LAST NIGHT: The Amarillo Sod Poodles (1-5) fell to the Springfield Cardinals (5-1), 8-4, on Thursday night at HODGETOWN. Strong performances from multiple Sod Poodle bats were not enough as Amarillo dropped their third straight game to the Cardinals. Springfield scored first again, with a two-runs single in the first stanza, before extending the lead to 4-0 on a Jacob Buchberger two-run homer in the third. Despite a leadoff double from LuJames Groover in the fourth, the Soddies posted another scoreless inning before Springfield collected another two-run frame in the top of the fifth to extend their lead to six. In his third plate appearance of the night, Jose Fernandez stepped up to the dish in the sixth with Groover standing 90 feet away. His second hit of the night brought home the designated hitter, putting the Soddies on the board. Following another two-run inning from the Cardinals, Jeremiah Boyd launched a ball to left field for his first Double-A home run. Amarillo kept the line moving in their final turn at bat, with Groover driving in two on a double into the left-center gap. The three runs in the bottom of the ninth would be all the Soddies could muster, and the Sod Poodles dropped the ballgame to Springfield.

THREE BY TWO: Two of the three Soddies who have manned the hot corner this season managed three hits apiece on Thursday, as Jose Fernandez (3for-3) and LuJames Groover (3-for-5) put together solid games at the plate... Fernandez, who played third base yesterday, logged his 10th career 3+ hit night, his first at the Double-A level and most recent occurrence since June 5, 2024 against Spokane (Colorado Rockies)...playing as the designated hitter, Groover's 3-hit showing was his third in Double-A and 7th overall in his career, having most recently accomplished the feat on September 5, 2024 at Midland.

IT TAKES TWO: The Sod Poodles entered play Thursday tied for the Texas League lead with Midland with six double plays turned...with three twin killings turned in yesterday's contest, they are now in sole possession of first on the Texas League leaderboard with nine double plays...the figure ranks tied for first in all of Double-A ball with Harrisburg (Washington Nationals).

MOVIN' AND GROOVER: Extending his hit streak to six games with a fourth-inning double was Lulames Groover...over those six games, Groover is batting .385 (10-for-26) with four doubles, three RBI, and two walks...the six-game streak is tied for the longest active streak in the Texas League with four others...it is also his third straight game with at least one double, the longest such streak in the Texas League so far this season...only four players put together a streak of at least three straight games with a double for the Sod Poodles last season, with Andy Weber (August 27 - 31) and Jesus Valdez (July 12 - 25) tying for the most consecutive games with a two-bagger at five apiece...Groover has managed a hit in 13 straight contests for Amarillo, dating back to last season, when he ended the 2024 campaign with a sevengame streak...in this active streak, Arizona's 10th-rated prospect is slashing .353/.421/.569 with 18 total hits.

TOMMY TAKES A FREE RIDE: Going into Thursday's game, Tommy Troy ranked tied for second in the Texas League with five walks, adding a trio to that total yesterday with free-passes in the first, seventh, and ninth innings... brings his total to eight walks on the year and ranks first in the Texas League, increasing his on-base percentage to .533 for the year (3rd in TL).

DOWN IN THE DESERT: High-A Hillsboro won their fifth straight game on Thursday, defeating the Everett AguaSox 8-4. The Hops lead the Northwest League by two games and hold the best batting average in the league at .273...Ryan Waldschmidt (AZ No.6 prospect) and Cristofer Torin (AZ No. 14 prospect) each have an active six-game hit streak, tied with five others for the longest current stretch in High-A baseball.
