TONY CAPPUCCILLI

MANAGER

Height: 6-2 Weight: 245
Opening Day Age: 43
Born: November 30, 1980 in Huntington Beach, CA

The West Michigan Whitecaps enter the 2025 season with an all-new coaching staff, with one exception. The manager's spot remains with Tony Cappuccilli, who returns for his second season.

Cappuccilli (pronounced Cap-uh-CHELLY) led the Whitecaps to a winning season in his first campaign as 'Caps skipper, going 68-63. His first season included leading some of the top prospects in the Detroit Tigers system, including position players Max Clark, Kevin McGonigle, and Thayron Liranzo, while also aiding pitcher Jackson Jobe as part of a Minor League Rehab Assignment.

The native of Huntington Beach, CA, spent the past two seasons as the bench coach for the Tigers Triple-A affiliate Toledo Mud Hens. "Very excited to be back in West Michigan," said Cappuccilli. "Last year was an awesome experience, and I'm looking forward to seeing LMCU Ballpark again, especially with some of the changes coming their way."

The coach known simply as 'Capp' has made stops at both the collegiate and professional levels, having worked with the Irvine Valley College, the University of Nevada-Las Vegas, and the University of New Mexico. In 2017, he joined the Los Angeles Dodgers as a minor league coach, helping the Dodgers Rookie affiliate to an Arizona League Championship. In 2021, he managed the Arizona Complex League Dodgers before joining the Tigers, beginning with Toledo in 2022.

Opening Day Age: 32

The native of San Diego, California is also a product of Driveline Baseball Enterprises, having earned certifications in pitch design and foundations of hitting. Malott starred as a pitcher for Occidental College, graduating in 2014, and helped the program to its best record in over 20 years. He took those talents into his first coaching foray, becoming a player development coach within the Kansas City Royals farm system.

Malott also became the Co-Founder and Director of Player Development for the Objective Baseball training facility before spending his first year in Detroit's system as the development coach with Single-A Lakeland in 2022.

NICK GREEN

PITCHING COACH

Given Name: Nicholas Alvin Green
Height: 6-4 Weight: 200
Opening Day Age: 40
Born: August 20, 1984 in East Point, GA

Nick Green joins the Whitecaps for his first season in 2025, his third in the Detroit Tigers organization after serving as the Single-A Lakeland Flying Tigers pitching coach in 2023-24, and his eighth season in the professional coaching ranks.

Last season, Green led the Flying Tigers pitching staff to the second-best record in the Florida State League, going 80-50 and within one win of winning the FSL Championship. His pitching staff posted the third-lowest combined ERA at 3.73. The Georgia native led his group to the second-most shutouts (12) in the league while finishing second in the league in runs, walks, WHIP, and double plays induced. Green's coaching career began in 2017, including stops as a Pitching Coach for five seasons in the Boston Red Sox system. Before his time as a coach, Green played seven seasons in the minor leagues, making it as high as Triple-A within the farm systems of the LA Angels and Milwaukee Brewers. During that time, Green got his first exposure to the Midwest League, playing for the Cedar Rapids Kernels in 2005 where he posted one of his best professional seasons with a 3.58 ERA in 100.2 innings pitched.

Among Green's career highlights include being drafted by the Angels in the 35th Round of the 2004 draft out of Darton College, earning a selection to the Texas League All-Star game in 2007, and pitching nearly 1,500 innings over an 11-year professional career -- one that included a one-year stop in the Chinese Baseball League.

SEASON REVIEW

In 2024, pitcher Jaden Hamm catapulted his prospect status from outside the Detroit Tigers Top-30 to become a Top-100 prospect in all of Major League Baseball, going 5-4 with a 2.64 ERA and 122 strikeouts in just 99 innings in becoming the 2024 Midwest League Pitcher of the Year.

Year No. 31 for the West Michigan Whitecaps saw significant improvements inside LMCU Ballpark, and tons of fans entered the gates in 2024, as the club featured an average attendance rate in franchise history at 5,827 -- the highest in the past 23 years. The Whitecaps welcomed a new manager in former Toledo Mud Hens bench coach Tony Cappuccilli, as former manager Brayan Peña took a new role within the Tigers organization. Meanwhile, the Whitecaps also enjoyed the return of pitching coach Dan Ricabal. Another new coach to join the staff was hitting coach Francisco Contreras, who was part of the last West Michigan Midwest League championship team in 2015. Inside the ballpark, significant construction projects continued as part of a multi-year renovation project, while the first phase was completed in July with the debut of the Whitecaps locker room on the third base side as the team switched across the field from its first base home.

Several Detroit Tigers prospects highlighted the Whitecaps roster in 2024, with pitcher Jaden Hamm, who began the season unranked as a Tigers Top-30 prospect, elevated himself to a Top-100 prospect in Major League Baseball with a breakout season (5-4, 2.64 ERA in 99 IP). Righty Joseph Montalvo, acquired by the Tigers in the Andrew Chafin trade, joined the team in late July and entered Detroit's Top-30 prospects. Towards the end of July, the Whitecaps received a trio of Tigers top prospects, beginning with the highly-anticipated arrivals of outfielder Max Clark, a Top-10 prospect in Major League Baseball, and infielder Kevin McGonigle. Catcher Thayron Liranzo, who started the season with the Great Lakes Loons, joined the 'Caps after being acquired by Detroit in the Jack Flaherty trade to headline the position prospects. Other everyday players who spent time with the '23 'Caps included Max Anderson, Roberto Campos, Luke Gold, and Seth Stephenson.

The Whitecaps opened 2024 by going 10-16 to begin the year but rebounded to close the first half by going 21-14 over their next 35 games. The second half started with a three-game sweep of the Dayton Dragons at LMCU Ballpark, setting the table for a summer that saw the Whitecaps fight for a postseason spot.

After a five-game sweep at Wisconsin in mid-July, West Michigan reeled off 16 wins in its next 23 games, putting them in first place in the Midwest League East. A critical 15-game stretch saw the 'Caps go 6-9, but their biggest competitor, the Dayton Dragons, closed the same stretch going 12-3 to clinch the Midwest League second-half Eastern Division title.

Meanwhile, the Whitecaps hosted a top young pitcher on a rehab assignment in the form of Jackson Jobe, one of Major League Baseball's top prospects, after beginning the year with Erie before a trip to the Injured List.

The Whitecaps roster saw 60 different players put on a 'Caps uniform in 2023. A handful of them collected accolades throughout and at the season's conclusion. Three players were selected as Midwest League Player or Pitcher of the Week, including outfielder Roberto Campos, Thayron Liranzo, and infielder Max Anderson.

Moreover, Hamm collected Midwest League Pitcher of the Month for April to begin the season. The righty opened the year and posted a 1.33 ERA in 20.1 innings during the season's opening month. Hamm carried that success throughout 2024, posting a 2.64 ERA in 99 innings pitched. While Pena led the 'Caps on the mound, he had a tremendous supporting cast. Fellow pitcher Colin Fields posted an ERA of 3.22 in 103.1 frames. Both Hamm and Fields came up just innings short of qualifying for the Midwest League ERA title, and either would've won it with the numbers they amassed throughout the season.

Campos led West Michigan at the plate (10 HR, 66 RBI, 11 SBs, .767 OPS) and Anderson (11 HR, 73 RBI in 120 Gs).

The Whitecaps look forward to 2025, with many updates and renovations in the works. Completing the Family Fare Clubhouse and third base batting tunnels is set to kick off the 2025 season. Installing a new playing surface coincides with the relocation of the bullpens to the beyond the right-field wall and the moving in of the outfield walls. LMCU Ballpark will also see extended netting down the foul lines, new hospitality areas, and much more!

HISTORY

Former Whitecaps infielder Colt Keith began 2024 getting a long-term contract from the Detroit Tigers to cement his place in the Major Leagues, and looked like he belonged. At 22 years old, Keith hit .260 with 13 homers and 61 RBI -- good for 2nd on the team.

Throwing Up Zeros

The 2017 West Michigan Whitecaps posted a banner year in large part because of their pitching. A staff exposed to constant change throughout the season held the lowest ERA among Midwest League teams at a combined 2.77 — also ranking as the lowest of any full-season team in Minor League Baseball. The year began with the team throwing three consecutive shutouts, and holding opponents scoreless for the first 32 straight innings to begin the season. The 28 shutouts the club recorded during that season smashed the previous record held by the Quad Cities Angels (23) set in 1974. The performances featured a number of pitchers ranked among the Detroit Tigers top prospects at that time, including Matt Manning, Greg Soto, and Kyle Funkhouser, who started on the mound in eight of those 28 shutouts.

Season Review

After beginning the 2024 season with a record of 55-63 and trading a handful of its veteran players, the Tigers became the biggest story in baseball, finishing the season going 32-9 and clinching the final American League wildcard spot to enter the postseason for the first time since 2016 with a record of 86-76 and in third place in the American League Central Division. Former Whitecaps Dillon Dingler, Jace Jung, Colt Keith, and Wenceel Perez made their Major League debuts with the Tigers at the plate, while pitchers Brant Hurter, Jackson Jobe, Ty Madden and Keider Montero took the mound. The Tigers were unquestionably led by pitcher Tarik Skubal (18-4, 2.39 ERA) who dominated throughout the season en route to becoming the first former Whitecaps pitcher to win the Cy Young Award.

Season Review

The Lakeland Flying Tigers dominated throughout the 2024 season, posting the best record of any Tigers minor league affiliate at 80-50, making the Florida State League Postseason. Former Whitecaps skipper Andrew Graham led the squad to the deciding game of the Florida State League Championship Series, where it ultimately lost to the Palm Beach Cardinals. Soon to be Whitecaps, the dynamic duo of 2024 Florida State League MVP in infielder Kevin McGonigle (.326-4-37), and outfielder Max Clark (.286-7-58).

Season Review

The FCL Tigers hosted many of the 2024 MLB Draftees, including many of the high school talents, and still managed to finish 34-23, good enough for second-place in the FCL's North Division. Outfielder Nomar Fana (.291-10-37-15 SBs) dominated the league at the plate. Among pitchers, Pedro Garcia led the team with nearly 45 innings on the hill, posting 3.63 ERA, and Johnathan Rogers (3.52 ERA in 38.1 innings pitched) helped take the bulk of the workload.

The Last Title Team

In 2015, the Whitecaps brought home their 6th Midwest League Championship, defeating the Cedar Rapids Kernels in a best-of-five series, 3-2. 11 different players from the team went on to play Major League Baseball, including pitchers Joe Jimenez, A.J. Ladwig, Artie Lewicki, Drew Smith, Gabe Speier, Spencer Turnbull and Spenser Watkins, outfielders Mike Gerber, Derek Hill, and Christin Stewart and infielder Josh Lester.

LEAGUE RULES

Consecutive Hitting Streak – A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

Defensive Positioning: The defensive team must have a minimum of four players on the infield, with at least two infielders completely on either side of second base. These restrictions on defensive positioning are intended to allow infielders to better showcase their athleticism, to increase batting average on balls in play, and to restore a more traditional set of aesthetics and outcomes on batted balls.

Designated Hitter – A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The DH must be selected and be included in the lineup card presented to the umpire-in-chief prior to the game. The DH is locked into the batting order, but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner who in turn becomes the DH. The replacement player may stay in the game defensively, but the pitcher must take the place in the batting order of the replaced defensive player. This would terminate the role of the DH for that game.

Injured List Length – Any player placed on the Injured List must sit out for at least seven (7) days. Day one is the first day following the player's last game played.

Extra Innings – Extra innings will begin with a runner on second base. The runner at second base will be the player in the batting order position previous to the leadoff batter of the inning (or a substitute for that player). By way of example, if the number five hitter in the batting order is due to lead off the 10th inning, the number four player in the batting order (or a pinch-runner for such player) shall begin the inning on second base. Any runner or batter removed from the game for a substitute shall be ineligible to return to the game, as is the case in all circumstances under the Official Baseball Rules. For purposes of calculating earned runs under Rule 9.16, the runner who begins an inning on second base pursuant to this rule shall be deemed to be a runner who has reached second base because of a fielding error, but no error shall be charged to the opposing team or to any player.

Larger Bases – The size of first, second and third base will be 18 inches square at all full-season affiliates to reduce player injuries. Bigger bases were used in 2022 and were associated with a decrease in the severity of base-related injuries. In addition, the reduction in distance between bases led to a modest increase in the rate of successful stolen base attempts.

Magic Number – Compute the number of games remaining, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the closest opponent. This is the number of wins a team must have to secure the pennant.

Field Clock – On-field timers are used at all full-season affiliates to enforce regulations designed to create a crisp pace of play, with batters required to be ready to hit and pitchers required to deliver the pitch within allotted periods of time. With runners on base, pitchers will have additional allotted time for each pitch but will risk automatic baserunner advancement if a third pick-off attempt or step-off within the same plate appearance is made without recording an out.

Pitcher's Mound Visits – Single-A clubs will be allowed 10 visits per team. These mound visit limits will apply whether the game is scheduled for seven or nine innings. For any extra-innings played, each club shall be entitled to one additional non-pitching change mound visit per inning. Official Baseball Rule 5.10(l), which governs mound visits by a manager or coach, remains in effect (i.e., a pitcher must be removed on the second visit by a manager/coach in an inning).

Definition of Mound Visit:

-A manager or coach trip to the mound to meet with the pitcher shall constitute a visit. A player leaving his position to confer with the pitcher, including a pitcher leaving the mound to confer with another player, shall also constitute a mound visit, regardless of where the visit occurs or the length of the visit, except that the following shall not constitute mound visits: a. Discussions between pitchers and position player(s) that (i) occur between batters in the normal course of play and do not require either the position player(s) or the pitcher to relocate; b. Visits by position players to the mound to clean spikes in rainy conditions; c. Visits to the mound due to an injury or potential injury of the pitcher; and d. Visits to the mound after the announcement of an offensive substitution.

Cross-Up in Signs:

In the event a team has exhausted its allotment of mound visits in a game (or extra inning) and the home plate umpire determines that the catcher and pitcher did not have a shared understanding of the location or type of pitch that had been signaled by the catcher (otherwise referred to as a “cross-up”), the home plate umpire may, upon request of the catcher, allow the catcher to make a brief mound visit. Any mound visit resulting from a cross-up prior to a team exhausting its allotted number of visits shall count against a team’s total number of allotted mound visits.

Player Eligibility – There are no age restrictions on player eligibility in the League, however, no more than two players on a team’s active list may have five or more years of prior service. A player shall be credited with one year of minor league service for each season he was active or on the Disabled List of a minor league club for at least 30 days.

Qualifying Marks – To qualify for the league batting championship in 2024, a player must have a minimum of 356 plate appearances. To qualify for the ERA title, a pitcher must have at least 105.2 innings pitched, based on a 132-game season.

Saves Rule – One save per game may be credited to a team. Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following criteria:

1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and
2. He is not the winning pitcher; and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or
 - b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck; or
 - c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Suspended Game – A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED game in each of the following situations:

1. The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.
2. The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.
3. The game has not become a regulation game (4.5 innings with the home team ahead, or five innings with the visiting club ahead or tied).
4. Any regulation game tied at the point play is stopped because of weather, curfew, or other reason.
5. If a game is suspended before it becomes a regulation game, and is continued prior to another regularly scheduled game, the regularly scheduled game will be limited to seven innings.
6. If a game is suspended after it is a regulation game, and is continued prior to another regularly scheduled game, the regularly scheduled game will be a nine-inning game.

EXCEPTION: The Suspended Rule will not apply to the last scheduled game between the two teams during the championship season or league playoffs.

“Step Off” Rule – Any time during a pitcher’s preliminary movements and until his natural pitching motion commits him to the pitch, he may throw to any base provided he disengages the rubbersteps directly toward such base before making the throw. The pitcher may not throw to an unoccupied base, except for the purpose of making a play or for purposes of an appeal.
