BELOIT BULLETPOINTS

BREAKDOWN

-The Snappers dropped the 2021 season opener to the Wisconsin Timber Rattlers 2-1. Zach McCambley made his professional debut and took the loss with four innings pitched and two earned runs. He also notched seven strikeouts.

-24-year-old righty Bryan Hoeing will get the start tonight for the Snappers. Hoeing playing in short season A-ball in 2019 with the Batavia Muckdogs. He was exclusively a bullpen arm with nine relief appearances and 22.1 innings. He logged a 4.43 ERA and opponents hit .295 against him. Hoeing was a 7th round pick by the Marlins in 2019.

-Under the new Minor League Baseball reorganization, the Beloit Snappers have moved from Class A to High-A. They play in the High-A Central League's West Division. Divisional opponents consist of the Wisconsin Timber Rattlers, Peoria Chiefs, Quad Cities River Bandits, South Bend Cubs, and Cedar Rapidsernels.

-Beloit is playing their final season under the current moniker, the Snappers. A rebrand is planned prior to the 2022 season.

-The 2021 season will also be the last in historic Pohlman Field, as a new downtown stadium is currently being built. It's expected that the Snappers will move to the new stadium during the 2020 season.

-Beloit's Opening Day roster brings four prospects in the Top 20 of the Miami Marlins farm system: Kameron Misner (15), Connor Scott (16), Kyle Nicolas (17), and Griffin Conine (18).

-Jon Rawson, the play-by-play voice of the Beloit Snappers, will call 120 games on the Big Radio App. The first and last game of every series can also be heard on Iron Country Radio (101.9 FM/1490 AM). Fans can also tune in via MiLB Gameday Audio by clicking on "Listen Live."

LAST TIME OUT

In last night's game, the Beloit Snappers registered only two hits in a 2-1 loss to the Wisconsin Timber Rattlers. Thomas Jones started the scoring only two batters into the game with a solo home run to left field. However, the Snappers wouldn't log a hit until the top of the ninth when Connor Scott singled.

Down 2-1 in the ninth, that Scott single put the tying run on base. A wild pitch with one out would move Scott to second with Kameron Misner at the plate. Misner would fly out to Timber Rattlers centerfielder Garrett Mitchell who threw to second and cut down Scott, who was half-way to third base, to win the game.

2021 Snappers Coaching Staff

Mike Jacobs - Manager

Jacobs enters his fourth season as a Minor League manager following a seven-year career in the Major Leagues as a first baseman. He managed the Batavia Muckdogs, then the Marlins Class-A Short Season affiliate in 2017 and 2018, and the Clinton LumberKings in the Midwest League in 2019. Under his tutelage, the LumberKings reached the Midwest League finals in 2019. He was set to manage the Jupiter Hammerheads, then the Marlins High-A affiliate in 2020 prior to the cancelation of the season.

As a player, Jacobs made his Major League debut with the New York Mets during the 2005 season, becoming the first recorded player in Major League history to hit four home runs in his first four career games. Following the season, he was traded to the Florida Marlins as the centerpiece of a trade package for All-Star slugger Carlos Delgado. Over the next three seasons with the Marlins, Jacobs hit 69 home runs and drove in 224 runs, including hitting 32 home runs during the 2008 season. He finished his MLB career following stops with Kansas City and Arizona and an additional season with the Mets with 100 career home runs and a .253/.313/.473 slash line.

Bruce Walton - Pitching Coach

Bruce Walton pitched four seasons at the Major League level from 1991 to 1994, appearing with Oakland, Montreal, and Colorado. In total, Walton played 11 seasons as a professional, including 10 in the Major and Minor Leagues and one with the then-independent St. Paul Saints.

Walton began his coaching career in 2002 as the bullpen coach for the Toronto Blue Jays, a position he held through 2009 before becoming the team's pitching coach from 2010-2012. Walton served as the Triple-A Iowa Cubs pitching coach in 2014 and joined the Miami Marlins organization in 2018, serving as pitching coach for the Jupiter Hammerheads in 2018 and the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp in 2019.

Matt Snyder - Hitting Coach

Matt Snyder will begin his professional coaching career in 2021 as the hitting coach for the Snappers. A 10th round selection in 2012 MLB Draft by the New York Yankees, Snyder played professionally from 2012-2019, reaching Triple-A as a first baseman. Snyder played in the Yankees organization for six seasons and finished his playing career with the New Orleans Baby Cakes, then the Marlins Triple-A affiliate in 2019. A three-time All-Star in the Minor Leagues, Snyder hit .278 and reached base at an impressive .360 clip across 245 games in his playing career.

Chris Briones - Defensive Coach

Chris Briones will serve as the defensive coach for the Snappers in 2021 after working as a catching coordinator with the Texas Rangers organization from 2012-2018. Prior to his coaching career, Briones played professionally from 1995-2003 including four seasons in the Minor Leagues in the Rangers and Padres farm systems and five seasons in independent baseball.
