FRANCHISE & CANAL PARK HISTORY

FRANCHISE HISTORY

Akron RubberDucks Baseball Club is a privately owned franchise. Mike Agganis originally purchased the franchise which began play in 1981 as the Lynn Sailors in Lynnfield, Mass., and the team then moved to Burlington, Vermont after the 1983 season, where it became an affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds and later the Seattle Mariners. The club won three straight Eastern League titles from 1984-1986 while serving as a Reds farm team.

The club moved to Thurman Munson Memorial Stadium in Canton, Ohio for the 1989 season and became the Canton-Akron Indians, the Cleveland Indians Double-A affiliate. The "Little Indians" earned a berth in the Eastern League playoffs in each of their first five seasons and featured the best record in the league in 1992 (80-58).

The organization moved again to newly constructed Canal Park in Akron for the 1997 season to become the Akron Aeros but remained an affiliate of the Indians. Aeros was chosen as the name to honor Ohio's contributions to aerospace innovations. The Aeros were named Minor League Baseball's "Team of the Year" by Baseball America in 2002 after posting a 93-48 record. In 2003, Akron took its success one step further by sweeping New Haven 3-0 to earn the Ohio based franchise's first Eastern League Championship. The Aeros repeated this success in 2005 by beating Portland 3-1 in the finals. 2009 and 2012 marked the third and fourth championships since the move to Canal Park. After the 2012 season, Ken Babby of Fast Forward Sports Group purchased the club from Agganis.

On October 29, 2013, team owner Ken Babby and General Manager Jim Pfander stood before a capacity audience at the Akron Civic Theater and announced that the team would be known henceforth as the Akron RubberDucks to honor Akron's long history as the "Rubber Capital of the World." The franchise's success on the field remained through the name change as the RubberDucks captured an Eastern League Championship in 2016 and the first Double-A Northeast League Championship in 2021. Akron's six championships place the RubberDucks in third place for most championships in the current league trailing Binghamton (13) and Harrisburg (9). Off the field the RubberDucks were honored with the Larry MacPhail Award in 2015 for most outstanding and creative marketing and promotional efforts. In 2016, Canal Park and the Akron RubberDucks were chosen to host Akron's first Eastern League All-Star Game and Home Run Derby. In 2021, the RubberDucks were honored with the Pillar Award for Community Service by Cleveland Smart Business. In 2022, Leadership Akron honored the RubberDucks with The Read Family Difference Maker Award. The 2025 season will mark the 36th year of the franchise as Cleveland's Double-A affiliate. The RubberDucks will help the City of Akron celebrate the city's bicentennial in 2025 with special promotions and a uniform patch on the home white and orange alternate uniforms.

RUBBERDUCKS REBRANDS

While the RubberDucks are known for their creative and fun one-night only rebrands every year, there are two special rebrands that are now a multiple night part of every RubberDucks season.

The Akron Black Tyrites and Los Perros Calientes de Akron are two special rebrands that started during the 2021 season and will continue for many seasons to come. The Akron Black Tyrites rebrand is the RubberDucks salute to the Negro Leagues. The Akron Black Tyrites only played 10 games in Akron during the 1933 season but remain an important part of Akron baseball history.

Los Perros Calientes de Akron are the RubberDucks Copa de la Diversión identity. Unique and fun promotions have always been synonymous with the Akron RubberDucks, and the “Los Perros Calientes” identity continues that tradition with a nod to the Hispanic community in the Greater Akron area. With hot dogs being a ballpark favorite among all fans, “Los Perros Calientes” pays homage to the tremendous atmosphere of superb food and affordable, family fun at Canal Park, the home of the RubberDucks.

In 2025, the RubberDucks will continue to honor Akron and Northeast Ohio with two new region-specific rebrands as part of the Only in Akron series. The RubberDucks will rebrand to the Akron Galley Boys on June 27 and 28, and the RubberDucks will become the Akron Cheese Salads on July 11.

The term Galley Boys refers to the iconic hamburger cooks who worked in small galley kitchens (similar to what might be found on ships) to feed Akron and much of Northeast Ohio for more than 90 years.

Drive-in restaurants were a big part of Akron's fast food boom in the late 1940s through the 1980s. During this time period drive-in restaurants like Swenson's, Skyway and Dilly's started in Akron and expanded their locations across Ohio. These restaurants have unique narrow shaped designs and sell their delicious food offerings to patrons who drive into the parking lots and receive their meals from "car hops" that sprint from car to car. The food at these drive-ins is made by cooks affectionately known as galley boys because of the galley style kitchen they work in. Swenson's even honored these cooks by naming one of their signature menu items after them.

Unique to Akron, the cheese salad is a side dish with lettuce, thick slice of tomato, radishes, black olives and other salad favorites topped with a mountain of shredded mozzarella cheese. The cheese salad first began to pop up on dinner tables at many restaurants throughout Akron. After years of being Akron's pizza, lasagna and fried chicken sidekick, the cheese salad can be found on numerous dining room tables as the perfect complement to many meals in Akron.

These two rebrands join the Barberton Fried Chicken & Hot Rice, Akron White French, Sauerkraut Balls, Devil Strips and JoJos as part of the RubberDucks created Only in Akron series, which honors the food, terms and baseball history that make Akron unique.

CANAL PARK FACTS AND INFORMATION

This beautiful facility was designed by Hellmuth, Obata & Kassabaum, Inc. out of Kansas City, Missouri. The steel-framed edifice was built in 14 months, between January 1996 and March 1997. HOK is the same company that designed other baseball gems like Progressive Field in Cleveland and Oriole Park at Camden Yards in Baltimore. Under the ownership of Fast Forward Sports Group, nearly $14 million of private money has been invested into Canal Park. These investments include the installation of a new video board in 2013 and 2025, a complete renovation of luxury suites which was completed in 2022, and through a partnership with the City of Akron, a complete seating bowl renovation in 2022 and concourse bathrooms in 2025. Fast Forward Sports Group changed the way fans enjoy affordable family fun at Canal Park by constructing the Game Grill & Bar, the Duck Club, Tiki Terrace and Duck Row in 2014 and by unveiling the Championship Club in 2022.

2024 SEASON RECAP

The RubberDucks went 80-58 in their first season under manager Greg DiCenzo and clinched the team's first playoff berth since 2021 by winning the second half Eastern League Southwest Division crown. The RubberDucks went on to face the Erie SeaWolves in the Eastern League Division Series, but fell to the eventual Eastern League champs in three games. The 2024 season was the year of the walk-off for the RubberDucks. Akron won 11 games via a walk-off hit including six of those coming on Sunday games. These walk-off wins were not the only indicator of the RubberDucks clutch performances during the season. 28 of Akron's 81 victories between the regular and postseason came with the go-ahead run being scored in the eighth inning or later. 25 of those 81 wins were in the RubberDucks last at-bat. Akron was 33-26 in one-run games in 2024. After the season ended, Andrew Walters and Parker Messick were named Eastern League All-Stars. Derrik Diaz and Mo Cuevas also took home postseason honors with Diaz being named Eastern League Athletic Trainer of the Year and Cuevas named Eastern League Strength Coach of the Year. Walters and fellow reliever Erik Sabrowski, who both spent time in 2024 with Akron, made their MLB debuts for Cleveland and contributed to the Guardians run to the ALCS on the postseason roster.
