NEWS AND NOTES
LEAD GUITARIST: Darrien Miller extended his on-base streak to 13 consecutive games Friday night. The 13-game on-base streak continues to be the longest-active on-base streak on the Sounds, hitting .357 (15-for-42), 7 XBH, 11 RBI and five runs in that span. Miller's longest on-base streak sits at 18 consecutive games with Double-A Biloxi during the 2024 season. Miller continued his good stretch of late for the Sounds as he recorded his fifth multi-hit game of the season, going 2-for-4 with a double and recording his third multi-RBI game of the year as well in 18 games played. All five of his multi-hit games have come during his last 13 games played. The 25-year-old has tallied 75 career multi-hit games and 49 multi-RBI games since he began his professional campaign in 2019. THE GREATEST CROWMAN: Coleman Crow tossed another efficient outing for the Sounds in Friday night's game against the Knights (5.2 IP, 3 H, 2 ER, 6 K, 4 BB) falling an out shy of his third straight quality start in a no decision. In his last three outings for Nashville, The Brewers no. 25-rated prospect has worked 17.2 IP, allowed four runs on 10 hits and punched out 18 batters, adding two quality starts. For Nashville, Crow has posted a 5-1 record with a 4.12 ERA in 12 appearances (11 starts) in 59.0 innings of work with three different stints with Milwaukee mixed in. Crow ranks	second in wins (5) and strikeouts (62), fourth in games started (11) and innings pitched (59.0) for the Sounds this season. He also ranks fifth in ERA (Min. 20 GS) with his 3.72 and is tied for sixth in quality starts (6) among full season minor league players in the Brewers' farm system since last season. CALM ROM: Drew Rom extended his streak of not allowing an earned run to 12.2 IP Friday night against Charlotte after two scoreless innings with four strikeouts to earn his fourth win of the season with Nashville. He hasn't allowed an earned run over his last nine appearances overall, including two appearances with Milwaukee (1.2 IP) and hasn't allowed an earned run in any appearance since June 13 with Milwaukee against the Philadelphia Phillies. During his current streak with Nashville that dates back to June 3, The left-hander is 2-0 having allowed just eight hits and an unearned run with 20 strikeouts to just two walks. EDUARDOS: Eduardo Garcia produced his second career Triple-A multi-hit game in Friday night's win against the Knights, going 2-for-4 with his 100th regular season double of his minor league career. His first multi-hit game with the Sounds came back on June 18 at Memphis, where he also went 2-for-4. Friday night's multi-hit performance marked the 115th of his regular season minor league career since 2019. In his six-year professional campaign, Garcia has posted a .239 batting average (468-for-1958), 100 doubles, 17 triples, 48 homers and 252 RBI. DOUBLE-DOUBLE: Brewers no. 30-rated prospect Brock Wilken collected two doubles on Thursday night for his first game with 2+ doubles since game two of a doubleheader against Chattanooga on June 14th of last season with Double-A Biloxi. He produced the only two multi-double games of his professional career prior to Thursday night over a three-game span for the Shuckers last season, also doing it for the first time in his career on June 12, 2025. Both of his doubles against the Knights on Thursday came off his former Wake Forrest teammate and former Sounds pitcher Shane Smith in his first two at-bats of the game. Wilken leads all Nashville players this season with 17 doubles and 57 RBI after producing a pair of RBI as part of a 2-for-5 night. THE SWEET LIFE: Rick Sweet is two wins away from moving into second place all-time among Minor League managers for career wins after the Sounds got back in the win column with a 4-2 victory over the Knights Friday night.
