TEERING OFF

- TODAY'S GAME: Two long balls in the middle innings were enough offense for the Pelicans to grab their second win in three games this week, snaring a 5-2 victory with a series of solid pitching performances. Adam Maier leads the Jackets into a Braves BUZZFest Friday against Nazier Mule in his second appearance with the Pelicans.
- SO LONG, PARTNERS: The GreenJackets bid goodbye to two of their most prolific offensive performers, with both 1B Drew Compton and OF Jace Grady being promoted to High-A Rome. The pairing were 1 and 2 on the team in nearly every offensive category, leaving a canyon-sized hole in an already struggling offense.
- SHORT AND SWEET: The GreenJackets are now 3-0 in games shortened by rain, all of which have come at SRP Park. Augusta has seen a high level of rainfall in the early parts of the year, and it has benefited the home side more often than not.
- TAKE A BOW, MAN: Garrett Baumann twirled his team-high 5th quality start for his 4th win of the year Saturday night, posting 6 scoreless innings. Baumann is now the leader among current Carolina League players in ERA at 1.76 at just 19 years old.
- ERROR, PAGE NOT FOUND: The 'Jackets currently lead the Carolina League in errors with 83 in 53 games, with just 1 of their last 9 contests being error-free. Diego Benitez was the MiLB individual leader with 18 when he was reassigned to the FCL.
- LOW POWER MODE: The GreenJackets are 12th out of 12 teams in home runs in the Carolina League, with just 17 in 53 games. 10 of the 17 home runs on the roster have come from players no longer with the team, as Grady, Compton, and Benitez combined for 10 HRs in their time here this season.
- NEXT TIME OUT: Garrett Baumann will put his Single-A leading 1.76 ERA to the test as Augusta becomes the Pimento Cheese for one night only against Juan Bello and the Pelicans at 6:05.

BIO

2023: Did not appear in a game, missing time due to recovery due to 2022 UCL injury and oblique issue suffered in 2023 while ramping up.

CAREER: Drafted in the 7th Rd of the 2022 draft by Atlanta, signing substantially overslot at $1.2 million... was one of the biggest draft wild cards in recent memory, having thrown just over 60 amateur innings between college and summer ball... has yet to throw a professional pitch... currently MLB Pipeline's #18 Braves prospect, was #12 entering 2023.

COLLEGE: Started career at the University of British Columbia, throwing in 19 innings as a two-way before COVID canceled the season... was 3-0 with a 2.84 ERA and a save while also serving as BC's designated hitter... BC canceled the duration of both the 2020 and 2021 seasons... had a solid showing with the Yarmouth-Dennis Red Sox of the Cape Cod League in 2021, opening eyes and prompting a transfer to the University of Oregon, where he was immediately named the Friday night starter but made just three appearances before suffering a season-ending elbow injury.

EINAR DIAZ

HITTING COACH

Einar Diaz follows the rest of the staff up from the FCL level, making his first mark at the low-A level. It's the 4th different Braves affiliate for whom Diaz has worked, as he was the hitting coach for the AAA Gwinnett Stripers in 2019, and the AA Mississippi Braves in 2021 prior to his two years on the FCL staff. An 11 year big leaguer known most for his time with the Cleveland Indians, the Panamanian catcher also appeared for the Texas Rangers, Montreal Expos, St. Louis Cardinals, and Los Angeles Dodgers over his career. He got his start coaching in the Orioles system for nearly a decade, working for the Delmarva Shorebirds and managing the Rookie-level Bluefield Orioles before working for the major league club as an assistant hitting coach for 6 seasons.

CONNOR JUSTUS

COACH

The youngest member of the coaching staff, Connor Justus will begin his coaching career with the GreenJackets in 2024. The Cartersville, GA native was drafted in the 5th round of the 2016 draft out of Georgia Tech by the Los Angeles Angels and played 4 years in the Halos' system, reaching as high as AA Mobile. Justus spent the 2020 season with the St. Paul Saints, who were in the independent American Association at the time, before returning for one more season of affiliate ball with the Marlins in 2021, splitting between AA Pensacola and AAA Jacksonville. Justus' final stop in his playing career was with the Charleston Dirty Birds of the Atlantic League, where he played 47 games in the infield before hanging the spikes up.
