NEWS AND NOTES

TATE TIME: LHP Tate Kuehner is scheduled to start on the mound for Nashville after the WooSox and Sounds wrap up their suspended game from Thursday. The southpaw tossed his first career Triple-A quality start his last time out. He matched his single-game career-high with his six innings against Gwinnett last week and has now tossed a quality start all six times he has gotten through at least six innings on the mound.

PAN-NONE OF YOUR BUSINESS: Thomas Pannone made his season debut on Thursday night with three scoreless innings with three hits allowed. He ranked fourth in the International League with his 136 strikeouts during the 2024 season when he last pitched and made his return to the mound with a strikeout to start his outing on Thursday - his lone punchout of his three-inning return.

LUIS THE SIXTH: Infielder Luis Lara extended his hit streak to six consecutive games and has tied teammate Tyler Black for the longest hit-streak on the team. Lara went 3-for-5 with a pair of doubles and two RBI in Wednesday night's win against the WooSox and has posted back-to-back 3-hit games in the first two games of the homestand. Lara was the first Sound to record two doubles in a game this season and posted a single-season career-high 32 doubles for Double-A Biloxi last season, including six multi-double games. The Brewers no. 12 prospect currently ranks second in batting average (.414), tied for third in hits (24), and tied for third in on-base percentage (.500) at the Triple-A level.

MULTI-HIT PRATT-NUM: Shortstop Cooper Pratt tacked on his first career Triple-A multi-RBI game and the second multi-hit game of the season on Wednesday night. Pratt went 2-for-4, with a double and the two RBI. The Brewers no. 4 prospect posted 12 multi-RBI games with Double-A Biloxi, including a career-high four RBI against Double-A Columbus on August 12, 2025. He notched 25 multi-hit games during the 2025 season with Double-A Biloxi including six three-hit games to tie his career-high.

FITZ-MAGIC: Left-hander Brian Fitzpatrick continues to dominate on the mound and is currently tied with Garrett Stallings and Robert Gasser for the team lead in consecutive innings without allowing an earned run at 7.2 IP. He and Will Childers are the current team leaders having not allowed an earned run in any of their first seven appearances out of Nashville's bullpen. Last season, Fitzpatrick appeared in 13 games for the Sounds and posted a 6.87 ERA, allowing 14 runs on 14 hits in 18.1 innings pitched. Six of the earned runs came in his Triple-A debut (0.2 IP) and the left-hander has allowed just eight runs over his last 19 appearances with Nashville since August 12, 2025.

EXTRA, EXTRA: The Sounds combined for five extra-base hits in Wednesday's win over Worcester. The trio of top prospects on Nashville's roster in Luis Lara (2 2B), Cooper Pratt (2B), and Jett Williams (3B) combined for four of the five while Eddys Leonard, who leads the team with eight XBH chipped in with a double. The Sounds offense had 24 games of at least five XBH during the 2025 season, including a season-high 10 on April 20, 2025, on the road in Charlotte.

WALK IT OUT: The Sounds pitching staff allowed a season-high 11 walks to get on base in Wednesday night's win, including three each from starter Logan Henderson and Drew Rom. The last time Nashville's pitching staff allowed 11+ walks in a single game was back on April 28, 2019, against the Iowa Cubs when they issued a franchise-high 15 walks.
