JUMBO SHRIMP WELCOME LETTER

Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp Baseball Club Triple-A Affiliate of the Miami Marlins

Dear Crustacean Nation,

I hope you feel the same excitement as both myself and the entire Jumbo Shrimp staff for our 2024 season presented by FIS. I have been eagerly anticipating the signature moments and memories we create for families and fans of all ages every summer at 121 Financial Ballpark. We are so grateful you chose to attend today's game, and I wish to express my gratitude and thanks to you, the city of Jacksonville, Northeast Florida and Southeast Georgia, because without you, all these extraordinary moments, attendance records, awards and recognition across the country never would have happened. I can't wait for the incredible memories we will make together again in 2024.

Like always, it is our pledge to offer our fans the same great Affordable Family Fun that has marked Jumbo Shrimp baseball over the years. Over the span of 75 fun-filled home dates this season, the Jumbo Shrimp have planned 23 fireworks dates, 14 giveaways, five free Military Appreciation Nights, five Forever Vets Animal Hospital Canines and Crustaceans Dog Days (plus one Cat Day and several other fun and memorable theme nights that provide entertainment to fans of all ages and backgrounds. We have also continued our tribute to the military on "Red Shirt Fridays," plus seats every game for our service men and women starting at just $7. Coors Light Thirsty Thursdays are back, and again, kids will get to run the bases following each Sunday home game on Baptist Health Sunday Family FUNdays.

We are always striving to enhance our guest experience and safety at the ballpark. In February, we had the pleasure to announce Project NEXT, our plan for the $31.8 million publicly-funded renovation plan to 121 Financial Ballpark. Project NEXT is the first major renovation to 121 Financial Ballpark since its opening in 2003. We consider these upgrades to be a generational moment for the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp, our city, fans and community partners,

In 2024, fans will get to experience the beginning phases of Project NEXT at 121 Financial Ballpark: a brand-new videoboard nearly 20 percent larger in size, new ribbon boards and new concourse ceiling fans. The long-term vision of Project NEXT also includes the creation of an enhanced club space behind home plate, a brand-new front porch and center field plaza to welcome fans like never before. In right field, Project NEXT plans a multi-level building making the Jumbo Shrimp VyStar Credit Union Souvenir Store accessible on the street level, and on the concourse level, an incredible space that will be downtown Jacksonville's newest spot for banquets and meetings. The Jumbo Shrimp are incredibly honored and proud to be working with the Canopy Team and Janet Marie Smith. Her impressive credentials include design work of Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Fenway Park renovations and many others.

On the field, we look forward to again watching Triple-A baseball in Jacksonville. The 2023 season saw 43 different players with major league experience suit up for the Jumbo Shrimp, including 33 who played both in the big leagues and with Jacksonville at some point last year. This season, we also expect to see several talented prospects on their way to the Miami Marlins play in Jacksonville and are pleased to welcome an excellent coaching staff in manager Daren Brown, pitching coach Jeremy Powell, hitting coach Greg Colbrunn, development coach Jose Ceballos, athletic trainer Jose Alvarez and performance/strength and conditioning coach Tim Rodmaker.

Thank you for attending today's game and for your support of the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp. Please don't hesitate to let me or any of our staff members know how your experience at 121 Financial Ballpark is going. Sit back, relax and enjoy Jumbo Shrimp baseball!

Warm wishes,

Harold Crow

VILLALOBOS BECOMES 1,000TH JACKSONVILLE PLAYER TO ALSO PLAY IN MAJOR LEAGUES

Following in the rich history of Jacksonville baseball dating back to 1904, Jumbo Shrimp right-handed pitcher Eli Villalobos made his major league debut on May 5th for the Miami Marlins at the Oakland Coliseum, becoming the 1,000th Jacksonville player to also reach the big leagues.

Villalobos tossed a scoreless inning for the Marlins to cap their 12-3 victory over the Athletics. He walked one batter but fanned Abraham Toro to end the game and record his first big league strikeout.

A native of La Habra, Calif., Villalobos had appeared in nine games with Jacksonville this season prior to his promotion. He was 1-0 with a 4.73 ERA, punching out 16 hitters in 13.1 innings. Villalobos also pitched with the Jumbo Shrimp in both 2022, when he went 2-0 with a 1.04 ERA in 12 appearances, and 2023, when he registered an 0-1 record and 4.43 ERA in 16 games.

Originally a collegiate catcher at Golden West College (Huntington Beach, Calif.), Villalobos was discovered by the Long Beach State coaching staff in a college summer wooden bat league game in which he had volunteered to pitch. He wound up pitching to a 3.65 ERA in 51 games with the Dirtbags before being selected by the Marlins in the 14th round of the 2018 draft.

As of May 5th, the 26-year-old had appeared in 168 minor league games prior to his promotion, compiling a 10-11 record, 4.34 ERA and 312 strikeouts in 259.1 innings.

Of the 1,000 Jacksonville players to also play in the major leagues, Villalobos is the 163rd former Jumbo Shrimp to reach The Show. Jacksonville's illustrious baseball history features 11 players enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, including legends Henry Aaron (1953 Jacksonville Braves), Tom Seaver (1968 Jacksonville Suns), Phil Niekro (1960 Jacksonville Braves), Nolan Ryan (1967 Jacksonville Suns) and Randy Johnson (1987 Jacksonville Expos). Notable Jacksonville alumni also include Los Angeles Dodgers left-handed pitcher Clayton Kershaw (2007-08 Jacksonville Suns), New York Yankees outfielder Giancarlo "Mike" Stanton (2009-10 Jacksonville Suns) and Philadelphia Phillies catcher J.T. Realmuto (2013-14 Jacksonville Suns).

Villalobos is the fifth Jumbo Shrimp alumnus this season to make his major league debut, following catcher Jonny Pineda (April 17, Marlins) and right-handers Rodderly Muñoz (April 20, Marlins), Anthony Maldonado (April 24, Marlins) and Emmanuel Ramírez (April 28, Marlins).

Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp outfielder Victor Mesa Jr. has been tearing up the International League to start the 2024 campaign. The Havana, Cuba native is currently slashing .277/.345/.466/.811 as of May 19. Mesa Jr. has been the spark that ignites the fire of the Jumbo Shrimp offense. Whether he's turning a single into a double or cranking a home run over the right field wall, Mesa Jr. plays the game inspired. Usually when you ask a baseball player who their idol is, the usual responses are [Barry] Bonds, maybe [Mark] McGwire, or even [Ken] Griffey Jr.. However Victor Mesa Jr.'s response to that question might surprise you. His idol isn't a baseball player, it's arguably the greatest soccer player of all time, Lionel Messi.

When Mesa Jr. was growing up, he and his brother Victor Mesa would play and watch soccer with each other. Sometimes it brought the two together and other times it pulled them apart. Mesa Jr. liked FC Barcelona because Messi played on that squad, while Victor Mesa liked Real Madrid due to Cristiano Ronaldo playing for them. The rivalry between the two teams sparked a rivalry between the two brothers.

Mesa Jr. would study Messi but not just as a soccer player, but also as a human being. It's no secret that some of Mesa Jr.'s mannerisms and the way he conducts himself professionally emulates Messi. Even Mesa Jr.'s nickname "The Chosen One" draws similarities to what Messi is often referred to "The Messiah" which illustrates his god-like prowess and skills on the soccer field. So how did Mesa Jr. receive his nickname? Well, he gave it to himself.

"One day I was listening to music in Spanish, they said something about the chosen one in the music that I like and I saw 7-8 years ago the big leaguers play with their nicknames on the back of their jersey's for MLB players weekend... I said dang I gotta get something," Mesa Jr. said. "I said why don't I use that as my nickname... I feel like I can do anything on the field when I think about it, it empowers me."

In life some people would do anything to get the chance to meet their hero or idol. However, others would say you don't want to meet your hero because you might not like who they truly are. While Mesa Jr. still hasn't had the chance to meet Lionel Messi, he was able to have a cool interaction with "The Messiah."

Back in 2021 after Messi had led Argentina to victory in the Copa America final, he was on a vacation trip in Miami which was where Mesa Jr. happened to be at the time. All it took was a few text messages to his friend, who happened to figure out where Messi was staying at the time for Mesa Jr. to embark on a quest to meet his hero.

At 11:30 p.m. that night, Mesa Jr. made it to the area where Messi was supposedly. Once he arrived to the house, he thought to himself that he had no chance of meeting him due to it being so late at night. Then his luck changed.

All of the sudden... Mesa Jr. spotted Messi's dad Jorge, and brother walk into the street just two houses away from where Messi was. This was his chance to potentially meet his idol, the man he had idolized throughout his entire life and he knew he couldn't let the moment slip away but he also wanted to be respectful of the Messi's privacy.

So very politely, Victor walked over to Jorge and introduced himself.

"I said Jorge, hey how are you I'm Victor, I play for the Marlins and I don't wanna bother you guys because I know how you guys live, but I was hoping to meet Messi," Mesa Jr. explained. "He told me that it's too late and that I don't have a chance but to maybe come back at another time."

Mesa Jr. understood and accepted defeat because he himself understands how pressing fans can get especially being a top prospect in the Marlins organization. So after 15 minutes of standing around and just admiring the high end neighborhood, Mesa Jr. noticed Messi's nephew exit the house and walk over towards them. The nephew apologized that they couldn't get the opportunity to meet Messi but that if there was a message or something that Mesa Jr. wanted to give to Messi that he could make that happen.

Well the Jumbo Shrimp outfielder had come prepared as he had brought his own Marlins jersey with him to the house. Mesa Jr. handed the jersey to Messi's nephew and said that if he could pass it along to Messi that it wouldn't just make his day but it'd make his life.

The next day, Mesa Jr. labored through a tough game. "I had an awful game, 1-for-4 with three strikeouts and I was super mad," Mesa Jr. exclaimed. "Then I received a picture from Messi's nephew of Messi himself holding my jersey and I'm not gonna lie, I even cried because I never expected to see Messi hold my jersey."

It was a moment that will stick with the 22-year-old outfielder for the rest of his life.

Back on July 15, 2023, Messi left the international soccer leagues overseas and signed with MLS club Inter Miami CF. It was a deal that sent the entire city of Miami into such a frenzy of the likes that hadn't been seen since basketball superstar LeBron James signed with the Miami Heat back in 2010. Since the signing, Messi has been drawing record numbers of crowds to the club's matches.

With Victor Mesa Jr. lighting up the stat sheet in Triple-A with Jacksonville, he is certainly on the fast track to receive a call to the big leagues in the near future. "The Chosen One" and "The Messiah" playing in the same city will be nothing short of extraordinary.

Messi holding Mesa Jr's jersey he left behind trying to meet his hero.

Bragan Field at 121 Financial Ballpark, which opened in 2003, is one of the premier Minor League ballparks in North America.

The ballpark was the first completed project of the Better Jacksonville Plan. Featuring an old-fashioned design, brick facade and a grass seating berm, 121 Financial Ballpark reminds fans of the days of yesteryear and preserves all of the wonderful tradition baseball has to offer. The vivid sight lines capture the action up-close while providing fans with comfortable seating and easy access to concessions and restrooms.

121 Financial Ballpark features 12 luxury skyboxes, four skydecks, and a one-of-a-kind Tiki Terrace at the left field corner. It also has an HD videoboard and LED fence display in left field and two ribbon displays along the baselines of the suite level

The ballpark has hosted three Major League Baseball exhibitions (2006, 2010, 2015), four ACC Baseball Tournaments (2006-09) and two Southern League All-Star games (2003, 2013). The 2013 Southern League All-Star game boasted a league-record 9,373 fans in attendance.

In 2016, owner Ken Babby invested $1.8 million into the ballpark to add a new groups area directly behind the home bullpen, a Tiki Terrace near the left-field foul pole, renovations to all 12 private suites and expansion of the suite-level, third-floor lounge to give all fans a climate-controlled space to overlook the playing field.

Since 2007, 121 Financial Ballpark has hosted a game in the annual college baseball series between in-state rivals, Florida State and Florida. The annual installment brings capacity crowds to 121 Financial Ballpark for their storied rivalry.

The ballpark features nearly 6,000 stadium-style chairs and can accommodate more than 11,000 fans. Has 12 luxury skyboxes and four sky decks, each of which having private seating. Ballpark is also completely wheelchair accessible, including the dugouts, camera wells and playing field.

The total estimated cost is $34 million, paid for by Jacksonville residents as part of a tax approved in 2000 to fund the "Better Jacksonville Plan," an initiative to improve the city's infrastructure. The adjacent Jacksonville Veterans Memorial Arena was also funded through the plan and was completed in November 2003.

BASEBALL BASICS: HOW TO KEEP SCORE

DIFFERENT FANS have different methods of keeping a scorecard, and many use their own notations. But here's a simple method:

If the hitter grounds out to shortstop, for example, write in "6-3," which shows the shortstop threw him out at first base. If the hitter flies out to left field, write a "7."

If the batter gets a hit, write in the hit according to which base he reached. Each corner of the box represents a base, with the lower-right corner being first.

If he singles, put a "-" in the lower right. If he doubles, write a "=" in the upper right, and so on. For a walk, use "BB" in the lower right. As the runner advances, mark the appropriate symbol in the appropriate corner.

If a runner scores, put a circle at the bottom of the box, and inside the circle put the symbol of the play and/or the player that drove him in. For example, if the No. 5 hitter drives in two runs with a single, mark his single in the bottom right of his box and mark a circle with the number "5" in it in the boxes of the runners who score. (Some people like to use uniform numbers here, so you can tell who did what, even after lineup changes.)

At the end of each inning, total the hits and runs for that inning only. At the end of the game you'll be able to add the innings total to get the game score

DREAM BECOMES REALITY FOR ELI VILLALOBOS

BY: MATT DAVIS

THIS IS WHAT VODKA SODA SHOULD BE

WHITE CLAW®
VODKA + SODA
THE DIFFERENCE IS CLEAR™

A PROUD PARTNER OF THE JACKSONVILLE JUMBO SHRIMP

There's nothing like watching videos of players getting called into a manager's office letting them know they're going to make their major league debuts. For the player, it's a moment when all of their hard work and dedication have come to fruition.

Sometimes it's a call late at night after back-to-back afternoon games. That's how Jacksonville reliever Eli Villalobos found out his dream was coming true.

"It was a wake-up call," laughed Villalobos. "It was 11:30 p.m. and I heard my phone vibrating on the nightstand next to me and I don't even think I checked to see who it was. I heard Brownie's (Jumbo Shrimp manager Daren Brown) voice asking me if I'm sleeping, and he said, 'Well, you'd better wake up because we're sending you to Oakland tomorrow.'"

If every team in Major League Baseball had a full and healthy 26-man roster, there would be 780 players at the major league level. Since 1876 (the first year of the National League) there have been a total of 23,200 major league ballplayers.

On Sunday, May 5, 2024, Villalobos became the 23,192nd player to play in an MLB game and the 1,000th former Jacksonville alumnus to play in The Show.

"Crazy, still I don't even think it's kicked in," said Villalobos. "Every time I think about it, it brings a smile to my face. To finally reach that dream is awesome."

After hitting .292 as a catcher and first baseman at Sonora High School (Calif.), he caught nine games at Golden West College (Calf.) where he batted .444 (8-for-18). Villalobos then went to play in a summer league and volunteered to pitch in a game where his team ran out of arms. He impressed so much in that one game that he got a call from Long Beach State and ended up becoming a fantastic pitcher for the Dirtbags.

During his first season at Long Beach State (2017), Villalobos posted a 3.48 ERA in 24 appearances, going 3-1 with three saves. He dominated his junior season, leading the Dirtbags in appearances (28). As a reliever Villalobos posted a 2.25 ERA going 2-2 and averaging a strikeout per inning in 36.0 innings while holding opponents to a .165 batting average. That 2018 season helped garner a 14th-round selection by the Miami Marlins.

THE OFFICIAL ON-FIELD CAP OF MINOR LEAGUE BASEBALL®

After starting his career as a catcher, Villalobos made his MLB debut as a pitcher on May 5th.

Despite the success at Long Beach State, Villalobos didn't see the same success initially in pro ball. He posted a 6.10 ERA across three levels in 2018 following the draft. With Short Season A Batavia in 2019, his ERA improved just barely to 6.08.

Following the canceled 2020 season, Villalobos posted a solid 2021 season between Low-A Jupiter and High-A Beloit (3.63 ERA, 14.5 K/9) while holding opponents to a .223 batting average between both levels.

After successful campaigns in 2022 with both Double-A Pensacola and Triple-A Jacksonville he was added to the Marlins 40-man roster during the 2022 offseason and primed for a breakout 2023 season.

Unfortunately, 2023 didn't go according to plan for Villalobos. Villalobos went 0-1 with a 6.00 ERA in 13 appearances with Pensacola and was eventually removed from the Marlins 40-man roster. He was subsequently picked up by the Pirates and assigned to Triple-A Indianapolis.

"I had always described myself as a pretty mentally tough person," Villalobos said. "I never really let things outside of baseball affect me until I had that big thing that did and then everything I thought I knew went out the door. Every day now I spend at least 30 minutes per day spending time keeping my mind sharp to stay mentally tough."

After posting a 1-0 record with a 4.22 ERA and holding opponents to a .184 batting average through the month of April, he was not only added to the 40-man roster but he got the call that he'd be going to the Marlins and seeing some former teammates that are currently on the big-league squad.

"It was awesome," smiled Villalobos. "A lot of those guys I came up through the system with. Most of those guys were in my wedding, they're some of my closest friends. It was so good to finally get up there with them and spend that time with them. They were all super excited."

Perhaps the only thing that wasn't perfect about Villalobos' debut was that the call came when his parents were taking a rare vacation.

"My parents have never taken a vacation, ever. Everything was baseball and everything was so focused around us," said Villalobos. "Their vacation was coming to see us wherever we were playing in college and here. They finally planned a cruise for their 30th wedding anniversary and they left the morning I was called up, so they left Saturday morning and I got the call Saturday night."

The call was nonetheless incredible. And while there was no video of the middle-of-the-night dial that ultimately sent Villalobos on a flight to Oakland, it's something he will never forget. Through every twist and turn, he's a big leaguer forever.

DAREN BROWN | MANAGER | THIRD SEASON

Daren Brown returns for his third consecutive season as Jacksonville manager in 2024.

A native of Holdenville, Okla., Brown holds a 1,281-1,269 (.502) record as a minor league manager. In 2022, Brown's first season with Jacksonville, he piloted the Jumbo to with an 80-69 (.537) record, placing third in the International League East Division. After stellar performances throughout the season, the Jumbo Shrimp saw 12 players from their 2022 roster make their major league debuts. Brown also juggled a franchise-record 79 players, including a Jacksonville high for starting pitchers (25). The Jumbo Shrimp followed that up with a 70-79 (.470) record in 2023, with Brown juggling a franchise-record 44 different pitchers on his staff throughout the campaign.

The 56-year-old is currently in his third stint as a Triple-A skipper. He piloted Triple-A Tacoma in the Seattle Mariners' organization from 2007-13 and again in 2019, tallying 494 victories, which marks the most wins for any manager in Rainiers franchise history. Brown led Tacoma to consecutive division titles in 2009 and 2010, and during that latter season, helped the Rainiers win the franchise's first outright Pacific Coast League Championship since 1969. Over this time period, Brown also earned a pair of call ups to the Mariners' coaching staff, including a stint as the club's interim manager for the final 50 games of the 2010 season.

After working as Seattle's baserunning coordinator in 2014 and bunting and baserunning coordinator in 2015, Brown steered Double-A Jackson to a 84-55 (.604) record and Southern League Championship in 2016. He skippered Double-A Arkansas during the 2017-18 seasons before returning to Tacoma for the 2019 campaign. In 2021, Brown managed the Kingsport Axmen, a summer collegiate baseball team in the Appalachian League.

The son of former major leaguer Paul Brown, who pitched for parts of four seasons with the Philadelphia Phillies from 1961-63 and 1968, Daren was selected in the 29th round of the 1989 draft out of Southeastern Oklahoma State University. He pitched for five seasons in Toronto's organization from 1989-93, reaching as high as Double-A Knoxville. From 1994-99, Daren served as a player-coach (1994-97) and player-manager (1998-99) for Amarillo of the independent Texas-Louisiana League. He retired as a player following the 1999 season, which saw Brown win the circuit's Manager of the Year and Amarillo take the league championship, and managed the Dillas for one more season.

JUMBO SHRIMP BROADCASTER KORNBERG MAKES MLB DEBUT

Jacksonville play-by-play voice called Marlins-Mets on May 18th on the Marlins Radio Network.

Even the radio guys get call-ups as Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp Director radio play-by-play voice Scott Kornberg made his major league debut on May 18th when he joined the Miami Marlins Radio Network to broadcast the Marlins game against the New York Mets at Miami's loanDepot park.

Kornberg, who has called select Marlins' Spring Training games each of the last four seasons, paired with Miami Marlins broadcaster Kyle Sielaff and pregame host Stephen Strom on the Marlins Radio Network.

"There have been many times in which I was not sure if this day would ever happen," said Kornberg. "There are far too many people to thank who have had a hand in making this dream come true, but I do want to single out a few: To my wife, Madie, thank you for supporting me, loving me and believing in me every single step of the way. To my kids, Sam and Alma, thank you for showing me the most important job I have is to be your dad. To my parents, David and Paula, siblings, Michaela, Adam and Ian, and late grandparents, Marie, Mario, Libby and Julie, thank you for letting me dream that anything was possible. To mentors like Brian Boesch, Marco LaNave, Patrick Osterman, Noel Blaha and Nathan Barnett, thank you for giving me a chance and letting me make mistakes to grow as a person. To my broadcast partners, John Vittas, Joey Liberatore, Zach Bigley, Dr. Tom Cody, Roger Hoover, Matt Present, Toby Frazier and Matt Davis, thank you for helping me get better at this craft. To my closest friends, Tim, John, Jay, Spencer, Neil, Charlie, Eric, Allie, Daniel, Luke, Theresa, Jon and Lauren, thank you for being there for me always, picking up the phone and giving me some laughs when I needed them most on this journey. All of these people helped make this dream come true. We did it together.

"I'm so appreciative of the opportunity the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp and Fast Forward Sports Group have given me in Northeast Florida. And so grateful to Kyle Sielaff, Stephen Strom and the Miami Marlins for the chance to call a regular season Major League Baseball game. I cannot wait to get to Miami and live out this dream, even for one amazing day."

A native of Belle Mead, N.J., Kornberg is currently in the midst of his fifth season with Jacksonville and 10th in professional baseball. In addition to his broadcast duties, as the Jumbo Shrimp's Director of Broadcasting & Media Relations, he serves year-round in the club's front office as the primary media contact, helps manage the Jumbo Shrimp's presence and coverage on a variety of platforms and sells and services corporate clients, season ticket holders and group guests to 121 Financial Ballpark.

In February, Kornberg and current Marlins minor leaguer Troy Johnston launched the Turn 2 Podcast. Available on Apple Podcasts, Spotify and YouTube, "Turn 2 with Scott & Troy" gives listeners an unrivaled glimpse into the baseball world. The pair break down the biggest stories throughout baseball and welcome in the sport's players, managers, coaches and writers for behind-the-scenes stories and information.
