TRENDS & NOTES

- Last Season the Ports went 9-19 against the Grizzlies in 2024, but went 6-5 against Fresno to finish the season series.
- Stockton 2025 opening day roster features 11 draft picks -- including 6 pitchers -- from last summer's draft and three undrafted free agents.
- Myles Naylor is the highest-rated prospect on the Ports roster, coming in at #28 in Baseball America's top 30. Though the youngest of the Naylor brothers hit just .192 in 2024, he led the team in home runs with 11 and RBIs with 58. He registered a .321 OBP and slashed 286/.370/.486 in the month of July, and slugged his first career grand slam on Aug. 30. He won't turn 20 until April 15, so there is still time for more consistent production.
- The Ports are celebrating their 20th season in Banner Island Ballpark. It opened on April 28, 2005, when the Ports defeated the San Jose Giants, 7-4, in a sold-out crowd of 5,287 fans.

STOCKTON STARTING PITCHER: Nathan Dettmer returns to the mound on opening day for the Ports, after being limited to just 9.2 innings last season when bone spurs in his right elbow cut short his 2024 campaign. In his college career, Dettmer appeared in 48 games with Texas A&M, with 43 starts, posting a 10-8 record with 182 strikeouts, and a 5.13 ERA in 200 innings pitched.

The San Antonio native -- and former 5th round pick -- also pitched for the Savannah Bananas of the Coastal Plain League, just as they were beginning their transition into the Harlem Globetrotters of baseball, working in eight games, including six starts. He posted a 6-0 record for the Bananas with a 1.63 ERA, 1.084 WHIP and 24 strikeouts in 27.2 innings.

FRESNO STARTING PITCHER: The Grizzlies will also feature a starting pitcher returning from an elbow injury, as Jackson Cox missed all of last season due to Tommy John surgery, after injuring the elbow on July 9, 2023. The former 2nd-round pick is ranked as high the #26 prospect in the Rockies organization by MLB pipeline and #25 by Baseball America.

He was limited to 31 innings over 10 games and nine starts before the injury, posting a 7.26 ERA with 20 BBs and 32 Ks.

5 O'CLOCK DOCK

For every Friday home game, the Ports dress in their alternate Navy Blue hats and jerseys. Introduced in November of 2012, the alternate look is known as "5 O'Clock Dock", a concept representative of the people of the City of Stockton.

The animated tattooed stevedore character, named 5 O'Clock Dock, serves as the centerpiece of the likeness and is emblazoned on the uniform set's caps. It represents the 9-to-5, blue-collar workers that make up a large and integral part of the Stockton community. A staple crop in the area, the asparagus spear is another tribute to the region; Stockton plays host to the annual San Joaquin Asparagus Festival and the Ports simultaneously host Asparagus Night at Banner Island Ballpark. The lettering featured on the jersey front is another nautical tribute, with ship riveting coloring the letters in "Stockton" against a navy-blue background.

"This is truly an exciting way for the Ports to re-affirm our commitment to Stockton," Team President Pat Filippone said. "We feel this new logo embodies the rich history and can-do attitude of our city."

From Baseball America: He attacks hitters with a three-quarter slot from the first base side of the rubber and has a three-pitch mix. His fastball averaged 93 mph and touched 96. Was a lower-spin heater with sinking and running action that creates more groundball contact than whiffs up in the zone. He's always generated a groundball rate higher than 50% with Texas A&M, and that was again the case in 2023. His breaking ball previously blended in shape and varied from an upper-70s curve to a low-80s slurvy slider, but he added more power to the breaking ball and it now has mid-80s velocity with three-quarter shape and generated a 36% whiff rate. He has a low-to-mid-80s changeup as well that's more frequently used against lefties.

CAMERON LEARY • OF

2024 Draft, 10th Round | Boston College

- » CAREER AT BOSTON COLLEGE: In 181 games with the Eagles, Leary hit .247/.403/.510 with 43 home runs, 41 stolen bases
- » AS A SENIOR (2024): Played in 53 games and scored 55 runs with a triple-slash line of .272/.441/.560.
 - » Hit 15 home runs and drove in a career-high 48 runs
- » AS A JUNIOR (2023): Appeared in 46 games, making 43 starts... hit .258 with 10 home runs, seven doubles, and 26 RBI...went 12-for-13 in stolen base attempts, with the second-most stolen bases on the team... second-best OPS on the team with a .925... in upset win over No. 2 Tennessee, Leary threw out the potential game-winning run at the plate in the bottom of the ninth, and hit the go-ahead home run in the top of the 10th to secure the extra-innings upset and extend nine-game win streak.
- » AS A SOPHOMORE (2022): Started all 53 games in right field... slugged .545 with 16 home runs and 11 doubles... hit .237 with a .399 OBP; earning 45 walks... drove in 42 runs and scored 51 runs...
- » AS A FRESHMAN (2021):Started 24 of 29 games played in the outfield... batted .193 for the Eagles, while scoring 16 runs with 13 RBI and two home runs, slugging .325, and posting a .278 OBP... doubled and went 2-for-5 with two RBI in first start at Auburn (3/7)... scored two runs on two hits against Maine (3/9), hitting two homers and driving in three RBIs... went 2-5 driving in four RBIs against Holy Cross (3/17)... registered a 2-for-4 game against UNC (3/21).
- »
- » 2024 With Stockton: Played 20 games with the Ports after being drafted, and hit 3 home runs with 5 doubles and 4 steals
- » Hit his first pro home run in Fresno on 8/25 as part of a 3-hit game to go along with 2 doubles
- » Also had a 3-hit game on 9/6/24 in Modesto

» FROM BASEBALL AMERICA:

- » Leary spent four seasons at Boston College, hitting .272/.441/.560 with 15 home runs, 53 walks and 60 strikeouts in 53 games as a senior in 2024. He's a three true outcomes player with a patient approach, plus or better raw power and a high amount of swing-and-miss.
- » Leary doesn't expand the strike zone often, so he will take his walks, and if pitchers make a mistake, he can drive it out to any part of the field. The key for Leary will be learning to make more contact. He sets up with an open stance and often bails out with his swing, leaving him with holes and a lot of whiffs at pitches in the strike zone. Leary has some experience in center field, but he projects as a corner outfielder in pro ball.

BLAKE HAMMOND • RHP

R/R • 6-3, 200 • Lafayette, CO

2024 Draft, 15th Round | Santa Clara

A multi-time all-conference and all-academic honoree at Santa Clara University ... Was named first team all-West Coast Conference in 2024, the Broncos' first such honor in seven years ... Also earned all-WCC second team honors in 2023 ... Was a two-time WCC All-Academic honorable mention and picked up two career WCC Pitcher of the Week awards (one in 2023, another in '24) ... Pitched mainly as a reliever during his career in 56 games with eight starts on the mound ... Had 180 career strikeouts in 149 2/3 career innings pitched (10.82 career K/9 rate) ... Went 9-7 with four saves and a 4.45 career ERA

From Baseball America: Hammond has been a solid option out of the bullpen for Santa Clara for three seasons and this past spring started a handful of games. He posted a 3.76 ERA over 69.1 innings with a 27.8% strikeout rate and career-best 9.4% walk rate. He only averages 90 mph with a fastball that will touch 93 mph, but scouts like his low-80s power curveball that has solid bite and finish at the bottom of the zone. It's an above-average breaking ball that generated a 54% miss rate this spring. Hammond will also mix in a slider with less depth that's a few ticks harder than the curveball and a mid-80s change-up.

From Baseball America: Was a standout performer in his second season with Winthrop after starting his career at the junior college level. He was among the national leaders in strikeouts for most of the season, and racked up 91 strikeouts in his first 10 starts and 54.2 innings with a solid 8.9% walk rate to go with it. From Baseball America: He attacks hitters with a three-quarter slot from the first base side of the rubber and has a three-pitch mix. His fastball averaged 93 mph and touched 96. Was a lower-spin heater with sinking and running action that creates more groundball contact than whiffs up in the zone. He's always generated a groundball rate higher than 50% with Texas A&M, and that was again the case in 2023. His breaking ball previously blended in shape and varied from an upper-70s curve to a low-80s slurvy slider, but he added more power to the breaking ball and it now has mid-80s velocity with three-quarter shape and generated a 36% whiff rate. He has a low-to-mid-80s changeup as well that's more frequently used against lefties.

- » Lin is a graduate of Ping-Zhen High School.
- » He recently represented Taiwan in the WBSC U-23 tournament, throwing 13 innings without allowing an earned run, and striking out 14 while walking one, with his fastball topping out around 92 mph.

- » Lin has been a well-known prospect in Taiwan for several years now,
- » starting when he was an 11-year-old and pitched in both the semi-final
- » and final games on the same day for his Little League team, winning both and throwing more than 200 pitches in the process. The A's have been scouting Lin heavily since he started at Ping-Zhen High School.
- » Lin is the third pitcher out of Taiwan the A's have signed in the past three years. In November 2021, the A's signed right-hander Chen Zhong-Ao Zhuang and last February they inked right-hander Tzu-Chen Sha.
- » From A's international scouting director Steven Sharpe: "He's a 6-foot-3, broad-shouldered athlete with command of his fastball, an advanced ability to land the slider and a plus changeup. He's a well-rounded talent, with elite mental skills. He can be as good as his health and good fortune will allow."
- » Lin was signed by Adam Hilsop to a $1.35 million signing bonus
