WELCOME TO FREDERICK, RANDAL DIAZ!

by Gus Baylow

Broadcast Manager

The Frederick Keys recently bolstered the middle of their lineup by acquiring infielder Randal Diaz from the Washington Nationals in exchange for RHP Kyle Nicolas back on July 1.

Diaz has made an immediate impact during his first 11 games in a Keys uniform. In his first 40 at-bats, he already has two homers and seven RBIs, while hitting .300 at the plate, providing an early spark to the Keys offense.

Diaz has also spent time at first base in addition to playing all around the infield for Keys manager Collin Woody. His versatility has helped provide relief for both Ike Irish and Victor Figueroa, who have been their two primary first basemen throughout the 2026 campaign.

A week prior to his trade to the Orioles, he was playing against Frederick, as he began this season with the Nationals High-A affiliate in the Wilmington Blue Rocks. During his first 53 games in Delaware, he hit five homers while driving in 31 RBIs and finishing with a batting average of .253.

He also played several games against the Keys in two series during the first three months of the season, but quickly earned the respects of his current teammates and has enjoyed settling into the clubhouse with Frederick.

In his first full year with the Nationals organization, he spent the entire season with Single-A Fredericksburg and played a total of 112 games and finished with 45 RBIs while posting an average of .226 at the plate. This came after he was taken in the fifth round of the 2024 Draft by the Nationals after completing his college career with Indiana State.

As Diaz continues to get settled into the Orioles organization, he'll look to develop with a talented offense, who will have postseason baseball on their minds in the coming weeks.

A LOOK AROUND THE FARM SYSTEM

by Gus Baylow

Broadcast Manager

With the final month and a half of play set to commence, the Orioles farm system has remained busy with standout performances and player movements taking place as players look to finish their 2026 seasons strong in the heart of summer.

For the Single-A Orioles affiliate Delmarva Shorebirds, infielder Jaiden Lo Re was named Orioles Minor League Player of the Month for June following a historic month in which he finished with a .361 average and 14 RBIs while stealing 11 bases. He ranked first in the Orioles Minor League farm system in on-base percentage at .495 while being second in batting average. He also finished tied for second in total base hits with 26 and currently leads the Shorebirds in average at .347 through his first 29 games this season.

Meanwhile on the mound, right-handed pitcher Christian Rodriguez continues to dazzle in the starting role for the Shorebirds with a 2.71 ERA in 89.2 innings pitched through his first 18 appearances and 17 starts of the season. He also recorded 95 strikeouts to lead the Shorebirds this season while only issuing 26 walks to anchor the starting rotation down in Delmarva.

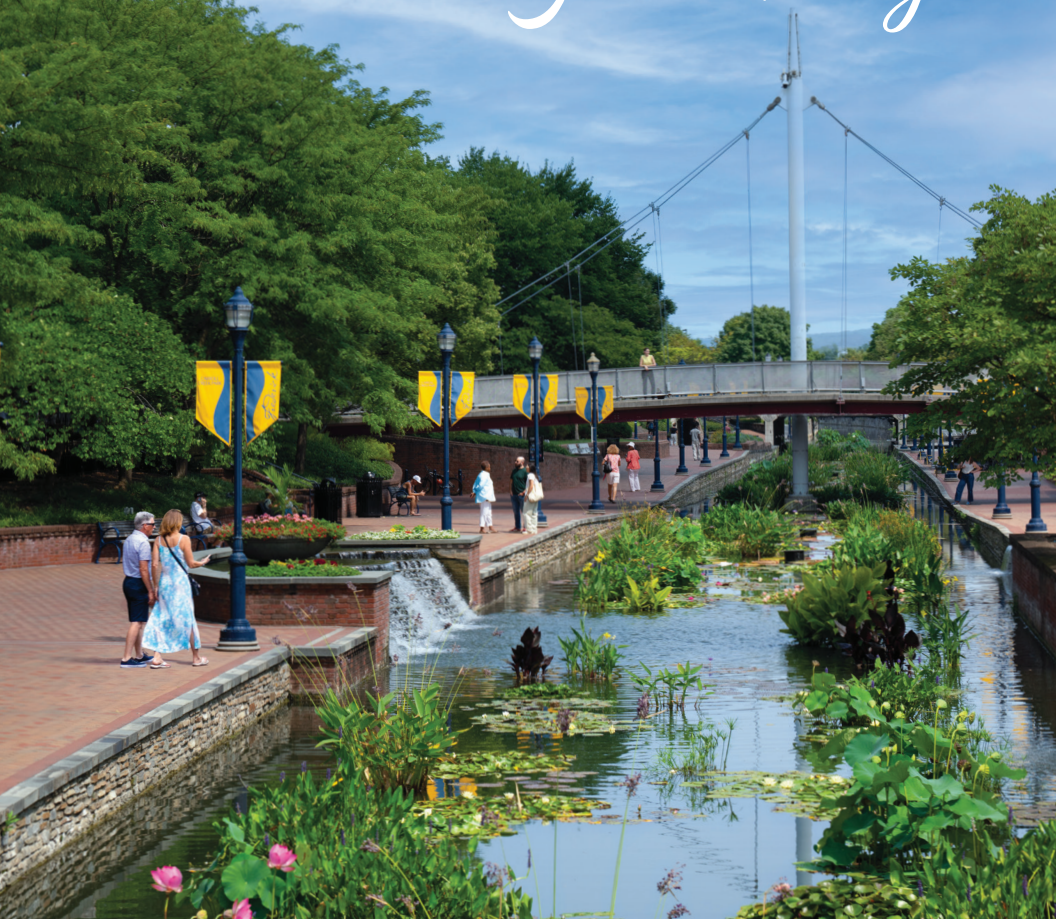

The Baysox's offense is led by top-30 Orioles prospect and infielder Aron Estrada, who has hit 14 homers while driving in 47 RBIs and recording a .272 average at the plate. Outfielder Thomas Sosa has recorded 10 homers himself this season which is tied for second on the active roster, helping the Baysox finish with a 12-8 record through the first 20 games of second half play and only trailing first place Erie by 3.5 games.

Left-handed pitcher Joseph Dzierwa shot up the Orioles farm system rankings earlier this month and is now the third-ranked Orioles prospect per MLB Pipeline. This comes after a 1.93 ERA during the month with only four walks allowed and 12 strikeouts in three appearances on the hill. His ERA with Double-A Chesapeake is currently at a 2.54 mark through 49.2 innings, holding his opponents to a .196 average on the mound.

Triple-A Norfolk has continued to see rising stars during the second half of the 2026 campaign, including outfielder Heston Kjerstad, who currently leads the Tides in average with a .282 clip across his first 48 games this season. He has also hit five homers while driving in 24 RBIs, helping lead Norfolk's offense throughout the International League.

Left-handed reliever Andrew Magno has led the Norfolk bullpen throughout most of the 2026 season, as he has thrown in 31 games while tossing 35.2 innings. He has recorded 37 strikeouts while allowing 20 walks, but has held opponents to just a .200 average to lead the Norfolk bullpen. He has also served as the team's primary closer with six saves in seven opportunities, finishing 16 of the 31 games he's pitched in this season.

BOSTON BATEMAN: YEAR ONE SUCCESS

by Gus Baylow

Broadcast Manager

Throughout the entirety of the 2026 campaign, the Keys have relied on a consistent starting rotation and at the center of that has been 10th-ranked Orioles prospect and left-handed pitcher Boston Bateman.

So far this season for Bateman, he has thrown in 17 games while making 14 starts during his first full season in the Orioles organization, as he currently has a 4.10 ERA across 68 innings pitched while leading the team in strikeouts with 89. Additionally, he's been in the starting rotation since April 30, when he began a stretch of five straight outings with not allowing more than one earned run in a single game.

The highlight of his first season in Birdland came during the month of May, when he was named Orioles Minor League Pitcher of the Month after making four starts and recording a 0.89 ERA in 20.1 innings pitched. His best outing during that four-game stretch took place in the second game of the series against the Greenville Drive at Nymeo Field, where he picked up his second win of the month and allowed zero runs on two hits with six strikeouts.

Despite all the accolades, Bateman has remained a team-first player and always picking up his teammates in times of need or even after a loss. Even though he stands at six-foot-eight and 240 pounds, he's referred to at times as a gentle giant for the way he gets along with fellow teammates and coaches as he gets used to the Orioles culture.

Bateman began his career with the San Diego Padres organization where he was drafted in the second round out of Camarillo High School in California in 2024 and quickly became one of the top pitching prospects two years ago. Prior to being dealt to Baltimore during the MLB Trade Deadline last year, he started 15 games for the Lake Elsinore Storm (Single-A affiliate of the Padres) and recorded 75 strikeouts while holding opponents to a .249 average at the dish.

As he continues to develop in the Orioles farm system, he certainly has the makings of Big-League potential as he aims to be a big-league starter in the years to come at Camden Yards

DARRYL STRAWBERRY IS COMING TO NYMEO FIELD FOR FAITH NIGHT

by Gus Baylow

Broadcast Manager

The Frederick Keys are delighted to welcome former New York baseball legend, 4-time World Series Champion, and 8-time All-Star Darryl Strawberry to Nymeo Field for an unforgettable Faith Night on Saturday, August 15.

Strawberry's name is synonymous with baseball greatness, but it is his remarkable personal journey—of struggle, redemption, and faith—that makes him one of the most compelling and inspiring voices in sports today. His presence promises to make this year's Faith Night especially memorable.

"We are thrilled to welcome Darryl Strawberry to Nymeo Field for our Faith Night," said Slater Fuchs, Keys General Manager. "Darryl is one of baseball's most recognizable names, but his story and message reach far beyond the game. We know this will be a special night for our fans, and we are honored to have him join us for such a meaningful event."

Strawberry will be available for autographs in the NJM Insurance Group Courtyard during an exclusive meet-and-greet opportunity for fans. Additional details and ticketing information for the autograph session will be announced soon.

Following the game, Strawberry will take center stage to share powerful, personal message as part of the evening's Faith Night program, alongside special musical performances from the Collective Church Band.

Faith Night is on track to become one of the biggest nights of the year.

Single game tickets are available now at FrederickKeys.com or by calling our box office at 301-815-9938. Groups of 10 or more can save on tickets by calling 301-815-9900.

QUINN NAMED ORIOLES JUNE MINOR LEAGUE PITCHER OF THE MONTH

by Roman Raffaeli

Broadcast Intern

After throwing 26.1 innings and striking out 21 batters in June, Keys right-handed pitcher JT Quinn has been named the Orioles Minor League Pitcher of the Month. The award is the third consecutive for a Keys pitcher and fifth Keys Player of the Month award overall. Former Key and current Chesapeake Baysox Joseph Dzierwa received the monthly honor in April while current Keys left-hander Boston Bateman received the honor for the month of May.

Quinn made five starts in June while earning his first win of the month in the final game of the first half on June 18. The 6-foot-6 righty took the ball in a must-win situation for Frederick and tossed five innings while striking out six and allowing two runs. The Keys went on to secure the South Atlantic League North Division First Half Title, beating the Hub City Spartanburgers (Rangers) by a score of 6-5.

He began the month with two starts against the Hudson Valley Renegades (Yankees), both coming in Frederick at Nymeo Field at Harry Grove Stadium. During his first start on June 2, the Tampa, Florida native struck out five while allowing two runs over four innings. His second start in the series on June 7 led to a Keys victory in the series finale after Quinn threw 4.2 innings while striking out three batters and allowing no walks on his tab.

The 69th overall pick in the 2025 draft also threw six innings against the Cyclones on June 13 on the road. Quinn struck out six over his six innings and allowed just one run on a pair of hits, helping the Keys win the game in extra innings and stay in the hunt for the first half title race during the final seven games of first half play.

His final start in the month came on the road against the Wilmington Blue Rocks (Nationals) back on June 25 at Frawley Stadium. Quinn threw a career high 6.2 innings of scoreless, two-hit ball while fanning five and allowing one walk. The longest outing of his career was also the first scoreless outing for Quinn since April 29 on the road against the Brooklyn Cyclones (Mets).

Quinn entered the season as the 19th-ranked prospect in the entire Baltimore Orioles organization and has been a starter since the start of the 2026 campaign, his first in professional baseball. He is one of three pitchers on the current roster who is a top-30 prospect in the Orioles farm system according to MLB Pipeline along with Bateman at No. 10 and right-hander Patrick Reilly, who is ranked at No. 24 on the list.

Catch JT Quinn and the Frederick Keys as they continue their first season back as a High-A affiliate of the Baltimore Orioles. For tickets, visit the Frederick Keys box office or go to www.frederickkeys.com

JORDIE HENRY CONTINUES TO ENJOY TIME IN THE ORIOLES FARM SYSTEM

by Gus Baylow
Broadcast Manager

Throughout this first year for Frederick back in Birdland, the Keys pitching staff has been at the top of the South Atlantic League in many statistical categories, helping Frederick win the first half of the South Atlantic League North Division and punching their ticket to the postseason for the first time in nine years.

A big reason for that has been pitching coach Jordie Henry, who is back in High-A for the first time since 2024 after last year serving as pitching coach for the Double-A Chesapeake Baysox and the formerly High-A Aberdeen IronBirds in 2024.

So far this season in the first 91 games, Henry's pitching staff ranks second in all of the South Atlantic League in team strikeouts with 932 as a group, only trailing the Hudson Valley Renegades (Yankees) by two for the league lead. Additionally, they have the second lowest ERA in the South Atlantic League with a 4.18 mark and are second to the Brooklyn Cyclones (Mets) who have a 4.13 ERA so far this year.

Being at the top of the league leaderboard is nothing new for Coach Henry as his staff last year in Chesapeake recorded 1,269 strikeouts which ranked third in the Eastern League. Back in 2024 with Aberdeen, his group finished with 1,357 strikeouts which was second most in the South Atlantic League and the second most in franchise history. Additionally, Aberdeen recorded its third no-hitter in franchise history during July of 2024.

Before joining the affiliated ranks, he served as a pitching coach for the FCL Orioles in the Florida Complex League and has mentored several of the Orioles top prospects over the last several seasons including Keys right-handed pitcher Yeiber Cartaya, who has been working with Henry since 2022 when he was signed as a free agent. He's also mentored the likes of left-hander Joseph Dzierwa and right-hander JT Quinn, both of whom were taken in the second round of the 2025 MLB Draft as some of the highest drafted pitchers in the Mike Elias era.

As the Keys make their push in the second half and prepare for the postseason in the coming weeks, Coach Henry and his staff will continue to develop their top arms, hoping to be at their best heading into playoff baseball for the first time since 2017.

Catch the Frederick Keys as they continue their first season back as a High-A affiliate of the Baltimore Orioles. For tickets, visit the Frederick Keys box office or go to www.frederickkeys.com.

AROUND THE SOUTH ATLANTIC LEAGUE

by Gus Baylow

Broadcast Manager

With the 2026 All-Star Break now complete, all sights turn to the homestretch of the 2026 season, as there are only six series left beginning the last week of July on Tuesday, July 28. The second half began on Friday, June 19, while the Keys were still in the middle of a six-game series against the Hub City Spartanburgers (Rangers) at Nymeo Field.

Through the first 23 games of second half play as of Monday, July 20, the Keys are 13-10 and currently sit in third place in the South Atlantic League North Division standings. With the Keys winning the first half title, Frederick has already punched their ticket into the postseason and will be playing baseball later in September regardless of their second half record. However, what is still unclear is who their opponent will be in the first round of the South Atlantic League playoffs, which begin on Tuesday, September 8.

The Greensboro Grasshoppers (Pirates) currently lead the South Atlantic League North Division through their first 24 games of second half play, holding a one game lead over the Wilmington Blue Rocks (Nationals), who are in second place and are a half-game ahead of Frederick as well. The Hudson Valley Renegades (Yankees) and Brooklyn Cyclones (Mets) are both only a half-game and game behind the Keys respectively in fourth and fifth place. The Jersey Shore BlueClaws (Phillies) round out the standings in the North Division with a 5-18 record and are 9.5 games back of first place Greensboro.

As for the South Division, the Bowling Green Hot Rods (Rays) are in first place in the current second half standings, despite already winning the first half and clinching their ticket to the postseason. The Asheville Tourists trail Bowling Green by a game, but due to playoff rules, they would be the other team in the South Division that would make a playoff spot in 2026.

In the final six weeks of the second half season, the Keys will square off against the Wilmington Blue Rocks (Nationals) two times, while hosting two South Division teams in Bowling Green (August 11-16) and Asheville (August 25-30). They will also make road trips to Jersey Shore (August 4-9) and Brooklyn (September 1-6) before getting ready for postseason play starting on September 8 on the road.

JBL ANNOUNCED FOR 2026 WRESTLING NIGHT

by Roman Raffaeli

Broadcast Intern

The Frederick Keys are excited to host their Annual Wrestling Night, welcoming WWE Hall of Fame wrestler John “Bradshaw” Layfield—better known as JBL—on Saturday, August 29 as part of Country Weekend at Nymeo Field at Harry Grove Stadium.

JBL joins an elite roster of WWE superstars who have visited the Keys for Wrestling Night, and he may be the most decorated yet. A former football player turned professional wrestler, JBL captured the WWE Championship in 2004 and held the title for 280 days, a reign that cemented his status as one of the sport’s most memorable villains.

Before his in-ring retirement at WrestleMania 25 in 2009, he earned his first Intercontinental Championship, becoming the 20th Triple Crown Champion and the 10th Grand Slam Champion in WWE history.

Known for his rough-and-tough, larger-than-life persona—a bombastic Texas businessman who arrived at the arena by limousine—JBL’s character was inspired by his real-life success as a stock market investor. Since stepping away from competition, he has remained a fixture in the wrestling world as an on-air commentator and was inducted into the WWE Hall of Fame with the Class of 2020. Today, he also serves as a financial commentator for Fox News and Fox Business, and as an English color commentator for Lucha Libre AAA Worldwide.

“Wrestling Night is a great tradition and a staple here in Frederick, and we’ve been fortunate to host some of the biggest names in WWE history,” said Branden McGee, Managing Director of the Frederick Keys. “JBL is a great addition to that list, and we can’t wait to welcome him to Nymeo Field.”

JBL will be available for an exclusive meet-and-greet opportunity in the NJM Insurance Group Courtyard from 3:30pm to 4:30pm. Additional details and ticketing information for the exclusive meet-and-greet will be announced soon. Following the exclusive session, JBL will be available starting when gates open at Nymeo Field at Harry Grove Stadium at 5:00 p.m. for a public autograph session on the concourse until 7pm. Wrestling Night is part of Country Weekend and will feature a fireworks show presented by Potomac Edison after the game.

Single game tickets are available now at FrederickKeys.com or by calling our box office at 301-815-9938. Groups of 10 or more can save on tickets by calling 301-815-9900.

FREDERICK KEYS FAN BEHAVIOR POLICY

The Frederick Keys are committed to creating a family-friendly and welcoming environment at the ballpark for all guests. As part of that commitment, we have adopted this written policy addressing fan behavior. The policy includes a Fan Code of Conduct, which is fan-facing and describes how fans are expected to behave.

All Frederick Keys staff, including game-day staff, must receive a copy of this policy before working any games. In addition, all staff must receive annual training on this policy, the substance of the Fan Code of Conduct, and how to respond to prohibited fan behavior. All training will be documented.

A copy of the Fan Code of Conduct can be found at any entrance gate to the ballpark, at any guest services booth, on www.FrederickKeys.com, and in the official game program.

Fans will be notified before and during the game through public service announcements ("PSAs") on the main video board that summarize the Fan Code of Conduct, the penalties for violation, and how to report prohibited behavior.

Reporting An Incident

Any game-day staff member who witnesses or receives a report of prohibited fan behavior by a fan must report the incident to a Club security supervisor. This can be done by contacting your immediate supervisor, notifying a nearby security staff member, or by contacting (301) 662-0013.

Use of derogatory language by a fan toward a player, umpire, Club staff, or their family members must be documented by the Club and reported to the Club's General Manager and to the Commissioner's Office via email to PDLsecurity@mlb.com. Clubs must seek to collect the name and identifying information of the fan and must include in their report a description of how the Club addressed the incident and any planned discipline.

Fan Code of Conduct

In order to provide a welcoming experience for all, the Frederick Keys have implemented a Fan Code of Conduct. Out of respect for fellow guests, players, coaches, and ballpark staff, all guests are prohibited from:

- Trespassing on the playing field at any time;
- Interfering with baseballs that are in play;
- Throwing or tossing objects;
- Using foul, obscene or derogatory language (see below) or gestures;
- Misusing or overconsuming alcohol, including, underage consumption;
- Behaving in a manner that is disruptive, unruly, or abusive;
- Accessing areas of the ballpark without a proper ticket, pass, or credential;
- Misusing tickets, passes, or credentials in any way; or
- Bringing prohibited items into the ballpark.

Derogatory language is defined as offensive language concerning a person's race, ethnicity, gender, religion, disability, age, sexual orientation, or national origin, and anyone using such language is subject to automatic ejection from the ballpark.

Violations of the Fan Code of Conduct will not be tolerated and may lead to ejection from the ballpark, a ban on attending future games, or other consequences. Guests who are found to have used derogatory language will be ejected from the ballpark.

Guests are encouraged to report violations of the Fan Code of Conduct to the nearest ballpark staff member. This can be done in person, at the nearest Guest Services location, directly with Ballpark Security or by calling (301) 662-0013.
