PNC Field was originally known as Lackawanna County Stadium when it opened on April 26, 1989. The artificial turf stadium was used as a multipurpose facility. Under the Phillies umbrella, the SWB Red Barons called Lackawanna County Stadium home from 1989-2006.

A new affiliation with the New York Yankees took hold and the SWB Yankees opened a new era at the stadium in 2007.

The club began a new era as the RailRiders by opening a freshly renovated PNC Field in 2013. The inaugural season of the RailRiders saw over 430,000 spectators pass through the gates, the highest turnout since 2008.

RAILRIDERS RADIO BROADCASTS

Scranton/Wilkes-Barre RailRiders games will now be heard on Fuzz 96.1 after a radio rights agreement between the club and Times-Shamrock Media. All 150 RailRiders regular season games will be broadcast, as well as any potential playoff games for the Triple-A affiliate of the New York Yankees.

"We are thrilled to work with Times-Shamrock Media for our new radio flagship," said Katie Beekman, the RailRiders General Manager. "We have had a long-standing relationship on many levels, including as a media partner with Rock 107 on our Thirsty Thursdays. We believe this partnership will allow us to continue our game broadcasts at the high level that our fanbase has come to expect and expand our promotional reach within Times-Shamrock's cluster of stations and outdoor opportunities."

In addition to radio broadcasts heard across the region, all RailRiders games will be streamed live on the web with links available through swbrailriders.com and fuzz961.com. The broadcasts are also streamed through the Fuzz 96.1 app and MiLB's First Pitch app.

"Times-Shamrock Media is excited to expand our partnership with the Scranton/Wilkes-Barre Railriders," stated Terry Deitz, the Senior VP/ Market Manager with Times-Shamrock. "Adding the game broadcasts to Fuzz 96.1 will not only enhance our programming but will also expand the coverage area of the games for RailRiders fans throughout NEPA. As a local, family-owned broadcast group, our radio stations — Rock 107, 92Mix FM, Sports Radio WEJL and Fuzz 96.1 — are always looking for ways that we can further our commitment to being live and local in our area. This represents yet another way that our company is ready to be a part of the community and build awareness of the many great assets that we have in the region."

Each RailRiders radio broadcast begins 20 minutes prior to first pitch.

Adam Marco is in his eighth year as the "Voice of the RailRiders." Marco was honored as Ballpark Digest's Minor League Broadcaster of the Year in 2022 and is the second longest-tenured broadcaster in franchise history, trailing only the legendary Kent Westling.

A product of Western Pennsylvania, he graduated from Mercyhurst College in 2001. After seven years on the radio professionally, Marco began his career in Minor League Baseball as a promotions intern and broadcaster for the Williamsport Crosscutters in 2007. In 2008 and 2009, he was the Assistant Media Relations Director and number two broadcaster for the Oklahoma City RedHawks. In 2010, Marco joined the West Virginia Power, handling the team's radio broadcasts, media relations and serving as an account executive. In 2014, he was tabbed as the South Atlantic League's Media Relations Director of the Year. Over the final four years with the Power, he also handled all the team's marketing in addition to promotions, corporate sponsorship sales and his other responsibilities.

RAILRIDERS MANAGER

SW SHELLEY DUNCAN

Born: September 29, 1979 Resides: Tucson, AZ

Years w/ NYY: Third as a Manager Nine as a Player

Did You Know?

Duncan's 2024 RailRiders won the second-most games in a single season in franchise history. Only Marc Bombard's 2002 Red Barons and Al Pedrique's 2016 RailRiders won more (91 games each).

Shelley Duncan was appointed as the manager of the Scranton/Wilkes-Barre RailRiders in 2023 and returns for a third season in charge. He paced the RailRiders to a 89 wins in 2024 and has gone 162-135 since taking over the Yankees' top affiliate.

"Being a part of this organization, I feel very privileged," Duncan said. "It's exciting. I said it from the get-go. I feel the same way now as I did on day one. I feel that within this organization, I'm part of the family. There's a lot of great people here. There are great coaches. Great front office members. Top down, nobody wants to be anywhere else but with the Yankees and I'm about as lucky as can be."

Duncan was drafted by the Yankees in 2001; a second-round selection out of the University of Arizona. He reached Triple-A with Columbus in 2006 and spent portions of three seasons in an SWB Yankees uniform. Duncan appeared in 272 games for Scranton/Wilkes-Barre between 2007 and 2009. In '09, he hit .277 with 30 home runs and 99 runs batted in over 123 games, garnering the nod for International League MVP. His Major League career spanned 330 games for the Yankees, Cleveland and Tampa Bay over seven years.

Duncan managed in the Arizona Diamondbacks system between 2015 and 2018, leading teams in Hillsboro, Visalia and Jackson. He led the Hops to the Northwest League title in 2015 and the Generals to the Southern League crown in 2018. Duncan's managerial record stands at 231-199 over four seasons. Since leaving the Diamondbacks organization, he has served as the Toronto Blue Jays Major League Field Coordinator and as an Analytics Coordinator for the Chicago White Sox.

Duncan will work with a predominantly new staff in 2025.

"[Having a new staff] is going to be a lot of fun," Duncan stated. "Year one, I had to get to know everybody. It was also a situation back then where all the coaches had been there. This time, roles will be reversed, and I will have the experience along with Casa [Casadiego]. It is an absolutely amazing group of coaches and I can't tell you how excited I am to work with all of them."

TRIPLE-B INFORMATION

On February 12, 2021, Major League Baseball announced its new plan for affiliated baseball, with 120 Minor League clubs officially agreeing to join the new Professional Development League (PDL).

In total, the new player development system includes 179 teams across 17 leagues in 43 states and four provinces. Including the AZL and GCL, there are 209 teams across 19 leagues in 44 states and four provinces. That includes the 150 teams in the PDL and AZL/GCL along with the four partner leagues: the American Association, Atlantic League, Frontier League and Pioneer League.

The long-standing league names return this season after 2021 was played under directional monickers. The International League (formerly Triple-A East) consists of 20 teams; all 14 from the old iteration of the IL, plus teams moving from the old Pacific Coast League, the Southern League and the independent Atlantic League. The Pacific Coast League (Triple-A West in 2021) is comprised of nine former Pacific Coast League teams and one addition from the Atlantic League.

These changes were made to help reduce travel and allow Major League teams to have their affiliates, in most cases, within 200 miles of the parent club (or play at their Spring Training facilities).

DID YOU KNOW?

Scranton/Wilkes-Barre and Nashville have not squared off since the 1991 season during the final year of the short-lived Triple-A Alliance. The American Association and the International League played an interlocking schedule consisting of 40 to 44 inter-league games per team. At the end of each season, an Alliance champion was determined in the Triple-A Classic, a best-of-seven postseason series.

The last meeting between the then-Red Barons and the Sounds occurred on June 16, 1991, at Lackawanna County Stadium; a 3-1 Sounds victory. Scranton/Wilkes-Barre has not played in Nashville since May 26, 1991; an 8-4 Red Barons win boosted by Rick Schu's five runs batted in.

The Rochester Red Wings home park, Innovative Field, was re-branded for the 2023 season. Formerly Frontier Field, this ballpark dates back to the 1996 campaign. In that 29-year history, Scranton/Wilkes-Barre is responsible for bringing two of the four best attended dates to the ballpark's history.

On May 6, 2012, a then-regular season record crowd of 13,584 fans were in attendance to witness Andy Pettitte make a start for the SWB Yankees against Pawtucket. The game was originally supposed to be played at Dwyer Stadium in Batavia but was moved due to a high demand of tickets.

On June 14, 2024, a new regular season record crowd of 13,605 fans witnessed Gerrit Cole making a rehab start for the RailRiders against the Red Wings.

The largest crowd to witness a baseball game at the stadium was when the Red Wings faced their then parent organization, the Baltimore Orioles, in an exhibition game attended by 13,723 people on July 10, 1997. A charity exhibition game in 2013 drew 13,716 fans.

DID YOU KNOW?

The current iteration of the Minor League Baseball team in Syracuse dates back to 1961. From 1967 through 1977, the Syracuse Chiefs were the top affiliate of the New York Yankees.

In 1969, infielder Lee Elia appeared in 17 games for Syracuse. He hit .283 for the Chiefs in what turned out to be the second to last year of his playing career. Elia would transition to a managerial and coaching career, both in the Majors and Minors. Elia was hired as a Philadelphia Phillies bench coach for the 1980 championship season. In 1989, he was a coach with the Yankees. Elia stepped away from the game after the 1992 season when he led the Scranton/Wilkes-Barre Red Barons to an 84-58 record.

DID YOU KNOW?

Babe Ruth played in both Wilkes-Barre and Worcester in some fashion.

On October 12, 1926, Ruth visited Wilkes-Barre's Artillery Park to play in an exhibition game between Hughestown and Larksville. Suiting up for Hughestown, the Yankee slugger challenged Larksville's hurler Ernie Corkran to throw him his "best stuff." Ruth crushed the pitch into deep right field. Ruth himself was so impressed by the feat that he asked that his homer be measured. Originally estimated at 650 feet, the prodigious blast is considered to be the longest home run in baseball's storied history.

On April 15. 1935, Ruth and the Boston Braves played an exhibition game at Holy Cross University. He signed autographs and even sat with the Holy Cross band to reportedly play the trombone.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYERS

SHANE VICTORINO – 2005

Shane Victorino became the first Scranton/Wilkes-Barre player to win the International League's Most Valuable Player Award in 2005. Despite a slow start to the campaign, a strong second half propelled him to the league's highest honor and a place on the post-season All-Star team. Overall he finished 6th in batting (.310), 2nd in runs (93), 1st in triples (16), 2nd in total bases (264), 5th in extra-base hits (59), 5th in slugging (.534) and 8th in OBP (.377). In addition he slugged 18 home runs and drove in 70.

SHELLEY DUNCAN - 2009

Shelley Duncan was the second Scranton/Wilkes-Barre player and first Yankee to win the award for his outstanding 2009 season. Duncan established a new franchise record by clubbing 30 home runs. He led the International League in home runs, RBI (99), extrabase hits (61), runs scored (85) and total bases (247). All this despite missing 20 games due to multiple big league callups. This combined with mid-season and post-season all-star selections made Duncan's 2009 season one of the best in franchise history.

BEN GAMEL - 2016

Ben Gamel became the third Scranton/Wilkes-Barre player and first RailRider to win the award after an All-Star-caliber performance in 2016. The Neptune Beach, Fla. native owned the circuit's sixth-best batting average (.308) and finished fourth in the IL with 149 hits. He led the league with 80 runs scored to go with 26 doubles, five triples, six home runs, 51 runs batted in and led the team with 19 stolen bases. Gamel was the International League Rookie of the Year in 2015.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE AWARDS

TOP PITCHERS

BRANDON DUCKWORTH - 2001

Brandon Duckworth became the first Scranton/ Wilkes-Barre player to earn either of the International League's top honors. He signed with Philadelphia as a non-drafted free agent in 1997 and made his Triple-A debut four years later.

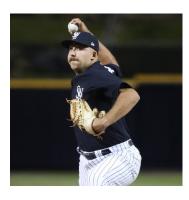

Over 22 games in 2001, including 20 starts, Duckworth went 13-2 with a 2.63 ERA. 13 wins tied him for the league lead and his 150 strikeouts were the secondmost in a single Red Barons at the time, just two shy of the franchise record.

JOE ROA - 2002

Joe Roa followed Brandon Duckworth's remarkable campaign with a stellar season of his own in 2002. The right-hander was traded to Philadelphia at the end of Spring Training in 2002, ultimately appearing in 14 games for the Phillies.

His time with Scranton/Wilkes-Barre leading to the big league call was nothing short of spectacular, posting a 14-0 record over 17 starts with a 1.95 ERA. Roa struck out 74 and walked 16 over 111 innings en route to being tabbed as the league's top arm, despite going to the Majors in July and staying there the remainder of the year.

GREG WEISSERT - 2022

Greg Weissert became the third Scranton/ Wilkes-Barre player and first RailRider to win the International League's top pitching honor. He was named as both the league's Pitcher of the Year as well as the top relief pitcher.

Weissert appeared in 42 games for the RailRiders in 2022, going 2-1 with 18 saves and a 1.69 ERA while striking out 70 over 48 innings pitched. The Yankees signed the right-hander to a Major League deal on August 25 and he made his big league debut that night.

IL PLAYER OF THE MONTH

Brandon Duckworth - July 2001

Duckworth was the first Scranton/Wilkes-Barre player to win an International League Player of the Month honor for his efforts in July 2001. Duckworth went 4-0 with 2.16 ERA in five starts. The right-hander struck out 37 batters over 33.1 innings

José Pirela-June 2014

Pirela was a catalyst atop Dave Miley's lineup card throughout 2014. During 28 games in June, Pirela hit .336 with 40 hits over 119 at-bats. The outfielder also struck out a remarkably-low nine times. He finished the season strong, hitting .274 over 130 games played and earned his first big-league call in September.

Aaron Judge - June 2016

Judge made his RailRiders debut in 2015, but truly cemented his legendary status the following year. In June of 2016, Judge torched IL pitching, hitting .343 over 28 games, slamming nine home runs and driving in 25. He also walked 21 times and even stole four bases, sporting a .477 OBP and OPS at 1.163.

Jake Cave – July 2017

Cave went off in July 2017. Over 26 games, the outfielder hit .390 with six doubles, seven home runs and 21 runs batted in. He was held hitless in just two games that month and closed the July slate with a 15-game hitting streak.

Mike King - August 2018

King made his Triple-A debut on August 5, 2018, and excelled all month. Over five games, all starts, the right-hander sported a 3-0 mark with a 1.09 ERA. King struck out 27 and walked just four over 33 innings. During that span, he surrendered a total of four runs.

Will Warren – September 2023

Warren went 1-0 with a 0.63 ERA in five appearances, including three starts, allowing just two earned runs over a league-best 28.2 innings. He led the International League in strikeouts (36) and was second in average against (.152) and WHIP (0.91). His two earned runs allowed were the fewest by a pitcher with more than 14.1 innings of work.

TOP TIER

Luis Gil was named as the American League's Rookie of the Year for the 2024 season. The right-hander returned from "Tommy John" surgery and became a fixture in the New York Yankees rotation with 29 starts. Gil posted a 15-7 record with a 3.50 ERA, striking out 171 batters over 151.2 innings of work during his award-winning campaign.

New York acquired Gil in a trade with the Minnesota Twins before the 2018 season. He reached Scranton/Wilkes-Barre during the 2021 season, appearing in 13 games, starting 10. He went 4-0 for the RailRiders that summer, sporting a 4.81 ERA with 67 strikeouts. He made his Major League debut for the Yankees that same season, notching his first career win in his very first big-league appearance, going six shutout innings with six strikeouts against Baltimore on August 3.

Over parts of three seasons in the Majors, Gil has gone 16-8 with a 3.55 ERA.

Gil is the fourth former Scranton/Wilkes-Barre player to win Rookie of the Year honors, joining Scott Rolen in 1997, Ryan Howard in 2005 and Aaron Judge in 2017.
