NEWS AND NOTES
THE SWEET LIFE: Rick Sweet enters the series against the Charlotte Knights sitting on 2,494 career wins and three wins away from moving into second place all-time among Minor League managers for career wins.
FLASH GORDON: Left-hander Colton Gordon will make his third start with Nashville and first career appearance against Charlotte. Despite suffering the loss against Sugar Land his last time out, Gordon threw a 6.0 IP complete game and quality start (8 H, 4 R, 3 ER, 2 K, BB). It was his fourth overall quality start this season in Triple-A (13 GS) and the 14th of his Triple-A career (56 GS).
NO MORE LOCK DOORS: Brandon Lockridge continued his rehab assignment with a first inning go-ahead solo home run on Wednesday night. It was the first home run Lockridge has hit as a member of the Milwaukee Brewers organization following a trade from San Diego on July 31 of last season. His last home run came more than a calendar year ago on July 20 with Triple-A El Paso, ending a 74-game drought between home runs including the 2025 postseason with Milwaukee. A former 5th round pick by the Yankees in 2018, Lockridge now has 48 career minor league home runs (569 games) and one in 113 career Major League games. He also recorded his second straight game with a multi-hit performance, finishing the night 2-for-4.
MORTY ANDRICK: Andrick Nava swatted his fourth home run in 12 games played with Nashville this season. He is tied for the second-most home runs hit by any Triple-A player this season with 12 or fewer games played along with Everson Pereira (CLT), Mitch Jebb (IND), Zack Gelof (LV), Alex Freeland (OKC), and Gustavo Campero (SL). The group trail reigning American League MVP runner-up and 2025 MLB home run leader Cal Raleigh, who hit five home runs in a four-game rehab assignment with Triple-A Tacoma from June 9-14. Nava is hitting .297 (11-for-37) with a double and seven RBI to go along with his four long balls.
THE SMOOTH SOUNDS OF EDDIE G: Eduardo Garcia hit his second Triple-A home run with both now coming against the Charlotte Knights. His first career Triple-A home run was a two-run blast against the Knights on July 10 on the road. During his minor league career, Garcia now has 48 career home runs in 538 games played and set a single-season career-high with 13 home runs last season in 129 regular season games played between High-A Wisconsin and Double-A Biloxi. He ended an eight-game hitless drought with a double in the series finale against Sugar Land on Sunday and now has a hit in two of his last three games.
BROCKET POWER: Brewers no. 30-rated prospect Brock Wilken added the fourth Nashville home run of the night on Wednesday with a two-out, two-run no-doubter in the bottom of the ninth inning. His 11th of the year came off the bat at 107 MPH and went 414 ft. His 11 round trippers rank second on the active roster behind Luke Adams (12). It was the second home run hit against the Knights this season for Wilken, who joins Tyler Black (2), Eduardo Garcia (2), Jefferson Quero (3), and Luke Adams (3) as members of Nashville's active roster with multiple home runs against Charlotte this season. 30 of the teams 105 total home runs (29%) this season have come against the Knights in 20 games head-to-head.
DOUBLE DIGITS: Wednesday's loss was the eighth time this season that Nashville had allowed 10+ runs in a game. Charlotte is now responsible for half of those outbursts having scored 11 runs on April 24, 16 runs in game two of a doubleheader on April 25, and also 12 runs on July 12 to go along with the 12 runs allowed by Nashville on Wednesday. The 16 runs scored by the Knights on April 25 remains the most runs allowed by the Sounds in any game this season. The Knights did the bulk of the damage on Wednesday with a seven-run fourth, which ties for the most runs allowed by Nashville in any inning (3x) this season.
HARD TIMES: Brewers no. 9-rated prospect Tyson Hardin allowed career-highs in runs (9) and earned runs (8) in his 13th Triple-A start. Wednesday was also just the second time in 43 career minor league games he had surrendered two home runs. He also allowed two on April 29 earlier this season with Double-A Biloxi against Pensacola. The three walks allowed by Hardin also matched his career-high.
