League-wide Service Projects

As part of the All-Star Game festivities, 26 Appalachian League executives volunteered at the City Gate Dream Center in Burlington. The group assisted with relocation of center supplies; packaged and bundled diapers for families in need.

Prior to the GM meetings in Bluefield on October 18, Appalachian League clubs participated in a service project at the Bluefield Union Mission. A total of 19 Appalachian League officials packaged meals and prepared personal hygiene kits for families in need.
