

Today: Following a split doubleheader yesterday, the Lugnuts and Dragons play the third game in a six-game series in Dayton. Lansing is 4-4 this season at Day Air Ballpark, halving a series in the second week of May, and are 9-11 overall this year against the Dragons. 2021 17th-rounder Kyle Virbitsky (Penn State) and 2021 UDFA Jack Owen (Auburn) are expected to pitch for the Lugnuts, taking on 2020 Red second-rounder Christian Roa

On the Air: Watch via MiLB.TV with Jack Kizer or listen at http://milb.streamguys1.com/lansing with Jesse Goldberg-Strassler.

Last Night:

Game 1 - Lugnuts 4, Dragons 3. On an 0-2 pitch with two outs in the 7th, William Simoneit swatted a grand slam off Francis Peguero to lift Lansing to a stunning victory in the series opener. Game 2 - Dragons 5, Lugnuts 3. In the nightcap, Dayton scored three runs in the fourth inning off Shohei Tomioka, and Jake Gilbert induced a game-ending double play from Austin Beck in a taut finish.

On Deck: Following this series in Dayton, the Lugnuts continue their 12-game, 13-day road trip with a six-game set at Fort Wayne before wrapping up 2021 at home vs. West Michigan.

What's New in 2021: Entering this season, the Lugnuts' stadium name changed from Cooley Law School Stadium to Jackson® Field™, Lansing moved up to the High-A Central and the ballclub accepted an invitation to affiliate with the A's, the Nuts' fourth MLB partner, following the Royals (1996-98), Cubs (1999-2004) and Blue Jays (2005-2020).

LUG•NOTES: HEADLINES AND POINTS OF INTEREST

Late Drama With the Dragons: Combining the Nuts' two walk-off wins against Dayton on August 13 and August 15 with last night's series opening victory, the last three Lansing victories against the Dragons have each come in the Lugnuts' final at-bat. The Nuts have 11 final at-bat victories overall this year.

Winning Tight: Each of the last five Lugs victories and seven of the last eight have come by one run. Lansing is 14-7 in one-run games this season.

Coming Up Clutch: A week after William Simoneit drilled a walk-off home run to lift the Lugnuts to a 2-1 win over West Michigan in Game 1 of a doubleheader, Simoneit delivered in the crunch again with a go-ahead grand slam in Game 1 of last night's doubleheader. The undrafted free agent from Wake Forest entered this series coming off a 4-for-4 performance with three singles and a double in the Sunday finale vs. West Michigan.

Patience is a Virtue: Shortstop Drew Swift drew five walks in last night's doubleheader, two in Game 1 and three in Game 2, giving him eight walks in his last five games and 14 walks in 17 games overall. Though Swift is hitting .229, his on-base percentage rests at .422 entering tonight.

Closing the Door: Reliever Charles Hall struck out the Dragons' 1-2-3 hitters, Michael Siani, Matt McLain and Juan Martinez, to close out Game 1 last night with the potential game-tying run in scoring position. In the process, the man nicknamed Captain Hook notched his 10th save of the year, one behind Lake County's Jerson Ramirez and West Michigan's Zack Hess for the league lead. Hall has not allowed a run in his last 12 appearances (13 1/3 scoreless innings, 5 hits in 42 at-bats/.119 avg., 7 walks, 21 strikeouts), with his last run allowed coming on July 25.

Moving in the Right Direction: With his seventh-inning single against Francis Peguero leading off the pivotal Game 1 rally last night, right fielder Lester Madden, Jr., halted an 0-for-19 slump that began following a seventh-inning double off Dayton's Stevie Branche on August 15 in Lansing. First baseman Patrick McColl also snapped a cold streak yesterday, with his third-inning home run in Game 2 potentially spelling the end of a 1-for-19 spell.

V is for Vance... and Versatility: Super utilityman Cobie Vance has batted in every slot, 1 through 9, and has played five different defensive positions this year: shortstop, second base, third base, left field and right field. Tonight marks his fifth start of the year in right field.

Alumni Report: 2011-2012 Lugnuts catcher Carlos Pérez caught fire in August for Oakland's Triple-A affiliate, the Las Vegas Aviators, batting .333 with a .756 slugging percentage and a 1.129 OPS in 24 games, driving in 31 runs thanks to five doubles and 11 home runs. Pérez is slugging .608 for the season, playing catcher, first base and left field for the Aviators and bashing 25 homers while only striking out 36 times in 311 plate appearances.

TODAY IN LUGNUTS HISTORY

2015: Rehabbing Blue Jays ace Marcus Stroman pitched 4 2/3 hitless scoreless innings, striking out seven and walking one, but the Great Lakes Loons rallied for seven runs with two outs in the ninth, including a three-run homer by Justin Chigbogu ("shi-BAH-goo") to hand the Lugnuts a 7-4 loss at Cooley Law School Stadium.

2019: In the final game of the Lugnuts' 24th season, Sean Wymer tossed an 85-pitch (63 strikes) nine-inning complete game and Yorman Rodriguez, Otto Lopez and Griffin Conine all hit solo home runs in a 3-1 victory at Fort Wayne. The game lasted two hours and 14 minutes. Wymer allowed four singles, one run, one walk and two HBPs with two strikeouts.

New Talent Infusion: The Lugnuts have five 2021 Athletics acquisitions on their roster in infielders Brett Harris (drafted in the 7th round, Gonzaga) and Drew Swift (8th round, Arizona State), outfielder Jonny Butler (14th round, North Carolina State), and pitchers Kyle Virbitsky (17th round, Penn State) and Jack Owen (undrafted free agent, Auburn).

Root, Root, Root for the Home Team: July 4th's Lugnuts/Dragons series finale drew a season-high attendance of 10,109. That's higher than the average attendance in MLB for the Baltimore Orioles, Pittsburgh Pirates, Tampa Bay Rays, Miami Marlins and Oakland Athletics. Only nine of the 119 other Minor League teams have drawn a larger crowd to a game this season: Albuquerque, Nashville, Salt Lake, Charlotte, Fresno, Indianapolis, Round Rock, Durham and Las Vegas.

Pitching is an Art... and So is Sculpting: Blake McFarland, who pitched for the 2012 Lansing Lugnuts, is now a professional sculptor who competed on NBC's reality show "Making It," hosted by Nick Offerman and Amy Poehler, but was eliminated in the fifth episode.

Major League Lugnuts: Six former Nuts have made their Major League debuts this season - pitcher Ty Tice '18 (Toronto, now with Arizona), outfielder Josh Palacios '16-'17 (Toronto), pitcher Tayler Saucedo '16-'17 (Toronto), pitcher Conner Greene '15 (Baltimore), pitcher Kirby Snead '16-'17 (Toronto) and infielder Otto Lopez '19 (Toronto). Tice and Palacios made their first MLB appearance in the same game for the Toronto Blue Jays on April 9th. It was the seventh time in team history that two Lugnuts made their MLB debut in the same game, with the first occurring on September 14, 1998: Carlos Febles and Carlos Beltrán for the Kansas City Royals. Snead most recently debuted, appearing in relief for the Blue Jays on July 28.

Star of Stars: The 2021 MLB All-Star Game MVP Award was won by 2017 Lugnut Vladimir Guerrero, Jr., who went 1-for-3 with two RBIs, including a 468-foot home run, in the American League's 5-2 victory. Fellow 2017 Lugnut Bo Bichette came off the bench for the A.L. as reserve shortstop.

Record-Setting, Single Game, Stolen Bases: On June 15, Max Schuemann broke Samad Taylor's franchise single-game record of four steals in a game (set July 1, 2018) with five stolen bases against the Great Lakes Loons.

Record-Setting, Single Game, Home Runs Allowed: On June 20, Stevie Emanuels broke the franchise single game record, tied many times before, of three homers served up in a game, giving up four HRs to the Loons - two apiece by Deacon Liput and Andy Pages.

Record-Setting, Single Game, HBPs: On July 14, Lansing Lugnuts pitchers hit seven Lake County Captains, breaking the franchise single game record, and the second-highest single game HBP total for a team plunked by one pitching staff behind the 1993 Gulf Coast League Braves, who were hit eight times on June 18, 1993.

Representing His Country: 1B/3B Jordan Díaz played for Colombia in Olympic Baseball Qualifying play, blasting a game-tying home run in the 9th against Venezuela, but Colombia lost all three games in opening pool play and was eliminated. Team USA won the tournament, punching a ticket to Japan.

Front Office Connections: Lugnuts pitching coach Don Schulze was drafted 11th overall by the Chicago Cubs in 1980, 12 picks before Oakland Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations Billy Beane was drafted by the New York Mets. Lugnuts first baseman Patrick McColl set a new Harvard baseball single season record with 70 hits in 2019, breaking the previous record held by Athletics General Manager David Forst.

International Appeal: Seven nations are represented on the Lugnuts' roster: USA, Colombia, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Japan, South Africa (Anthony Phillips) and Venezuela (Javier Godard).

Welcome to the Pros: Pitchers Jeff Criswell, Stevie Emanuels, Jack Owen, Kyle Virbitsky and Shohei Tomioka, catchers Jared McDonald, Drew Millas and William Simoneit, infielder Patrick McColl, and outfielder Michael Guldberg have all made their professional debut with the Lugnuts this season.

So Many Starters: The Lugnuts have used 19 different starting pitchers this season, namely Brady Basso, Osvaldo Berrios, Reid Birlingmair, Charlie Cerny, Jeff Criswell, Jack Cushing, David Leal, Stevie Emanuels, Richard Guasch, Jorge Juan, Rafael Kelly, Bryce Nightengale, Jack Owen, Colin Peluse, Leudeny Pineda, Seth Shuman, Shohei Tomioka, Kyle Virbitsky and Brock Whittlesey.

Three Nuts Go to Washington: On July 30, catcher Drew Millas and pitchers Richard Guasch and Seth Shuman were traded by the Athletics to the Washington Nationals in exchange for catcher Yan Gomes and utilityman Josh Harrison.
