

RubberDucks Department Internship Bios

Creative Service: The creative service internship is an in-depth and technical internship that will prepare you for what it is like to work in a professional sports broadcast setting. Students will learn both basic and advanced elements of camerawork, production elements and videoboard maintenance and operation.

Finance: This is a flexible, fast paced internship intended to help fulfill graduation requirements for current undergraduate students with a primary focus in accounting. This internship will run from early May through the end of August right here at Canal Park. Interns will have the opportunity to gain hands-on experience with various software and learn the intricacies of working in Minor League Baseball.

Merchandise: This is a flexible merchandise internship with the RubberDucks at Canal Park. You will learn what goes into Minor League Baseball merchandise. Getting hands on experience working throughout the department during game time, pre and postgame. You will be directly interacting with customers and other interns and coworkers.

Community Relations: Do you find joy in helping others? Do you like making a meaningful impact in your community? Do you like to have FUN!? If so, as a valued intern in the Community Relations Coordinator in ensuring the Akron RubberDucks are fantastic community partners for the city and beyond, from planning to execution on game days!

Grounds Crew: Assist with upkeep, daily maintenance, repair and preparation of playing surface, including but not limited to high school and college baseball and “non-baseball” events. These include mowing, edging, painting, sodding, aerification and topdressing, irrigation repair and maintenance, clay work, and infield skin maintenance.

Media Relations & Social Media: The Akron RubberDucks media relations and social media internship is for hard-working students interested in sports media, creating content and telling baseball stories.

Promotions: Are you a creative thinker and not afraid to share ideas? Are you energetic with an outgoing personality and not afraid to perform in front of a large crowd? Are you looking to have some FUN this summer? If so, as a valued intern in the promotions department, you will assist the VP, Entertainment as well as the Promotions Coordinator in the planning and execution of a 69-game promotional schedule and bringing the best fan experience possible to Canal Park!

Ticketing: The goal of this internship is to help you gain a comprehensive understanding of how the ticketing department works for a minor-league baseball team.

Food & Beverage: In this internship you will be working directly with the Manager and Coordinator of Food & Beverage. The Food & Beverage department oversees all concession stands and portables, premium areas, warehouses, and private events.