IN OTHER WORDS...

Former Richmond Braves pitcher Steve Shields on the last game at Parker Field:
"The last game there, when they told people whatever they could take out of there they could take home with them and seeing older grandmothers with goggles on and sledgehammers beating up seats and stuff."

On starting the first game at The Diamond on April 17, 1985:
"I have to admit I was a little nervous, but it turned out alright. It was really amazing to be able to walk out on that field and look around and see all those people."
