- Tuesday, June 30: RH Ty Floyd
- Wednesday, July 1: RH Ovis Portes
- Thursday, July 2: RH Reynardo Cruz
- Friday, July 3: LH Kyle McCoy
- Saturday, July 4: RH J.P. Ortiz
- Sunday, July 5: RH Ty Floyd

Team update:

The Dragons punched their ticket to September's Midwest League Playoffs after winning the East Division First Half Championship on June 18 at Peoria. The Dragons won their final five games of the First Half season, and eight of their last nine, to overtake two other teams and capture the Midwest League East Division title for the half. This was the third First Half division championship for the Dragons in franchise history, joining the 2001 and '07 Dragons teams. The Dragons First Half winning percentage of .591 (record of 39-27) tied for second best in franchise history. In winning eight of their last nine games to close the half and win the division title by one game, the Dragons outscored their opponents 90-26 in those nine games. The Midwest League Playoffs consist of two rounds, a divisional semifinal series and championship series. Both series are played in a best-of-three format. Dayton is scheduled to host games two and three (if necessary) of the East Division Semifinal Series on Thursday, September 10 and Friday, September 11 at Day Air Ballpark. Should the Dragons advance to the Midwest League Championship Series, Dayton would host game two on Tuesday, September 15 and game three (if necessary) on Wednesday, September 16 at Day Air Ballpark. All playoff-related ticket information will be announced at a later date.
