DREW IT OUT: Drew Rom extended his streak without an earned run allowed to 14.2 IP and eight straight games in Tuesday's series opener against the Redbirds. Rom worked two scoreless innings with a hit and four strikeouts. Tuesday night was his third in his last five appearances with 4+ strikeouts in 2.0 IP or less, striking out 14 of the last 29 batters he has faced. The 14.2 IP tied Garrett Stallings for the third-longest streak without an earned run this season behind Craig Yoho (20.2 IP) and Brian Fitzpatrick (15.2 IP). The eight straight games are tied for the sixth-most between earned runs for any Nashville pitcher this season. Since beginning his streak on June 3, the left-hander has surrendered just nine hits and an unearned run with 24 total strikeouts.

DON'T STEP ON MATOS: Luis Matos connected on a season-high four hits Tuesday night, going 4-for-5 with a double. It was the 15th career 4+ hit game for Matos, and his first since September 18, 2025, with Triple-A Sacramento. He now has 12 multi-hit games this season with Nashville and three during his current seven-game hitting streak dating back to Game 2 of a doubleheader in Sugar Land on July 25. Over his last seven games he is hitting .429 (12-for-28) with four doubles, a triple, two RBI, and a walk with six runs scored and tied for the 10th-longest active hitting streak in the International League. Matos has posted 191 career multi-hit games since 2019, and set his career-high with five hits with High-A Eugene on June 18, 2022, against Vancouver.

20 IS A LOT: The Sounds allowed a season-high 20 hits in Tuesday's loss to Memphis. It was the first time the Sounds had allowed 20+ hits in a game since also allowing Memphis to record 23 hits and 19 runs on July 14, 2022. Tuesday night was the 16th time Nashville has allowed 20+ hits in a game since 2005. The Redbirds are responsible for four of the last six 20+ hit games allowed by the Sounds since 2019 having also allowed 24 hits (May 3, 2019), 20 hits (May 11, 2021), and the 23 hits on July 14, 2022.

STREAKY: Darrien Miller extended his on-base streak to 14 consecutive games Sunday night, drawing a walk in the bottom of the fourth inning and finished the night 1-for-3 with a double and two RBI, marking his second straight game with a multi-RBI. It was the third time in his minor league career with consecutive multi-RBI games. He did it for the first time in his career on June 30-July 1, 2023, with High-A Wisconsin and earlier this season with Double-A Biloxi on May 14-15. His 14-game on-base streak continues to be the longest-active on-base streak for the Sounds and is the 10th-longest on-base streak on the team this season overall. He has posted a .356 batting average (16-for-45), eight XBH, 13 RBI and five runs since the start of his on-base streak on July 5.

WHAT A CHILLER: Right-hander Will Childers secured his first Triple-A win of the season in his first game back with the Sounds since July 11 against Charlotte. He finished Sunday night working 1.1 hitless innings with three walks. It marked just his second overall win of the season, with both coming over his last four appearances after earning a win on July 26 with Double-A Biloxi. Sunday's win was his first with Nashville since August 19 of the 2025 season against the Louisville Bats. Childers has posted a 3-3 record with a 4.77 ERA in 50 appearances (one start) in his first two seasons for the Sounds. The 25-year-old ranks first in appearances (142) and fourth in saves (17) among Brewers' minor league pitchers since the 2023 season.

GAR-THREE-A: Eduardo Garcia belted his third home run against the Knights with a leadoff solo blast in the bottom of the fifth inning off Jose Urquidy in Sunday's series finale against Charlotte. The home run marked Garcia's second long ball of the series with the first one coming last Wednesday night. His first career Triple-A homer came on July 10 against Charlotte on a two-run homer at Truist Field. Garcia tallied his third multi-hit game of the season for the Sounds and second in his last four games after having just one through his first 32 games with Nashville and none over a 29-game stretch entering Friday night. Among full-season minor leaguers in the Brewers farm system since 2022, Garcia ranks second in hits (412), doubles (81), triples (13), XBH (138), and total bases (651). He also ranks third in runs (229), fourth in RBI (214), fifth in stolen bases (91), and tied for seventh in HR (44).
