Championship Series Game 3 | Date: 9/17/25 | Sagra Park | Columbia, SC
Radio/TV: MiLB.TV/Bally Live/Palmetto Sports & Entertainment Airtime: 6:30 pm

PITCHING MATCHUP:

RHP Kendry Chourio (1-0, 1.80 ERA) vs RHP Melkis Hernandez (0-0, 2.25 ERA)

Chourio: Spun a season-best five frames with four strikeouts while allowing one run Sept. 11 vs MB
Hernandez: Allowed one run off one hit and two walks in four innings vs FBG Sept. 11

GAME TWO'S STORY: The Columbia Fireflies won a grudge match to force Game Three at Sagra Park. Last night the two teams combined for 25 runs on 29 hits and 12 walks, but it didn't look like a slug fest out of the gates. The two teams were tied 1-1 heading into the fifth inning, and after the wheels fell off in the fifth, David Shields was in line for the victory. The southpaw allowed three runs with Dauri Fernandez landing the fatal blow, smashing a two-run blast in the fifth to give Lynchburg a 3-1 advantage. In the home half, Columbia rallied for six runs to take a 7-3 lead. Ramon Ramirez started the scoring with a two-run single and the inning was completed with Henry Ramos' first RBI of the evening. The right fielder ended the night with a career-best four RBI in a 3-5 effort with a pair of runs scored. The Fireflies also had a pair of firsts in the contest. Luke Nowak started the game with his first professional homer in the first inning. In the sixth inning, Yandel Ricardo slashed his first Carolina League mash to push the Fireflies in front 14-5. After a small Lynchburg rally, Fraynel Nova closed out the game with 1.1 one-run innings.

ABOUT THE HILLCATS: The Hillcats finished last in the Carolina League this season with 39 homers. Columbia was eighth with 54 long balls and Fayetteville led the pack with 82. The Hillcats were near the bottom of the League in nearly every significant hitting category for the 2025 season. The pitching staff was dominant. They finished third in the League with a 3.76 ERA and held a 1.34 WHIP as a team. The Hillcats reinvented their roster many times this season. There was only one player on the team (Luis Merejo) who played more than 100 games for Lynchburg. And only six players tallied at least 80 appearances on the year. The Hillcats have 13 players on their playoff roster who were selected in the 2025 draft. That includes three of Cleveland's top five selections this season.

ABOUT THE FIREFLIES: The Fireflies clinched a first-half playoff berth as a host of four teams were within a pair of games of each other heading into the final week of the half. A couple of individuals paved the way for Columbia's success this season. Asbel Gonzalez set franchise records in steals (78) and runs scored (82). Ramon Ramirez took advantage of him being on-base, leading the club with 11 homers and 56 RBI. Dash Albus finished 2nd in the circuit in wins (9) and fifth in saves (6).

THE DIVISIONAL ROUND: Both The Fireflies and The Hillcats swept their opponents in the Divisional Round. Columbia utilized excellent pitching, particularly from the bullpen, who spun eight scoreless innings in the first pair of playoff games to beat Myrtle Beach 4-1 and 2-1 to advance to The Carolina League Championship Series. For Lynchburg, they used some late inning theatrics to pave their path. Nolan Schubart hit an RBI single in the top of the seventh to give The Hillcats a 2-1 win in game one and then Lynchburg rallied from down 4-1 in the seventh, to win 5-4 thanks to a throwing error in the ninth inning of game two.

IT'S NOT ABOUT HOW YOU START THE SEASON, IT'S ABOUT HOW YOU FINISH: After clinching first-half playoff berths, both Columbia and Lynchburg finished near the bottom of the pack in their decision for the second half. After playoff-clinching hangovers, both teams were able to grab momentum near the end of the season and make a statement by winning their first playoff series against the two second-half division winners. After splitting the first two games of the series, the two opponents play in a winner-take-all grudge match tonight at Sagra Park at 7:05 pm. The result of tonight's game will crown the 2025 Carolina League Champion.

MiLB: Chourio was signed to a $247,500 bonus by the Royals January 17, 2025. His bonus was the seventh-largest bonus handed out by Kansas City to a member of the 2025 class. After a strong start in the DSL, where Chourio struck out 22 batters in 17.2 innings to the tune of a 2.04 ERA, the Royals promoted him to the Arizona Complex. When they did that, he became the youngest stateside player according to MLB Pipeline... In the ACL, Chourio continued his dominance. In three outings, he punched out 17 in 11 innings while sitting at a 2.45 ERA.

Maracaibo: Despite sharing a last name and a hometown with Brewers rising star Jackson Chourio and his brother, Jaison, Kendry has no relation to the two brothers.

What They're Saying: Royals VP of Major League and International Operations, Rene Francisco, said "He has control of three pitches. He has command on both sides of the plate. We want him to make pitches. We aren't worrying about his velocity." Chourio's fastball was sitting 94-96 in the complex. His curve has a sharp break from 77-79 and his change-up registers from 85-88. Pipeline says, "Most DSL Pitchers with good stuff struggle to find the zone, but that's not the case with Chourio early.... Chourio is comparable to some of the best prep arms in the 2025 draft and he has the advantage of being younger with a pro resume. Chourio is youngest in A-ball since Julio Urias in 2013."
