PREVIEWING AUGUSTA'S MATCHUP WITH THE KANNAPOLIS CANNON BALLERS

Coming off a week in which the GreenJackets got their first look of the season at the Salem Red Sox, a much more familiar foe comes to town this series as Augusta welcomes the Kannapolis Cannon Ballers to SRP Park for the first time this season. The two sides met in the first road trip of the year for the GreenJackets, with each club winning three of the six meetings at Atrium Health Ballpark.

Kannapolis has been a steady presence in the middle of the Carolina League's North Division for a majority of the season, flirting with either side of .500 as they jostle with the other five teams for pole position. The White Sox affiliate has seen more than their fair share of transactions, but have kept a consistent nucleus offensively to find their rhythm.

The initial battles between the two teams had a marked divide in the middle of the week, as Kannapolis took the first three games before the GreenJackets righted the ship and won three straight to end the week and split the series. In each of the first three games, Augusta put up just one run, keeping each game close but proving unable to overcome the lack of offense. The weekend was a different story, with Augusta scoring six or more in three straight games, including their first two home runs of the year. All told, Augusta outscored Kannapolis 22-20 including 19-8 in the last three games.

DIVISIONAL FOES MEET FOR A 2ND TIME AFTER SPLITTING SERIES IN EARLY APRIL

The GreenJackets' offense during the week was led by the usual trio of suspects, as Drew Compton, Jace Grady, and Kade Kern led the charge. Kern and Grady each left the yard once, while Compton went 6-18 with 3 doubles and 4 RBI. The team showed off its speed as well, stealing 11 bags in 13 opportunities, including four players with multiple SBs. On the mound, the team pitched to a 2.12 ERA, led by Cade Kuehler and Adam Maier who each did not allow an earned run in their respective starts. The defense did struggle in the series, however, committing an egregious eighteen errors including seven in one game in the series opener.

Despite winning three straight to start the week, Kannapolis' offense did not inspire extreme confidence over the week they hosted the GreenJackets. The Cannon Ballers hit .186 as a team, with most of their runs coming thanks to the barrage of errors committed by the GreenJacket defense. Caden Connor led the way with six RBIs in six games played, as one of just two hitters to appear in every game. The other such man was Rikuu Nishida, who went 4-22 but sprinkled in 5 walks, 3 steals, and a team-high 7 runs scored. The pitching was solid against a slow-starting Augusta roster, with Drew McDaniel highlighting the starters with five scoreless frames to begin the week, while Garrett Wright locked down the back end with two saves in as many tries.

This week's series marks the only trip to SRP Park in 2024 for the Kannapolis Cannon Ballers. Augusta heads north to Atrium Health Ballpark one more time, playing a brief three-game set in Kannapolis on the tail end of the All Star Break. After this week, Augusta heads on the road to battle with Fayetteville in yet another divisional series, while Kannapolis returns home to host the Columbia Fireflies in an odd series that sees the two teams play a Monday evening game on Memorial Day before adding an off day Tuesday prior to completing the series.
