EXECUTIVES

JEFF EISMAN

PRESIDENT

In his role as President, Jeff manages the strategic direction of the business and all of its assets/partnerships specifically focusing on business development, sales, marketing, and over-all business operations functions. 2018 set a milestone for the Augusta franchise as they opened the award winning and brand new $42M+ “state of the art” SRP Park. The park in its first season helped the team achieve a franchise attendance record.

Jeff spent the previous ten years at Ripken Baseball where he served as the Executive Vice President, responsible for business development efforts and executive level sales direction for the Company. Under his influence, Jeff led the start-up and management of the Aberdeen IronBirds which sold out every game under his watch for ten straight seasons, as well as the launch of the Florida State League’s most successful start-up in league history, the Charlotte Stone Crabs. Jeff also worked for Mandalay Sports Entertainment starting as an Account Executive and eventually serving as the Executive Vice President of the Las Vegas Triple-A franchise. During his tenure in Las Vegas the club set franchise records in sponsorships and ticket sales.

Jeff holds Bachelors in Sports Management from the University of Maryland and has had the honor of being recognized with numerous awards such as, Executive of Year honors, Larry MacPhail Promotional Award, John H. Johnson President’s Trophy, Bob Freitas Award for Outstanding Minor League Operations and Baltimore’s “Top 40 under 40” by the Baltimore Business Journal.

TOM DENLINGER

VICE PRESIDENT

Tom Denlinger embarks on his eighth season with the GreenJackets and his third as the Vice President after being the General Manager from 2014-2017 and after spending the previous four years as the Assistant General Manager of the Richmond Flying Squirrels. The 2022 season will mark the 20th year of working in Minor League Baseball.

A native of Paradise, PA Tom graduated from Messiah College with a degree in Sports Management. Prior to his time with Richmond, he spent time working with the Daytona Cubs, Delmarva Shorebirds and got his start in baseball with the Reading Phillies.

BRANDON GREENE

GENERAL MANAGER

Brandon Greene embarks on his 19th season in Minor League Baseball and his 7th with the Augusta GreenJackets. In the summer of 2017, Brandon was named General Manager after being the Assistant General Manager from 2015-2017.

A native of Muncie, Indiana, Brandon graduated from Ball State University with a degree in Sport and Business Administration. In 14 years Brandon has lived up the East Coast with previous stops in Daytona Beach, FL (Daytona Cubs), Allentown, PA (Lehigh Valley IronPigs) and Richmond, VA (Richmond Flying Squirrels.)

MIKE STEED

PITCHING COACH

Pitching Coach Mike Steed makes his way to Augusta from Beamsville in Ontario, Canada. Steed previously served as the Pitching Coordinator of the Ontario Blue Jays, Canada's top amateur baseball program as well as the Manager of the Thunder Bay Border Cats of the Northwoods League. Steed was entering his second stint as the Border Cats' Manager in 2020 and 2021 but the team was unable to participate in either season due to the COVID-19 Pandemic. He was the team's Pitching Coach in 2009 and was promoted to Manager in 2010 where he then led the Border Cats for two seasons.

FIELD STAFF

CONNOR NARRON

HITTING COACH

Augusta's new Hitting Coach, Connor Narron follows Nestor Perez from the GCL Braves to the GreenJackets. Narron comes from a baseball family as his father, Jerry Narron, played in the big leagues for eight seasons (1979-1987) and is currently a coach with the Chicago White Sox. Connor was a player himself and was drafted by the Baltimore Orioles in the fifth round of the 2010 Amateur Draft straight out of high school. He would play Minor League Baseball with the Orioles and Milwaukee Brewers from 2010-2014 before getting into coaching where he's been in the Braves organization since 2019.

CAREER NOTES

CURRENT NOTES: Released by the Minnesota Twins on February 18, 2022. Agreed to a minor-league contract with the Atlanta Braves on March 16 and will begin season in Augusta.

2021: Began 2021 with the GCL Twins. Made 3 short starts before being promoted to the Fort Meyer Mighty Muscle (Twins Low-A). Made 6 starts for Fort Meyers but ran into problem with his command during the month of July and struggled to go deep into games. Was moved to the bullpen in the for the final month of the season and had 3 total outings where he allowed 6 earned runs in 8 innings. Leach finished the season with a 6.06 ERA in 12 total appearances between the FCL Twins and Fort Meyers with 33 strikeouts and 26 walks in 35.2 innings.

CAREER: Drafted by the Minnesota Twins in the 2nd round and 37th overall pick in the 2017 MLB Draft. Was assigned to the GCL Twins following his selection and pitched well during his brief season there. Made 5 appearances with 2 starts and finished with a 2-0 record with both of wins coming in relief. Showed his potential in his best outing when he struck out 5 in 3 innings of relief against the Red Sox affiliate on August 11. Pitched for the GCL again in 2018 but missed most of the season due to a significant injury and also was out all of 2019. Did not pitch in 2020 due to COVID-19.

HIGH SCHOOL: Played at Pickering High School in Ajax, Ontario. Was regarded as one of the top amateur pitchers in Canada due to a dominate fastball that worked low-mid 90's and topping at 96 while complimenting that with a slider and change up. Had the attention of professional scouts as a high draft pick in 2017. He committed to the University of Texas but ultimately was drafted by the Twins and elected to go to the pros rather than college.

CAREER NOTES

2021: Assigned to Augusta at the beginning of the season where he entered as the Braves' No. 24 prospect according to MLB Pipeline but faced a mostly difficult season due to injury. He appeared in 6 total games with 4 starts and only covered 14 innings during that time. Owens finished the season with a 7.07 ERA and an 0-3 record with a small sample size as his season came to end after one month as he was placed on the injured list on June 10 and never returned after that.

CAREER: Drafted by the Atlanta Braves in the 13th round of the 2019 MLB Draft. Spent the ensuing season split between the GCL Braves and the Rookie affiliate Danville where he finished the season with a combined 0-3 record with a 4.23 ERA in 10 appearances and 9 starts that covered 27.1 innings. Collected 32 strikeouts throughout the course of the year with 12 walks while holding opponents to an impressive .184 batting average against him. Did not pitch in 2020 due to COVID-19 Pandemic.

HIGH SCHOOL: Played high school baseball at Trinity Catholic in Ocala, Florida. Was the No. 90 ranked recruit nationally by Perfect Game and the No. 31 overall right-handed pitcher. Caught the eyes of scouts due to his strong velocity on his fastball that was consistently around 92-93 mph while topping in the mid-upper 90s. CAREER NOTES 2021: Promoted to Augusta from GCL Braves following COVID year and saw his most work in any professional season. Pena pitched 50.2 innings, doubling his previous high of 25 from his first year in DSL. Was used almost exclusively as a reliever making 26 appearances with one of those being a short start against Myrtle Beach on July 10 where he dealt 3 innings to begin the game. Had a tough start to the season as he allowed earned runs in all 4 of his outings in May but started to settle-in towards the end of the season. Pena finished the year with a 3.35 ERA in the months of August and September combined and started to get a feel for his stuff during that stretch with 23 strikeouts in the two months in 16.1 innings, earning him a 12.8 K/9 during that run.

CAREER: Signed by the Braves as an international free agent in 2017 from the Dominican Republic. Following his signing, the Braves designated him to the Dominican Summer League where he pitched well with a 3.96 ERA in 15 appearances and 25 innings all out of the bullpen. Earned a promotion to the GCL Braves in the 2018 where he continued to work exclusively out of the bullpen. Pitched 23.2 innings in 14 outings with a 5.32 ERA. Pitched in the GCL again in 2019 and improved from the year prior as he dropped his ERA to 1.88. CAREER NOTES

2021: Pitched for the GCL Braves to begin 2021 where he took his game to a new level. The right-hander was promoted to Augusta on September 7 and showed much promise between the two teams. With the GCL Braves, worked as reliever and as an opener and kept opponents off the board in 7 of his 10 outings. Salinas' strikeout ability is what caught the most attention as he struck out at least 3 batters in all his 10 appearances, including a 10 strikeout performance in 4 innings on August 31, his final outing with the GCL Braves. He was then promoted to Augusta in September where he impressed in 3 starts. In 14 innings of work, he allowed just 1 run and struck out 18. In the process, he earned 2 wins as a starter.

CAREER: Signed as an International Free Agent by the Atlanta Braves out of Venezuela in November of 2018. Pitched all of 2019 with the Dominican Summer League Braves and appeared in 17 games as a reliever. He dealt 33 innings over the course of the season with a 3.82 ERA while collecting 37 strikeouts. Following the season, Salinas was promoted to the GCL Braves.

AUGUSTA GREENJACKETS HALL OF FAME

2013 - TIM WAKEFIELD

Wakefield was voted into the inaugural class of the GreenJackets Baseball Hall of Fame. He was a member of the Augusta Pirates in 1989 and played both first and third base that season. After being told, "He would never make it past double-A as a first baseman," Wakefield began to work on becoming a pitcher by mastering the knuckleball.

2013 - PABLO SANDOVAL

Sandoval was voted into the inaugural class of the GreenJackets Baseball Hall of Fame. Signed by the San Francisco Giants as an undrafted free agent in 2004, Sandoval was a member of the GreenJackets in the 2006 season. He played in 117 games as a first and third baseman, notching 116 hits, 49 RBIs and a .265 batting average.

2014 - BILL HEATON

In 1988, longtime baseball fan and U.S. Army Lieutenant Colonel (retired) Bill Heaton put together a partnership to bring baseball back to Augusta after it left in 1963 for 25 years. It was a huge undertaking, but he succeeded in securing a franchise in the reorganized South Atlantic League. He then got an agreement with the Pittsburgh Pirates to provide players and coaches and hastily built a no-frills ballpark named Heaton Stadium. The Augusta Pirates, in their second year, won the SAL title.

2014 - STAN SWANN

For as long as GreenJackets baseball has been in Augusta, Stan has been a fixture at the Ballpark. Stan is a season ticket holder and a member of the GreenJackets Diamond Club. Since 1995, Stan has been an active member of the Special Olympics GA – Augusta Stars. He enjoys bowling and his skills have won him countless gold medals. He is a true fan.

2015 - MADISON BUMGARNER

Drafted by the San Francisco Giants in the first round of the 2007 MLB Draft, Bumgarner was a member of the GreenJackets for the 2008 season. He started 24 games, finishing with a 15-3 record, 164 strikeouts, and a 1.46 ERA. He obtained the South Atlantic League pitcher's "Triple Crown." Behind his efforts, the GreenJackets went on to win the Southern Division second-half title, the Southern Division Championship, and the SAL Championship.

2016 - ROBERTO KELLY

The former all-star outfielder managed the GreenJackets from 2005-2007. He guided them to a 285-157 record and two playoff appearances. During his tenure, he was known and beloved by his players as a great teacher of the game. In 2006, Kelly won the SAL Manager of the Year Award. He guided the GreenJackets to the best record in all of MLB in 2006 (92-47) and 2007 (89-51).

2017 - JON LESTER

Drafted by the Boston Red Sox in the Second Round of the 2002 MLB Draft out of high school, Lester pitched for the GreenJackets during the 2003 season. During his time with the GreenJackets, he posted a 6-9 record and a 3.65 ERA in 21 starts and 24 total appearances on the mound.

2018 - KEVIN YOUKILIS

Youkilis was drafted by the Boston Red Sox in the eighth round of the 2001 MLB Draft. Youkilis played for the GreenJackets from 2001-2002. In 20 games in a GreenJackets uniform, he batted 262 with 6 RBIs. In 2002, Youkilis would be named the Boston Red Sox Minor League Player of the Year.

2019 - SERGIO ROMO

Romo spent the 2006 season with the Augusta GreenJackets after being drafted by the San Francisco Giants in the 2005 MLB Draft. He helped the GreenJackets win the South Division second-half title, boasting a 10-2 record and a 2.53 ERA while racking up 95 strikeouts. The three-time World Series Champion was named an SAL mid-season All-Star during his time with the GreenJackets.

SRP PARK

SRP PARK

HOME OF THE GREENJACKETS

SRP Park in North Augusta, South Carolina, is the home of the Augusta GreenJackets. It is the center of North Augusta's growing and thriving downtown scene. SRP Park was voted Ballpark Digest's 2018 Ballpark of the Year and BaseballParks.com's Ballpark of the Year during the 2018 Inaugural Season.

SRP Park in North Augusta, South Carolina, is the home of the Augusta GreenJackets. It is the center of North Augusta's growing and thriving downtown scene. SRP Park was voted Ballpark Digest's 2018 Ballpark of the Year and BaseballParks.com's Ballpark of the Year during the 2018 Inaugural Season.

During the Inaugural Season at SRP Park, the GreenJackets welcomed 255,155 fans, which was up 48 percent in attendance from the previous years at their old home, Lake Olmstead Stadium (Augusta, GA). This was also the highest attendance growth in all of professional baseball (MLB & MiLB). The team set a franchise record in single-season attendance as well as single-game stadium attendance. The GreenJackets were awarded the South Atlantic League's (SAL) nomination for the Charles K. Murphy Award during the Inaugural Season as well.

Located across the Savannah River from the edge of downtown Augusta in North Augusta, South Carolina, SRP Park is the centerpiece of the Riverside Village development (known formerly as Project Jackson). A modern mixed-use development with hotels, residential, office and retail. Riverside Village is an ambitious project undertaken by the city and investors.
