NEWS AND NOTES
NOT THE VOLLEYBALL: Bryse Wilson will make his second rehab appearance with Nashville on Saturday night against the Redbirds. The right-hander worked 2.1 IP with four hits allowed and one unearned run on Tuesday night. Across 13 Triple-A appearances this year between Nashville and Lehigh Valley Wilson is 3-5 with a 6.04 ERA compared to a 0.00 ERA and 2.55 ERA with 22 strikeouts and a walk in 12 relief appearances with the Brewers.
80-PIECE: Brock Wilken recorded his 80th RBI for the Sounds this season with his sac fly in the bottom of the fifth inning on Friday night. Wilken ranks T-6th in the International League in RBI and 6th in the Brewers farm system. He is now the 10th different Sounds' hitter to record 80+ RBI in a single season since 2005 and is T-9th for the most RBI in over the span. Matt Davidson's 101 RBI in 2019 are the most for Nashville over the span and finished as the 4th-most in a single-season overall in Sounds franchise history.
DAILY DOS: Akil Baddoo went 2-for-4 with a double and a triple, recording his 46th and 47th RBI of the season for the Sounds. Baddoo's 47 RBI are the third-most on the team behind Brock Wilken (80) and Jefferson Quero (69). His 10 doubles are tied for the sixth-most on the team this year. It's his fourth straight season reaching 10+ doubles and home runs, and the sixth time overall in his career. His triple in the seventh inning was the 39th of the season for Nashville, which is tops in the International League and fifth in all Triple-A. Baddoo has recorded each of the last two Sounds' triples after hitting one last Friday night in Durham. Friday night was his 16th multi-hit game of the season and 12th multi-RBI game; he is tied with Tyler Black for the second-most multi-hit games for anyone on Nashville's active roster behind Jefferson Quero (25). It was his second multi-hit game this week and the fifth in his last 10 games played to hit .324 (12-for-37) with five XBH and three RBI since August 5.
FIRST OF MANY: Jonathan Ornelas recorded his first multi-hit game since joining the Sounds on September 2 as he finished Friday night 3-for-4 with a home run, three runs, a RBI, and walk. It was his first home run since July 29 when he was with Triple-A Las Vegas, ending a 12-game homerless drought. He has 12 home runs this season between Scranton/Wilkes-Barre, Las Vegas, and now Nashville. Friday night was his first 3+ hit game since going 4-for-4 with a career-high four doubles on June 9 vs. Lehigh Valley. He now has six 3+ hit games this season.
CONTROLLING THE WAGON: Cameron Wagoner extended his streak to nine consecutive games without allowing a run in Friday's game, tossing a scoreless seventh inning with a strikeout to bring his ERA down to 0.56 with the Sounds through his first 14 Triple-A games. Since the start of his streak on August 20, Wagoner has allowed five hits, struck out 14 hitters and walked three bringing his total innings pitched to 10.2 IP, which now surpasses Joel Kuhnel (10.1 IP) for the longest-active streak without an earned run by innings pitched on the team.
HE WENT TO JARED: Jared Koenig also extended his streak of not allowing a run to nine straight games (7.2 IP) after striking out the lone batter he faced on Friday night. Koenig has not allowed a hit over his last eight appearances (6.1 IP) and carries a 2.21 ERA through 23 total appearances for the Sounds this year. Over his last 13 games, he has surrendered just three hits over his last 13.0 IP with 11 strikeouts to three walks. The nine game streaks for Wagoner and Koenig are tied for the 11th-longest active streak in the International League with two games remaining in the season.
THREE OF A KIND: Tyler Black finished Thursday night's game 3-for-3 with a double and an RBI. It was his third 3-hit game this season with Nashville and his first since August 25. Two of his three 3-hit games this season have come against the Redbirds after going 3-for-5 on June 20 at AutoZone Park. His second inning RBI on Thursday night was his first since September 2 against Louisville, ending a 10 game drought without a RBI. It was the third time this season he had gone 10 games between RBIs (7/21-31, 8/4-15). His 44 RBI this year rank sixth for all Nashville hitters. Since making his Triple-A debut on August 6, 2023, he leads all Nashville players in hits (285), RBI (170), XBH (97), doubles (52), HR (29), 3B (16), walks (194), runs (187), and stolen bases (73).
