A WEEK'S ROUNDUP

ENTERING THE WEEK:

The Kannapolis Cannon Ballers are oh-so-close to clinching their first playoff berth in team history, and the first playoff berth for Kannapolis baseball since 2018. The Ballers took five of six for the third week in a row, going on the road against the FredNats and swiping a handful of wins. Matt Hogan used a huge game on Sunday to take the lead in home runs and slugging percentage, while the offense as a whole is second in Single-A only behind the Modesto Nuts in batting average. Kannapolis sits with a magic number of five entering their series with Delmarva, firmly in the lead at 5.5 games over Columbia.

TUESDAY:

RHP JAKE BOCKENSTEDT VS. RHP BRAXTON BRAGG

Two batters produced multi-hit games for the Kannapolis Cannon Ballers in Matt Hogan and Albertson Asigen, who helped propel the Ballers to their first win of the week. The Ballers remained tied for the majority of the game, but powered ahead with a five-run 9th inning against the Shorebirds' bullpen. Kannapolis now holds a magic number of 3, with their victory over Delmarva and a Myrtle Beach win over Columbia. RHP Jake Bockenstedt turned in one of his best outings of the season with 6 strikeouts in 6.0 innings. With a clinch, Kannapolis would take their seventh half division title in franchise history, their first since 2018.

KANNAPOLIS CANNON BALLERS 2024 FIELD STAFF

PATRICK LEYLAND - MANAGER

Leyland makes his return to Kannapolis for a second season as manager, third as a member of the Cannon Ballers field staff and fifth overall within the White Sox player development staff. The son of soon-to-be Hall of Fame MLB manager Jim Leyland, Patrick was drafted in the 10th round in the 2010 MLB Draft by the Detroit Tigers. After a career of bouncing around in the minor leagues, the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania native got his start in coaching as a development coach at Class-A Delmarva in the Orioles organization. Leyland has a, 93-92, record in two seasons as a manager in the White Sox organization, including a, 67-64, record in 2023 with Kannapolis, the only above .500 record in Chicago's farm system in that season.

DANIEL MILLWEE - BENCH COACH

After playing in two different seasons in a Cannon Ballers uniform, Millwee retired from his playing career in 2023 to pursue a role in coaching baseball. The Summerfield, North Carolina native played collegiate baseball at Arizona and Pitts Community College before landing closer to home at High Point. Millwee erupted in 2019 to earn a 30th round draft selection by the White Sox. The former backstop worked his way through the minors to eventually play a total of 17 games with Kannapolis, batting .208 with 10 hits, six RBI and nine hit-by-pitches.

BLAKE HICKMAN - PITCHING COACH

Back for his second season in the same role, Hickman will look to build upon what was a successful first season of professional coaching. Inheriting one of the youngest and one of the more highly touted pitching rotations in 2023 with Kannapolis, Hickman helped develop star prospects and household names of the White Sox organization by leading the pitching staff to league-high numbers. The Chicago native appeared in 17 games in 2017 for Kannapolis after graduating from both the White Sox Amateur City Elite (ACE) program and Simeon Career Academy in Chicago.

CHARLIE ROMERO - HITTING COACH

Serving in the same role in 2021 and 2023, Romero brings wisdom and an expert knowledge in putting together strong at-bats. The La Romana, Dominican Republic native helped lead Kannapolis' offense to finish first in the Carolina League in RBI (579) and second in home runs (95) in 2023. Known as being well loved in the White Sox organization, Romero served as the assistant hitting coach in 2019 with the Dominican Summer League White Sox, coaching in his native country before joining Kannapolis' staff. Before becoming a coach, Romero played six years in the minor leagues within the Blue Jays and Angels organizations.

CHAERIN YEOM - TRAINER

Yeom makes her first appearance in Kannapolis in 2024 after serving as the athletic trainer for the ACL White Sox in 2023.

DONOVAN CLARK - PERFORMANCE COACH

Clark makes his professional baseball debut with the Ballers this season, bringing along experience in speed and athleticism coaching as the owner of AIK Sports Performance Training in Indiana.

30TH ANNIVERSARY SEASON OF CELEBRATION:

To mark a milestone, the Kannapolis Cannon Ballers revealed a season-long campaign on February 28 to commemorate 30 years of professional baseball in Kannapolis. Spanning three decades and interweaving itself within community, the history of affiliated professional baseball in Kannapolis includes the originating Piedmont Phillies (1995), Piedmont Boll Weevils (1996-2000), Kannapolis Intimidators (2001-2019) and current Kannapolis Cannon Ballers (2020-present).

The 30th Anniversary season officially kicks off on Tuesday, April 9th, when the Ballers take the field on Opening Night in Kannapolis against the Augusta GreenJackets at Atrium Health Ballpark. Utilizing special features, giveaways, ceremonies and in-game entertainment, the Cannon Ballers are planning to cherish the memories in many special ways during the upcoming year.

The Cannon Ballers introduced a commemorative logo celebrating 30 Years of Kannapolis Baseball. The logo, featuring a large "30" emblazoned across the crest, includes stylistic elements that were integral to each team's past identity. Fans can expect this special logo to be included on multiple giveaway items this season including the fan-favorite Hawaiian Shirt on Sunday, August 18th, Commemorative Pint Glass on Thursday, August 1st and multi-pack Anniversary Team Card Sets being distributed to fans on five select nights throughout the season.

The 30th Anniversary is proudly presented by Wayne Brothers Companies, key constructor to both Fieldcrest Cannon Stadium (1995-2019) and Atrium Health Ballpark (2020-present). Advocating the growth of Kannapolis for more than three decades, the locally based company has been a direct catalyst for development throughout the region. "Wayne Brothers maintains a core focus on being deeply rooted within our community," said Keith Wayne, President and CEO of Wayne Brothers Companies. "We take great pride in our contributions to the growth of Kannapolis."

Throughout the upcoming year, visitors can also look forward to strolling the ballpark and learning more about the rich history of affiliated baseball in Kannapolis by viewing a history walk of stars placed along the 360-degree concourse. Each star will include facts and figures that honor the greatest moments and individuals that have shaped Kannapolis' story to the present day.

On Saturday, June 22nd, baseball fans of all ages are invited to "Reunion Night," featuring the largest-ever gathering and celebration of former Kannapolis players, team staff, and key community officials. The special evening will feature ceremonies throughout the night, culminating with a post-game fireworks extravaganza.

Bringing the fun to life this season are the array of mascots that have been symbols of Kannapolis baseball over the past three decades. Coming out of retirement and interacting with fans all year long will be "Bo the Weevil," "Dub" and "Tim E. Gator" - all classic characters that are eager to showcase their antics alongside "Boomer," the current Cannon Ballers mascot.
