AARON BOSSI

BATS: RIGHT THROWS: RIGHT HEIGHT: 5'11" WEIGHT: 205 LBS

BORN: October 22, 1993

BIRTHPLACE: St. Louis, MO

YEARS WITH NYY: 10

DID YOU KNOW?: In his lone professional season as a player in the Yankees system, Bossi was teammates with current Yankees utility man Oswaldo Cabrera with the GCL Yankees.

Bossi, 32, returns for his second coaching stint with the Renegades, and his first as the team's manager. Bossi was the defensive coach for Hudson Valley in 2021 on Dan Fiorito's staff. He enters his ninth season in the Yankees organization, and his second as a manager after leading the Single-A Tampa Tarpons in 2025. He joined the Yankees in 2017, and spent three seasons assisting rehabbing players at the Yankees' minor league complex, was slated to serve as the defensive coach for Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre in 2020 before the season was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic, and was the defensive and baserunning coach for Double-A Somerset from 2022-24.

Despite being displaced from George M. Steinbrenner Field in 2025, Bossi managed the Tarpons to their best overall record (63-63) since 2021. Tampa narrowly missed out on the playoffs after posting an impressive 36-29 record in the first half of the season. The Tarpons had one of the top offenses in the FSL, leading the league in batting average (.248) and stolen bases (307), and finished second in the league in OBP (.353) and OPS (.732).

As a player, Bossi signed with the Yankees as a non-drafted free agent. He played one season with the GCL Yankees East, hitting .333 (19-for-57) in 22 games as a catcher and infielder. Bossi played four seasons (2013-16) at Marshall University, where he was named to the ABCA Mideast All-Region First Team as a senior. Beyond the diamond, Bossi earned a bachelor's degree at Marshall and a master's degree in business administration from Columbia College.

Bossi becomes the 21st manager in team history, and sixth in six years during the Yankees era. He replaces James Cooper, who guided the Renegades to a franchise-record 79 wins in 2025 and was named the new manager of the Double-A Somerset Patriots. Under his tutelage, the Renegades had their 13th consecutive winning season and 16th in the last 17 seasons. Since the beginning of the 2012 season, the Renegades have the best winning percentage (.577) in Minor League Baseball.
