NEWS AND NOTES

HERE FISHY FISHY: The Sounds open a six-game series against the Gwinnett Stripers (Triple-A, Atlanta Braves) on Tuesday night from First Horizon Park. Nashville dropped the first series against Gwinnett earlier this year from April 7-12 at Gwinnett Field. The Sounds own a 67-45 all-time record against Gwinnett incluidng a 39-15 record at First Horizon Park. Nashville has been great at home this season with a 18-5 record. The 18 wins are tied for the most by any Triple-A team and tied for the fourth-most in the minors this season. The Stripers have been great on the road as well with a 15-9 record away from home entering the series.

STALL BALL: Right-hander Garrett Stallings will make his 11th appearance (7th GS) as he takes the ball Tuesday night against Gwinnett. It'll be his 12th career game against Gwinnett and enters with a 1-1 record and 2.76 ERA (9 ER/29.1 IP)

STILL STREAKIN: Luis Matos extended his current hitting streak to seven straight games after finishing Sunday 1-for-4 against Durham. His seven-game srteak is tied with Luis Lara for the fourth-longest hitting streak by a Nashville player this season. Only Tyler Black (11 G), Eddys Leonard (9 G), and Cooper Pratt (8 G) have posted longer streaks this season for Nashville. His seven-game streak is tied for the ninth-longest streak going in the International League. Since starting his streak on May 7, Matos is hitting .375 (9-for-24) with a home run, double, three RBI, and has three walks with a .986 OPS. He has reached base in all nine games played with Nashville. He set a career-high with a 16-game hitting streak with Low-A San Jose during the 2021 season.

DIDN'T COUNT: Despite allowing an unearned run in the bottom of the eighth inning Sunday night against the Bulls, Craig Yoho extended his streak without an earned run allowed to nine consecutive games (10.2 IP). Since April 29, the Brewers no. 27-rated prospect has allowed five hits and two unearned runs with 13 strikeouts and four walks issued and holding opposing batters to a .139 BAA. In 12 appearances overall with the Sounds this season, Yoho has posted a 1.29 ERA in 14.0 innings pitched, allowing four runs (two unearned) on eight hits and adding 17 strikeouts. Yoho has a 10-3 career minor league record with a 1.18 ERA in 122.0 innings of work. Since making his pro-debut in 2023, Yoho owns the best ERA in the minor leagues for any pitcher with 100+ appearances with the next closest being Zach Agnos, who posted a 1.77 ERA in 102 MiLB games over the same span.

BULL-IED: The Sounds were shutout for the second time in last week's series against Durham with a 2-0 loss in Sunday's finale against the Bulls. It was the third time Nashville has been shutout this season and the fifth time since 2021 against the Bulls. It's the second time Nashville has been shut out twice in the same season by Durham, with the last coming in 2022 when they were blanked on June 4 in Durham and again in the International League Championship Game in Las Vegas. Sinday was the 157th shutout loss that the Sounds endured since 2005.

YOU LIKE PRATT: Cooper Pratt tallied his 11th multi-hit games of the season and sixth in 18 games played in the month of May after going 2-for-5 on Saturday night. Pratt's 11 multi-hit games are the fourth-most on Nashvile's roster this season behind Luis Lara (17), Eddys Leonard (15), and Jett Williams (13). The Brewers no. 4-rated prospect is riding a 15-game on-base streak since May 7, which stands tied for the 10th-longest active on-base streak in the International League heading into the start of the Gwinnett series. After hitting .156 (10-for-64) through his first 16 games of the season, Pratt is hitting .280 (26-for-93) over his last 25 games with nine of his 11 multi-hit performances coming over the last 25 games since April 24th.

HARD-WIN: Tyson Hardin earned his first career Triple-A win in Saturday night's 6-3 victory over the Durham Bulls, posting 5.2 innings of work, allowing a run on four hits and punching out seven Bulls batters. Milwaukee's no. 17-rated prospect worked a 7.0 IP quality start in his Triple-A debut on May 17 vs. Iowa and has allowed just eight hits and three runs (2 ER) through his first 12.2 IP with Nashville and has 13 strikeouts and six walks. His win on Saturday night gave him his eighth career minor league win.
