COACHING CAREER

Development Coach, Buies Creek (2016); Manager, Quad Cities (2018); Manager, Round Rock (2019); Manager, Sugar Land (2021-present)

Storey enters his seventh year as the manager of the Astros Triple-A affiliate and fifth in Sugar Land. After guiding the Space Cowboys to a Minor-League leading 93 wins in 2024, Storey was named the Pacific Coast League Manager of the Year, the first Manager of the Year honor of his career. Early in the 2024 season, Storey picked up his 400th career victory on May 14, 2024 with a 16-7 win at Albuquerque. The Space Cowboys won the First Half Pacific Coast League Title, going 49-26 to ensure home field advantage in the postseason, and also clinched the Second Half Pacific Coast League Title after compiling a 44-30 record. Sugar Land's 93 wins in 2024 were the most in the Pacific Coast League since 1981, and Storey guided Sugar Land to a postseason sweep in which they claimed their first Pacific Coast League Title, defeating the Reno Aces 2-0 in a best-of-three series, and won their first Triple-A National Championship with a 13-6 win over the Omaha Storm Chasers at Las Vegas Ballpark on September 28, 2024.

He reached the 300-win mark in his managerial career on September 2, 2022, with a 9-2 win over the Albuquerque Isotopes. Following the 2022 season, Storey managed the Surprise Saguaros of the Arizona Fall League. He led Surprise to a 19-10 record, good for the best record in the Arizona Fall League, and managed the Saguaros to the Arizona Fall League title with a 7-6 win in 11 innings over Glendale.

Storey was named Sugar Land's manager prior to the 2021 season and led the team to a 75-55 record and a Triple-A West, East Division title in the franchise's first campaign as an Astros' affiliate. The Skeeters tied for the sixth-best record in all of Triple A with Storey at the helm.

During the pandemic-shortened 2020 season, Storey was the manager for the Astros Alternate Training Site squad in Corpus Christi. He also led the Astros Alternate Training Site at the beginning of the 2021 season, prior to the start of the Minor League season in early May.

The former Major Leaguer helped lead Triple-A Round Rock to the top record in the Pacific Coast League in 2019 (84-56) while winning the American Southern Division. Round Rock defeated the Iowa Cubs in five games in the Divisional Round, advancing to the Pacific Coast League Championship Series before ultimately falling to the Sacramento River Cats.

Storey first began coaching in the Astros system in 2016 as a development coach for Class-A Advanced Buies Creek. He received his first managerial job in 2018 with Class-A Quad Cities. He led Quad Cities to an 81-59 record in his lone season as the manager, which was the second-best record in the Midwest League, winning the Western Division.

Prior to his coaching career, Storey logged a nine-year professional career as a right-handed pitcher. He made his Major League debut in 2012 with the Astros and appeared in the Majors in 2013 as well as a member of the Toronto Blue Jays. He made a total of 29 appearances at the Major League level (all in relief), including 26 with the Astros. Storey had his best Major League season with the Astros in 2012, going 0-1 with a 3.86 ERA and striking out 34 batters through 30.1 innings pitched.

The Oakland A's selected Storey in the 31st round of the 2008 MLB Draft from Florida Atlantic University. His professional career spanned from 2008-16, pitching in the A's organization (2008-11), Astros (2011-12), Blue Jays (2013-14), Los Angeles Dodgers (2015) and independent Somerset Patriots of the Atlantic League (2015-16). Storey also appeared in the Mexican Pacific Winter League, the Venezuelan Winter League, Dominican Winter League and the Arizona Fall League.

He amassed a total of 385 appearances at the professional level, recording a career 3.52 ERA (682.1IP) with 44 saves. During his time as a player, he pitched in the Pacific Coast League for the Sacramento River Cats and the Oklahoma City RedHawks.

Storey finished his career at Florida Atlantic second on the school's all-time strikeout list and tied for second in wins. He also finished top 10 in school history in strikeouts per nine innings, games started, fewest walks per nine innings and innings pitched. He was selected by the Minnesota Twins in the 22nd round of the 2007 MLB Draft out of Florida Atlantic as well but did not sign.

The Space Cowboys worked 718 walks in 2024, tied for the most in the PCL and the second most in Baseball (Major or Minor League).

2024 CLUB NOTES

TRIPLE THE FUN: In the eighth inning on May 3, after the RHP Dylan Coleman gave up back-to-back walks to put runners on first and second with no outs, Óscar Mercado hit a grounder to Shay Whitcomb, who quickly stepped on third base and passed it to second baseman Jackson Loftin, who lasered it to first baseman David Hensley to complete the first triple play in the 2024 Minor League season and the first triple play in Space Cowboys history.

TRIPLE DOUBLE: In the second inning on June 20 @ ELP, Blair Henley induced a 5-4-3 triple play to get out of the frame... It is the second 5-4-3 triple play Sugar Land turned in 2024, with both coming at Southwest University Park... They were the first MiLB team to turn multiple triple plays in a season since 2021 (Memphis and Tri-City)... The Space Cowboys other triple play came on May 3 in the eighth inning against El Paso.

ON-BASE KING: Shay Whitcomb put together a 44-game on-base streak from April 7 to June 4, the longest on-base streak in Space Cowboys franchise history, the longest on-base streak in the Pacific Coast League in 2024 and the third longest on-base streak in Minor League Baseball in 2024.

GOING BACK-TO-BACK: The Space Cowboys ran a home run clinic on May 3 against the Chihuahuas, knocking five long balls out of the park... More notably, they hit back-to-back home runs two different times in the game, one set from Cooper Hummel and Quincy Hamilton in the second inning and the other from César Salazar and Shay Whitcomb in the fourth inning.

SPACE COWBOYS IN THE SHOW: In 2024, the Space Cowboys have had 23 players called up to the Houston Astros, including 12 players that had their contracts selected (Blair Henley, Wander Suero, Spencer Arrighetti, Joel Kuhnel, Joey Loperfido, Cooper Hummel, Luis Contreras, Bryan King, Pedro León, Zach Dezenzo, Shay Whitcomb and Ryan Gusto)... There were 10 players from the 2024 Space Cowboys that made their Major League debut, with RHP Blair Henley debuting on April 8 @ TEX, RHP Spencer Arrighetti debuting on April 10 @ Kansas City, RHP Forrest Whitley making his Major League debut on April 16 vs. Atlanta, OF Joey Loperfido debuting in left field on April 30 vs. Cleveland, LHP Bryan King and RHP Luis Contreras both debuting on June 23, each throwing a scoreless inning, Pedro León debuting on August 3 vs. TB, where he went 1-for-3 with a single to left and Zach Dezenzo on August 6 @ TEX. INF Will Wagner had his contract selected by the Blue Jays and debuted on August 12 @ LAA, going 3-for-4, 2B, RBI, R, and INF Shay Whitcomb made his debut on August 17 in Houston vs. CWS, going 2-for-3, 2B, BB, R.

HOW SWWWWWEEP IT IS!: The Space Cowboys clinched their first six-game series sweep in franchise history with six-straight wins against the Salt Lake Bees from June 4-9, their longest winning streak of the season... In that span, Sugar Land outscored Salt Lake 34-16, and the starters went 3-0 with a 2.51 ERA in six starts, giving up just eight earned runs in 28.2 innings with 25 punchouts.

ONE-HIT WONDER: Sugar Land one-hit the Las Vegas Aviators on April 5, hurling their first shutout of 2024 in just their seventh game of the year... It took Sugar Land until September 5, 2023 to throw their first shutout in 2023 (Game 133)... It was the fourth one-hitter thrown in Space Cowboys history.

NOW HERE'S A STOREY: Mickey Storey returned for his fifth season as the manager of the Astros' Triple-A affiliate and his fourth with Sugar Land, continuing as the only manager in Sugar Land's history since they became affiliated with the Astros. Storey joined the Astros organization as a coach in 2016 and has managed with Single-A Quad Cities (2018) and Triple-A Round Rock (2019), along with three seasons in Sugar Land. Storey appeared in nine seasons at the professional level as a right-handed pitcher, including stints at the Major League level with the Astros (2012) and Blue Jay (2013). He appeared in four collegiate seasons at Florida Atlantic and was selected by the Oakland Athletics in the 31st round of the 2008 MLB Draft.

REST OF THE CREW: Joining manager Mickey Storey on the Space Cowboys coaching staff in 2024 were pitching coach Thomas Whitsett, hitting coach Aaron Westlake and development coach Wladimir Sutil. Whitsett entered his first season as the Space Cowboys pitching coach, replacing Erick Abreu, who joined the Atlanta Braves in 2024 as their bullpen coach. Whitsett was the Astros' Assistant Pitching Coordinator in 2023 and served as the Pitching Coach for Double-A Corpus Christi in 2022. He also worked as a pitching coach for Single-A Fayetteville in 2019 before spending a year out of the Astros organization as the director of player development for pitching at the University of Arizona in 2021. Westlake returned for his second season as Sugar Land's hitting coach and previously was the hitting coach in Double-A Corpus Christi in 2022 and a development coach for the Florida Gulf Coast League Astros in 2021. Sutil entered his third season on the Space Cowboys staff after serving as the manager for the Astros' Florida Complex League team in 2021. He's worked as a manager for Astros affiliates at the Short-Season and Gulf Coast League levels, joining the organization as a coach in 2014.

SUGAR LAND RETIRED NUMBERS

8 - GARY GAETTI

Gary Gaetti, a 20-year Major League veteran and the first manager of the Sugar Land Skeeters, had his Number 8 retired on August 21, 2021. Gaetti managed the Skeeters from 2012 to 2017, their first six seasons as an independent franchise, going a combined 448-391. He led the Skeeters to their first Atlantic League Championship in 2016 and was twice named the Atlantic League Manager of the Year. In 2013, the Skeeters won 95 games, still the most wins in a single season by any team in Atlantic League history.

Under Gaetti's direction, over 50 players had their contracts purchased from the Skeeters by Major League organizations. That included former Astros outfielder Jason Lane, who made a return to the Majors as a pitcher, as well as Houston native Scott Kazmir, who went on to make an MLB All-Star appearance after playing for the Skeeters.

As a player, Gaetti was named to two All-Star teams, won four Gold Gloves, a Silver Slugger award and was named the MVP of the 1987 American League Championship Series with the Minnesota Twins.

4 - DEACON JONES

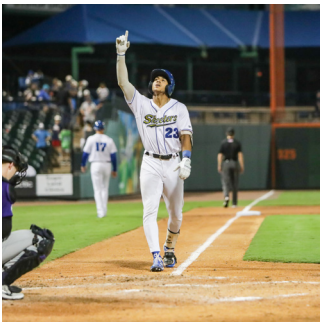
Deacon Jones had his Number 4 - worn during his playing career - retired on August 3, 2019. It was the first retired in Skeeters history. All Skeeters players wore that Number 4 during the game in a special-edition jersey that featured some of Jones' favorite and iconic sayings. Jones, who had a three-year MLB career and coached in the Major Leagues, was an integral part of bringing professional baseball to Sugar Land. Jones brought credibility to the process of creating the Skeeters with his vast baseball knowledge, along with his reputation as a community leader.

From 2012 until his passing in 2023, Jones served as an ambassador for the organization, greeting fans at Constellation Field throughout the season to go with the grassroots efforts marketing the team throughout the Houston area.

Jones played in the Major Leagues for the Chicago White Sox in 1962, 1963 and 1966. As a Minor League player, Jones set the Midwest League record for batting average in a season, hitting .409 with the Dubuque Packers.

After his playing career, Jones was the hitting coach for the Houston Astros from 1976 to 1982 before serving as the hitting coach with the San Diego Padres from 1984 to 1987. He then transitioned into a role as an advanced scout for the Chicago White Sox from 1988 to 2008. He was also the first black player recognized by the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, when he was honored as the American Legion Player of the Year in 1951, hitting .408 as a catcher.

SUGAR LAND AFFILIATED HISTORY



2021: In their inaugural season as the Astros' Triple-A affiliate, the Sugar Land Skeeters compete in the Triple-A West, Eastern Division. Sugar Land wins their first ever Triple-A game on May 6 at Albuquerque, a 9-4 victory over the Isotopes, part of three consecutive wins to begin the campaign and a 7-1 record in their first eight contests. Outfielder Jake Meyers excels, batting .343 in 68 games with 17 doubles, a triple, 16 home runs and 51 RBI, registering the first three-homer game in franchise history before having his contract selected on July 31. Meyers is named a Triple-A West Postseason All-Star and a MiLB.com Organizational All-Star.

Jose Siri leads Sugar Land in RBI (72) and stolen bases (24) and ties Meyers for the team lead in homers (16). INF C.J. Corey Julks becomes the first player in franchise history to hit at least 30 home runs in a season, knocking 31 homers to finish tied for third in the Pacific Coast League in home runs. Julks also ties for the league lead in runs scored with 100. David Hensley leads the Pacific Coast League in on-base percentage (.420) while sitting fourth in batting average (.298). C Yainer Díaz is named the Astros Minor League Player of the Year after he was promoted to Sugar Land on June 20 and batted .294 in 48 games with nine doubles, a triple, 16 home runs and 48 RBI.

RHP Hunter Brown is named the Pacific Coast League Pitcher of the Year after compiling a 9-4 record with a 2.55 ERA in 23 games, 14 starts, striking out 134 batters in 106.0 innings. He finishes third in the PCL in strikeouts and has his contract selected on September 1. RHP JP France strikes out 136 hitters, the second most in the Pacific Coast League, going 3-4 with a 3.90 ERA in 34 games, 15 starts. Out of the bullpen, RHP Enoli Paredes is named a Pacific Coast League Postseason All-Star after recording 12 saves in 17 opportunities, going 5-4 with a 2.63 ERA in 50 games.

Jose Altuve, Aledmys Díaz, Jake Odorizzi, Ryan Pressly and Lance McCullers Jr. all appear on Major League rehab with Sugar Land.

2023: Sugar Land finishes 61-89, the worst record in the Pacific Coast League. Pedro León hits for the first cycle in Space Cowboys history on June 24 at Salt Lake City, also setting a single-game record with six runs scored. INF Shay Whitcomb wins the Joe Bauman Award, hitting 35 total home runs to lead Minor League Baseball, including a team-leading 23 homers with Sugar Land.

Jon Singleton re-signs with the Astros and is assigned to Sugar Land. The first baseman bats .333 in 33 games with seven doubles, 12 home runs and 28 RBI, including a walk-off homer on July 22 vs. Albuquerque, before having his contract selected on August 8.

RHP Spencer Arrighetti is named the Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Year, going 2-5 with a 4.64 ERA in 15 games, 13 starts, with the Space Cowboys, and OF Joey Loperfido earns a late season promotion to the Space Cowboys, playing in 32 games with Sugar Land before being named the Astros Minor League Player of the Year.

Jose Altuve, Yordan Alvarez, Michael Brantley, Phil Maton, Ryne Stanek and José Urquidy all make rehab appearances with Sugar Land.

During the regular season, the Space Cowboys go 93-56, winning both the First and Second Half Pacific Coast League Titles... Their 93 wins are the most victories in the regular season in the Pacific Coast League in 43 years, last done by the Albuquerque Dukes in 1981, who won 94 games... Sugar Land wins 49 games in the First Half, tied with Omaha for the most wins in Minor League Baseball in the first half of the season, before going 44-30 in the second half, winning the second half over the Reno Aces thanks to the third tiebreaker... The Space Cowboys are the only team in MiLB to win at least 90 games and also lead Minor League Baseball in road victories, going 48-27 away from Constellation Field in the regular season... Sugar Land loses just two six-game series all season and loses a total of five series for the entire year, going 16-5-6 in series.

In the first half, OF Joey Loperfido homers three times in the first two games of the season, part of 13 home runs hit by Loperfido in the first month of the season, surpassing Yordan Alvarez for the most home runs hit at Triple-A since 2013 in the months of March/April... Loperfido is named the Pacific Coast League Player of the Month for April and has his contract selected by Houston on April 30... After taking over first place on April 26 with a record of 17-8, the Space Cowboys never fall out of first place or a tie for first en route to winning the first half... The Space Cowboys record their first six-game sweep in franchise history, taking down the Salt Lake Bees in Sugar Land's last series at Smith's Ballpark from June 4 through 9.... It is part of a 14-game stretch en route to their First Half Clincher on June 19 at El Paso in which the Space Cowboys went 12-2 to secure their postseason berth and home field advantage... In the First Half of the season, Sugar Land has the most prolific offense in baseball, leading the Majors and Minors in runs scored (507), averaging 6.7 runs per game, while also leading Minor League Baseball in home runs (116) and OPS (.850)... This comes as Sugar Land plays 45 of their first 75 games on the road.

During the second half, Sugar Land's pitching staff turns into the most dominant unit in Triple A, posting a 3.70 ERA as a staff, the only ERA in Triple-A (Pacific Coast League and International League) below 4.00... Overall, the Space Cowboys finish with the best ERA in the Pacific Coast League for the entire season (4.41) and allowed the fewest hits in the circuit (1231)... INF Shay Whitcomb becomes the single-season franchise leader, registering 91 RBI in 108 games with the Space Cowboys, and also sets a new franchise record with a 44-game on-base streak from April 7 through June 4... Whitcomb ties with INF Jesús Bastidas for the team lead in home runs, launching 25 throughout the year, including nine game-tying or go-ahead homers for Sugar Land, with five of those nine coming in the seventh inning or later... OF Pedro León helps lead the offense as well, batting .299 with 25 doubles, two triples, 24 home runs, 90 RBI and a team-leading 29 stolen bases.

2024 (cont). RHP Wander Suero becomes the single-season saves leader in Pacific Coast League history, going 37-for-39 in save chances with Sugar Land, breaking the previous record of 33 saves when he logged a save on September 7 at Oklahoma City... Suero ends up leading Minor League Baseball in saves and appearances (67) and converts his final 30 save chances, including the postseason, after May 25... In the starting rotation, RHP Ryan Gusto becomes the franchise single-season leader in strikeouts (141) while also turning in 10 quality starts, the most in a single-season in Space Cowboys history... RHP AJ Blubaugh becomes the first Space Cowboys pitcher to ever record double-digit wins in a season, going 12-4 with a 3.83 ERA in 27 appearances, 25 starts, with six quality starts... Rounding out Sugar Land's trio of starters is LHP Colton Gordon, who finishes first in the PCL among qualified pitchers in batting average against (.238) and WHIP (1.22) while finishing third in the PCL in ERA (3.94) behind Gusto and Blubaugh, turning in seven quality starts throughout the year... The combination of Gusto, Blubaugh and Gordon finishing top three in the Pacific Coast League in ERA is the first time since 2005 that a single team has the top three qualified ERA's in the PCL.

The Space Cowboys turn the first two triples plays in franchise history, with both coming at Southwest University Park in El Paso... They turn a 5-4-3 triple play on May 3 in the 8th inning before getting another 5-4-3 triple play in a separate trip on June 20... Sugar Land also finishes tied for the Pacific Coast League lead and tied for second in baseball (Majors or Minors) in walks with 718... On the hill, Sugar Land leads the Minor Leagues in holds (103) during the regular season as well as saves (50)... Their 50 saves are the most in a single season in PCL history... The Space Cowboys set a new franchise record by homering in 21 consecutive games from May 19 through June 12, one shy of the Pacific Coast League record for consecutive games with a home run, set in 1958 by the Phoenix Giants.

In the dugout, manager Mickey Storey is named the Pacific Coast League Manager of the Year, his first Manager of the Year honor, while also capturing his first title in six seasons as a manager... This comes in the same season Storey collects his 400th career victory with a 16-7 victory over the Albuquerque Isotopes on May 14 at Isotopes Park.

At the Major League level, the Space Cowboys have 10 players from the 2024 team make their Major League debut, including RHP Blair Henley, RHP Spencer Arrighetti, RHP Forrest Whitley, OF Joey Loperfido, LHP Bryan King, RHP Luis Contreras, OF Pedro León, INF Zach Dezenzo, INF Will Wagner and INF Shay Whitcomb. Nine of the 10 debut with Houston, with Will Wagner making his debut with the Toronto Blue Jays following a trade in late July.... The Space Cowboys send 23 total players to the Major Leagues in 2024, helping the Houston Astros clinch the American League West for a seventh time in eight seasons... Six Space Cowboys are named Pacific Coast League All-Stars, the most by any team in the PCL, which includes Pedro León (OF), Shay Whitcomb (DH), RHP AJ Blubaugh (Starting Pitcher), RHP Ryan Gusto (Starting Pitcher), LHP Colton Gordon (Starting Pitcher) and RHP Wander Suero (Relief Pitcher).

SPACE COWBOYS POSTSEASON HISTORY

Since joining the Triple-A ranks in 2021, the Sugar Land has played in the postseason once, winning the Pacific Coast League Championship in 2024 before going on to claim the Triple-A National Championship. Sugar Land also clinched the Triple-A East, West Division in 2021, going 75-55. However, there was no postseason held in 2021, so Sugar Land finished three games behind the Tacoma Rainiers for the best record in the league.

2024 SPACE COWBOYS - FIRST TIME CHAMPIONS

After finishing a Pacific Coast League worst 61-89 in 2023, the 2024 Sugar Land Space Cowboys turned in the best season in the league since 1981, winning a Minor League best 93 games in the regular season, the only team in Minor League Baseball that year to win over 90 games. Sugar Land's 93 wins were the most by a team in the Pacific Coast League since the 1981 Albuquerque Dukes, who won 94 games.

After dropping their initial series of the season, 1-2, in Round Rock against the Express, the Space Cowboys won each of their next four series, going 18-7 in that span. Led in part by Joey Loperfido, who hit 13 home runs in the first 28 games of the year, the Space Cowboys took over a share of first place on April 26 and never relinquished the top spot during the rest of the first half. The Space Cowboys lost their only six-game series of the first half in Las Vegas from May 28-June 2, one of three times during the season Sugar Land lost three games or more in a row during the campaign, and responded by sweeping the Salt Lake Bees in their final trip to Smith's Ballpark. They went 14-2 in their last 16 games en route to a First Half clincher on June 19 at El Paso, securing the Space Cowboys would host the Pacific Coast League Championship Series. Overall, Sugar Land went 49-26 in the first half and were the top scoring offense in baseball, plating 507 runs in 75 games, while hitting a Minor League leading 116 home runs and registering a MiLB leading .850 OPS as a team.

During the second half of the season, Sugar Land was led by their three starters, AJ Blubaugh, Ryan Gusto and Colton Gordon, who were all named Pacific Coast League All-Stars and finished with the top three qualifying ERA's in the Pacific Coast League. The Space Cowboys bullpen continued its dominant run of form, anchored by closer Wander Suero, who became the PCL single-saves record holder on September 7 when he recorded his 34th save at Oklahoma City. Suero would finish the regular season with 37 saves in 39 chances and converted his final 29 regular-season save opportunities, not blowing a save after May 25. The Space Cowboys pitching staff recorded a 3.70 ERA in the second half, the only team in Triple-A with an ERA under 4.00 in the second half of the year, and overall they had the best ERA (4.41) in the Pacific Coast League in 2024 while leading Minor League Baseball in saves (50) and holds (103). With an 8-3 come-from-behind victory on the last day of the regular season, Sugar Land finishes the second half 44-30, the same record as the Reno Aces. Sugar Land wins the Second Half Title as well thanks to the fourth tiebreaker, after tying their head-to-head record in the half (3-3) and having the same record in the last 20 & 21 games.

In Game One of the Pacific Coast League Championship Series, RHP AJ Blubaugh allowed just one hit, a single, in his first four frames of work, and surrendered just two baserunners in his first five innings. Offensively, Trey Cabbage opened the scoring with a lead-off homer in the second, followed by a hit-by-pitch of Tommy Sacco Jr. and a two-run homer by Jacob Melton, giving the Space Cowboys a 3-0 advantage after two innings. A double, an error, a sacrifice fly from Zach Dezenzo and back-to-back RBI doubles from Cooper Hummel and Sacco chased LHP Tommy Henry for Reno in the third, widening Sugar Land's lead to 6-0 after three innings. An Adrian Del Castillo two-run homer in the sixth scored the only runs of the game for Reno, but RHP Logan VanWey entered after 5.2 innings from Blubaugh, and VanWey went 1.1 perfect innings of relief. Sugar Land then struck for six in the bottom of the sixth thanks to a trio of bases-loaded walks, an RBI single from Cabbage and a two-RBI single from Brice Matthews. Misael Tamarez fired a 1-2-3 eighth and Nick Hernandez spun a 1-2-3 ninth to lock down the victory, part of 3.1 perfect innings of relief from Sugar Land's bullpen in the Game One victory.

RHP Ryan Gusto was slated to start Game Two, but was replaced by RHP Miguel Ullola because Gusto was instead lined up to debut for the Astros on September 29. Ullola walked Albert Almora to open the game and had Almora reach third on a strikeout of Del Castillo and a throwing error. Jordan Lawler worked a walk and stole second, but Ullola struck out Alex Thomas and induced a foul out from Tim Tawa to strand two runners in scoring position, throwing 32 pitches in the first. In the bottom of the frame, Jesús Bastidas was hit by the first pitch from Humberto Castellanos, and three pitches later, Pedro León hit a two-run homer to open a 2-0 Space Cowboys lead. Ullola settled in and gave up just two singles over four shutout innings, striking out five for Sugar Land.

2024 SPACE COWBOYS - FIRST TIME CHAMPIONS

Back-to-back homers by Cabbage and Hummel in the third inning widened Sugar Land's lead to 4-0 after three frames. Reno threatened for the only time in the sixth when Del Castillo homered, and a walk and two singles against Seth Martinez pushed across another run, cutting it to a 4-2 Space Cowboys lead. VanWey entered for a second-straight night and generated two groundouts to strand both runners and preserve the lead. A Cabbage sacrifice fly in the seventh gave the Space Cowboys a 5-2 lead, and scoreless innings from Forrest Whitley, Luis Contreras and Wander Suero secured Sugar Land's first Pacific Coast League title, sweeping Reno 2-0.

2024 SPACE COWBOYS - UNDENIABLE

In the Triple-A National Championship at Las Vegas Ballpark, Sugar Land matched up against the International League Champion Omaha Storm Chasers. Three straight singles by Bastidas, León and recently optioned Shay Whitcomb loaded the bases with no outs for Cabbage, who hit a sacrifice fly to give the Space Cowboys a 1-0 lead. In the bottom of the second, an error and a fielder's choice put two men on base for Omar Narváez, who singled up the middle to drive in two and widen the Space Cowboys advantage to 3-0. After cruising through the first two innings, giving up just one hit, LHP Colton Gordon ran into trouble in the third, allowing a solo home run to Cam Devanney and a go-ahead three-run homer to Brian O'Keefe, putting Omaha up 4-3 going to the bottom of the third. It would be the only time Sugar Land trailed in the postseason as they immediately responded with five in the bottom of the third. A single, a walk and an error once again loaded the bases for Narváez and a walk forced in the tying run. León walked to bring in the go-ahead run and Whitcomb cleared the bases with a double to put Sugar Land up 8-4. Hummel homered to begin the fourth and Matthews hit his first Triple-A homer with two outs, giving the Space Cowboys a 10-4 lead. Another O'Keefe homer scored two more in the fifth for Omaha, however for the final time in 2024, the Space Cowboy had an immediate answer with Whitcomb collecting a lead-off single, Hummel doubling him home, Sacco singling in Hummel and an RBI groundout from Quincy Hamilton gave Sugar Land their final margin at 13-6. Logan VanWey, Forrest Whitley, Luis Contreras and Wander Suero all turned in scoreless outings to take the Space Cowboys to the finish line and their first Triple-A National Championship. Whitcomb is named the MVP of the game after going 3-for-5 with three RBI and a run scored on his 26th birthday.

INDEPENDENT HISTORY YEAR-BY-YEAR

The Sugar Land Skeeters play their first season as an independent franchise in the Atlantic League of Professional Baseball. They played their first-ever game on April 26, 2012, with a 3-2 loss to the York Revolution. The franchise set Atlantic League records for total season attendance and average attendance for a season. Seven-time Cy Young Award winner and former Houston Astros great Roger Clemens made his final professional appearance with the Skeeters on September 7, with his oldest son, Koby, serving as the team's catcher. Roger Clemens received the win, throwing 4 2/3 scoreless innings in a 4-0 victory over the Long Island Ducks. Constellation Field was named the Atlantic League Ballpark of the Year and former Astros outfielder Jason Lane was named the Skeeters Most Valuable Player. Lane spent the majority of the season converting to a pitcher, going 8-4 with a 2.98 ERA through 17 starts. He also hit .275 with nine home runs and 31 RBIs through 229 at-bats. Houston native and former first-round pick Scott Kazmir made 14 starts with the Skeeters before having his contract purchased by the Cleveland Indians. Kazmir went on to appear in five more seasons as a Major Leaguer following his stint with the Skeeters, including an All-Star selection in 2014 while with the Oakland A's.

2013

The Skeeters set Atlantic League records, winning 95 games and accumulating a .679 winning percentage (95-45). The Skeeters were swept in the first round of the Atlantic League postseason by the Somerset Patriots. Koby Clemens became the first player in franchise history with a 20-homer season, hitting 21 homers on his way to being selected Second Team All-Atlantic League. Gary Gaetti was named the Atlantic League Manager of the Year.

2014

The Skeeters made headlines as former Houston Rockets icon and Naismath Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer Tracy McGrady made the team's opening day roster as a right-handed pitcher. McGrady made four starts, recording a 6.75 ERA through 6 2/3 innings pitched. McGrady also started the Atlantic League All-Star Game, which was played at Constellation Field for the first and only time in Atlantic League history. Rather than a traditional All-Star Game, a selection of Atlantic League All-Stars took on the Skeeters. McGrady picked up a strikeout through 1 1/3 innings pitched and the Skeeters won the game, 5-3. The Skeeters advanced to the Atlantic League Championship Series for the first time in franchise history. They defeated the York Revolution in five games in the best-of-five opening round before being swept by the Lancaster Barnstormers in the Championship Series.

2015

Another marquee Major League Baseball name appeared with the Skeeters. Four-time All-Star and three-time Gold Glover Rafael Palmeiro went 2-for-4 with an RBI in a 10-4 Skeeters victory over the Camden Riversharks on September 18 at Constellation Field. Palmeiro's son, Patrick, played third base in the game while Rafael served as the designated hitter. Patrick went 2-for-5 with a home run and four RBIs playing alongside his father. Patrick appeared with the Skeeters in both the 2015 and '16 seasons. The Skeeters were awarded Atlantic League Grounds Crew of the Year. Chris Wallace and Delwyn Young were named Atlantic League Postseason All-Stars. The Skeeters had their two-season playoffs streak snapped.

2016

The Skeeters win their first Atlantic League Championship, sweeping the Long Island Ducks in the best-of-five Atlantic League Championship Series. The Skeeters made a late push to enter the postseason, winning the Freedom Division Second Half Title. The Skeeters swept the York Revolution in the opening round of the playoffs before defeating Long Island. Juan Martinez was named the Atlantic League Championship Series Most Valuable Player, going 3-for-10 (.300) with a home run and four RBIs in the series. Jeremy Barfield, son of former Major League All-Star Jesse Barfield, became the first player in Skeeters history to win the Atlantic League MVP Award. Barfield led the league and set the Skeeters' single-season record with 27 home runs, while also collecting 85 RBIs. Barfield also set the Skeeters' independent record for slugging percentage (.533), while also posting the third-highest batting average in the team's single- season history (.306). Barfield and right-hander Andrew Johnston were named Atlantic League Postseason All-Stars and the Skeeters were once again awarded Atlantic League Grounds Crew of the Year. The Skeeters' mascot, Swatson, was named Atlantic League Mascot of the Year as well.

2017

In their final season under manager Gary Gaetti, the Skeeters were unable to reach the postseason and defend their Atlantic League Championship. Josh Prince was named an Atlantic League Postseason All-Star and set the Skeeters' independent single-season record with 55 stolen bases. Skeeters President Jay Miller was named Atlantic League Executive of the Year and the Skeeters were awarded the league's Club Community Service Award for the organization's charitable efforts in response to Hurricane Harvey.

2018

The Skeeters hired College Baseball Hall of Famer and former Major Leaguer Pete Incaviglia as the second manager in the organization's history. In his first season, Incaviglia led the Skeeters to their second Atlantic League Championship while also overseeing a franchise-record 12 players having their contracts purchased by Major League organizations.

The Skeeters won both First Half and Second Half Freedom Division Title. They defeated the Lancaster Barnstormers in five games in the best-of-five opening series before once again defeating the Long Island Ducks in five games in the best-of-five Atlantic League Championship Series. Left-hander James Russell, who tossed a complete game in Game 5, was named the Atlantic League Championship Series Most Valuable Player. Incaviglia was named Atlantic League Manager of the Year, Constellation Field was named the Atlantic League Ballpark of the Year and the Skeeters were once again awarded the Atlantic League Grounds Crew of the Year. Matt Chavez set the Skeeters single season record with a .320 batting average and was named an Atlantic League Postseason All-Star. Former Astros right-hander Felipe Paulino collected 33 saves, setting the organization's single-season record, and was named an Atlantic League Postseason All-Star. Outfielder Anthony Giansanti rounded out the Skeeters' Atlantic League Postseason All-Stars.

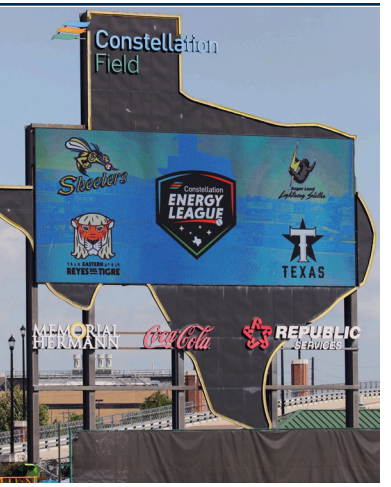
In their final season competing in the Atlantic League, the Skeeters reached the Atlantic League Championship Series in back-to-back seasons but were defeated by the Long Island Ducks in their quest to repeat as league champions. Under manager Pete Incaviglia, the Skeeters re-set their organizational record with 13 contracts purchased by Major League Baseball organizations. For the first time in the organization's history, a player appeared with the Skeeters and in the Major Leagues in the same season. Infielder Ryan Court began the season in Sugar Land and went on to make his Major League debut with the Seattle Mariners on July 26. The Skeeters defeated the York Revolution in four games in the opening series before losing in five games to Long Island in the best-of-five Championship Series. Denis Phipps paced the offense with 21 home runs, tying Koby Clemens for the second-most in a single season in Skeeters history. Major League veteran and Houston native James Loney made the Skeeters Opening Day roster and spent the first month of the season as a pitcher and position player before announcing his retirement. During the second half of the season, the Atlantic League made history, using an automated ball-strike system to call balls and strikes rather than a traditional home-plate umpire. The automated ball-strike system was one of many rule changes implemented in the Atlantic League in 2019, along with rules on shifting, the duration a relief pitcher must stay in the game, the size of the bases and others.

2020

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Atlantic League canceled its 2020 season. Without an Atlantic League season, the Skeeters hosted their own four-team independent league – hosted exclusively at Constellation Field – called the Constellation Energy League. Along with the Skeeters, other team names included the Lightning Sloths, Team Texas and Reyes Del Tigre. Each team was scheduled to play 28 games throughout the two-month season.



Former Major Leaguers Greg Swindell and Dave Eiland managed the Lightning Sloths and Reyes Del Tigre, respectively. Koby and Roger Clemens managed Team Texas. Pete Incaviglia returned to manage the Skeeters. Kody and Kacy Clemens played for Team Texas, joining their father and brother. Due to the cancellation of the Minor League Baseball season in 2021, teams allowed their minor leaguers under contract to take part in the Constellation Energy League. Tampa Bay Rays prospect Ford Proctor was named the League's Most Valuable Player after hitting .346 on the season. Other notable players that participated in the league included: Trei Cruz (son of Jose Cruz Jr.), Brantley Bell (son of Jay Bell), David Huff (8-year MLB veteran), Scott Kazmir (3-time MLB All-Star), RHP Adam Kloffenstein (Top-10 Toronto Blue Jays prospect), Preston Palmeiro (son of Rafael Palmeiro), Ryan Reynolds (son of Shane Reynolds), Fernando Rodney (17-year MLB veteran), Robbie Ross (6-year MLB veteran), Cameron Rupp (5-year MLB veteran), Robby Scott (4-year MLB veteran) and Joe Wieland (4-year MLB veteran).

Rodney, RHP Chase De Jong, RHP Brett Eibner, LHP Matt Dermody and LHP Zac Rosccup each had their contracts purchased by MLB organizations during the season. Eibner, De Jong and Dermody each reached the Major Leagues in 2020. Despite the ongoing pandemic, the league was able to complete its season without any stoppages due to a COVID-19 outbreak. Unlike in 2019 with the Skeeters, there were not any rule changes enacted for the Constellation Energy League. The only non-traditional baseball rule that was adopted was that games that exceeded nine innings were decided by a home run derby between the two teams, rather than extra innings. The league's opening day was broadcast nationally through AT&T and was broadcast locally on AT&T SportsNet Southwest. Over 50,000 fans were in attendance throughout the Constellation Energy League, which was one of a handful of professional sporting leagues that were active in the summer of 2020.
