THREADS OF TOWEL CITY

ABOUT LAST TIME OUT... The Ballers doubled on Delmarva on Friday, taking both in their first doubleheader of the 2026 season. In game one, Kannapolis pulled out a, 6-3, victory behind two RBI efforts from INF Alexander Albertus and OF Nick McLain. In game two, the Ballers won the pitchers duel, 2-1. RHP Gabe Tanner pieced together a nice start with five scoreless innings.

THREE OF THESE!... OF Jaden Fauske has way more than three triples on the season. The White Sox second round selection out of Nazareth Academy is pacing not just the team, but the entire Carolina League with now eight triples. Fauske is now the Cannon Ballers single-season record holder, besting Arxy Hernandez, who had seven in 2024. Fauske is well on-pace to take a chance at the all-time Kannapolis single-season record set by Marlon Byrd in 2000 with the Piedmont Boll Weevils (13).

QUITE THE FIRST NIGHT... After being on the injured list for the entirety of the season up until this past week, C Steven Lancia put together an impressive debut in a Kannapolis uniform. Lancia notched three hits, including a triple with five RBI in his first game with the Ballers. Lancia becomes just the third Kannapolis bat this season to notch five or more RBI in a game this season.

BLINK AND YOU'LL MISS WYNK... Despite a strict innings limit on the season, RHP Blaine Wynk has made the most of his last six appearances. Wynk moved out of the rotation into a bullpen piggyback role for RHP Gabriel Rodriguez, pummeling opposition with a 0.00 ERA in 18.0 innings in his last six appearances. The eighth-round pick out of Ohio State has walked just one batter and struck out 14, allowing one unearned run.

THE TEAM'S ON HIS BACK... OF Jaden Fauske has been dominant since taking over the leadoff spot in Jayson Nix's lineup. In six games against Columbia last week, Fauske notched eight hits, including one double, along with three walks and three stolen bases to provide consistency in the top of the order. Fauske is finding luck at the plate with his power numbers, mashing three of his four home runs in the month of June.

QUITE THE ARM WRESTLING EXHIBITION... The Cannon Ballers pitching staff has been unquestionably one of the best in the Carolina League. In fact, the total of 24 arms, 13 of which who have made at least one start, have combined for a 3.77 ERA, the best team ERA in Minor League Baseball.

FIRST INNING FAVOR UPON THEE... Kannapolis, who have scored 69 runs in their first innings through the first 85 games of the season, is in rare air to open their 2026 season. The Ballers are tied for first among all Single-A and tied for fifth in MiLB in runs scored in the first inning.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK!... INF Matthew Boughton brought home the first piece of hardware to Kannapolis after a torrid series in Fayetteville. Playing in all six games against the Woodpeckers June 16-21, Boughton mashed 14 hits, including three doubles and a home run to drive in seven runs. The Colleyville, Texas native also drew two walks and stole three bases. Boughton hit to a staggering .519 batting average and led the league with a .567 on-base percentage across the week.

BOUGHTON BUYING OUT BASE HITS... INF Matthew Boughton has wrecked opposing pitching over his last 15 games, notching 25 hits with five doubles, two home runs and 11 RBI. The White Sox 11th round selection out of Colleyville, Texas has also tallied four stolen bases.

ERASMI TO THE MOON!... C Erasmi Rodriguez made his Cannon Ballers debut on Wednesday, June 17 and impressed mightily. The native of the Dominican Republic tallied a multi-hit game, notching his first Single-A home run in the eighth inning of Wednesday's win over Fayetteville. Rodriguez also tallied a single for his first hit of the season, tallying a multi-hit effort in his Kannapolis debut.

FROM THE BALLERS TO THE BALLERS... RHP Gabe Tanner put up a great performance in his first start as a Cannon Baller in Wednesday, June 17's win, allowing just one hit and one walk with four shut out innings. Tanner was recently signed by the White Sox out of the Pioneer League, skipping the complex league completely to join Kannapolis on their last series of the first half.

STOP TAKING ALL OUR GUYS!... The Winston-Salem Dash have seen quite an influx of Cannon Ballers talent join their roster over the last few weeks. Kannapolis has promoted six players since the month of June began and 12 total players since the season began.

OPPONENTS ARE PAYNE THE PRICE... The Cannon Ballers remain as the best pitching staff in the Carolina League by ERA, with a large part of their success coming from their back-end of the bullpen. None in the league have been more dominant lately than RHP Landen Payne, who now has five saves in his last nine appearances. After missing some time with an undisclosed injury, Payne has now allowed just 12 hits and six walks in his last 17.1 innings, striking out 18. The former Southern Miss Golden Eagle is now tied for second in the league in saves.

TEAR 'EM UP TERAN... Kannapolis got major production out of the nine-spot in their series against Fredericksburg with INF Efren Teran playing his best baseball of the season. In their series against the North Division champions of the first half, Teran notched eight hits with two doubles, a triple and five RBI. This includes three multi-hit games for the switch-hitter, as well as hits in four of the six games in the series.

STREAKING TO SUCCESS... The Cannon Ballers won 18 of their 27 games in the month of May, flipping the script on their season after an abysmal month of April. Kannapolis won four straight series (@ Augusta, vs. Columbia, @ Charleston, vs. Myrtle Beach) before dropping their first and only series of May with a 4-2 series loss to Augusta.

TRUMAN'S REVENGE TROPE... RHP Truman Pauley has statistically been one of Kannapolis' least-impactful starting arms, struggling with command and unable to make it through multiple trips through the order often this season. That narrative switched on Friday, May 15, with the former Harvard right-hander notching a season-high 10 strikeouts, now tied for most of any Kannapolis pitcher in a single game in 2026. Pauley came just one out shy of his first win of the season, but earned it just one start later with a win in five innings against Myrtle Beach on May 21.

KANNAPOLIS CANNON BALLERS 2026 FIELD STAFF

JAYSON NIX - MANAGER

Nix, 43, becomes the fourth different manager for the Cannon Ballers since the team moved to downtown Kannapolis. Notably, Nix is not only the fourth manager in Cannon Ballers history, but also the fourth first-time manager in Cannon Ballers history. The Texas native is the third manager in the last six seasons with MLB playing experience, spending seven years in the big leagues. Nix retired from playing in 2015, landing with the Los Angeles Angels as a scout in 2017. The former first-round pick in 2001 by the Colorado Rockies transitioned to coaching in 2021 for the Angels, reaching the major-league coaching staff in 2024 as an assistant coach under manager Ron Washington. Nix spent seven years as a utilityman in the big leagues, playing in 466 games, including 118 of those with the White Sox in 2009 and 2010.

XAVIER FERNANDEZ - BENCH COACH

Joining the Cannon Ballers staff as a first-year coach is bench coach Xavier Fernandez, who is no stranger to the White Sox organization. The 30-year-old native of Puerto Rico spent 2021-2023 as a member of the farm system, moving from Advanced-A Winston-Salem up to AAA Charlotte in his three seasons of play. Fernandez batted a lifetime .277 in the minor leagues with 55 home runs and 262 runs batted in. This position of bench coach is the first of its kind for Fernandez, who will begin his coaching career in Towel City.

ROB HARDY - PITCHING COACH

Hardy becomes the third different pitching coach in the last three seasons for the Cannon Ballers in 2026, earning a bump up from the same role with the Arizona Complex League White Sox last season. Hardy's pitching staff finished fifth in the ACL with a 4.36 ERA, allowing the second fewest hits (431) and tying the league-lead for most saves (18). The 31-year-old native of Clinton, New York joined the White Sox staff last season after serving as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator for Gardner-Webb.

CHARLIE ROMERO - HITTING COACH

One of just two returning faces to the field staff, Charlie Romero returns for his eighth year in the White Sox organization and fifth as hitting coach for the Cannon Ballers. Romero is no stranger to Towel City, helping the team last year become a force at the plate. The Ballers offense finished the season with the most hits (1028), second-most walks (640) and second-best on-base percentage (.345). Romero played in the minor leagues for six years in the Toronto and Los Angeles Angels organizations.

KIRA FELISE - TRAINER

Joining the staff for her first season in Kannapolis, Kira Felise assumes the role of Athletic Trainer for the Cannon Ballers in 2026. Felise served in the same role last season with the Arizona Complex League White Sox, leaping to her highest level served of professional baseball this year. Felise holds a bachelor's degree from UNLV and two master's degrees from Liberty, getting her career started in 2022 with three seasons as the trainer for the baseball team at the University of Nebraska at Omaha.

ANTONIO CERVANTES MORALES - PERFORMANCE COACH

Arriving in Kannapolis for his first season in the White Sox organization, Antonio Morales is a graduate of CSU-Long Beach and San Diego State, bringing two years of professional baseball experience to Towel City. Morales spent last year as a strength and conditioning fellow with the Dodgers and 2024 as an intern on the strength and conditioning staff with the Arizona Diamondbacks.
