JOEY ESTES UNSTOPPABLE

By: Rylan Kobre

Joey Estes went to sleep dreaming about changeups this offseason. Then he'd get up and start throwing them.

For three months, Estes worked on his changeup. Figuring out different ways to manipulate the pitch that can make opposing hitters swing so hard and have nothing to show for it.

Through his first six starts, that hard work is paying off. Estes hasn't allowed more than one run in any of his starts. On June 9th, he pitched a career high 5.2 innings and struck out 11 - also a career high.

After being drafted in the 16th round of the 2019 MLB Draft, Estes spent the 2019 season in the Gulf Coast League. He spent his entire season at the age of 17.

“When I was drafted I was 190 pounds. I went to the GCL which is rookie ball. I was there for like three months. I came back and I was 235 pounds,” Estes said. “I didn't know how to control anything eating wise. I didn't have a schedule. Everything was so new to me.”

This offseason, Estes worked out with Kris Bryant and Bryce Harper. It showed the talented right-hander the way. He also worked out with former big league pitcher Josh Towers. Towers pitched in eight seasons with Baltimore, Toronto and the New York Yankees.

It was here that Estes kept working on that changeup.

“Six days a week I’d work out. Five days a week I’d throw. I’d throw changeups all day, every day, doing drills,” Estes said.

Now, Low-A East League hitters are having to deal with the aftermath. A new look Joey Estes has Braves fans giddy.

“I was out of shape my first year,” Estes said. “I didn’t want to be like that this year. This year I just wanted to be different.”

FOUR BIG STATS

The GreenJackets are just over 25% of the way through the season. Here's four big stats you should know to impress your friends.

4 - That's how many home runs Cade Bunnell has to start the 2021 season. In the sweet swinging left hander's college career, Bunnell hit just three home runs over three seasons between Kansas State and Indiana University. The Wisconsin native was a 40th round selection by the Atlanta Braves in the 2019 MLB Draft.

2.10 - Darius Vines has been one of the best pitchers in the Low-A East League to start the season, and 2.10 is his miniscule ERA through his first seven starts. Vines was named the Low-A East Pitcher of the week from May 31-June 6th. During that week, he made two starts against the Charleston River-Dogs. In his first outing he pitched six shutout innings and struck out eight. He pitched again to end the series, collecting his first professional win. He threw five innings allowing just two runs.

11 - Willie Carter has 11 multi-hit games to start the season and through his first 34 games, is slashing .339/.433/.466. Carter has never had an average below .302. His 26 RBIs are tied for the third most in the Low-A East League. Carter was a 34th round selection in the 2019 MLB Draft from Webber International University.

24 - We couldn't list four stats without talking about the 24 stolen bases Braulio Vasquez has in his first 29 games. Vasquez has had more than two stolen bases in seven games this year. In his first four professional seasons, Vasquez never had more than 12 stolen bases in a season. He's been caught only five times this year.
