NEWS AND NOTES

DEEP WATER FISHING: The Sounds own a 67-46 all-time record against Gwinnett incluidng a 40-15 record at First Horizon Park. Nashville has been great at home this season with a 19-5 record. The Sounds 19 wins at home this season are tied for the third-most in the Minor Leagues. Bowling Green (21) and Eugene (20) are the only teams have more home wins at home.

EIGHT IT GREAT: Luis Matos extended his hitting streak to eight straight games with a two-RBI single in the bottom of the first. It's tied for the third-longest hitting streak for a Nashville player this season along with Cooper Pratt (4/24-5/1). The eight-game streak is tied for the eighth-longest active streak in the International League. Matos has reached base in all 10 games he has played with Nashville this season and is hitting .353 (12-for-34) with a home run, double, and five RBI. Tuesday night was his second multi-RBI game of the year and first since also driving home a pair of May 7 on the road in Louisville. It's his longest hitting streak since posting a 10-game streak from August 15-26 of last year between Triple-A Sacramento and San Franciso. He also had an eight-game streak earlier in the 2025 season from June 1-13.

SWEET 16: Cooper Pratt extended his on-base streak to 16 straight games after drawing a walk in the bottom of the first inning. He also recorded his 12th multi-hit game of the season, finishing the night 2-for-4 with a RBI, and two runs scored. Seven of his 2+ hit performances have come over his last 13 games since May 9, where he is hitting .308 (16-for-52) with four home runs, three doubles, and has 16 RBI. The 16-game on-base streak is tied for the ninth-longest in the International League and tied for the fourth-longest overall on-base streak by a Nashville player this season behind Brock Wilken (30 G), Eddys Leonard (18 G), and Greg Jones (17 G). Jett Williams reached base safely in 16 straight games from April 3-22.

TOMB RAIDER: Luis Lara recorded his 18th multi-hit game of the season, finishing the night 3-for-4. The Brewers no. 5-rated prospect now has 10 3+ hit performances in 50 games this year. He is responsible for 45% of all Nashville's 3+ hit games this season and has the most 3+ hit games of any player in Triple-A, breaking a tie with Louisville's Edwin Arroyo and Rochester's Yohandy Morales. Lara is back to second in the International League in hits (63) and ranks third in the IL in OBP (.450), 6th in AVG (.342), and 10th in OPS (.950). He also ranks in the top 10 in runs (1st, 46), walks (T-4th, 35), and total bases (6th, 92).

CHECK THE FITZ: Southpaw Brian Fitzpatrick pitched his 13th straight game with Nashville without allowing an earned run after working 1.1 IP on Tuesday night. Since beginning his streak on March 28, Fitzpatrick has allowed 10 hits with 16 strikeouts and three walks over 13.2 IP with two unearned runs. The 13-game streak is the most for a Nashville pitcher since Jesus Liranzo went 14 straight games from July 6-August 22 of last year. It's streak is the second-longest active streak in Triple-A behind Columbus' Franco Aleman (15 G) and tied for the fourth-longest active streak in the minors. Prior to his current streak, Fitzpatrick had never gone more than five straight games without an earned run in his minor league career when he did so with Double-A Biloxi last year from June 18-July 4. Including his four games with Milwaukee in the regular season and seven games during spring training, Fitzpatrick has allowed just one earned run over 26.0 IP (0.35 ERA) with 27 strikeouts, seven walks, and 20 hits allowed this calendar year.

YO-NO: Brewers no. 27-rated prospect Craig Yoho worked his 10th consecutive game without allowing an earned run after tossing a three-up, three-down top of the ninth to earn his second save of the year. Yoho now has posted three different streaks of 10+ games without an earned run during his time as a Nashville Sound. He was the only International League pitcher to have multiple streaks of at least 12 games without an earned run last season en route to being named an International League All-Star in 2025. Between the end of the 2024 season through the start of 2025 season, the right-hander went 20 straight games without allowing an earned run. Across 70 career Triple-A games, Yoho owns a 1.05 ERA and 7-2 record over 77.0 IP with 95 strikeouts to 35 walks.
