAW, MI 1-1, 1.93 ERA

BIO

CURRENT NOTES: Opening day starter, went 1.2 innings with no hits, 2 walks, and a strikeout in his first professional action of his career. Pitched two innings the next week, giving up one run (unearned due to E4). Took loss in his third start after struggling with command at Myrtle Beach...best outings came on 4/27 and 5/4, going 7.1 outings and allowing one run in that time...Pitched back-to-back quality starts on 6/14 vs MB and 6/24 @ DEL...named to NL roster for SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game on 6/26 as only Braves representative...

CAREER: Spencer Schwellenbach was a 2nd round pick of the Braves out of Nebraska in 2021, falling despite being a projected first rounder due to reports of a potential injury during workouts. The Braves were thrilled that he fell to them, and signed him despite knowing he would likely need the Tommy John surgery which sidelined him for the entire 2022 season. Out of Saginaw, Michigan, Schwellenbach was a 34th round pick of the Guardians in 2018, but elected to fulfill his commitment to the Cornhuskers. In college, Schwellenbach was a dominant two-way player his senior year after featuring solely as an infielder his first three years. He held opponents to a .198 batting average with a dominant fastball, recording 10 saves and a remarkable ERA of 0.57. He also hit .284, with 9 stolen bases and 9 home runs. Those stat lines led to him being named as the Big 10 2021 Player of the Year, a first-team All-American, the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year, a Golden Spikes semifinalist, and more.

OWEN MURPHY

CURRENT NOTES: Dazzled in his season debut, going 4 scoreless innings with 6 strikeouts...picked up first decision (L) on first game of doubleheader 4/28...has given up hard contact in May...GreenJackets won just one game of the first five that Murphy started this year...picked up first professional win on 5/19, after giving up leadoff homer then pitched five scoreless innings...gave up two solo shots against KAN but struck out at-the-time career high 7 in 4 innings...struggled in first three starts in June against CSC, MB, CAR... Struck out career high 12 against DEL in best outing on 6/23...

CAREER: Murphy was a two-sport standout, also playing QB and WR for his high school team. During his senior year, he gave up just 10 hits in 58.1 innings while striking out 137 – more than 2 batters per inning. He tossed four no-hitters and two perfect games, while also hitting .548 with 10 homers. He was a projected top-100 pick as a two-way player, but his pitching elevated him to first-round status. He was named the 2022 Illinois Gatorade Player of the Year and was originally committed to Notre Dame, but after being selected 20th overall by the Braves he elected to sign for $2,560,000. He pitched 5 scoreless innings in the FCL, striking out seven, before giving up six runs in seven innings on just five hits with ten punchouts in three Augusta starts late in the season.

CAREER: Adam Shoemaker was drafted in the 11th round of the 2021 draft out of St. Benedict High School in Cambridge, Ontario. In three starts, Shoemaker went just 5 innings, exiting his third start with an injury. After a month on the IL, he returned to the FCL, where
