GAME RECAP:

The Reading Fightin Phils held the lead for three innings in a tight contest, but they couldn't hold onto it down the stretch. The Binghamton Rumble Ponies scored four runs in the ninth inning and took a 6-4 win on Friday in Baseballtown. James McArthur, the Phillies #20 prospect, threw Reading's best start of the season going six strong without allowing a run.

McArthur Stays Strong:

James McArthur continued his streak of strong starts for the Reading Fightin Phils. Friday marked McArthur's fifth start in the month of May. He tied a season-best six innings of work against the Rumble Ponies last night and gave his team a chance to win early on in the game in a tight pitcher's duel. The right-hander allowed four hits but kept Binghamton off the scoreboard through the first six innings of the game. He also tallied three strikeouts. Through his five starts in May, he pitched 25.1 innings, gave up nine runs and struck out 26 batters.

SUCCESSFUL STREAKS SNAPPED:

Two players have very impressive streaks going for the Fightin Phils. Ali Castillo had a hit in his past eight games while Logan O'Hoppe had done it in the past eleven contests. Castillo completed his all with singles, which was great for a leadoff hitter to get on base. O'Hoppe, the Phillies #5 prospect, had mixed in six homeruns and some other extra base hits which is ideal for the usual clean up hitter. He did walk once last night to keep his on-base streak alive for twelve games.

KOMEBACK KEVIN

Kevin Vicuna returned to the Reading Fightin Phils on Thursday after spending time on the injured list. He started both games in the field and gave the team a spark at the plate. On Thursday, his first game back, Vicuna played second base and had a hit. He was also hit by pitch with the bases loaded and credited with an RBI when Aldrem Corredor crossed home plate. Vicuna played right field last night. He was the only R-Phil to have more than one hit in the game as he finished with two hits and two runs scored. Vicuna took over the team lead in triples on Friday as he hustled out a fly ball to center field in the bottom of the seventh inning. He also scored a run in the bottom of the ninth inning when Reading was trying to mount a comeback.

BIG LEAGUE CLUB WATCH:

The Phillies fell to the Mets 8-6 on the road last night. After falling behind early in the contest, the Phillies made it a one-run game in the top of the sixth inning. A string of four singles by Rhys Hoskins, Alec Bohm, Bryce Harper and Nick Castellanos plated the team's first two runs of the night. Jean Segura followed with an RBI groundout. After Odubel Herrera walked to put runners on first and second base, Garrett Stubbs hit a home run to right field, making the score 7-6. Bailey Falter took the loss on the mound in his second Major League start. He allowed five runs on four hits through three innings of work.

ON THIS DAY IN BASEBALLTOWN HISTORY:

May 28, 1993: At Binghamton, Reading scores all six runs in the 4th inning to beat the Mets, 6-4.
