Sparky Lyle

SPARKY LYLE

MANAGER EMERITUS

Yankees World Series champion and Cy Young award winner Sparky Lyle was the first employee ever hired by the Somerset Patriots. Since that point, Sparky has become synonymous with the Patriots. His reach has stretched from being the team's mascot's namesake to a 15-year run as the most successful manager in the history of the Atlantic League. But his story starts well before his time in Somerset

Lyle was a three-sport athlete growing up in Reynoldsville, Pennsylvania, a borough 92 miles Northeast of Pittsburgh with a population less than 3,600 people at the time. Despite his success in football and basketball, it was when he began playing American Legion Baseball during his junior year of high school that people started to take notice.

In one state tournament game alone, the southpaw pitched in 14 of 17 innings and struck out 31 batters. He caught the eye of the Baltimore Orioles, who signed him as an amateur free agent in 1964. Two years later, he was selected by the Boston Red Sox in the first-year draft.

During his time in the minors, Lyle was introduced to one of the greatest hitters in the history of the game, Ted Williams, whose advice changed his life forever.

After hours that night perfecting the grip and movement, Lyle had added his signature pitch that became as much his trademark as his handle-bar mustache was later in life. He made his Major League Baseball debut on July 4, 1967 and remained with Boston until the 1971 season.

In what many believe to be one of the worst trades in baseball history, Lyle was sent to the Yankees for Danny Cater prior to the 1972 season. Lyle's impact was immediate as he set a then American League record for saves with 35 in year one.

Through the next few years in the Bronx, Lyle established himself as one of the best pitchers in the game, cemented by the 1977 Cy Young Award, the first won by a reliever in American League history. His 13-5 record, 2.17 ERA, 26 saves and 68 strikeouts over 137 innings pitched in 72 games helped chart the path to the Yankees first of back-to-back World Series titles.

The 1978 season would be Lyle's final one with the Yankees, but despite contributing to the team's on-field success, that year would forever be tied to his best-selling book, The Bronx Zoo, with author Peter Golenbock. The memoir documents the 1978 Yankees season and all the turmoil around the team. Released in 1979, the book spent 29 weeks on the New York Times Best Sellers list.

By the time Lyle concluded his 16-year major league career, the two-time champion and three-time All-Star had 99 wins and 238 saves.

Lyle continued his standout success once he transitioned into his role as manager of the Somerset Patriots. After a rough first year at the helm without playing any home games, Lyle’s squad rebounded with strong showings in the first two years of the Patriots shiny new home ballpark.

It wasn’t until 2001 that the Patriots not only won their first postseason game, but earned their first Atlantic League championship.

Fast forward 15 years later, Lyle established himself as the most successful manager in the history of the league. Over his tenure, Lyle led Somerset to a 1,025-912 record, 23 postseason wins, 12 half championships, eight division titles, five league championships and three manager of the year awards.

Lyle’s final season as manager was in 2012 before he transitioned into the role of manager emeritus; one he continues to hold with the team entering the 2023 season.

HALL OF FAME ACCOLADES

During Somerset's time as an independent league franchise (ALPB, 1998-2019), several former Major Leaguers suited up for the Patriots. On January 18, 2017, one of those players became a Baseball Hall of Famer.

Outfielder Tim Lincecum became the first (and currently only) former member of the Somerset Patriots to be inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame. He entered with 86 percent of the vote alongside Jeff Bagwell and Ivan Rodriguez. Lincecum, who had a 23-year Major League Baseball career, played for the Patriots during the 2000 season while attempting to make the United States Olympic Baseball Team. Somerset was Lincecum's first time playing baseball after being diagnosed with lupus in the summer of 1999.

Lincecum hit .346 (9-for-26) over seven games with the Patriots with two RBI, three doubles and five runs scored. Additionally, he played 17 innings in the longest game in team history on August 16, 2000 that went six hours and 14 minutes.

PATRIOTS IN THE MAJOR LEAGUES

Entering the 2023 season, 16 players have made their MLB debuts after passing through Somerset as members of the Patriots, since the team became the New York Yankees' Double-A affiliate. Prior to becoming affiliated (ALPB, 1998-2019), the Patriots had six players debut in MLB after passing through Somerset.

Severino started the first no-hitter in Somerset Patriots franchise history with four perfect innings on August 8, 2021, which was the second and final game of his rehab assignment with the Patriots that year. The no-hitter was finished with four perfect innings by Voorhees, NJ native Shawn Semple and then one hitless inning by Toms River, NJ native Ron Marinaccio.

In Severino's 2022 rehab appearance with the Patriots, he started the first game of Somerset's double header in Hartford on September 7. It was the second no-hitter in Somerset Patriots franchise history, and the first of seven innings. The game was started with five hitless innings by RHP Yoendrys Gomez and finished with two perfect innings by RHP Steven Jennings.

HERE WE GO, OSWALDO

In the Somerset Patriots' inaugural season as the Yankees' Double-A affiliate (2021), utility man Oswaldo Cabrera was named the Most Valuable Player of the Double-A Northeast League. The former international signing of the Yankees in 2015 led the league in H (112), RBIs (78), XBH (54) and TB (215). He was also among the leaders in HR (24, 3rd), 2B (29, T-3rd), SB (20, T-5th) and SLG (.492, 10th).

The following year, Cabrera began his season in Triple-A and excelled for the Yankees, prior to earning a promotion to the Bronx on August 17 and serving as key contributor in the Yankees' 2022 postseason run. Down the stretch, Cabrera played in 44 games for the Yankees, slashing .247/.312/.429 with 6 HR and 19 RBIs. On October 15, 2022, Cabrera became the first Yankees rookie to homer in a postseason game since Aaron Judge in 2017.

FIRST HE WAS SAUER, THEN HE WAS SWEET

Over the span of his first three Double-A starts, RHP Matt Sauer set the Somerset Patriots' single game records for most earned runs allowed in a game and most strikeouts in a game. On the same mound where he made his Double-A debut (8/13/22 vs. HFD) and gave up nine earned runs, two starts later at TD Bank Ballpark, Sauer struck out 17 batters (8/25/22 vs. NH). The 17 punchouts were the most by any MiLB pitcher since 2019 and broke the Somerset Patriots' franchise record that dated back to the organization's independent league era (Ray Davis, 8/24/00 vs. Newark).

As the Double-A affiliate of the New York Yankees, the Somerset Patriots are currently undergoing ballpark renovations that were set in motion to meet specifications put forth by Major League Baseball. TD Bank Ballpark is currently in “Phase 3” of these renovations, after “Phase 1” and “Phase 2” construction was completed between 2021 and 2022.

Included in these renovation plans were new buildings and expansions on player facilities, and upgrades to the playing surface and game presentation setup that have enhanced the in-house experience for fans.

TD Bank Ballpark is now outfitted with a brand-new multi-camera broadcast/in-game entertainment system to enhance the fan experience. This new broadcast system provides an upgraded visual experience that includes instant replay.

The old home clubhouse has been renovated to allow for better flow for players and coaches. The old gym inside the clubhouse has been relocated to a brand new 3,100 square foot fitness facility located where the maintenance yard previously rested. A dedicated dining and kitchenette area nearby the clubhouse was also installed per MLB specifications, along with renovated coaching and players spaces.

The 3,100 square foot gym is in a new building constructed to include approximately 1,000 square feet of storage and maintenance space for field equipment and materials. This is one of two new buildings that have been constructed on site. The other is an approximately 4,300 square foot multipurpose indoor space that features two new, retractable batting tunnels allowing for year-round training. It stands parallel to the first base gate, extending slightly into the red lot.

Inside the ballpark, the location of the current batting cage has been transformed into new rooms for various use. This includes: a new, dedicated female staff locker room, New York Yankees video room, umpire’s locker room, a roving instructors locker room, a new grounds crew office and additional storage space.

Other cosmetic changes that were completed prior to the 2021 season included a renovated home bullpen that was moved off the playing surface and into a portion of the existing lawn seating area with cover for the players, new safety padding all around the interior walls and outfield walls of the ballpark and brand-new ballpark lighting as a first step to make TD Bank Ballpark both more energy efficient and upgrade the playing surface for the team. The home and visiting dugouts were also refinished with new benches, racks, and flooring. Prior to the 2023 season, a brand new, 1,620-square-foot scoreboard has been installed to enhance the gameday experience for fans in Somerset, marking the first scoreboard upgrade since 2008.

Phase 3 of ballpark renovations will continue in the fall of 2023, targeting a late 2024 completion timetable. Phase 3 of renovations will include a relocation and upgrade of the team’s executive offices.
