TEeing OFF

- GAME 3 DOMINATION: The Augusta GreenJackets took down the Columbia Fireflies for a fifth straight time in a 13-2 blowout win. Jordano Perez was a big story early as dealt a quality start for the GreenJackets and the offense spotted him runs early and often as the team broke through for a season-best four home runs.
- TORCHING THE FIREFLIES: The home run ball has been a key theme for the Augusta offense versus Columbia as they've now hit 14 homers against the Fireflies in 6 games, representing over half of the 26 big flies Augusta has hit this. Mahki Backstrom with his two home runs joins Cal Conley as the second Augusta hitter to home twice in a game off Columbia.
- OWNING THE RIVALS: The GreenJackets collected their fifth straight win versus Columbia on Thursday and have a chance to clinch their second series victory against their I-20 Rivals with a win on Friday and have out scored them by 28 runs through six games.
- EXTRA BASE KINGS: The Augusta bats lead the Carolina League in extra-base hits with 93 (50 2B, 17 3B, 26 HR). As a result, the GreenJackets are 2nd in the Carolina League in both SLG (.396) and OPS (.747).
- ROLL OVER: Jordano Perez in his first start at SRP Park educed 11 of his 18 outs on the ground and Landon Leach will look to follow suit as the sinker-baller is averaging a near 3/1 ground/air ball ratio.

BIO

CURRENT NOTES: (4/29 vs DEL) Tossed 5.2 innings and came up one out short of back-to-back quality starts but earned his first win by allowing just two runs, leading Augusta to a 6-4 win. (4/24 vs FAY) Tossed the first Quality Start of the Season for Augusta by throwing 6, magnificent innings allowing just one batter over the minimum while striking out a season-best 8 batters. (4/12 @ MB) Made his first start of the season and impressed by pitching five, shutout innings with 7 strikeouts. Released by the Minnesota Twins on February 18, 2022. Agreed to a minor-league contract with the Atlanta Braves on March 16 and will begin season in Augusta.

2021: Began 2021 with the GCL Twins. Made 3 short starts before being promoted to the Fort Meyer Mighty Muscle (Twins Low-A). Made 6 starts for Fort Meyers but ran into problem with his command during the month of July and struggled to go deep into games. Was moved to the bullpen for the final month of the season and had 3 total outings where he allowed 6 earned runs in 8 innings. Leach finished the season with a 6.06 ERA in 12 total appearances between the FCL Twins and Fort Meyers with 33 strikeouts and 26 walks in 35.2 innings.

CAREER: Drafted by the Minnesota Twins in the 2nd round and 37th overall pick in the 2017 MLB Draft. Was assigned to the GCL Twins following his selection and pitched well during his brief season there. Made 5 appearances with 2 starts and finished with a 2-0 record with both of wins coming in relief. Showed his potential in his best outing when he struck out 5 in 3 innings of relief against the Red Sox affiliate on August 11. Pitched for the GCL Twins again in 2018 but missed most of the season due to a significant injury and was also out all of 2019. Did not pitch in 2020 due to COVID-19.

HIGH SCHOOL: Played at Pickering High School in Ajax, Ontario. Was regarded as one of the top amateur pitchers in Canada due to a dominate fastball that worked low-mid 90's and topping at 96 while complimenting that with a slider and change up. Had the attention of professional scouts as a high draft pick in 2017. He committed to the University of Texas but ultimately was drafted by the Twins and elected to go to the pros rather than college.

(4/13 @ MB) Threw five, shutout innings in his first start of the season with five Ks en route to the first win for a GreenJackets starter pitcher in 2022

2021: Assigned to Augusta at the beginning of the season where he entered as the Braves' No. 24 prospect according to MLB Pipeline but faced a mostly difficult season due to injury. He appeared in 6 total games with 4 starts and only covered 14 innings during that time. Owens finished the season with a 7.07 ERA and an 0-3 record with a small sample size as his season came to end after one month as he was placed on the injured list on June 10 and never returned after that.

CAREER: Drafted by the Atlanta Braves in the 13th round of the 2019 MLB Draft. Spent the ensuing season split between the GCL Braves and the Rookie affiliate Danville where he finished the season with a combined 0-3 record with a 4.23 ERA in 10 appearances and 9 starts that covered 27.1 innings. Collected 32 strikeouts throughout the course of the year with 12 walks while holding opponents to an impressive .184 batting average against him. Did not pitch in 2020 due to COVID-19 Pandemic.

HIGH SCHOOL: Played high school baseball at Trinity Catholic in Ocala, Florida. Was the No. 90 ranked recruit nationally by Perfect Game and the No. 31 overall right-handed pitcher. Caught the eyes of scouts due to his strong velocity on his fastball that was consistently around 92-93 mph while topping in the mid-upper 90s. That along with his slider led him to a commitment to the University of Florida. Elected to forgo his scholarship after being drafted by the Braves.

2021: Spent season with GCL Braves where he did not appear much as he pitched just 5.1 innings. Had 3 total outings with 2 starts. Collected 6 strikeouts and 7 walks during that time with a .158 batting average against in the small sample size but saw great development once being selected by the Braves. His fastball velocity averaged 87-89 mph coming out of high school, he jumped that up significantly as he touched 95 mph during his time with the GCL Braves.

CAREER: Drafted by the Atlanta Braves in the 11th round of 2021 MLB Draft. Following his selection, he was assigned to the GCL Braves.

HIGH SCHOOL: Played at St. Benedict High School in Cambridge, Ontario. Left-hander projected very well at the next level due his big 6'6 frame, was the No. 2 overall high school in Ontario and top left-hander by Perfect Game. Committed to St. Johns University in New York but elected professional baseball instead after being selected by the Braves.

2021: Promoted to Augusta fro GCL Braves following COVID year and saw his most work in any professional season. Pena pitched 50.2 innings, doubling his previous high of 25 from his first year in DSL. Was used almost exclusively as a reliever making 26 appearances with one of those being a short start against Myrtle Beach on July 10 where he dealt 3 innings to begin the game. Had a tough start to the season as he allowed earned runs in all 4 of his outings in May but started to settle-in towards the end of the season. Pena finished the year with a 3.35 ERA in the months of August and September combined and started to get a feel for his stuff during that stretch with 23 strikeouts in the two months in 16.1 innings, earning him a 12.8 K/9 during that run.

CAREER: Signed by the Braves as an international free agent in 2017 from the Dominican Republic. Following his signing, the Braves designated him to the Dominican Summer League where he pitched well with a 3.96 ERA in 15 appearances and 25 innings all out of the bullpen. Earned a promotion to the GCL Braves in the 2018 where he continued to work exclusively out of the bullpen. Pitched 23.2 innings in 14 outings with a 5.32 ERA. Pitched in the GCL again in 2019 and improved from the year prior as he dropped his ERA to 1.88. Did not pitch as much in 2018, but saw his strikeout numbers improve in 2019 in the small sample size as he averaged about a strikeout an inning. Did not pitch in 2020 due to COVID-19 Pandemic.

CURRENT NOTES: (4/29 vs DEL) Tossed 5.2 innings and came up one out short of back-to-back quality starts but earned his first win by allowing just two runs, leading Augusta to a 6-4 win. (4/24 vs FAY) Tossed the first Quality Start of the Season for Augusta by throwing 6, magnificent innings allowing just one batter over the minimum while striking out a season-best 8 batters. (4/12 @ MB) Made his first start of the season and impressed by pitching five, shutout innings with 7 strikeouts. Released by the Minnesota Twins on February 18, 2022. Agreed to a minor-league contract with the Atlanta Braves on March 16 and will begin season in Augusta.

2021: Began 2021 with the GCL Twins. Made 3 short starts before being promoted to the Fort Meyer Mighty Muscle (Twins Low-A). Made 6 starts for Fort Meyers but ran into problem with his command during the month of July and struggled to go deep into games. Was moved to the bullpen for the final month of the season and had 3 total outings where he allowed 6 earned runs in 8 innings. Leach finished the season with a 6.06 ERA in 12 total appearances between the FCL Twins and Fort Meyers with 33 strikeouts and 26 walks in 35.2 innings.

CAREER: Drafted by the Minnesota Twins in the 2nd round and 37th overall pick in the 2017 MLB Draft. Was assigned to the GCL Twins following his selection and pitched well during his brief season there. Made 5 appearances with 2 starts and finished with a 2-0 record with both of wins coming in relief. Showed his potential in his best outing when he struck out 5 in 3 innings of relief against the Red Sox affiliate on August 11. Pitched for the GCL Twins again in 2018 but missed most of the season due to a significant injury and was also out all of 2019. Did not pitch in 2020 due to COVID-19.

HIGH SCHOOL: Played at Pickering High School in Ajax, Ontario. Was regarded as one of the top amateur pitchers in Canada due to a dominate fastball that worked low-mid 90's and topping at 96 while complimenting that with a slider and change up. Had the attention of professional scouts as a high draft pick in 2017. He committed to the University of Texas but ultimately was drafted by the Twins and elected to go to the pros rather than college.

Would earn the win in a 10 inning victory as he retired the side in order. (4/24 vs FAY) Pitched the final two innings and earned his first win of the season in the 6-5 victory. (4/19 vs FAY) Collected his first save of the season by getting the final six outs of the game. Retired the side in order in the eighth inning and then worked around a two-out walk from the Woodpeckers to secure the 8-6 win.

CAREER: Has not pitched in his professional career. Signed Minor League contract with Atlanta on November 28, 2021

COLLEGE: Played at Long Island University (NY) where he played for five seasons from 2017-2021. Was used as a two-way player early in his college career as he was a relief pitcher and played second base regularly. Heading into 2020, he transitioned into a full-time role as a relief pitcher and no longer hit. Made 4 appearances in the COVID-shortened season in 2020 and 17 in 2021 where he had his best season on the mound. He was tabbed as the Reliever of the Year in 2021 as he finished with a 0.68 ERA, recording 33 strikeouts in 30 innings. Opponents hit .194 against Griswold as the right-hander secured a team-best 5 saves and a 4-0 record in relief.

COACHING STAFF

NESTOR PEREZ

MANAGER

Nestor Perez brings familiarity to the Braves organization as he was the Manager of the Gulf Coast League Braves in 2021 and was on the coaching staff for the Mississippi Braves (AA) at the end of the season for a team that won the AA South Championship. 2022 marks his 10th season in Atlanta's organization as he comes to Augusta for his first season as the club's skipper. A native of Mantanzas, Cuba, Perez played in the Minor Leagues from 1998-2005 with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays and Colorado Rockies as a shortstop before signing to play in Spain at the highest level. Perez most notably played for Spain in the 2013 World Baseball Classic when the country appeared in the event for the first time.

MIKE STEED

PITCHING COACH

Mike Steed makes his way to Augusta from Beamsville in Ontario, Canada. Steed previously served as the Pitching Coordinator of the Ontario Blue Jays, Canada's top amateur baseball program as well as the Manager of the Thunder Bay Border Cats of the Northwoods League. Steed was entering his second stint as the Border Cats' Manager in 2020 and 2021 but the team was unable to participate in either season due to the COVID-19 Pandemic. He was the team's Pitching Coach in 2009 and was promoted to Manager in 2010 where he then led the Border Cats for two seasons.

CONNOR NARRON HITTING COACH

Connor Narron follows Nestor Perez from the GCL Braves to the GreenJackets. Narron comes from a baseball family as his father, Jerry Narron, played in the big leagues for eight seasons (1979-1987) and is currently a coach with the Chicago White Sox. Connor was a player himself and was drafted by the Baltimore Orioles in the fifth round of the 2010 Amateur Draft straight out of high school. He would play Minor League Baseball with the Orioles and Milwaukee Brewers from 2010-2014 before getting into coaching where he's been in the Braves organization since 2019.

MYLES SCHRODER BENCH COACH

Myles Schroder returns to the GreenJackets for his second year as a coach. Schroder was drafted in the 27th round by the San Francisco Giants in the 2007 Amateur Draft from Diablo Valley College. He played in the Giants minor league system from 2007-2018, including a season with the Augusta GreenJackets in 2012.
