JUMBO SERIES: Jacksonville makes their second trip to Nashville this season and first since the three-game weekend series to begin the 2025 campaign. The Jumbo Shrimp claimed the International League First Half Championship with a record of 47-28 and have the best overall record in the International League at 70-42. The Sounds are 3-11 against Jacksonville this season and have dropped eight straight to Jacksonville dating back to June 27th in Jacksonville.

FOUR MORE: Sounds' manager Rick Sweet enters the start of the Jacksonville series four wins away from passing Buddy Bailey for the third-most managerial wins in Minor League history. Sweet owns a career record of 2,414-2,221 and is already the Sounds all-time winningest manager.

RUN, SOUNDS, RUN!: Nashville baserunners put Jacksonville catcher Brian Navarro to the test and swiped five bags on Saturday night, one-shy of the team's season-high. The steals were created by Drew Avans (1), Tyler Black (1), Jared Oliva (2), and Oliver Dunn (1). Saturday was Oliva's seventh game this season with two or more steals in a game. The Sounds are up to 217 steals on the year, which ranks No. 2 in the International League behind the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp (225). The last time Nashville collected five steals in a game as a team was against the Charlotte Knights on July 22 at First Horizon Park. On the other side, the Jumbo Shrimp bested the Sounds in the steals column with eight, which is the most Nashville has allowed in a game since at least 2005. Nashville had previously allowed seven steals in a game, with the last coming on July 4, 2017, on the road against Colorado Springs. The other was on June 10, 2013, vs. Omaha.

ZIMMERMANN HOUR: Left-hander Bruce Zimmermann was excellent in his start against the Jumbo Shrimp on Saturday night, letting up two runs over 5.0 innings of work. Zimmermann faced the minimum in every frame excluding the second inning where he allowed two runs. The second inning has been a problem for Zimmermann this season, notching a 6.35 ERA during that frame when he starts. He also threw just 61 pitches, which is the lowest amount he has offered up in a start since tossing 57 against Norfolk on June 15. Overall, the 30-year-old has been great over his last six starts. Zimmermann has worked at least 5.0 innings over his last six outings and allowed three or less runs in five of them. During that span, Zimmermann has a 2.91 ERA with 25 strikeouts and 34.0 innings pitched.

THE AVIATOR: Sounds outfielder Drew Avans has put together really good at-bats as of late and he continued to do that on Saturday against the Jumbo Shrimp. Avans went 2-for-5 with two runs and collected his first multi-hit game since going 2-for-4 against the Scranton/Wilkes-Barre RailRiders in game two of a doubleheader on August 1. The two hits on Saturday extended his hitting and on-base streak to four games, which currently ties for the No. 1 spot in both categories on the team with Jorge Alfaro. Over his last 10 games, Avans has reached base in nine of them while earning a .273 batting average.

WAS FUN WHILE IT LASTED: Right-hander Justin Yeager pitched 1.0 inning for the Sounds on Saturday night. Yeager allowed an earned run over a hit, two walks, and two strikeouts. It is the first run that Yeager has allowed since joining Nashville on July 20. The 27-year-old tossed his first seven games and 7.0 innings without letting up an earned run. Over that span, Yeager allowed just two hits and earned seven strikeouts.

THE WALKING MAN: In just his third game this season with Nashville, Eric Haase tied a career-high with three walks against the Jumbo Shrimp on Saturday. The catcher has done it six other times throughout his professional career, and only once in the last five seasons. Most recently, Haase worked three walks on July 28, 2021, for the Milwaukee Brewers against the Minnesota Twins. In 2025 with the Brewers, Haase appeared in 30 games and recorded 77 plate appearances, managing just four walks over that span.

NOW PITCHING... NICK KAHLE: Sounds catcher Nick Kahle came onto pitch for the Sounds in the ninth inning of Saturday's game and tossed a scoreless frame. Kahle has recorded a 0-0 record with 1.48 ERA over seven appearances in his professional career. He was the first position player to toe the slab for Nashville since Patrick Dorrian tossed an inning against the Gwinnett Stripers on September 6, 2024. Dorrian allowed an earned run and four hits over his 1.0 frame.
