LAST GAME

The Bowie Baysox had their four-game winning streak snapped on Saturday night, falling in an 8-6 thriller with the Akron RubberDucks. The night had its action split between two halves, as 13 of the 14 total runs were scored after the fourth inning. Bringing back their power, the Baysox hit three more home runs in the game, including Gunnar Henderson's second home run in as many nights. The momentum carried by Bowie from their four-game winning streak was immediately halted by Akron's Daniel Espino. The top pitching prospect in the Guardians organization struck out a near-incomprehensible 11 batters to start the game, routinely hitting triple digits on the Prince George's Stadium radar gun, and ending nine of the at-bats with a swinging strike. While Bowie would make intermittent pushes, Akron's four-run sixth inning against Bowie starter Antonio Velez kept the Baysox from extending their fifth-consecutive win.

TODAY'S OPPONENT

Akron has relied heavily on their pitching staff to bounce back from their own 2-3 start to open this series with a 5-4 record. Ending their homestand with a doubleheader against Reading, Akron allowed only one run in the 14 innings to sweep the twin bill. Entering this series, Akron's 3.17 ERA as a staff is the third-best in the Eastern League, and their 109 strikeouts lead the league. Offensively, Akron sits in the bottom half of the league in multiple categories, including only three home runs and 86 total bases, fewer than ten per game.

TODAY'S OPPOSING STARTER

Tanner Burns enters the season as the Guardians' 11th ranked prospect. A 2020 supplemental first-round pick, he followed Tigers pitcher Casey Mize as Auburn's Friday starter in his final two seasons in college. With High-A Lake County last season, he pitched to a 3.57 ERA in 18 starts, hitting the strike zone on 64% of his pitches. To open the season with Double-A Akron, Burns has given up only two runs in 8 1/3 innings of baseball. Last time out against Reading, Burns gave up two hits and no earned runs. This will be his first appearance against an Oriole affiliate.

TOP GUNNAR

Infielder Gunnar Henderson ripped another solo home run to right field on Saturday, his second homer in as many games after hunting for his first homer for 11 games. With his first home run clocking in at a 112 MPH exit velocity, Henderson popped a 108 MPH shot for his second round. Henderson is ranked as the Orioles #3 prospect and Minor League Baseball's #64 overall prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline. Listed as #4 for the Orioles and #57 in MiLB by Baseball America. He was named the Orioles Organization All-Star at third base by MiLB.com for his 2021 season.

DYLAN DOES IT ALL

Utility outfielder Dylan Harris has made an immediate impact with the Baysox after just four games in his Double-A career. Brought up from the complex on April 16 to replace the injured Toby Welk, Harris has already gone 9-for-16 at the plate with two home runs and four RBI. Harris has been critical in both of Bowie's walk-off wins this season, scoring the winning run on April 21 against Akron, avoiding a tag at home in the tenth inning, and collecting the game-winning hit on April 22 against Akron, allowing Zach Watson to score from first base on the hit and an error.

YOUNG GUNS

The Baysox have the fourth-youngest roster in the Eastern League, with the combination of their full roster averaging 23.9 years old. Their youth does not hurt them, as Bowie has a better record than the two teams younger than them, Altoona and New Hampshire. The oldest team in the Eastern League, Harrisburg, also owns the League's best record. Harrisburg's roster, on average, is 25.4 years old.

TIP OF THE CAP

Akron starter Daniel Espino struck out an unmatchable 11 batters to start his night on Saturday. For comparison, the Major League Baseball record for most consecutive strikeouts at any point in a game is 10, first accomplished by Tom Seaver in 1970, and later matched by Aaron Nola last season. Espino came one strikeout shy of tying the Baysox record for most strikeouts by an opposing starter. The Baysox record has happened twice, most recently by Adam Warren of Trenton in 2010.

QUICK HITS

TODAY'S STARTING PITCHER- Zach Peek had the second highest K/9 in the Orioles system with at least 90 IP, trailing Grayson Rodriguez. See Page 2 for more.
GROUND BALL HALL - Among qualified hitters in the Eastern League, Adam Hall has the highest rate of GB/FB, hitting over 6x as many ground balls.
WHAT'S OLD IS NEW AGAIN - After a one-year pause, Minor League Baseball has reinstated the well-known league names across the country, putting Bowie back in the Eastern League
NEW RULES FOR ALL - In 2022, Double-A features larger bases (15 in. > 18 in.), new limits on pick off attempts (Two step-offs per PA), and a faster pitch clock

Career Notes

- Initially drafted by the Angels in the sixth round of the 2019 draft out of Winthrop, but did not appear in a game for the organization before being dealt to Baltimore
- Full Trade: (Dec. 4, 2019) Orioles receive: RHP Isaac Mattson, RHP Kyle Bradish, RHP Kyle Brnovich and RHP Zach Peek. Angels receive: RHP Dylan Bundy
- Friday starter at Winthrop for his junior campaign, leading both Winthrop and the Big South Conference with 91 strikeouts. Also logged eight quality starts.
- Earned a four-inning save in his High-A debut in 2021, despite allowing four runs. Had an 8-1 lead, to still win 8-5. Also struck out seven batters in his four innings.

What They're Saying:

Peek, on offseason improvements: "Before last spring training my offseason goal was to move better with the lower half...move better with the hips. This offseason my goal was to be more rotational into arm path. Last year my arm was climbing a little bit with the elbow so I'd get to a point so then my elbow would come up and then down, so we just worked on smoothing that out to have more of a rotational movement." (Baltimore Sports and Life)

Notes by Outing^

- 4/12 at BNG All three runs allowed in just first two innings. After striking out the first batter of the day, allowed a single and two doubles for tow runs, and later a solo home run to Antoine Duplantis in the second inning. After allowing three baserunners in the third inning, retired the final seven batters faced. Was the first Bowie pitcher of the season to complete five innings.
- 4/19 v AKR Allowed a string of three consecutive batters to reach with one out in the first inning, but only one run would score as he would get out of the inning. Would take long breaks on the bench, as Bowie scored eight runs in the first inning, and then four runs in the second inning.

Second pitch thrown in his Double-A career was served to left field for a solo home run by Binghamton's Ronny Mauricio. Loeprich would go on to allow a career-high three home runs to the Rumble Ponies in a 9-4 Bowie loss on 4/12. // In 2021, made 11 appearances for High-A Aberdeen, and three for Rookie-Level Orioles Black. // Made six appearances (four starts) with the Mesa Solar Sox in the Arizona Fall League in 2021. 2-1 / 8.38 ERA / 15 K / 18 BB / 19.1 IP // Traded to Baltimore on September 20, 2020 from Pittsburgh in exchange for cash and International bonus pool capacity. // Initially drafted in the 20th round of the 2018 draft by Pittsburgh out of Saint Mary's College of California // Torn meniscus in his left knee kept him from making his start in 2021 until late June // Only a part-time starter at Saint Mary's, made 11 starts in 38 career appearances // After initially being drafted as a reliever for the Pirates, began the transition into more starting roles in May 2019. Made 33 appearances out of the bullpen before making his first career start // Return to High-A after recovering from his torn meniscus was tough, allowed 17 earned runs over eight innings, including five home runs. Allowed only 18 earned runs over his following 38 innings to complete the season.

Took a blown save, but earned the Baysox first win of the season in their third game, thanks in part to a six-run seventh inning for Bowie. // In 2021, appeared in eight games for Bowie, and 22 games for Aberdeen. // His 30 appearances in 2021 were the seventh-most in the Orioles organization. // Prime numbers came after his promotion to Bowie, as he only allowed runs in one of his eight outings, and collected 12 strikeouts against no walks over his last six appearances. // Spent his freshman year at Wake Forest in the bullpen, but transitioned to a starting role for his sophomore and junior seasons before being drafted.

Player Notes

144 strikeouts in 2021 were the second-most in the Orioles system, behind only Kyle Stowers (171). // Played 30 games with Bowie, and 75 with Aberdeen. // Only hit .185 with a .612 OPS in the month of May to start the season with Aberdeen, but built back to a .256 average and an .814 OPS over the remaining four months of the season. // Was drafted by Tampa Bay in the 40th round of the 2016 draft, but elected not to sign. // Comes from a smart and athletic family. Andrew himself is a legacy graduate of Stanford, his sister was a four-year stater for Princeton Volleyball, and both parents played tennis.

Player Notes

Was critical in both of Bowie's walk-off wins against Akron in April, scoring the winning run on April 21 against Akron, avoiding a tag at home in the tenth inning, and collecting the game-winning hit on April 22 against Akron, allowing Zach Watson to score from first base on the hit and an error. // Made his Double-A debut against Akron on 4/19, and went 3-for-4 at the plate, including an RBI double in his first plate appearance, and a solo home run in his last PA in the eighth inning. Scored a career-high four runs and tied a career-high with three hits. Bowie won 20-6. // Added to the Bowie Roster from the FCL Orioles on April 16 to replace Toby Welk, who had collided with the left field wall while making the final out of Bowie's win over Binghamton the previous day. // In 2021, appeared in 49 game for Aberdeen, and 29 games for Delmarva. // Hit exactly .224 at both stops in 2021. // Played at least 15 games at all three outfield positions in 2021. // Was the starting center fielder for the Tar Heels in his two seasons at UNC.

Player Notes

Missed three games after being hit by a pitch early in Bowie's 4-3 win at Binghamton on 4/13. Returned on 4/19 to go 3-for-5 at the plate against Akron with a career-high six RBI and a grand slam, his fourth home run, and the first grand slam of the season for the Baysox. // After the first weekend of the season, Haskin led all of Minor League Baseball with a slugging percentage of 1.583, thanks to a career-high three doubles on Opening Day, and a historic three home run day on the third day of the season. // Haskin's three home runs were just the sixth time in franchise history that a Baysox player collected three home runs in a game, and the first since Tucker Nathans on 5/13/17. // Haskin joked that the meal he had with infielder Gunnar Henderson at Olive Garden the night before was the lone difference in his usual routine, mentioning they shared a cheesecake. // Ranked as the Orioles #16 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #22 according to Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star in the outfield by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // Did not get to see the full season due to a thumb fracture in late August. // Played 26 games at Aberdeen, 57 at Delmarva. // Despite only playing 83 games, his 22 steals were good for fifth-most in the organization while his .381 OBP was fourth-best among qualified hitters. // Split his power over the two halves of his season. He hit all five of his home runs in his first 41 games of the season, and none in the remaining 42 games, including his entire stint with Aberdeen. // Previously drafted by Oakland in the 2018 draft out of high school, but elected not to sign. // Graduated from Avon Old Farms School, a notable all-male boarding school in Connecticut with many notable alumni, including 2017 World Series MVP George Springer, World Series-winning pitching coach Juan Nieves, and Hockey Hall of Famer and Stanley Cup Champion Brian Leetch. // Broke Springer's school record for stolen bases at Avon Old Farms. // Swing draws comparisons to Hunter Pence, but eliminated a leg kick from his swing that was used throughout his time at Tulane.

Player Notes

Ranked as the Orioles #3 prospect and Minor League Baseball's #64 overall prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline. Listed as #4 for the Orioles and #57 in MiLB by Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star at third base by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // 105 games in 2021 was tied for tenth-most in the Orioles system, 28 doubles was good for the second-most behind Robert Neustrom's 31, 17 home runs was sixth-most, and 74 RBI was fifth-most. // Appeared in all three games of the Double-A Northeast Championship Series against Akron, going 3-for-10 overall with a solo home run in game two. // Originally committed to Auburn, but signed for an above-slot $2.3M to join Baltimore. // In 2021, played 62 games at shortstop, and 35 games at third base. // Was named the Low-A East Offensive Player of the month in May 2021, when he hit .313 in 20 games with six home runs. // Started only 1-for-31 at High-A Aberdeen, but followed with a .325 mark over his next 20 games. // Orioles Director of Player Development Matt Boyd: "It was a great experience for him to have to navigate those struggles and once he came out of them, he took off. He's got well-above-average power. He's just really young and just learning how to play."

Player Notes

Tough Luck: Was the only player not to reach base for Bowie in their 20-6 win over Akron on 4/19, going 0-for-6 at the plate, tying a career-high three strikeouts, including a strikeout looking by Jonathan Englemann, Akron's outfielder. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star at first base by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // Was promoted to Bowie, but missed the final month of 2021 due to a fractured thumb in mid-August, and did not appear in a game for the Baysox. // .536 SLG in 2021 was the best in the Orioles system among players with at least 300 PA. // Played 52 games in Aberdeen, 20 in Delmarva. Earned his promotion after hitting .324 with four home runs in the 20 games. // Spent first two seasons in college at Virginia Tech, but transferred to Radford for his final two seasons after a coaching change.

Player Notes

Ranked as the Orioles #15 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #16 according to Baseball America. // Only played 35 games in 2021 due to a torn labrum in his left shoulder in late June that required surgery. // Played 16 games with Bowie, 19 with Aberdeen. // Focused on building muscle during the lost 2020 season. Baysox Manager Kyle Moore in 2021: "He's way more just mature and physical....this guy here has a chance to be an everyday shortstop in big leagues." // Orioles Manager David Hyde: "He's a really good defender. I've watched him here for up until major league camp the last few weeks. Love the way he plays defense, got great feet, great arm. It's accurate. Super active defensively. He's got really good instincts."

Player Notes

Ranked as the Orioles #33 prospect entering the 2022 season according to Baseball America. Also listed as the best defensive outfielder in the organization. // 21 home runs in 2021 ranked fourth in the Orioles system, behind only Kyle Stowers, Adley Rutschman, and Patrick Dorrian. Despite the high home run number, his .768 OPS was only good for 39th in the organization. // When combined with his 24 stolen bases, Watson was the only player in the system with a 20-20 season in 2021, and the first since DJ Stewart in 2017. // First selected by Boston in the 40th round of the 2018 draft, but elected not to sign. // Played 49 games in Bowie, 56 in Aberdeen. In 2019, played 16 games in Delmarva, 20 in Aberdeen.

Player Notes

Collected two doubles in the first inning of Bowie's 20-6 win over Akron on 4/19, also drew a career-high three walks during the 6 PA day. // Hit the Baysox first home run of the season in the second game of the year, a game-tying solo home run in the eighth inning against Richmond. Richmond scored seven runs in the following half inning. // Followed with a home run on the third day of the season, the third time in his career that he'd homered on consecutive days. He had homered on three consecutive days with High-A Aberdeen, and homered on consecutive days with Bowie against Somerset on 9/2 and 9/3/21. // Ranked as the Orioles #6 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline and Baseball America. Also listed as the best athlete and the best defensive infielder in the organization by Baseball America. // Played at least 20 games at Low-A, High-A, and Double-A in 2021, primarily with High-A Aberdeen, where he hit .286 with eight home runs in 62 games. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star at shortstop by MLB.com for his 2021 season. // Finished second in the system with a .380 OBP and 74 runs scored, while his 79 RBIs, 121 hits, 27 doubles and five triples ranked third and his .479 slugging percentage and .868 OPS ranked fourth. // Highest drafted shortstop in the history of Mississippi State, and the 17th player to be drafted in the first round. // Along with Justin Foscue (14th overall pick, Texas), became the second set of teammates chosen in the first round in program history, joining Will Clark and Rafael Palmeiro from the 1985 MLB Draft.

Coaching Staff

Manager: Kyle Moore

The 2022 season will be the 13th season for Moore in the Orioles organization. He played 29 games over two seasons (2010-11) before becoming a coach. He spent three seasons as a player/coach (2013 Frederick Keys, 2014 Bowie Baysox, 2015 Delmarva Shorebirds) before being named as the Shorebirds hitting coach in 2016 and the Keys hitting coach in 2017. Moore signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Orioles in 2010 after playing collegiately at the University of Alabama. As a high schooler, he starred at Edgewood Academy (AL), where he won three AISA state baseball championships. Kyle, his wife Whitney and their daughter Madilyn reside in Sarasota, FL.

Hitting Coach: Branden Becker

Becker was drafted by the Orioles in the 17th round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in 2015 and played parts of four seasons in the organization before retiring in May, 2019. He rejoined the Orioles as the Fundamentals Coach for the IronBirds for the 2020 season before it was canceled. He served as the Hitting Coach for the Complex League Orioles in 2021.

Pitching Coach: Josh Conway

Conway was selected in the fourth round of the 2012 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago Cubs out of Coastal Carolina. He played three seasons with the Cubs organization, making it to Double-A in 2016. The Smithburg, Md native returned to the Chanticleers to complete his undergraduate degree and served as a student assistant and assistant pitching coach before joining the Orioles.
