Sparky Lyle

SPARKY LYLE

MANAGER EMERITUS

Yankees World Series champion and Cy Young award winner Sparky Lyle was the first employee ever hired by the Somerset Patriots. Since that point, Sparky has become synonymous with the Patriots. His reach has stretched from being the team's mascot's namesake to a 15-year run as the most successful manager in the history of the Atlantic League. But his story starts well before his time in Somerset

Lyle was a three-sport athlete growing up in Reynoldsville, Pennsylvania, a borough 92 miles Northeast of Pittsburgh with a population less than 3,600 people at the time. Despite his success in football and basketball, it was when he began playing American Legion Baseball during his junior year of high school that people started to take notice.

In one state tournament game alone, the southpaw pitched in 14 of 17 innings and struck out 31 batters. He caught the eye of the Baltimore Orioles, who signed him as an amateur free agent in 1964. Two years later, he was selected by the Boston Red Sox in the first-year draft.

During his time in the minors, Lyle was introduced to one of the greatest hitters in the history of the game, Ted Williams, whose advice changed his life forever.

After hours that night perfecting the grip and movement, Lyle had added his signature pitch that became as much his trademark as his handle-bar mustache was later in life. He made his Major League Baseball debut on July 4, 1967 and remained with Boston until the 1971 season.

In what many believe to be one of the worst trades in baseball history, Lyle was sent to the Yankees for Danny Cater prior to the 1972 season. Lyle's impact was immediate as he set a then American League record for saves with 35 in year one.

Through the next few years in the Bronx, Lyle established himself as one of the best pitchers in the game, cemented by the 1977 Cy Young Award, the first won by a reliever in American League history. His 13-5 record, 2.17 ERA, 26 saves and 68 strikeouts over 137 innings pitched in 72 games helped chart the path to the Yankees first of back-to-back World Series titles.

The 1978 season would be Lyle's final one with the Yankees, but despite contributing to the team's on-field success, that year would forever be tied to his best-selling book, The Bronx Zoo, with author Peter Golenbock. The memoir documents the 1978 Yankees season and all the turmoil around the team.

Released in 1979, the book spent 29 weeks on the New York Times Best Sellers list.

By the time Lyle concluded his 16-year major league career, the two-time champion and three-time All-Star had 99 wins and 238 saves.

Lyle continued his standout success once he transitioned into his role as manager of the Somerset Patriots. After a rough first year at the helm without playing any home games, Lyle’s squad rebounded with strong showings in the first two years of the Patriots shiny new home ballpark.

It wasn’t until 2001 that the Patriots not only won their first postseason game, but earned their first Atlantic League championship.

Fast forward 15 years later, Lyle established himself as the most successful manager in the history of the league. Over his tenure, Lyle led Somerset to a 1,025-912 record, 23 postseason wins, 12 half championships, eight division titles, five league championships and three manager of the year awards.

Lyle’s final season as manager was in 2012 before he transitioned into the role of manager emeritus; one he continues to hold with the team entering the 2023 season.

Once Cole requested his release from the Dodgers in 2023, his father sent a text to Angels team president John Carpino about Troy's availability. Within minutes, Cole received a call from Angels farm director Joey Prebyski with an offer to sign a minor league deal with the team. Cole prefers to wear jersey No. 40 to honor his father.

2025

Earned a non-roster invite to MLB Spring Training with the Yankees, pitching one scoreless inning against the Rays on 2/21.

2024

After missing the 2023 season, Stevens was assigned directly to Double-A Somerset and spent the duration of his 2024 season with the Patriots. He made 31 relief appearances and went 4-0 with 7 SV, a 2.54 ERA, 16 BB and 56 K in 39.0 IP. In 15 appearances at home, Stevens did not allow a run over 19.0 IP with 3 SV, 7 BB and 27 K. On 8/14, Stevens was placed on Somerset's 60-day Injured List, ending his season.

2023

As Stevens was ramping up near the conclusion of Spring Training, he sustained a partial tear of his UCL that caused him to miss the entire 2023 regular season. By the time he recovered, Stevens was assigned to represent the Yankees at the Arizona Fall League. Pitching for the Mesa Solar Sox, he made nine appearances and pitched to a 2.25 ERA with 10 strikeouts over 7.1 innings.

2022

After signing with the Yankees, Stevens spread his pro debut season across five appearances between the FCL Yankees and Single-A Tampa, where he combined to pitch 4.2 innings with four earned runs allowed and four strikeouts.

College

Began his college career at Yavapai Junior College (Prescott, AZ), where he did not pitch his freshman year (2017) due to a shoulder tendinitis injury that caused him to lose his scholarship. He then missed the majority of his redshirt-freshman season (2018), pitching to a 5.40 ERA with 11 K over 13.1 IP. As he was preparing to transfer schools for the 2019 season, he tore his UCL for a second time, underwent Tommy John Surgery and did not attend any school in the 2018-19 academic year. After recovering, Stevens walked on at the University of Texas-Rio Grande Valley in 2020 and went on to earn a scholarship and pitch three seasons there. In his three seasons (2020-2022), Stevens was a two-time All-WAC First-Team selection and earned 2022 WAC Pitcher of the Year honors. In his senior year (2022) as the Vaqueros' Friday night starter, Stevens went 9-2 with a 2.66 ERA and 100 K to 29 BB in 81.1 IP. He finished his career with 228 strikeouts, the sixth-highest total in program history.

PROSPECT RANKINGS

2025 MLB Pipeline Yankees No. 27 Prospect

2025 FanGraphs Yankees No. 23 Prospect

During senior year, Riggio's Thousand Oaks team went 29-1 en route to becoming 2021 Section Champions. He set the school record with 12 HR, 45 BB, and 52 R as a senior. Riggio was teammates with 2021 Athletics 1st round pick Max Muncy. Riggio was selected by the Brewers in the 11th round of the 2021 MLB Draft, but honored his commitment to Oklahoma State. Riggio went viral for doing the "Jack Sparrow run" around the bases following a home run vs. Arkansas during the regional tournament while the run was a TikTok trend. He was compared to Brett Gardner by longtime Yankees MiLB coach Lino Diaz, who coached Riggio with the Tampa Tarpons in 2023. MLB Network's Harold Reynolds compares Riggio's intangibles to those of Dustin Pedroia. Riggio grew up a Dodgers and Lakers fan and is the second-oldest of seven children. He is represented by Page Odle, the same agent who represents Aaron Judge.

Career Notes

Selected in the fourth round of the 2023 MLB Draft by the Yankees for $693,000, roughly 37% above slot value. Riggio was a draft-eligible sophomore when picked by the Yankees and did not sign until 14 hours before the 2023 signing deadline. He was considering returning to Oklahoma State, as he lost out on about $250,000 by being drafted by the Yankees, since he had an agreed upon deal with Houston two picks later. He began playing for Team USA's youth national team as a 14-year-old, winning a gold medal in 2017 for the 15U national team with teammates including Dylan Crews, Masyn Winn, Pete Crow-Armstrong, and Nick Yorke.

Vargas went 0-for-1 with a strikeout in his sole at-bat with Pulaski.

Career Notes

Vargas was expected to sign with the Reds as an international free agent, but Cincinnati was penalized for exceeding their bonus pool money the prior signing period leaving them unable to sign a prospect to a contract above $300,000. The Yankees swooped in to ink Vargas for $2.5M on 8/1/18, dishing out the third-highest bonus in the class. The Yankees acquired the extra international pool money they needed for Vargas, the 8th-ranked prospect in the class, by sending Caleb Frare to the White Sox, and both Giovanny Gallegos and Chasen Shreve to the Cardinals. Vargas played for Matanzas in Cuba's 15U national league in 2016, batting .296/.395/.449 with 14 walks and eight strikeouts in 116 plate appearances. In 2017, he jumped to the 18U league as a 15-year-old. Vargas was part of the first signing class which allowed Cuban players to be signed by MLB teams without having to defect.

FIRST HE WAS SAUER, THEN HE WAS SWEET

Over the span of his first three Double-A starts, RHP Matt Sauer set the Somerset Patriots' single game records for most earned runs allowed in a game and most strikeouts in a game. On the same mound where he made his Double-A debut (8/13/22 vs. HFD) and gave up nine earned runs, two starts later at TD Bank Ballpark, Sauer struck out 17 batters (8/25/22 vs. NH). The 17 punchouts were the most by any MiLB pitcher since 2019 and set a Somerset Patriots franchise record. Following the 2023 season, Sauer was selected by the Kansas City Royals with the No. 2 overall pick of the MLB Rule 5 Draft. He made his MLB debut with the Royals in 2024, before returning to the Yankees for the remainder of the season. Entering 2025, Sauer signed a minor league deal with the Los Angeles Dodgers.
