ROD AND REEL: Elvin Rodriguez will make his third appearance with Nashville and his second start when he takes the mound on Wednesday night. The right-hander has worked 6.1 IP and allowed eight hits (4 HR) and five earned through his first two games with Nashville. He has previous International League time with Durham (2023), Toledo (2021-2022) and played in 34 games between the two without having ever faced Gwinnett. The only batter on the Gwinnett roster that has faced Rodriguez in his career was Sandy León who is 0-for-1 with a walk. Rodriguez has 12 games of big league time with the Rays and Brewers.

HERE FISHY FISHY: Nashville evened the season series at 3-3 against Gwinnett and made it two straight wins over the Stripers after beating Gwinnett 10-2 back on Saturday, April 5th ahead of the series finale being postponed due to weather. Nashville got back in the win column after dropping the series finale to Durham on Sunday at First Horizon Park while the Stripers have now lost eight in a row. The Nashville bullpen worked another five scoreless innings against Gwinnett and has not allowed an earned run to the Stripers yet this season in 29.2 IP in the six games played. The Sounds own a 53-36 against the Stripers, and are 24-23 at Coolray Field since 2021.

BETTER IN PAIRS: Wes Clarke and Andruw Monasterio each had a multi-hit night for the Sounds and combined for four of the seven hits against Gwinnett on Tuesday night. For Clarke, it is his fourth multi-hit game in his last five played after just two multi-hit games in his first 16 games of the season. Over his last five games, Clarke is hitting .476 (10-for-21) with a home run, double, four RBI and two runs scored. Monasterio also has three multi-hit efforts in his last five games and seven overall in his last 17 games. The pair extended their active hitting streaks to five games, longest going on the club after Tuesday.

TYLER THE ELIMINATOR: Tyler Jay extended his streak of games without allowing an earned run to five after tossing a scoreless inning on Tuesday night. The southpaw has worked six innings over his last five appearances and has allowed three hits. He has four strikeouts that have helped him pitch around four walks during the span to keep his opponents off the board.

FISHIN THE HUDSON: Bryan Hudson collected his first save since May 25, 2022, when he was playing with Triple-A Iowa. He had gone 142 games in between saves and was 0-for-9 in save opportunities until Tuesday night. He is now 5-for-16 in saves in his minor league career. Through his first two appearances with Nashville, the 6'8" lefty has allowed two hits with two strikeouts in 2.0 IP.

BUY ONE, GET ONE FREE: The Sounds turned four double plays on Tuesday night and all four were inning-ending double plays. Nashville is the only International League team that has turned four double plays in a game and have now done so twice this season. Both times Nashville has turned 4+ double plays in a game this year have come against Gwinnett. The team had a season-high five double plays on April 4th at Coolray Field. Nashville ranks second in the International League with 27 double plays turned and only trail Louisville (28) in the IL. Triple-A Reno leads all Triple-A with 30 double plays this season.

HONOR ROLL: RHP Jacob Misiorowski was named the International League Pitcher of the Week on Monday for the second time this season. The Brewers' no. 4-rated prospect made two starts against Durham last week and did not allow a run in 11.0 IP while holding the Bulls to four hits and racked up 17 strikeouts, including a season-high nine on Sunday afternoon at First Horizon Park. He joined San Francisco's Shane Rademacher, as the only two players to have won multiple league POTW awards this season. It was the seventh Pitcher of the Week award for Misiorowski's career.

MORE OR WES: Wes Clarke accounted for half of Nashville's hits last time out, finishing Sunday's game 3-for-4 with a double, and the only Nashville run scored in the 4-1 loss to Durham. It was Clarke's first three-hit game of the season, and his sixth overall in 107 games played for the Sounds. His last three-hit game came on September 22, 2024, on the road in Norfolk. Clarke ended the week against Durham hitting .421 (8-for-19) with a home run, double, and four RBI in six games played. He had a multi-hit effort in three of the final four games of the series and enters the Gwinnett series tied with Andruw Monasterio and Freddy Zamora for the longest active hitting streak on the team at 4 games.
