NEWS AND NOTES:

- Last Time Out: The Chiefs were blanked by the Great Lakes Loons for the second time in three days in a 6-0 defeat Saturday. Peoria starter Dionys Rodriguez tied his season high with eight strikeouts in the loss. Reliever Chris Gerard logged two innings in his High-A debut. Mack Chambers was a bright spot for the offense as he reached base three times.
- Run, Chiefs, Run!: Peoria enters action this afternoon with 152 swipes in 182 attempts (.835). The 152 steals are good for eighth most in a single season in franchise history and the most since 2015 (157). Yet, the Chiefs still have a long way to go to get the franchise record. The 2001 Chiefs stole 249 bases, paced by Chris Evans' 111 stolen bases, the Midwest League all-time record.
- Back to You: The Chiefs will turn to Inohan Paniagua in an effort to stop their four-game skid at the hands of the Loons. Paniagua was sharp on Tuesday as he weaved his way out of a couple of jams. All told, the young righty logged six innings and allowed just one run on the way to his first career quality start at the High-A level. Paniagua is as good of option as any in an attempt to stop a losing streak. The 22-year-old was named the Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Month for both June and July. He is just one of four hurlers to win the award in consecutive months, joining Rick Ankiel, Bud Smith and 2022 Chiefs hurler Gordon Graceffo.
- So Long, Farewell: Sunday marks Peoria's final game of the season against the Midwest League's East Division. On the year, the Chiefs are 16-19 against the opposite division and are 5-6 entering the final game of their 12-game road swing through the eastern time zone. Peoria is also playing for a chance to win the season series against Great Lakes, the High-A affiliate of the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Chiefs are 6-5 against the Loons in 2022.
- About the Chiefs: The 2022 season marks the Chiefs 20th year of affiliation with the St. Louis Cardinals. Additionally, Dozer Park is celebrating its 20th year of operation after it opened in May of 2002. As a franchise, the Chiefs have sent more than 200 players to the majors, including Rafael Palmeiro, and current Cardinals Albert Pujols and Yadier Molina. The organization has also retired four numbers- #6 for Wally Joyner, #17 for Mark Grace, #23 for former manager Ryne Sandberg and #31 for Hall of Fame pitcher Greg Maddux.
