This Day in Baseball

2015 - Max Scherzer of the Nationals comes agonizingly close to pitching a perfect game but has to settle for a 6 - 0 no-hitter over the Pirates. With two outs in the 9th, he hits pinch-hitter Jose Tabata with a pitch after retiring the first 26 batters in order as Tabata appears to lean into the pitch. Scherzer then retires Josh Harrison on a fly ball to end the game.

2024 - The Rickwood Field Game is played at historic Rickwood Field in Birmingham, AL, which opened in 1910, to pay tribute to players and teams from the Negro Leagues. The game is also an occasion to honor all-time great Willie Mays, who passed away only two days ago. The St. Louis Cardinals, playing as the St. Louis Stars, defeat the San Francisco Giants, as the San Francisco Sea Lions, 6 - 5.

2024 - The Padres become the first team in MLB history to win three-straight games with a walk-off home run in the bottom of the ninth inning as Jake Cronenworth delivers the heroics

APPLE SLICES

WELCOME, MATTHEW BOYD: The Fort Wayne TinCaps are scheduled to face Chicago Cubs Opening Day starter and 2025 National League All-Star Matthew Boyd. The 13-year Major Leaguer is scheduled to make his third rehab appearance after being placed on the injured list on May 6 with a left meniscus injury. The 35-year-old left-hander played for Team USA in this year's World Baseball Classic after making three starts in the playoffs in 2025 for the Cubs. Boyd last appeared at Parkview Field on Aug. 5, 2013, as a part of the Lansing Lugnuts, making his way up the Toronto Blue Jays system. Boyd earned the loss, giving up one run across four innings while facing Zach Eflin. The right-hander, who has gone on to play in 11 Major League seasons, completed seven shutout innings against the Lugnuts.

ROUNDING THE BASES: TinCaps center fielder Kasen Wells opened up the scoring with an inside-the-park home run Friday night. It is the first inside-the-park home run by the TinCaps hitter since Jackson Merrill sped around the bases on May 30, 2023, at home against South Bend. Wells' first High-A home run came in his 93rd game and is his first since July 30, 2025, with Single-A Lake Elsinore.

A FRESH SLATE: Friday night's game marks the beginning of the second half of the 2026 Midwest League season. Fort Wayne's last playoff berth came in the second half of the 2023 campaign, with current manager Jonathan Mathews at the helm. The TinCaps finished the 2023 second half with a 37-29 record after being 32-34 in the first half. The postseason all-star team that season featured two 'Caps, Nathan Martorella and Jakob Marsee.

EXTRA EXTRA READ ALL ABOUT IT: The TinCaps played an extra-inning contest for the third time this season and second in as many days Friday night. It is the first 11-inning game for Fort Wayne since Sept. 3, 2024, when Fort Wayne walked off South Bend, 6-5.

KT WANTS TO RULE THE WORLD: TinCap outfielder Kavares Tears slashed a two-run double in the first inning on Friday night. Tears has 10 extra-base hits (3 2B, 2 3B, 5 HR) in his last 12 games with a 1.172 OPS since May 31. The No. 26 Padres prospect leads the Midwest League with six first-pitch home runs this season and is tied for third in Minor League Baseball.

PACK THE HOUSE: Fort Wayne fans packed Parkview Field Thursday night to round out the first half of the Midwest League season. The 'Caps attendance of 7,901 was the second-largest in all of Minor League Baseball. The second sellout of the season is the largest crowd of the year by over 1,300 people. It was also the largest announced attendance on a non-July 4th Thursday since 2018.

WATERING THE WELL: Fort Wayne center fielder Kasen Wells has a hit in 10 of his last 11 games and 11 of his last 13. The Graham, Texas native had his team-leading 9-game hit streak come to an end in the second game of Thursday's doubleheader. Since June 3 (13 games), Wells is hitting .366 with a .490 on-base percentage. He is tied for the team lead with 16 multi-hit games while walking a team-high 36 times. Wells is Fort Wayne's best batter with runners in scoring position. Hitting .302.

EVANS ELEVATING: Fort Wayne third baseman Zach Evans has a hit in 9 of his last 10 games and in 16 of his last 19 following his RBI single in the first on Friday. Dating back to May 24, Evans is slashing .303/.352/.439 with six doubles (three of which came in the Dayton series last week).

JACK ATTACK: Fort Wayne first baseman Jack Costello connected with his 13th double of the season, driving in a run in Fort Wayne's five-run first inning on Friday. Costello put a bow on game one of Thursday's doubleheader with a walk-off infield single in the eighth inning. It's the second walk-off winner of the season for Costello, with the other being a three-run homer to defeat Dayton on May 24. The walk-off blast was the first for Fort Wayne since Joshua Mears did so on June 21, 2024, against Wisconsin. The TinCaps had 4 walk-off victories in 2025, three of which were by Brandon Butterworth, including the last, which came on July 30 against Great Lakes.

DUGIE KEEPS CLIMBING: Fort Wayne third baseman Rosman Verdugo hit his tenth home run of the season last Friday. The 21-year-old's 3-for-5 showing in the win marks the second time he has picked up 3 hits in a game this season. The other instance came on May 15 against Cedar Rapids, where he also homered. Verdugo now has 24 across his TinCaps career, passing Fernando Tatis Jr. for eighth in career home runs, and is one shy of Tom Knauss (1993-94, 96-97) for seventh. Verdugo is the 10th player in Fort Wayne franchise history to hit the 20-career home run mark. After leading the 'Caps with 13 home runs in 2025, 8 of Verdugo's 10 home runs in 2026 have come on the road.

CUNNINGHAM CLOBBERING: TinCap outfielder Jake Cunningham hit his 15th home run of the season in game one of Thursday's twin bill, tying him for second in the Midwest League. Cunningham made history when he hit 3 home runs in a game on June 5 against Lake County. He became the fourth player in franchise history to accomplish this feat, being the first to do so since Robert Hassell III did so in 2021. Hassell's was the first by a TinCap since Jonathan Galvez hit three on July 22, 2010, vs. Peoria. The only Wizard to accomplish the feat was Jon Benick (July 3, 2002, vs. Quad Cities).

FOURTH OF JULY FIREWORKS: The City of Fort Wayne announced that the top of the Harrison Square parking garage that's attached to Parkview Field in downtown Fort Wayne will be the location for this year's Fourth of July fireworks show on Saturday, July 4. The fireworks show is scheduled to begin at 10 p.m., with ticketed fans being able to watch the display. Tickets will be sold even after the end of the game for fans hoping to watch the fireworks display. The top six highest single-game attendances in franchise history are all on the Fourth of July, and the 250th anniversary of American Independence is on the brink of breaking the TinCaps' single-game attendance record of 9,508.

MAKING HISTORY: TinCaps outfielder Jake Cunningham tied a franchise record, hitting three home runs on Friday, June 5. Cunningham is the 4th player in Fort Wayne franchise history to hit three long balls in a contest, being the first to do so since Robert Hassell III did so in 2021. Hassell's was the first by a TinCap since Jonathan Galvez hit three on July 22, 2010, vs. Peoria. The only Wizard to accomplish the feat was Jon Benick (July 3, 2002, vs. Quad Cities). Cunningham had as many home runs on Friday as he did in 76 games in High-A Aberdeen in 2025 and is now second in the Midwest League with 14. The 23-year-old began the scoring with a three-run home run in the first, then followed it up with a two-run blast in the third, and capped it off with a solo home run in the fifth. The total distance of the three home runs was 1,184 feet, 22.4% of a mile.

SWIPING HOME: Zach Evans' straight steal of home in the fifth inning Friday, May 15, was the first TinCaps straight steal of home in Parkview Field history. It is the third straight steal of home in franchise history, with data dating back to 2005.

The other two instances:

- May 25, 2017: Fernando Tatis Jr. @ Bowling Green vs. RHP Pete Bayer (Top 5, 1 out, Before First Pitch)
- April 16, 2013: Corey Adamson @ South Bend vs. LHP Cody Wheeler (Top 5, 1 out, Before First Pitch)

In the expansion era (1961-present), only two MLB games have ever ended 1-0 with the lone run being a straight-steal of home. Reds' Chico Ruiz on Sept. 21, 1964 vs. the Phillies and the Royals' Amos Otis on July 31, 1972 vs. the California Angels (off Nolan Ryan).

CAPS IN THE TOP 30: Fort Wayne has 8 of the Padres' Top 30 prospects according to MLB Pipeline's latest rankings. LHP Kash Mayfield leads the crop as the No. 4 prospect, along with RHP Tucker Musgrove (No. 9), as the top arms. C/1B Lamar King Jr. (No. 14), OF Alex McCoy (No. 19), and OF Kavares Tears (No. 26) are the three position players. Carson Montgomery (No. 30) is the newcomer to the list, with RHP Kannon Kemp (No. 17) and Jaxon Dalena (No. 29) on the Fort Wayne Injured List.

2026 TINCAPS COACHING STAFF

Jonathan Mathews      Manager      Age: 54

- FROM: Centerville, IA
- COLLEGE: Indian Hills Community College (Iowa) and the University of New Orleans
- PLAYING CAREER: Drafted in the 42nd Round of the 1994 MLB Draft by the Colorado Rockies, played one season
- COACHING CAREER: Mathews returns to Fort Wayne for his third stint with the organization and second as the team's manager. Began coaching career at the University of Iowa and then in the Minnesota Twins' organization after his playing career. Became the hitting coach for the High-A Fort Myers Miracle in 1997, before managing the rookie-level Elizabethton Twins in 1998 and '99. Returned to alma mater, coaching at Indian Hills and taught economics from 1999-2012 before returning to professional baseball. Mathews coached in the Baltimore Orioles' farm system in 2013, and Arizona Diamondbacks' system from 2014-2016 before joining the Padres organization in 2017 as their major-league outfield coach. He first spent time in Fort Wayne as the TinCaps hitting coach from 2018-2021 before assuming the same role with Triple-A El Paso in 2022. He took over as the Fort Wayne manager in 2023, leading the TinCaps to a second-half east division title and first playoff appearance since 2017. He has spent the last two years as a minor league hitting coordinator.
