Eastwood Field • 111 Eastwood Mall Blvd • Niles, OH 44446

Sunday May 30 2021 • Game #6

Mahoning Valley Scrappers (5-0) @ Frederick Keys (0-3-1)

TBA (0-0, 0.00) vs. RHP Luis Guerrero (0-0, 3.38)

On the Road Again - The Frederick Keys hit the road for the second time in 2021, this time for their lone trips of the season to Mahoning Valley and State College. The trip, which will last through Tuesday will be the second longest road trip of the season. Three games are scheduled against Mahoning Valley on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The Keys game on Friday night was rained out. Mahoning Valley won Saturday's game by a final score of 10-9 on a walk off double. Two games are scheduled against the State College Spikes on Monday and Tuesday.

Guerrero - Luis Guerrero starts his second game of the season on Sunday afternoon. The starting pitcher from Chipola started Opening Day for the Keys against the Trenton Thunder at Citizens Bank Park. Guerrero threw 2.2 innings enroute to a no-decision in a 9-2 Frederick Keys loss. Guerrero walked 4 and struck out 5. This season he was in the top 25 of NJCAA strikeouts among pitchers with 95.

Leaving the Yard - Nick Hernandez hit the first home run of the Frederick Keys season on Thursday night. The homer, which led off the 6th inning, left the bat at 101 MPH and flew 400 feet over the left field wall. It sparked a 5 run 6th for the Keys. Rene Lastres and Anthony Herron Jr both went deep on Saturday night. Every Keys home run this season has been a solo shot to left field.

Closing Out - The Frederick Keys have not faired well in close games this season. The Keys have now lost two games by one run and tied once. They are 0-1-1 in games when they lead after 8 innings. On Tuesday, the Keys lost 6-5 after tying the game 5-5 in the 7th. On Thursday, after falling behind early the Keys had a big 6th inning which gave them 5-1 lead over West Virginia. The Black Bears tied the game at 5-5 in the 9th on a balk, resulting in the first ever MLB Draft League tie. On Saturday, the Keys led the game 8-1 midway through the 5th. Mahoning Valley went into the 9th down by 3 and scored 4 runs in the half inning to walk the Keys off.

Here Comes the Calvary - Alex Ulloa had his best game of the season on Saturday night, going 3-5 with two doubles, a triple, and 2 RBI. The Calvary Christian Academy product just finished his high school course work this past week and now turns his focus to the next step. Ulloa enters the season ranked as the 196th best player in the 2021 Draft class according to Baseball America. MLB Pipeline ranks him at 157. He is joined in the top prospect lists by high school teammates Rene Lastres (287 BA), Andrew Painter (17 BA, 18 MLB), and Irving Carter (92 BA, 110 MLB) on those lists. Lastres is committed to Florida, while Ulloa is committed to Oklahoma State this coming fall.

Getting Serieous - The College World Series is set to select this year's field on Monday afternoon. As D-1 schools are eliminated more players will be joining MLB Draft League. The World Series is set to wrap up on June 29/30.

Quick Hits - One of the top strikeout artists in the NJCAA ranks this season, Guerrero has the stuff rack up strikeouts. The 6-foot, 215-pound right-hander's fastball consistently sits in the mid 90s. He adds a curveball, slider, splitter, and changeup to his repertoire.

Last Time Out - Guerrero got the ball on Opening Day for the Keys throwing 2.2 innings and giving up just 1 ER. He struggled with command a bit letting a few wild pitches go by, but showed good strikeout stuff getting 5 of his 8 outs by way of the K. The game finished in a 9-2 loss for the Keys, with a huge 7th inning that saw Trenton bring 10 men to the plate and score 5 runs to seal the game.

2021 Chipola - The freshman tried it again in 2021, after his original freshman year was wiped out due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Guerrero used the time off to grow and was the workhorse for Chipola posting a team high 58.0 IP. In that time Guerrero racked up 95 strike outs, good enough to finish in the top 25 (24) for NJCAA strikeout leaders. He gave up just 43 runs, tied for first amongst NJCAA qualifying pitchers. Guerrero was one of two pitchers to make a team high 5 starts this season, finishing the season with a 6-2 record. Opponents hit below .200 against Guerrero in 2021, a mark reached for the second season in a row (2021 - .198, 2020 - .174)

MLB Draft Aspirations - Guerrero has big shoes to fill in the 2021 MLB Draft but Chipola has a history of producing major-league talent. Former big-leaguer Jose Bautista attended Chipola in 2000 & 2001, eventually going on to become 6x All-Star and 2x Home Run Derby Champion. Current lefty of the Washington Nationals, Patrick Corbin is also a Chipola alumni who played under Chipola Head Coach/AD Jeff Johnson. Johnson is responsible for three 1st Round Draft Picks: LHP Adam Loewen (2003), RHP Alan Horne (2004), and OF LeVon Washington (2010).
