LAST GAME

Closing the deal was a surprisingly difficult task for the Bowie Baysox on Tuesday night, as they dropped their series opener with the Richmond Flying Squirrels 7-3. Bowie went 1-for-13 at the plate with runners in scoring position, and they stranded a runner at third base in five different innings. Returning to Bowie following a latissimus strain suffered in Triple-A, Grayson Rodriguez worked two innings on the mound for Bowie, allowing one run and striking out four batters. Cade Povich in a piggyback role struggled, allowing the first five batters of the third inning to reach safely as Richmond exploded for five runs. Bowie scrapped for their runs, as Coby Mayo drove in a run with a single in the fifth inning, while another run scored on a wild pitch, and another on a double play..

TODAY'S OPPONENT

In a series that (Bowie hopes) should preview the first round of the Eastern League playoffs, Bowie will try to make one more charge against the team that they have battled tightly with this season. While Richmond went 7-2 against Bowie in the first half of the season, Bowie flipped the record around against Richmond in the second half, bringing the season series to an even 9-9. While they were able to win the first half of the season in a tiebreak with Akron, the second half has been much more difficult for the Squirrels, as they have the league's worst record in the half. Richmond has relied constantly on power this season, as they have the third-most home runs in the league, despite sporting the lowest batting average.

TODAY'S OPPOSING STARTER

After a late start to the season, right-hander Matt Frisbee has been reliable arm for the Squirrels. Frisbee missed the first two series of the season, and could not finish the fourth inning in any of his first four starts with Richmond, but went on a string of eight-consecutive starts of at least five innings pitched. His luck ran out when he ran into Bowie however, as the Baysox drilled a new career-high for Frisbee in 10 runs, including a grand slam by Cesar Prieto. He had a more manageable start against Bowie in July, allowing just two runs in 4.2 innings. A contact heavy pitcher, Frisbee has only struck out five-or-more batters in fewer than half of his outings this season but has been fanning more batters lately, as he's logged 56 punchouts in his last 43 innings.

MEAT LEFT ON THE BONE

Some of Bowie's offensive woes this season have not been from a lack of effort. In fact, the Baysox are the team most likely to start an inning with a runner on base in the Eastern League. Bowie leads the league in all three slash lines (.270/.368/.461) from the first batter of an inning this season. They also lead the league in lead off doubles. All of those numbers combine to Bowie leaving 932 runners on base this season, the most in the league, and an average of 7.4 per game. Bowie has also stranded the most runners in scoring position in the league (688). Inversely, Bowie has the second-most strikeouts in the league when batting with runners on base (548).

NORBY KNOWS HOW TO HIT

Connor Norby is taking on all pitches lately, after leading off for most of his Bowie tenure, Norby shifted to the second and third roles in the lineup starting on 8/18, and has gone 23-for-60 (.383) since, with two multi-home run games, and seven home runs total. Combined with his time spent at High-A, Norby has 23 home runs this season, tied for the most in the Orioles minor league system. Norby is already has six home runs in the first inning of games, tied for the most in the Eastern League this season.

GIVE ME A NUMBER THREE WITH EXTRA MAYO

Bowie infielder Coby Mayo had a slow start to his time at Double-A, missing a full month with injury after playing just three games with the Baysox at the start of the second half. While Mayo only hit 6-for-33 (.182) in his nine games back from the Injured List, he's gone 16-for-44 (.364) in the 12 games since, recording hits in 11 of the games, with five multi-hit games, two home runs, and nine runs scored. Mayo is currently ranked as the Orioles #7 prospect by both MLB Pipeline and Baseball America.

Andrew himself is a legacy graduate of Stanford, his sister was a four-year starter for Princeton Volleyball, and both parents played tennis.

Missed three games after being hit by a pitch early in Bowie's 4-3 win at Binghamton on 4/13. Returned on 4/19 to go 3-for-5 at the plate against Akron with a career-high six RBI and a grand slam, his fourth home run, and the first grand slam of the season for the Baysox. // After the first weekend of the season, Haskin led all of Minor League Baseball with a slugging percentage of 1.583, thanks to a career-high three doubles on Opening Day, and a historic three home run day on the third day of the season. // Haskin's three home runs were just the sixth time in franchise history that a Baysox player collected three home runs in a game, and the first since Tucker Nathans on 5/13/17. // Haskin joked that the meal he had with infielder Gunnar Henderson at Olive Garden the night before was the lone difference in his usual routine, mentioning they shared a cheesecake. // Ranked as the Orioles #16 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #22 according to Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star in the outfield by MLB.com for his 2021 season. // Did not get to see the full season due to a thumb fracture in late August. // Played 26 games at Aberdeen, 57 at Delmarva. // Despite only playing 83 games, his 22 steals were good for fifth-most in the organization while his .381 OBP was fourth-best among qualified hitters. // Split his power over the two halves of his season. He hit all five of his home runs in his first 41 games of the season, and none in the remaining 42 games, including his entire stint with Aberdeen. // Previously drafted by Oakland in the 2018 draft out of high school, but elected not to sign. // Graduated from Avon Old Farms School, a notable all-male boarding school in Connecticut with many notable alumni, including 2017 World Series MVP George Springer, World Series-winning pitching coach Juan Nieves, and Hockey Hall of Famer and Stanley Cup Champion Brian Leetch. // Broke Springer's school record for stolen bases at Avon Old Farms. // Swing draws comparisons to Hunter Pence, but eliminated a leg kick from his swing that was used throughout his time at Tulane.

Went on a 0-for-21 skid from 5/3 to 5/13, broke out of it on 5/13 when he began a stretch of five at bats where he hit for the cycle. Went 3-for-5 on 5/13 with the first three legs, including an RBI triple in the tenth inning of a Bowie loss, and hit a solo home run of his first at bat of the following game on 5/15. // Ranked as the Orioles #33 prospect entering the 2022 season according to Baseball America. Also listed as the best defensive outfielder in the organization. // 21 home runs in 2021 ranked fourth in the Orioles system, behind only Kyle Stowers, Adley Rutschman, and Patrick Dorrian. Despite the high home run number, his .768 OPS was only good for 39th in the organization. // When combined with his 24 stolen bases, Watson was the only player in the system with a 20-20 season in 2021, and the first since DJ Stewart in 2017. // First selected by Boston in the 40th round of the 2018 draft, but elected not to sign. // Played 49 games in Bowie, 56 in Aberdeen. In 2019, played 16 games in Delmarva, 20 in Aberdeen.

PLAYER

Missed 85 games on the Injured List after appearing in just four games for Bowie at the start of the season. Crashed into the left field wall at Binghamton while making a game-ending catch. // Appeared in 106 games in 2021, good for ninth-most in the Orioles system, while his 13 home runs ranked 15th. 70 games in Bowie, 36 in Aberdeen. // Split his defensive time evenly on both corners of the infield, with 41 games at both bases. Also played 13 games in the outfield. // A native of western Pennsylvania, Welk did not fully anticipate to play baseball at a high professional level, choosing Penn State-Berks for their engineering program, but was drafted after hitting 34 career home runs, collecting a .433 batting average, and only striking out only 31 times. // Named the D3baseball.com National Player of the Year in 2019. // Was the first player ever drafted out of Penn State-Berks. // Just after his call-up to Bowie, he stopped sitting on pitch types, and started looking for pitches in specific locations to swing at. The change in approach helped him hit 11 home runs in 70 games.
