GET TO KNOW WILLIE CARTER

By: Rylan Kobre

Behind the dilapidated scoreboard in left field, the sun sets at Heart of Florida Field in Babson Park.

The lake sitting just beyond the ballpark is part of the serene background for Webber International University fans. Beyond the lake: The wide-open spaces of central Florida.

For power hitters, this setting provides a challenge. The wind tends to blow in off the lake, making pitchers smile and hitters slam their bats to the ground.

GreenJackets outfielder Willie Carter didn't slam a lot of bats while at Webber International. Instead, he walloped baseballs into the wind, and high up through the Florida sky with no issue. Just ask former Webber International Head Baseball Coach Brad Niethammer.

“All I had to do was watch him take a couple rounds of batting practice. He’s probably the best pure hitter that I have ever coached,” Niethammer said.

Carter originally signed to play at Georgia Gwinnett College. A last-minute change of plans had the slugger returning to his home state to play college baseball. Carter transferred to Webber following two years at Pensacola State College.

“We had pretty high expectations of what he could do,” Niethammer said. “But high expectations weren’t as high as what he ended up doing. He broke our home run record that existed for 25 years by the first week of March of his final season.”

Carter’s season included a batting average of .440 at one point, before teams started to pitch around him. The Lake City, FL product was a must-watch at-bat.

“The 2-3 week stretch he had, he had everyone’s attention on the bench,” Niethammer said. “Every time he went to the plate they were like, ‘O.K. where’s he going to hit this one?’”

Carter was selected by the Braves in the 34th round of the 2019 MLB Draft following his junior season. He started this season by reaching base in his first 14 games and leading the team for most of May in batting average.

His May 8th moonshot had the SRP Park crowd buzzing. It was even better after he flipped his bat, and did the “Marcell Ozuna selfie,” crossing home.

That joy for the game is something Carter has had with him for a while.

“The biggest thing that a lot of kids missed the boat on? He had fun. Not just for himself. He was a good teammate,” Niethammer said.
