ALTOONA CURVE HISTORY

The future site of Blair County Ballpark with nearby Lakemont Park in the distance

The dream of one native son that began decades ago has not only become a reality, but is about to enter its 20th season in 2018. The story of the Altoona Curve begins in 1979. Area native Bob Lozinak, a successful McDonald's franchisee, knew his hometown was a baseball haven and always dreamed of what it would be like to have a professional sports feam in his hometown. He had a chance to make a dream of many come to fruition, so as the 1970s were about to come to a close, a series of meetings and preliminary discussions took place to put the plan into motion. However, there was enough opposition that thwarted the idea as an initial fear from natives was that a professional team would hurt the successful youth teams in the region. Professional baseball, for the time being, was put on the back burner.

In the meantime, that same year, Bob and his family went across the country and bought what became one of the most successful franchises in the entire country - the Albuquerque Dukes (AAA - Dodgers)

Fast-forward 16 years.

Like many other decisions in baseball, the latest round of major league expansion had a domino effect on the minor leagues. In 1995, Arizona and Tampa Bay were awarded major league franchises to play their inaugural season in 1998. To keep pace, baseball's rookie level added two teams in 1996. The following year, Class 'A' and Class 'AAA' each increased by two teams.

That left only Class 'AA' in need of expansion to match the number of teams in the big leagues. In 1997, the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues decided the Eastern League would receive the two new franchises to start play in 1999. Erie was an easy first choice of the NAPBL's expansion committee. After all, the SeaWolves had established short-season attendance records in the new Jerry Uht Park as part of the New York-Penn League from 1995-98.

Groundbreaking ceremonies on March 7, 1998

The awarding of the second franchise wasn't easy. For months, it seemed Springfield, Mass. would land the team. However, an inability to finalize land and stadium finance deals left the NAPBL looking for another option. Enter Altoona. City native Bob Lozinak and a group of Pennsylvania lawmakers put together an 11th-hour stadium financing package and site plan. The proposal was presented to the expansion committee at an October 5, 1997 meeting in Las Vegas. It received unanimous approval and Double-A baseball was on its way to Altoona.

Ballpark groundbreaking ceremonies took place on March 7, 1998 and the franchise was officially awarded the following month. In June of that year, the team selected "Curve" as its nickname. The combination railroad/baseball moniker beat out several choices like "Lake Monsters," "Ridge Runners" and, believe it or not, "Fish"!

The next step for the Curve was affiliating with a major league team. Erie seemed to have an inside track on becoming the Pirates' new Double-A club, as the SeaWolves had served as Pittsburgh's short-season club from 1995-98.

coveted affiliation with the Pirates. The September 1998 announcement took the franchise to another level as the U.S. Route 22 pairing seemed an ideal fit. Central Pennsylvania fans, with their strong Pirates' roots, could now cheer for the Bucs' top prospects on their way to Pittsburgh.

The long-awaited first game in Curve history took place on April 9, 1999 in Reading, Pa. The game against the Phillies' affiliate was suspended by rain and completed the next day as part of a doubleheader. For the record, the Curve lost their first contest, 6-2, but recorded their first win hours later with a 6-4 decision in game two.

Finally, the Curve christened Blair County Ballpark on April 15 with a triumph over the Bowie Baysox. A crowd of 6,171 attended the history-making contest despite cold, rainy weather and nearly a one-hour delay.

The 1999 Curve went 67-73 on the field and finished last in the Eastern League's Southern Division. Pitcher Bronson Arroyo won 15 games, tied for the most in the league and still the most in a single season for a Curve pitcher. Outfielder Adam Hyzdu cemented himself as the Curve's first star, hitting .316 with 24 home runs. Third baseman Kevin Haverbusch was the Curve's lone representative at the Double-A All-Star Game in Mobile, Ala.

On July 25, 1999, catcher Yamid Haad became the first Curve alum to reach the Majors, debuting with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

323,932 fans flocked to Blair County Ballpark during the inaugural season.

In 2000, the Curve posted a 74-68 record, their first winning season, and saw 333,968 fans at Blair County Ballpark. Adam Hyzdu returned for a second season with the Curve, hitting 31 homers and driving in 106 runs, both still good for single-season franchise records. Following the final game of the season on September 4, 2000, the Curve retired Hyzdu's number 16. Hyzdu is still tied for the most homers in a Curve career with 55, and he is the only player in team history to play 142 games in a season, a feat he accomplished in 2000.

In 2001, Dale Sveum became the second manager in the team's history. Attendance continued to climb, with 348,316 fans attending games at Blair County Ballpark. The team finished the year 63-79.

In 2002, Chuck Greenberg (left) headed a group that purchased the Curve, including former Steelers' running back Jerome Bettis (middle). Todd Parnell (right) was named as the team's new general manager.

After three remarkable seasons, the Lozinak family sold the franchise to a group headed by Pittsburgh attorney Chuck Greenberg on April 2, 2002. Among the limited partners in Greenberg's collective: Pittsburgh Penguins' owner, star center and NHL Hall of Famer Mario Lemieux; Pittsburgh Steelers' all-pro running back Jerome Bettis; Altoona-based businessmen Steve Sheetz and Don Devorris. Todd Parnell was tabbed as the team's new General Manager.

On August 5, 2002 the Curve announced a new four-year affiliation agreement with Pittsburgh, securing one of baseball's strongest affiliations through 2006. Despite the ownership change, the Curve franchise enjoyed its most successful season to that point, drawing 363,871 fans to Blair County Ballpark.

Between the 2002 and 2003 seasons, Blair County Ballpark underwent its first major capital expansion project, as a new third-base Picnic Area, left-field Party Deck and outfield reserved seating section were constructed. The additions of the new areas brought the seating capacity of the ballpark to just over 7,200 and created enough room to hold nearly 10,000 fans on any night.

During the 2003 season, the Curve, led by third-year manager Dale Sveum, took the franchise to new heights on the field, posting a 78-63 regular season record and securing the club's first-ever Eastern League postseason berth. The Curve lost to the eventual E.L. Champion Akron Aeros three-games-to-one in the first round of the playoffs. The playoff run helped fuel yet another franchise attendance record as 365,376 fans came through the gates at BCB.

In 2004, the Curve, managed by Tony Beasley, finished with a league-best 85-56 record and not only returned to the playoffs, but took the next step and advanced to the Eastern League Championship Series for the first time in club history before losing to the New Hampshire Fisher Cats.

The '04 season also turned out to be a banner year at the gates as the Curve added a fifth consecutive franchise attendance record after drawing 394,062 fans to Blair County Ballpark. Among those fans who attended Curve home games in 2004 was Vice President Dick Cheney, who attended the club's Fourth of July game against Harrisburg. Following the season, Curve General Manager Todd Parnell was honored as the Eastern League Executive of the Year, while the franchise was presented the prestigious Larry MacPhail Trophy symbolizing the top promotional addresses the crowd on his visit effort, both on and off the field, in all of baseball.

TEAM HISTORY

The 2005 edition of the Curve reached postseason play in dramatic fashion, sweeping a four-game road series from Bowie during the final weekend of the season to reach the playoffs for a third consecutive season. Despite losing in the first round of the playoffs, the Curve won big earlier in the season when the franchise was named the host of the 2006 E.L. All-Star Game.

Altoona would have a banner year in 2006. The highlight of the season, and arguably the top moment in the first eight seasons of Curve baseball, came on July 12th when Altoona played host to the 2006 Eastern League All-Star Game. A then Blair County Ballpark-record crowd of 9,308 were on hand to witness Curve All-Star Brett Roneberg take home MVP honors in a 5-3 win for the Southern Division All-Stars.

The Curve captured the John H. Johnson Award in 2006 as the the country

In the fall of 2006, the franchise won two prestigious awards, most notably the John H. Johnson President's Trophy, which is given annually to Minor League Baseball's top club on the basis of long-time franchise stability, contributions to and promotion of the baseball industry and the financial success of the team. Also, the Curve were honored by Baseball America as the 2006 winner of the Double-A Bob Freitas Award.

On the field, the 2006 Curve posted a 75-64 record under first-year manager Tim Leiper and reached the Eastern League postseason for the for the fourth straight season, ultimately losing in a back-and-forth Divisional Series to the Akron Aeros.

The 2007 season proved to be a year in which the Curve continued their winning ways, as the club marched on to its sixth consecutive winning season. That season, plenty of the Pirates' top prospects passed through Blair County Ballpark. In addition to third-baseman Neil Walker and outfielder Andrew McCutchen, first basemen Steve Pearce enjoyed one of the finest seasons in club history en route to being named the 2007 Topps Minor League Player of the Year.

> However, 2008 will be remembered not for what happened during the season, but rather what happened following the season. On Dec. 1, 2008, President and Managing Partner, Chuck Greenberg announced that his group was selling the Curve back to original owner and visionary, Bob Lozinak. Greenberg announced that he was forming a sports consultation service and that many members of top franchise in In 2008, the Curve celebrated their storybook 10th anniversary season by welcoming back plenty of former stars, including Adam Hyzdu and Josh Bonifay, among many others. The Curve also unveiled their 10th

On June 17, Jimmy Carter, the 39th President of the United States, and his wife, Rosalynn, attended the Curve versus Reading game while on a fishing trip in nearby Huntingdon. Carter sported a black Curve jersey and watched the game with friends and family members in luxury suite 410.

the Curve upper management would join his endeavor, including General Manager Todd Parnell. Shortly after the announcement of the sale, it was made public that David Lozinak would be appointed as the team's Chief Operating Officer, overseeing the day-to-day functions of the ball club. The final block to the organization's new foundation was laid on December 5, 2008 when the Lozinak Family announced that they would bring back an old friend to steer the Curve into the future -- Rob Egan. Egan was the original play-by-play broadcaster for the team from 1999-2004. He left baseball for four years, but returned to the minors to become just the fourth General Manager in the club's 11-year history.

On December 30, 2008, Minor League Baseball approved the sale of the Curve from Greenberg's group back to Lozinak and the second chapter of the Lozinak era officially Curve back from Chuck Greenberg's began.

The 2009 season saw the Altoona Curve stumble under first-year manager Matt Walbeck as the team got off to a franchise worst 0-8 start and was never able to recover, finishing the year 62-80. However, the team did see one of the most prospect-laden lineups ever assembled in team history. As Pirates General Manager Neal Huntington traded away many valuable players at the major league level, an influx of talent came back in return. However, no one expected the fanfare that Pirates' 2008 top draft pick and top-rated prospect Pedro Alvarez would get when it was learned the New York native was being promoted from

Top prospect Pedro Alvarez was named the Curve's Most Valuable Player in 2009

Lynchburg (A) on June 23. A throng of media attention ensued, and Alvarez lived up to all his hype.

The third baseman hit .333 with 13 home runs and 40 RBI in just 60 games with the Curve. He was named the 2009 Curve M.V.P. not only for those staggering numbers, but primarily for the impact he had in the team's overall success. In games in which Alvarez played, the Curve were 34-26 (.567) while going just 26-51 (.338) in games when Alvarez did not play.

An outstanding partnership with the Pittsburgh Pirates became even stronger during the 2009 season when, on May 23, the Curve and Pirates signed a four-year extension to their Player Development Agreement, which extended through the 2014 season.

With a solid affiliation under their belt, the Curve embarked on what was their most magical season on the field in Altoona in 2010. From the outset, the 2010 Curve had the swagger and winning attitude that would carry the club to its second division title and its first-ever Eastern League Championship.

The cast of the 2010 club pretty much came as a cohesive unit from High-A Lynchburg, where they won the Mills Cup (Carolina League championship) in 2009. On Opening Day 2010, Altoona was greeted by a prospect-laden roster that included four of the Pirates Top-10 prospects according to Baseball America and eight of the Top-30 overall prospects. It was also a roster that had veteran talent, and it proved to be the perfect mix to get Altoona off to a nearly perfect start as the club started the season 7-1, a drastic turnaround after starting 2009, 0-8.

Rob Egan served as the Curve's fourth general manager from 2009-2016

Stephen Strasburg brought the sports world's eyes to Altoona on April 11, 2010 when he made his professional debut

the ELCS to meet Trenton.

Included in those first eight games was one day where everything seemed to fall into place for a memorable afternoon at BCB. After the first three games of the season were played under dreary cold conditions, mother nature opened the skies for a perfect 67-degree day on April 11th when the national spotlight turned to Altoona for the first professional start of Harrisburg Senators phenom Stephen Strasburg. More than 70 media members from around the country and upwards of 7,800 people came to watch the professional debut of the heralded Strasburg on the picture-perfect day in Curve, Pa. The game was also carried live on ESPN360.com and had parts of it aired on ESPNews.

It was the first of two national exposure days for Blair County Ballpark and the city of Altoona during 2010 as Andy Pettitte later started against Altoona in the first game of the Eastern League Championship series. Pettitte's start brought the MLB Network and some of the New York spotlight to BCB as Pettitte's Thunder met the Curve for the first time in a playoff series.

All told, Altoona finished the regular season 82-60 to win its second division title and first since 2004. The 82 wins were second most in franchise history behind the 2004 club's 85 victories under manager Tony Beasley. After dispatching of Harrisburg three games to one in the divisional round, the Curve forged on to

A few short months after the first-ever E.L. title was won, the Curve as a franchise took another step forward by unveiling the team's new logo set, which paid homage to the railroad engineers that helped put Altoona on the map.

Armed with a fresh new look for 2011, the Curve were also given a makeover in the coaching staff assignments as P.J. Forbes became the sixth manager in Altoona Curve history. Forbes, who had piloted the Reading Phillies of the Eastern League for three seasons from 2006-08, was coming off of back-to-back playoff appearances with High-A Lynchburg and High-A Bradenton in 2009 and 2010 (he led the '09 Hillcats to a Mills Cup title) before joining Altoona.

The 2011 Curve didn't get off to as fast of a start as the 2010 championship-winning club but did come out and compete on a nightly basis. A strange streak occurred during the season's first month as Altoona went on an unprecedented streak of 19-straight games of alternating wins and losses. The streak ran from April 10th through May 1st and was snapped on May 2nd, when Altoona won its second-straight game.

TEAM HISTORY

Despite the streak and an eventual 64-77 finish to the season, many positive things happened on the field in 2011 and they began with center fielder Starling Marte.

Marte, a native of Santo Domingo, D.R., was on the Curve roster from the get-go in 2011 and never ceased to impress. The 22-year-old proceeded to tear through the Eastern League en route to an Eastern League batting title and Eastern League Rookie of the Year honors. It was the first time in franchise history that a member of the Curve had won the Rookie of the Year award and it was also the first time that an active Curve player won the batting title (Jeff Keppinger won it in 2004 but spent the final months of the season as a Binghamton Met).

Starling Marte became the first Curve player to win the Eastern League Rookie of the Year Award in 2011

The speedy outfielder also set a few Curve single-season records along the way in 2011, posting franchise bests in outfield assists (18) and hits (178). In addition to his other accolades, Marte was both a mid-season and post-season E.L. All-Star, an XM Futures Game Selection, Eastern League August Player of the Month and a Topps Double-A All-Star.

Season 13 in Curve, Pa. also saw nine different former Curve players make their Major League debuts. Many of the nine played for the 2010 Eastern League Championship club (Mike Crotta, Daniel Moskos, Josh Harrison, Tony Watson, Chase d'Arnaud, Jared Hughes and Jeff Locke) while some were first-year Curve players that cracked the Pirates' 25-man roster (Eric Fryer and Aaron Thompson).

Off the field, the Curve received much national notoriety for the first-ever, onfield reversible cap, which was introduced in 2011. The cap featured the new Curve engineer on the regular side and a "Rally Cap" on the inside fashioned after rally mascot Al Tuna. The Curve's Summer Cruise Night Series, which combined a cruise giveaway with the stupendous films of Tom Cruise, was also a finalist for a Golden Bobblehead for one of the best promotions in Minor League Baseball. Average attendance at Blair County Ballpark also rose for the first time since it climbed from 2005 to the 2006 seasons.

The offseason leading into the club's 14th year of existence was also no quiet one as the Curve forged a partnership with Peoples Natural Gas that renamed the ballpark Peoples Natural Gas Field. The partnership not only included a naming-rights deal but spurred economic development at the park and surrounding areas with the use of green energy.

Altoona's 2012 season began on April 5 with a very special announcement from Pirates President Frank Coonelly, who announced to the Opening Night crowd that the Pittsburgh Pirates would be returning to Altoona to play an exhibition game before the 2013 season for the first time since 2000. On the diamond, the Curve had an up-and-down season under PJ. Forbes, who directed the Curve for a second-straight season. An end-of-the-season winning streak propelled the Curve above the .500 mark and the team finished 72-70, but missed out on the E.L. playoff picture.

In the future, the 2012 season may be remembered as the season where fans in Curve, Pa. had the opportunity to see two future aces in the making with top prospects Gerrit Cole and Jameson Taillon both making their way to Double-A during the season. Cole, the first-overall pick in the 2011 draft, reached Altoona on June 20 and made his debut at home while Taillon debuted almost exactly two months later on the road in Trenton. It was the first time that both the No. 1 and No. 2 prospects in the organization according to Baseball America were in Altoona at the same time since Andrew McCutchen and Neil Walker were in Curve uniforms for the 2007 season.

Gerrit Cole was the top pick in the 2011 MLB Draft before joining the Curve in 2012

Other standouts on the field for the Curve included shortstop Brock Holt, who eventually went on to make his Major League debut later in the season with the Pirates. Holt stayed in Altoona until the beginning of August before he received his first promotion to Triple-A. After putting on a hitting clinic with Altoona, Holt lampooned International League pitching to earn his call up to Pittsburgh. The Texas native hit well enough with Altoona before his promotion and had enough at-bats to still hang on to win the Eastern League batting title, marking the second-straight season a Curve batter won the crown.

Holt was part of 11 more former Curve players to make their debuts in the major leagues in 2012, bringing the overall number to 101 in 14 seasons. Another former Curve player who made a splash in the bigs in 2012 was Marte, who homered in his first at bat as a member of the Pirates in Houston on July 26.

After being nominated for a Golden Bobblehead in 2011, the Curve franchise won a Golden Bobblehead in 2012 in the "Best Charity Promotion or Event" category for its efforts with Curve, Pa. Blue Out Saturdays, which aimed at raising awareness and funds for Prevent Child Abuse, Pennsylvania. The club, which partnered with six other teams across the state of Pennsylvania, wore Blue jerseys in support of the cause for each Saturday home game and also helped raise funds through the sale of special Blue-Out T-shirts and wristbands as well as text-to-donate programs. All told, the Curve's efforts, plus those of the other six participating teams, raised over $11,000 from the season-long efforts.

In 2013, the Curve and Pirates played an exhibition game at Peoples Natural Gas Field in front of 10,116 fans, the largest crowd in the history of the ballpark

Fast forward to March of 2013 and the second-ever exhibition game between the Curve and Pirates. Despite snow the Monday before the game, the temperatures warmed up and the Curve welcomed a franchise-record 10,116 fans to watch the Pirates and Curve play their first exhibition game since 2000. Just like in 2000, fans were treated to a Curve victory, this time by a score of 8-6. Former Curve OF Starling Marte had himself a day, hitting a grand slam while going 2-for-3.

A pair of big announcements also came with the Pirates-Curve Exhibition that day. The first announcement being that the Curve and Pirates had extended their Player Development Contract a season early and extended it through the 2018 season. When the affiliation reaches the 2018 season, the Curve and Pirates will be in their 20th year as parent and affiliate. It was then revealed a short time later that the Eastern League All-Star Game was returning to Blair County with the Curve poised to host the 2014 game at Peoples Natural Gas Field.

Altoona's regular-season had its ups and downs and the team finished with a record of 63-79 under first-year manager Carlos Garcia. Despite the record, fans were treated to some of the best prospects in the Pirates system throughout the season that included RHP Jameson Taillon, OF Gregory Polanco, RHP Nick Kingham and SS Alen Hanson. Taillon, who had a cup of tea with the Curve in 2012, spent a majority of 2013 with the club before a promotion to Triple-A in August while Polanco joined the team in June and also went to Indianapolis during the month of August. Kingham joined the club midway through the year and finished the campaign with the Curve. Hanson did the same but did not join the team until late July after beginning the year with Bradenton.

One couldn't talk about the 2013 Curve season without talking about the performance of outfielder Alex Dickerson, who was in his first season at the Double-A level. Dickerson, a native of Poway, Calif., had a slow start to the year before lighting the world on fire from June until the end of the season. He went on to hit .288 for the season with 36 doubles, three triples, 17 home runs and 68 RBI in 126 games en route to being named the Eastern League Rookie of the Year. He was the second Curve player to ever win the award and the second in the last three seasons after Starling Marte won it in 2011.

The Curve hosted the 2014 Eastern League All-Star Stop at Peoples Natural Gas Field

The 2013 campaign also saw the club's second ever no-hitter come to fruition when Ethan Hollingsworth, Jason Townsend, Jhonathan Ramos and Ryan Beckman combined on a nine-inning no-no on July 25, 2013 in Manchester, N.H. versus the Fisher Cats. It had been over 10 years since the Curve threw a no-hitter, which occurred in 2002 when Adrian Burnside, Neal McDade and Chris Spurling accomplished the feat.

In 2014, the Curve hosted the league's annual All-Star Game with the Eastern League All-Star Stop presented by UPMC Health Plan for the second time in franchise history. Over 6,000 fans packed into Peoples Natural Gas Field to watch the league's brightest stars for the game itself on July 16 while nearly 11,000 total across the two-days' worth of events filled PNG Field. During the first day of events, the Curve dedicated one seat in the lower seating bowl a POW/MIA Chair, never to be inhabited in memory of those soldiers that have not vet returned home.

Following up the dedication of the POW/MIA chair, the Curve hosted its version of a home run derby with the Ghostman Games & Hitting Challenge. In a competition of four players, the Curve's very own Willy Garcia won the event for the Western Division with a home run that sailed into the night sky out in left field.

On the field, the Curve struggled to a 61-81 record but the season saw Garcia set a new single-season franchise record with 19 outfield assists. Catcher Elias Diaz led the club offensively, hitting .328 with six home runs and 54 RBI through his 91 games, while right-hander Adrian Sampson aced the pitching staff, posting a 10-5 record with a 2.55 ERA in 24 starts. Both players represented the Curve in the All-Star Stop. The team also set a franchise-record for steals in a single season with 159, besting the 155-mark of the 2005 Curve.

Sampson, who was both a mid-season and post-season All-Star, also came within two outs of the franchise's first nine-inning no hitter by a single pitcher. The feat was thwarted, however, by Bowie's Mike Yastrzemski when he sliced a double down the left-field line. It was the only hit Sampson permitted on the evening and the game on July 19 still went down as the first one-hitter by single pitcher in Curve franchise history. Even cooler, he did it with his mom in attendance for the game just a few days shy of her birthday.

At the end of the year, Curve General Manager Rob Egan was presented with the Eastern League Executive of the Year Award at the Winter Meetings in San Diego, the second-ever member of the Altoona front office to receive the award.

In 2015, the Curve played their first season under the direction of manager Tom Prince. A former Major League catcher, Prince guided the Curve to their first playoff appearance since 2010 with a 74-68 record with a roster including top prospects Josh Bell, Tyler Glasnow and Chad Kuhl. Although the team was eliminated by Bowie in the Division Series, the Curve had one of their most successful seasons in recent years. Twelve players were promoted to Triple-A for the first time in their careers, with two of them reaching the Majors before the end of the year. The franchise also saw its highest attendance total in nine seasons. The season culminated with the Curve earning the Eastern League's nomination for the John H. Johnson President's Award, the top honor in Minor League Baseball.

Joey Cora took over as the Curve's manager in 2016, leading the team back to the postseason in what would be his only season with Altoona. The Curve were eliminated in the Western Division Series by the eventual-league-champion Akron RubberDucks.

All-Star first baseman Josh Bell was part of the Curve's on-field resurgence in 2015 as the team reached the postseason for the first time since 2010

The Pirates' top prospect in 2016, Austin Meadows posted a 24-game hitting streak with the Curve, a new franchise record

Outfielder Austin Meadows, who was named by Baseball America as the Eastern League's most exciting player, turned heads early in the season when he went on a franchise-record 24-game hitting streak prior to his promotion to Triple-A.

In 2016, 14 former Curve players made their MLB debuts, the most in a single season since the franchise was founded. Nine of those players debuted with the Pirates: Alen Hanson, Jameson Taillon, Jacob Stallings, Adam Frazier, Chad Kuhl, Steven Brault, Tyler Glasnow, Josh Bell and Max Moroff.

Following the season, the Pirates announced that Cora would be the new major league third base coach. 2015 Curve manager Tom Prince was also added to the big league coaching staff, taking over as Clint Hurdle's new bench coach.

Changes also came to the Altoona front office. After eight seasons as general manager and 14 overall seasons with the Curve, Rob Egan left to take the same job with the Triple-A Charlotte Knights. The Curve announced former front office staff member Derek Martin as the new general manager in the fall of 2016.

During the 2017 preseason, new stadium updates and upgrades were made to Peoples Natural Gas Field, beginning with the demolition of the original box office and construction of a brand new one. The stadium also Derek Martin became the Curve's fifth general manreceived new field lights, becoming one of the first two Eastern League parks to upgrade to LED lighting. New netting was also installed behind home plate to improve fans' views and provide more protection.

Indiana, Pa. native Michael Ryan was named as Curve manager prior to the season after leading the A-Adv. Bradenton Marauders to the Florida State League title in 2016. By season's end, he and his club replicated that feat in Double-A, winning the Curve's second Eastern League championship. The Curve won their second Western Division title on September 4, the last day of the regular season, with a walk-off home run by Mitchell Tolman in the bottom of the 12th inning against the Harrisburg Senators.

The Curve rode the momentum into the playoffs, and they began postseason play with one of the most dominating pitching performances in team history. Pirates' top pitching prospect Mitch Keller took the mound in Game 1 of the Western Division Series at Bowie on September 8 and threw a complete-game shutout on just 90 pitches, allowing only one hit.

and Jin-De Jhang followed with a two-out, bases-clearing triple to give the Curve a 4-2 lead. Keller settled in to strike out eight batters over 7.1 innings en route to winning the Eastern League Postseason Most Valuable Player Award.

Closer Tate Scioneaux took the mound for the Curve in the ninth inning and struck out the side in order to close out the game and the championship for the Curve, who became just the third E.L. team since 1983 to sweep all six of their postseason games.

The team will honor their growing history throughout 2018 in celebration of 20 seasons of Curve baseball in Altoona. Fans and players will see more fresh updates to the ballpark, including a brand new, state-of-the-art video board, upgraded broadcasts and televisions, a new playing surface, new on-field caps and a new alternate red jersey.

BOB & JOAN LOZINAK | MANAGING MEMBERS

Bob and Joan Lozinak, both Altoona natives who always had dreams of bringing professional baseball to their hometown, were finally able to realize that dream in 1999. The original owners of the franchise from 1999-2001, Bob and Joan along with their three sons, Mike, David and Steve, reacquired their hometown team on December 30, 2008.

The Lozinaks had visions of bringing professional baseball to Altoona in the late 1970s, but public opposition thwarted the idea. They then proceeded to buy the Triple-A Albuquerque Dukes from former Los Angeles Dodgers owner Peter O'Malley and over the next 20 years (1979-2000), the Dukes captured six Pacific Coast League titles and numerous awards for club operations. Lozinak is among only a handful of minor league baseball owners to have been awarded the prestigious John H. Johnson Trophy twice. The Johnson Trophy is awarded annually to the top franchise in Minor League Baseball in the U.S. and Canada. The Dukes were presented the honor in both 1984 and 1991. Additionally, Albuquerque also captured the Larry McPhail Trophy for the country's top promotional effort in 1987.

Bob and Joan Lozinak on Opening Night 2009, their first game back as owners of the team since 2001

Lozinak addresses the crowd at Peoples Natural Gas Field on September 14, 2017, following the Curve's 4-2 defeat of the Trenton Thunder to solidify the franchise's second Eastern League Championship

Lozinak sold the Dukes in 2000 so he could focus his efforts on his new franchise, the Altoona Curve.

After selling the Curve in 2002, the family purchased the West Tenn Diamond Jaxx and enjoyed Double-A affiliations in the Southern League with both the Chicago Cubs and the Seattle Mariners before the team was sold in the early months of the 2008 season.

Bob was born in Altoona on June 4, 1937. His college education was halted by five years of service in the Army during the 1960s. Lozinak completed Officer Candidate's School in Lawton, Okla. and was honorably discharged as a 1st Lieutenant. Upon his departure from the Army, Lozinak returned to finish his education at St. Francis College in Loretto, Pa. and graduated with a bachelor's degree in history.

After college, Bob and Joan became McDonald's franchisees in 1969 and their role as an owner-operator continues with stores in Hartford County, Maryland.

Since the purchase of their first McDonald's franchise, Joan has been actively involved in many phases of the operation of the restaurant, whether it means balancing the restaurant budget or appearing at numerous functions within the community.

Joan, a graduate of Altoona Catholic High School, currently serves on the Board of Trustees for Bishop Guilfoyle Catholic High School in Altoona. She is actively involved in long-term planning, policy development, financing, capital improvements, public relations and marketing, development and alumni relations and budgetary management.

Joan has always been actively involved in the Catholic church serving as either a Eucharistic Minister or singing in the choir.

Bob and Joan Lozinak were inducted to the Blair County Sports Hall of Fame on April 23, 2016.

The couple can often be found somewhere inside Peoples Natural Gas Field on game days enjoying Curve baseball with fellow fans and enjoying the fun, affordable family atmosphere they always dreamed of providing through the game que Dukes from 1979-99. The duo won the John H. Johnson of baseball in their hometown.

DAVID LOZINAK | CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

David enters his tenth year as the Chief Operating Officer of the Altoona Curve. His day-to-day responsibilities are to oversee the entire operation of the franchise.

Prior to his family reacquiring the team in December 2008, Lozinak held the same position with the West Tenn Diamond Jaxx of the Southern League.

Lozinak also spent three years working in the Accounting and Concessions departments for the Albuquerque Dukes, a team that his family owned and operated from 1979-2000.

David is a 1987 graduate of Widener University with a degree in Business Administration. He resides in Hollidaysburg with his wife, Aimee, daughter, Katie and son Will.

DEREK MARTIN | GENERAL MANAGER

On October 7, 2016, Derek Martin was announced as the fifth general manager in Altoona Curve franchise history. Martin returned to the Altoona front office, where he served in various roles from 2004-2007.

He joined the Myrtle Beach Pelicans as the team's assistant general manager from 2007-2009. After three seasons in South Carolina, Martin returned to Pennsylvania in 2009, where he worked with Blue Knob Auto in finance and insurance from 2009-2012. Most recently, he worked as a commercial insurance agent for the Teeter Group from 2012-2016.

A native of Clarion, Pa. and a graduate of Slippery Rock University, Martin began his career in baseball as an intern with the Reading Phillies in 2001. From 2002-2003, he completed an internship with Aramark food and beverage service at Pittsburgh's PNC Park before joining the Curve's sales staff in November 2003. He became the team's director of sales in January 2004.

Martin resides in Roaring Spring, Pa. with his wife Abby and their three children (Rory, 6; Hudson, 4; Molly, 2).

A 2017 NOTES

THE 19TH SEASON OF CURVE BASEBALL: Altoona finished the season eight games over .500 and won the Western Division by two games over the Baysox. The title marked the franchise's third regular-season division championship in franchise history, winning the South Division in 2004 and the Western Division in 2010. This year, the Curve led the West for 96 of 140 games and took over sole possession of the top spot for good on August 22. The Curve won 10 of their final 16 games, including a regular-season-best five-game winning streak from August 20-24. Altoona clinched the Western Division regular-season title with a walk-off win over Harrisburg on September 4 and a loss by Bowie at Richmond that afternoon. The Curve advanced to the ELCS with a three-game sweep over the Bowie Baysox in the Western Division Series. In the Championship Series, the Curve took the first two games in Trenton before beating the Thunder, 4-2, at PNG Field on September 14 to lock up their second league title in franchise history. Including the regular season and the playoffs, the Curve won their final eight games, their best winning streak of the year.

PITCHING WINS CHAMPIONSHIPS: The Curve's pitching staff combined to post a 1.50 ERA in their six postseason games. Altoona starters went 6-0 with a 1.66 ERA (8 ER/43.1 IP) in the playoffs. Mitch Keller set the tone with a complete-game shutout in Game 1 of the Division Series at Bowie, holding the Baysox to two hits while throwing just 90 pitches. Keller returned to the mound for the championship-clinching ELCS Game 3 and allowed two runs in the second before settling in to go scoreless the rest of the way, totaling 7.1 innings with eight strikeouts. Keller was named as the Eastern League Postseason MVP, combing to go 2-0 in his two starts with a 1.10 ERA (2 ER/16.1 IP). Alex McRae (1-0, 6.00) allowed four runs over six innings in Game 2 of the Division Series, but the Curve won the game, 8-4. Austin Coley (1-0, 1.29) started the clinching Game 3 of the Division Series and allowed one run over seven innings. In the ELCS, Brandon Waddell (1-0, 0.00) started Game 1 in Trenton and worked six scoreless innings. In Game 2, J.T. Brubaker (1-0, 1.13) worked eight innings and allowed two runs (one earned). The Altoona bullpen allowed just one run in the playoffs and posted a 0.84 ERA (1 ER/10.2 IP) with three saves. In Game 3 of the ELCS, Tate Scioneaux struck out the side in order in the top of the ninth to cap the three-game sweep.

LUPLOW'S RISE: Behind a breakout first half of the season with Altoona, Jordan Luplow climbed from Double-A to the big leagues in a span of less than four months. He hit his first two home runs on April 11 at Richmond and went on a home run tear over his 73 games with the Curve. Luplow picked up Eastern League Player of the Week honors for May 29-June 4 after hitting. 423 with five homers in seven games, including homering in three straight games from June 4-June 6. He became the fastest Curve player to reach 14 homers to open a season on June 6, hitting the mark in just 52 games. His 16 homers were the most for a Curve player prior to the All-Star Break since 2005. An Eastern League Mid-Season All-Star selection, Luplow was promoted to Triple-A Indianapolis on June 30. After carrying his hot stretch to Indianapolis, it took less than a month for Luplow to earn his first call to the big leagues. He made his Major League debut on July 28 for the Pirates. He went on to play 27 major league games and knocked three homers.

EDWINNING: First baseman Edwin Espinal returned for a second season with the Curve and improved on his performance from 2016. Over his 95 games with the Curve, Espinal hit. 283 with a team-leading 72 RBIs and set a new career high with 15 home runs prior to his promotion to Triple-A on July 28. At the time of his promotion, Espinal ranked second in the Eastern League with 25 doubles, second with 72 RBIs and fourth with 174 total bases. Even though he was promoted with five weeks left in the regular season, Espinal was named the Curve's Most Valuable Player for 2017. He also picked up an Eastern League Mid-Season All-Star selection, becoming just the fourth player in Curve history to achieve the honor twice. Espinal did not commit a single error at first base, becoming the first Altoona infielder to post a perfect fielding percentage at a single position in franchise history, and he was awarded an MiLB Rawlings Gold Glove Award as the top defensive first baseman in the minors.

DU-RAP IT UP: After picking up 22 saves in 2016, closer Montana DuRapau returned to the Curve to start the 2017 season. He picked up his fourth save of the year on April 18 against Erie to move ahead of Brandon Knight for sole possession of second place on the Curve's all-time career saves list with 28. On May 17, he closed out the 29th save of his Curve career at Binghamton to tie Matt Peterson's franchise mark. He took over first place on the Altoona all-time saves list with his 30th on May 19 against Erie, working two scoreless innings on the night. DuRapau was promoted to Triple-A Indianapolis on July 14 having stretched his record to 36 total saves. He ranked first in the Eastern League with 14 saves and 26 games finished at the time. For the year, he tied Tate Scioneaux for the team lead with 14 saves. Over his 27 outings for Altoona, DuRapau went 14-for-15 in save tries and posted a 1.49 ERA. DuRapau also picked up an Eastern League Mid-Season All-Star selection, the first all-star nod of his career.

SUIT UP: First baseman/outfielder Jerrick Suiter turned around his season beginning with his first Double-A homer on June 2 at Bowie. Over his final 79 regular-season games from that point, Suiter hit .299 (84-for-281) with ten homers and 49 RBIs on his way to being named Altoona's Unsung Hero for 2017. He especially caught fire over a three-game span from July 5-July 7 when he reached base in ten consecutive plate appearances, going 9-for-9 with a homer, two doubles, a walk and five RBIs. He finished the year ranked fifth in the Pirates' minor league system with 62 totals RBIs between his time in Bradenton and Altoona.

SHINING STARS: The Curve had six players selected as Eastern League Mid-Season All-Stars, tied for the second-most in team history: Jordan Luplow, Kevin Kramer, Wyatt Mathisen, Edwin Espinal, Alex McRae and Montana DuRapau. Espinal was also selected as an end-of-season E.L. All-Star.

PROSPECT WATCH: For the season, the Curve roster featured seven of the Pirates' top 30 prospects MLB.com's season-ending list, including Mitch Keller (2), Cole Tucker (5), Kevin Newman (6), Kevin Kramer (9), Yeudy Garcia (19), Jordan Luplow (20), Brandon Waddell (23) and Dario Agrazal (29). Keller also ranked as MLB.com's No. 6 RHP prospect and No. 18 overall prospect in baseball. Kramer ranked as MLB.com's No. 7 2B prospect. Baseball America ranked three Curve players in their mid-season Top 10 Pirates prospects, including Keller (1), Newman (3) and Tucker (9). Baseball America also recognized Newman as the Eastern League's top defensive shortstop, Edwin Espinal as the league's best defensive first baseman and Elvis Escobar as having the circuit's best outfield arm.

ROAD TO THE SHOW: During the 2017 season, seven former Curve players made their Major League debuts. Outfielder Willy Garcia (2014-15) debuted with the Chicago White Sox on April 14. First baseman/outfielder Jose Osuna (2015-16) debuted with the Pirates on April 18. Right-handed reliever Dovydas Neverauskas (2016) made his first appearance for the Pirates on April 24. Two days later on April 26, in-fielder Gift Ngoepe (2013-15) entered as a defensive replacement for the Pirates to make his first MLB appearance. On June 10, right-handed reliever Edgar Santana (2016) made his debut for Pittsburgh. On July 28, outfielder Jordan Luplow debuted with the Pirates in San Diego. Right-handed pitcher Angel Sanchez debuted on August 24 for the Pirates against the Dodgers. The Curve have seen 144 former players reach the big leagues over their 19 seasons.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

The name "Curve" was officially chosen as the team nickname on July 2. 1998. The name was selected by fans in a name the team contest. Other finalists included "Fish", "Ridge Runners" and "Lake Monsters." Curve was selected for two reasons: one for the baseball connotation but also as a tribute to the historic Horseshoe Curve, located just outside the city of Altoona. The landmark Horseshoe Curve was built in the 1850s as a means to make it easier for incoming trains to navigate through the Allegheny Mountains. The first train went around "the Curve" in 1854.

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER

Michael Ryan, a native of Western Pennsylvania, returns for his second season as the manager of the Altoona Curve in 2018. He was announced to the position on December 23, 2016. The Pirates announced Ryan's return to Altoona on January 16, 2018.

In his first season with the Curve in 2017, Ryan led the club to its second Eastern League championship in franchise history with a three-game sweep over the Trenton Thunder in the ELCS. The Curve went 74-66 in the regular season, winning their second Western Division title in team history by two games over the second-place Bowie Baysox.

The title was the second for Ryan in as many seasons. In 2016, he managed the Class-A-Adv. Bradenton Marauders to a Florida State League championship. It was the first A-Adv. championship for a Pirates-affiliate team since the Lynchburg Hillcats won the Carolina League title in 2009.

Ryan began his managerial career in 2013 with the West Virginia Power, the Pirates' Class-A affiliate in the South Atlantic League, leading the club to an 82-58 overall record and second-half Northern Division championship while setting the franchise record in wins. The Power were eliminated in the division series by the Hagerstown Suns, two games to one.

He returned to Charleston with the Power in 2014 before earning a promotion to manage Bradenton in 2015. Overall, Ryan has compiled a 354-335 record over five seasons as a minor league manager. Ryan was also a coach with the Curve in 2012 under former manager P.J. Forbes.

PLAYING CAREER

Ryan was drafted in the fifth round by the Minnesota Twins out of Indiana Area Senior High School in 1996, where he played baseball, basketball and football and was an all-state selection in football and baseball in 1996. Ryan played 15 professional seasons, including five in the majors. The former outfielder spent four seasons in the big leagues with the Twins from 2002-05 and played for the Los Angeles Angels in 2010. He was the first native of Indiana, Pa. to play in the majors since infielder Henry Youngman played 13 games with the Pirates in 1890.

Ryan began his professional career with the Twins' Gulf Coast League affiliate in 1996 at the age of 18. He climbed a step up the minor league ladder each of the next four seasons with the Rookie-level Elizabethton Twins in 1997, Single-A Fort Wayne Wizards in 1998, A-Adv. Fort Myers Miracle in 1999 and Double-A New Britain Rock Cats in 2000.

In the Eastern League, Ryan hit .277 with 11 homers and a team-leading 69 RBIs. He played three games with the Triple-A Salt Lake Buzz at the end of the 2000 season.

Ryan spent all of the 2001 season with the Twins' new Triple-A affiliate, the Edmonton Trappers, and finished second on the team in homers (18) and RBIs (73) behind only current Harrisburg Senators manager Matt LeCroy. In 2002, Ryan returned to Edmonton and went on to earn a Pacific Coast League Post-Season All-Star selection after clubbing 31 homers and collecting 101 RBIs, both carer highs as the Trappers won a PCL championship.

On September 19, 2002, Ryan saw his first Major League action with the Minnesota Twins. In what would have been a memorable debut, he picked up two hits, two RBIs and scored two runs, a major league record, in the first inning at Comerica Park against the Detroit Tigers during a nine-run frame for the Twins. However, the game was called prior to the top of the third inning due to rain, erasing his performance from the record books. Ryan made what would be recorded as his "official" Major League debut on September 20 and went 0-for-4.

Ryan returned to Triple-A Rochester for most of 2003 and was called up to Minnesota in mid-August. Over 27 big league games, he hit .393 with five homers and 13 RBIs to close out the regular season as the Twins won the AL Central, earning a spot on Minnesota's postseason roster. The Twins lost to the Yankees in the American League Division Series, three games to one. Ryan struck out against Roger Clemens in a pinch-hit appearance during Game 3, his only at-bat in the playoffs.

Over the next two seasons, Ryan combined to play 93 more games for the Twins before becoming a free agent after 10 years (1996-05) with the organization. He signed with the Braves for the 2006 season and spent the entire year with Triple-A Richmond.

ORGANIZATION

Ryan signed with the Pirates in 2007 and was a non-roster invitee to spring training. In the Grapefruit League, he hit .396 for the Pirates and drove in nine runs over 22 games. Ryan spent the entire regular season with the Triple-A Indianapolis Indians, hitting .259 with 52 RBIs and leading the Tribe with 16 home runs.

With an overhaul of the Pirates' front office prior to the 2008 season, Ryan became a free agent and signed with the independent Somerset Patriots. He spent three months with the team and was named as an Atlantic League All-Star before signing a minor league deal with the Florida Marlins. He played the remainder of the season with the Triple-A Albuquerque Isotopes, hitting .321 with nine homers over just 33 games.

The Marlins moved their Triple-A affiliation to New Orleans in 2009 and Ryan spent the entire season with the Zephyrs, leading the team with a .300 batting average and earning a Pacific Coast League Mid-Season All-Star selection.

Ryan signed as a free agent with the Los Angeles Angels in 2010 and again opened the season in Triple-A, this time suiting up for the Salt Lake Bees. After hitting .351 over his first 21 games, Ryan earned a call up to the big leagues on May 7, marking his first major league action in five years.

Ryan with the Richmond Braves in 2006

In 22 games for the Angels, Ryan hit .205 while playing left field and first base. He was designated for assignment on June 17 and played out the remainder of his final season with Salt Lake.

After not signing with a club in 2011, Pirates' Director of Minor League Operations Larry Broadway hired Ryan as a coach in November 2011.

Ryan currently resides in the Pittsburgh area with his wife, Alicia, and their two sons, Brennan (8) and Blake (6).

BRYAN HICKERSON PITCHING COACH

BIRTHDAY: OCTOBER 13, 1963 AGE: 54 (TURNS 55 ON OCT. 13) BIRTHPLACE: BEMIDJI, MINN. RESIDES: WARSAW, IND.

SEASONS IN ALTOONA: SECOND SEASON COACHING EXPERIENCE: FOURTH SEASON APPOINTED TO ALTOONA: DECEMBER 23, 2016 PLAYING EXPERIENCE: FIVE SEASONS (MLB)

Bryan Hickerson, 54, returns to the Altoona staff for his second year in the Pittsburgh organization. He had spent the previous 18 years working in ministry, mostly in the context of professional baseball and the military.

A left-handed pitcher in his playing days, Hickerson attended the University of Minnesota, where he earned a bachelor's degree in sport and exercise science in 1987. He was drafted by the Minnesota Twins in the seventh round of the 1986 draft.

Hickerson was traded in June 1987 along with Jose Dominguez and Ray Velasquez to the Giants for Dave Blakley and Dan Gladden. He made his Major League debut with the Giants on July 25, 1991, striking out two of the three batters he faced.

Hickerson played with the Giants from 1991-1994, working in 153 games with 36 starts. He went 5-3 with a 3.09 ERA in 61 games in his first full big league season in 1992. He started 15 of his 47 outings in 1993, going 7-5 with a 4.26 ERA.

He was claimed off waivers by the Cubs in November 1994 and played 38 games for Chicago before being traded to Colorado, where he worked 18 games to finish the year. Overall, he spent five seasons in the Majors, going 21-21 with two saves and a 4.72 ERA.

After concluding his playing career, Hickerson served as a pitching coach in the Giants organization, first in Single-A Bakersfield in 1997, then with A-Adv. San Jose in 1998, where he worked with Joe Nathan and Ryan Vogelsong.

Hickerson lives in Warsaw, Ind. with his wife, Jo. He has four children: Emily (25), Joey (25), Claire (22) and Tommy (20).

CRAZY 8s

In 2010, Curve outfielder Alex Presley had an unprecedented day at the plate on May 24 in Akron. The Monroe, La. native exploded for eight RBI to surpass Curve legend Adam Hyzdu for the most RBI in one game in franchise history. That feat was duplicated in 2013 by another Curve OF in Alex Dickerson, who tied the mark on July 26 in Manchester, N.H. against the Fisher Cats. Dickerson was 3-for-6 that day with a home run and two runs scored. It was part of a big weekend in Manchester as it came one night after the Curve threw the second combined no-hitter in franchise history.

TRIPLE PLAY BASEBALL

On May 27, 2010 in Akron, the Altoona Curve turned the second-ever triple play in franchise history. Previously, the lone triple play in team history occurred on May 2, 2001. In 2010, Chase d'Arnaud caught a line drive off the bat of John Drennen, stepped on second and threw to first to get an innings worth of work complete in a matter of moments. The first triple play came against Harrisburg, a 2-6-4 groundout, J.R. House to Shaun Skrehot to Chris Peterson.

The Pittsburgh Pirates have retired 10 uniform numbers at the Major League level. It is Pirates' policy that those numbers are not to be worn by any of their players in the minors throughout the farm system. Those numbers are:

PAUL WANER

BILLY MEYER

RALPH KINER

WILLIE STARGELL

BILL MAZEROSKI

JACKIE ROBINSON

PIE TRAYNOR ROBERTO CLEMENTE HONUS WAGNER DANNY MURTAUGH

It didn't take long for the city of Altoona to show the critics who said the area was too small to support a professional baseball team that it has as knowledgeable and caring fans as anywhere minor league baseball is played. It didn't take Adam Hyzdu long to discover that fact either.

When the minor league veteran signed as a free agent with the Pirates shortly after being released by the Red Sox organization early in the 1999 season, Curve fans were just getting used to their new team and its beautiful new ballpark. Few probably even knew the names of the players they were cheering for. But soon, everyone knew about Hyzdu.

He was the club's Most Valuable Player during the inaugural 1999 season, batting .316 with 24 home runs and 78 RBI in just 91 games, before earning a late-season promotion to Triple-A. Most people thought they had seen the last of Hyzdu in a Curve uniform.

However, after a less-than-intent look from the Pirates in major league spring training, and much to the surprise of the fans of Altoona, Hyzdu returned to the Curve for the 2000 season. Although perhaps initially upset about returning to the Double-A level for the fifth time in his career, Hyzdu tore up Eastern League pitching and in return won the hearts of Curve fans. In 142 games for the 2000 Curve, he batted .290 with team records for home runs (31) and RBI (106) and earned the Eastern League's Most Valuable Player Award. By the middle of the season, the entire city of Altoona was campaigning for Hyzdu's promotion to the major leagues.

And just when it appeared as though Adam Hyzdu's 11th season as a professional baseball player would end without a major league at-bat, he had the week of his life. On September 4th, following a season-ending loss to Akron, his number 16 jersey was retired by the Curve--an honor not normally bestowed upon a minor league baseball player. Then, just four days later, Hyzdu received the call he had been waiting for--he was heading to the major leagues with the Pittsburgh Pirates! He singled in his first major league at-bat on September 8th and 12 days later hit his first major league home run against the Philadelphia Phillies at Veterans Stadium.

After returning to the minor leagues to open 2001, he was recalled by the Pirates in May and spent the majority of the season with the major league club. On July 4th that season, in his hometown of Cincinnati, Hyzdu hit two homers against the Reds, bringing his baseball playing career full circle from the days when he was belting home runs at Moeller High School.

After spending parts of the 2002 and 2003 seasons with Pittsburgh, Hyzdu left the Pirates' organization to join the Boston Red Sox system in 2004. After hitting .301 with 29 homers and 79 RBI for Triple-A Pawtucket, Adam was rewarded with a September call-up to the playoff-bound Boston Red Sox and had a chance to remain with the club as the Sox did the unthinkable and won the franchise's first World Series title since 1918.

In 2005, despite spending most of the season in the minor leagues with both the Padres and Red Sox organizations, Hyzdu appeared in 29 big league games between San Diego and Boston, marking the sixth season in which he had seen action in the major leagues. 2005 also brought a milestone in Adam's career as he appeared in a major league postseason game for the first time.

The 2006 season saw Hyzdu appear for his fourth major league team as he played in two games for the Texas Rangers after signing with the club as a minor league free agent in November 2005. Hyzdu spent the 2007 season in Japan before announcing his retirement at the end of the year, capping off an 18-year playing career.

IT KEEPS GOING & GOING...

The longest game in Altoona Curve history took place on July 13, 2000 in Norwich, Conn, when Altoona outlasted the Navigators, 6-5, in 19 innings. The game took six hours and 17 minutes to play. With the score tied 2-2, the Curve scored four times in the top of the 19th inning before they withstood a three-run comeback attempt in the bottom half of the frame to earn the win.

NOTE: From 1999-02 Curve players participated in the Double-A All-Star Game, which included players from the Eastern, Southern and Texas Leagues. The Eastern League began holding its own All-Star Game in 2003.

ARM & HAMMER Park, home of the Trenton Thunder, will host the 2018 Eastern League All-Star Game. The 2018 All-Star Celebration will span two days, with the Eastern League Home Run Derby taking place on Tuesday, July 10. The All-Star Game itself, pitting the E.L. East against the E.L. West, will take place Wednesday, July 11.

2017 marks the first time Trenton has hosted the Eastern League All-Star Game since 2009 and their second time hosting the event overall.

Each All-Star Game team will feature 24 of the top players in the Eastern League, with each team being represented by at least one pitcher and one position player from the league's twelve clubs. The rosters will be selected through a combination of fan voting and picks from managers, media and team personnel.

GOING, GOING, GONE

Led by Josh Bonifay's 25 home runs, the 2005 Altoona Curve established the single-season franchise record by clubbing a total of 141 ted by 36st Bolling's 23 into lie 10ths, the 2003 Antonia Curve established the single-season Hatchiase feeded by clubbing 4 or late 11 big flies in 142 regular-season games. The 25 home runs hit by Bonifay are the second-most in club history, trailing only Adam Hyzdu's 31 hit during the 2000 season. Team MVP Jose Bautista was second on the 2005 club with 23 homers, while three other players, Craig Stansberry (18), Tom Evans (15) and Brad Eldred (13), also reached double figures. By contrast, the first championship Curve team in 2010 only slugged 80 regular-season home runs, but hit 14 in their eight playoff games.

NATIONAL TELEVISION

The nation's eyes turned to Blair County Ballpark on April 11, 2010 when Washington Nationals prospect Stephen Strasburg made his professional debut in front of a record crowd at Blair County Ballpark. The game, which was broadcast on ESPN360.com and had live look-ins taken by ESPNEWS, brought a crowd of 7,887 to BCB on Sunday afternoon. It was the largest single-game crowd to take in a Curve game in the month of April in franchise history. The Curve were again featured on national television on September 14, 2010 for Game 1 of the Eastern League Championship Series, when Yankees pitcher Andy Pettitte made a rehab start for the Trenton Thunder at BCP and MLB Network carried live look-ins of the game. Curve second baseman Chase d'Arnaud homered off Pettitte to lead off the bottom of the first, but the Thunder went on to win the game in 10 innings. On June 21, 2015, a game between the Curve and Harrisburg Senators was broadcast live to American Sports Network affiliates around the U.S. as part of their Minor League Baseball Sunday Showcase series. The game was called by Brett Dolan and former big leaguer Brian McRae and featured live interviews in the broadcast booth with Curve owner Bob Lozinak and General Manager Rob Egan. The Curve went on to defeat the Senators, 7-3.

"A minor league ballpark is one thing. An amusement park is another. But tucked in the Allegheny Mountains is a place where there's really no difference."

-- USA Today, August 8, 2002

Opened on April 15, 1999, Peoples Natural Gas Field is widely considered by fans, players, baseball executives and media as one of the finest minor league baseball facilities in America. Located just off Interstate 99 in Altoona, the ballpark features a beautiful brick exterior and the design is modeled after a railroad roundhouse to tie in the industry which helped found the city of Altoona and is still very much present to this day. The inside of Peoples Natural Gas Field features more than 7,200 fixed seats between two levels. The double-deck layout of the seating section allows for expansive lower and upper concourses, giving fans plenty of space to walk around the ballpark without having to fight through a stationary crowd of people. The "Skyliner" roller coaster from neighboring Lakemont Park and the scenic Allegheny Mountains add to the overall beauty of Peoples Natural Gas Field.

NEWS TALK 1240

After a successful new partnership in 2017, News Talk 1240 WRTA returns as the flagship home of the Curve Radio Network in 2018.

The Curve and Sounds Good Media continue their relationship this year with 112 regular-season games airing on News Talk 1240 WRTA in the Altoona area, plus the station's simulcast on 98.5 FM. The 28 day games in 2018 will be carried on 1370 AM WKMC and its FM simulcast on 96.1 FM.

1440 AM WWGE in Ebensburg/Loretto, Pa. has returned for a third season as an affiliate on the Curve Radio Network and will carry select broadcasts. WPHB 1260 AM in Centre County, Pa. has joined as a new affiliate this season.

All 140 games will also be available to out-of-market listeners via AltoonaCurve.com and on mobile devices (iPhone/Android/Windows Phone/BlackBerry/Amazon Kindle) with the TuneIn Radio App. Curve fans can also watch all 70 home games and all 70 road games with a subscription to MiLB.tv. For more information on subscribing to MiLB.tv, visit MiLB.tv on the web.

The Curve and Sounds Good Media will also continue their cross-promotional and marketing relationships from past seasons in 2018. Popular on-air personalities from the Sounds Good Media family of stations (Q94, Mix 94.7, News Talk WRTA and 1370 WKMC) will be on hand throughout the season at Peoples Natural Gas Field to take part in contests and in-game events.

Trey Wilson (Fourth Season)

Trey Wilson is in his fourth season with the Curve and sixth overall on the airwaves in Minor League Baseball. Wilson joined the Curve prior to the 2015 season.

Prior to coming to Altoona, Wilson called games for the Lansing Lugnuts in Michigan, the Class-A affiliate of the Toronto Blue Jays, in the Midwest League during the 2014 season. He spent the previous year as the Director of Media Relations & Broadcasting with the Bluefield Blue jays, Toronto's Appalachian League affiliate in southern West Virginia.

Wilson held multiple positions in the athletic department at Bluefield College in Virginia from 2010 through 2015, spending parts of six years as the school's lead broadcaster for football, basketball, baseball and volleyball while helping launch the Ram's Digital Sports Network and serving as the Assistant Director of New Media & Sports Information.

In 2011 and 2012, Wilson wrote for Fox Sports-affiliated Scout.com, covering minor league prospects in the Appalachian League. He also spent parts of those two years as an intern in the sports department at WVVA, an NBC-affiliate television station, where he covered Virginia Tech, Marshall and West Virginia University among other collegiate and high school programs. He has done freelance work voicing collegiate national championship events across the United States and high school state championship events in Virginia, Maryland and Washington, D.C. He also currently serves as the public address announcer for Saint Francis University men's and women's basketball.

A native of Portsmouth, Va., Wilson enjoys traveling, U.S. history, photography and playing music. He earned a bachelor's degree in communication and journalism from Bluefield College.

Nate Bowen (Sixth Season)

Nate Bowen enters his sixth season with the Curve and his seventh season overall on the air in minor league baseball. He has also held broadcasting and media relations roles with the Northwest Arkansas Naturals (AA - Texas League), Durham Bulls (AAA - International League), and the Princeton Rays (Rookie - Appalachian League).

Bowen's notable broadcasts while in Altoona include the 2014 Eastern League All-Star game as well as the Pirates vs. Altoona Curve exhibition game at PNG Field in 2013. He began his broadcasting career at Baldwin-Wallace University in 2005 and served as the broadcaster for the Division III school's football, basketball, and baseball teams through the 2009 season. In addition to being a play-by-play broadcaster, he co-founded The Worning Buzz, a daily morning show on the campus radio station WBWC 88.3 FM the Sting. Following graduation, Bowen served as the lead broadcaster for AM 1330 WELW in the Cleveland, Ohio area for local high school and college sports. During the offseason he serves as the play-by-play voice of Division III Carnegie Mellon University, and broadcasts games for several Altoona area high schools on 107.7 WMES and 1400 WWGE.

A native of Fremont, Ohio, Bowen enjoys rooting for Buffalo and Ohio sports teams, traveling, and running. He earned a bachelor's degree in Broadcasting/Mass Communications/Public Relations from Baldwin-Wallace University in 2009.

Garett Mansfield (First Season)

Garett Mansfield joins the Curve broadcast team in 2018 for his third season in Minor League Baseball. He spent the 2017 season with the Beloit Snappers, the Class-A affiliate of the Oakland Athletics, where he called Midwest League games as the Media Relations & Marketing Manager. Mansfield also spent time in the booth with the El Paso Chihua-huas, the Triple-A affiliate of the San Diego Padres, in 2016 as their Broadcast & Media Relations Assistant. Before working in professional baseball, he spent two summers broadcasting baseball in the Alaska Baseball League for the Chugiak-Eagle River Chinooks.

Between stops in baseball, he has served as a television play-by-play broadcaster for the West Ohio Sports Network headquartered in Lima, Ohio. He has called high school football, basketball, volleyball, soccer and hockey on the regional network.

Mansfield began his broadcasting career in college at Bowling Green State University where he joined the Bowling Green Radio Sports Organization. Over his four years at BGSU, he called numerous athletic events for the Falcons on each of the two campus radio stations – 88.1 WBGU-FM and WFAL FalconRadio.org. He traveled frequently with the women's basketball team while BGRSO carried their games exclusively on 88.1 WBGU-FM. Mansfield also voiced the 2014 Mid-American Conference Championship at Ford Field in Detroit between Bowling Green and Northern Illinois.

The Defiance, Ohio native cheers for the Cleveland Browns and Cavaliers as well as Notre Dame. He enjoys traveling, movies, history and being outdoors. Mansfield married his wife, Carlina, on March 17, 2018 and lives in Altoona. He earned a bachelor's degree in Telecommunications from Bowling Green State University in 2015.

SEASON CREDENTIALS: Season credentials for the 2018 season will only be issued to legitimate news gathering organizations that cover the Curve on a daily basis. The Curve will contact media outlets on an individual basis regarding season-long credentials. Other media organizations that would like to request a season credential can do so by sending that request on company letterhead via fax (814-283-3127) or as an e-mail attachment to twilson@altoonacurve.com.

DAILY CREDENTIALS: Daily credentials will be issued to those individuals or organizations who do not qualify for season credentials, including freelance writers and weekly and monthly publications. Daily credentials will also be issued to radio and TV stations when the need arises for extra pre/post-game personnel and to newspaper reporters providing extra coverage. The Curve Media Relations Department should be notified at least 24 hours in advance of the game in which daily credentials are being requested. Requests should be faxed or e-mailed. Once approved, the credentials can be picked up at the Media/Handicap Gate.

CREDENTIAL PICKUPS: Season Credentials can be picked up at the Curve's annual Media Day activities. Media can make other arrangements with the Curve Media Relations Department to pick up credentials after that date. Daily credentials will only be available for pickup on the day they are issued at the Media/Handicap Gate.

MEDIA ENTRANCE TO PEOPLES NATURAL GAS FIELD: All credentialed media should enter the ballpark through the Media/Handicap gate located at the top of the stairs halfway between the Front Office and the Upper Ticket Plaza on the third base side of the ballpark. No credentialed media are permitted to enter the ballpark through either the Curve front office or one of the ticket gates.

OTHER ACCEPTABLE CREDENTIALS: The Curve will also honor credentials from the Pittsburgh Pirates, National and American Leagues, the Baseball Writers Association of America and Minor League

PRESS BOX SPACE: Though Peoples Natural Gas Field's press box is spacious, the Curve still give preferred seating to those media outlets that cover the club most frequently. If your media organization has special space requirements, please contact the Curve Media Relations Department at least 24 hours prior to those dates.

PHOTO WELLS: Photo wells are located at the end of both dugouts. Photographers are welcome to use this space throughout the course of the game. Photographers are not permitted in the actual dugout area or on the field once the game begins. Please wait until the end of the inning to move to and from these areas.

PARKING: Media members holding season credentials are permitted to park their vehicles in the VIP parking lot by presenting their credentials to the attendant. Please be aware that parking is available on a first-come basis. Those holding daily credentials that need to be picked up at the Media/Handicap gate will have their name placed on a VIP parking list, as long as they give at least 24 hours notice.

INTERVIEW POLICY: The Curve Media Relations Department will be glad to assist members of the media in procuring interviews with Curve players and coaching staff members. Media members wishing to do an off-site interview or a feature story should contact the Curve at least 48 hours in advance to the scheduled interview time. The media is asked to be respectful of the players' pre-game schedule when requesting an interview with a player. No one will be permitted to interview starting pitchers on the day of their start.

CLUBHOUSE POLICIES: In accordance with the regulations designated by the Pittsburgh Pirates and Major League Baseball, both clubhouses will open to credentialed media from 3 1/2 hours prior to game time until 45 minutes before game time. Following the game, the clubhouses will be closed for a period of five minutes to allow the team ample time to return to the clubhouse. The clubhouse areas are also closed when the teams are on the field, unless previously approved by the Curve Media Relations Department. Clubhouses are also closed between games of a doubleheader.

FIELD ACCESS: Credentialed media are permitted access to the field and dugout areas, but are not permitted to cross the foul lines, particularly when the team is taking batting practice. Media must leave the field and dugout areas no later than 45 minutes prior to game time.

LIVE VIDEO: Live video is not permitted within 20 feet of the batting cages at PNG Field or on the road during Curve batting practice. Live video must be shot from a minimum of 10 feet away from the bullpen at PNG Field. Live video cannot exceed more than five minutes at a time during batting practice. Live video is not permitted inside the Curve clubhouse at any time. Live social media interviews will not be permitted at any time.
