119 MINUTES OR LESS: Nashville and Gwinnett played the second straight sub-2 hour game, finishing Friday night in 1:57. It is the first time since at least 2005 the Sounds have played back-to-back nine-inning games in under two hours, and the sixth time overall that Nashville has played in a sub-2 hour game nine-inning game. All six have come at First Horizon Park and the Sounds are now 5-1 in games played under two hours since 2005.

ROD AND REAL FAR: Ramon Rodriguez clubbed his third home run of the season with a two-run shot that evened the score at 2-2 in the third inning on Friday night. It was his first since May 13th against the Iowa Cubs as well as the first multi-RBI game of the season for Rodriguez who entered the night with just eight RBI through his first 27 games. The three home runs are tied for the third-most of any of his nine minor league seasons so far. After not hitting more than five home runs through his first six seasons as a pro, Rodriguez clubbed a career-high 10 home runs in his first season in the Brewers farm system in 2024 with High-A Wisconsin.

PAY AT THE PUMP: Brewers no. 15-rated prospect Robert Gasser struck out six batters on Friday night over five strong innings without a decision. After allowing a pair of runs on three hits in the top of first inning, Gasser retired 13 straight batters beginning with the final out of the first inning. He struck out two of the three he faced in both the third and fourth innings. Gasser is yet to take a decision in any of his seven Triple-A games this season. The southpaw has now allowed two or fewer earned runs in six of his seven starts with Nashville. The only exception being the four runs allowed the first time he faced the Stripers on April 10th. Gasser lowered his ERA to 3.38 this year (10 ER / 26.2 IP) and has 38 strikeouts to just eight walks allowed.

STILL GIVIN EM FITZ: Brian Fitzpatrick's streak without an earned run has reached 14 straight games and 14.2 IP after tossing a three-up, three-down top of the ninth. His 14-game streak remains the second-longest in Triple-A and tied for the second-longest active streak in the minors. The 14.2 IP without an earned run matched Garrett Stallings for the longest by innings for a Nashville pitcher this year while his 14 games are the most for a Sound since RHP Jesus Liranzo went 14 games from July 6-August 22 last year. In the 2026 calendar year, Fitzpatrick has allowed just one earned run in 27.0 IP (0.33 ERA) between Nashville and his first four career Major League regular season games and seven games with the Brewers in spring training.

SAVE US: With Brian Fitzpatrick earning his first save of the season (last: 7/24/25 w/ BLX), Nashville has had nine different players record a save in 2026. Nashville is one of eight teams tied for the second-most players with a save this year. High-A Greensboro (PIT) has had 10 different players record a save so far.

ALL ABOUT THAT BASE: Brewers no. 4-rated prospect Cooper Pratt reached base safely for the 19th straight game, finishing Friday night 1-for-4 with a double and a run scored. His 19-game streak is the second longest on-base streak of the season for a Nashville player this year (Brock Wilken, 30 G). Pratt's is tied for the sixth-longest active streak in the International League and T-10th in Triple-A. Since May 7, he is hitting .270 (20-for-74) with eight XBH and 17 RBI. He has a hit in 13 of his last 19 games, including seven multi-hit games, and has hit safely in each of his last five.

BACK IN THE HIT COLUMN: Eddys Leonard ended a five-game hitless drought with a single in the bottom of the third inning. It was just the third time in his professional career with a 5+ game hitless streak. He went a career-long seven straight games without a hit from May 25-June 1 of last year with Gwinnett. His other 5+ game hitless streak also happened last season from April 26-May 1. Prior to his mini slump, Leonard was ranked inside the top 10 in the International League in: XBH (T-3rd, 21), SLG (4th, .594), OPS (4th, 1.006), doubles (T-4th, 12), AVG (7th, .329), RBI (7th, 33), and total bases (T-7th, 85) through his first 39 games.
