Tuesday, May 7, 2024 • Game #26

Joseph P. Riley, Jr. Park • Charleston, SC • 7:05 p.m.

Broadcast: MiLB.TV/RiverDogs.com/StreamGuys

Fredericksburg Nationals (18-9) at Charleston RiverDogs (11-14)

RHP Bryan Sanchez (0-0, 6.94) vs. RHP Gary Gill Hill (0-0, 2.50)

Today's Game: The Charleston RiverDogs (affiliate of the Tampa Bay Rays) make their return to Charleston after a two-city road trip to Kannapolis and Augusta. The team finished the road swing with a record of 5-6 after Sunday's game was canceled. This will be the first ever visit to Charleston for the Fredericksburg Nationals (affiliate of the Washington Nationals). RiverDogs-Nationals Season Series in 2023: Overall: Nationals 4, RiverDogs 2. At The Joe: RiverDogs 4, Nationals 2.

Last Time Out: The RiverDogs played just three full innings on Sunday in Augusta, but the day was incredibly eventful. First, the RiverDogs and Augusta GreenJackets resumed a game that was suspended in the bottom of the 11th on Saturday. When play resumed, Drew Compton tied the game with an RBI single to right. Samuel Mejia then stranded the bases loaded by getting Robert Gonzalez to line out to right field. The RiverDogs regained the lead in the 12th inning with a sacrifice fly by Adrian Santana and RBI single from Raudelis Martinez. Mejia finished off the game with two strikeouts and a fly out. The teams then started Sunday's originally scheduled game. The RiverDogs jumped in front early, scoring a pair of runs in the top of the second inning before the skies opened and delayed the game. The downpour continued for the next 45 minutes before the contest was canceled. The two teams do not meet again in the first half.

Beleaguered Bullpen: The RiverDogs starting rotation has been consistently dominant throughout the 2024 season. However, the bullpen has struggled mightily to sustain that standard. The starting pitchers have combined to post a 3-5 record and 3.16 record. That earned run average ranks fourth among the 12 starting rotations in the Carolina League. The relievers, on the other hand, have posted a combined ERA of 4.71, fourth-worst in the circuit. The RiverDogs have led at some point in 10 of their 14 losses this season.

Ducks Stuck on the Pond: The RiverDogs put plenty of men on base in the five games in Augusta last week, combining to post 44 hits and 27 walks. However, their production was limited to 22 runs because of struggles with runners in scoring position. Following a 5-15 showing with RISP on Saturday, the team is now 15-66 (.227) this week. The RiverDogs have not scored more than seven runs in a game this season.

Angel Ringing the Bell: 19-year-old outfielder Angel Mateo found his swing in a big way on the recent road trip. He is currently riding an eight-game hitting streak, during which he has posted a .324 batting average. The native of the Dominican Republic leads the team with three home runs and 12 runs batted in. He is also the only player this season to hit a home run with a runner on base. Mateo played in 12 games for the RiverDogs last season after a solid season in the FCL.

King of Thieves: The RiverDogs have been one of the most prolific base stealing teams in Minor League Baseball this season. The team's total of 73 stolen bases is tied for the most in the Carolina League and tied for second in MiLB as a whole, behind only the Jupiter Hammerheads. 12 different players have stolen a base this season and eight of them have five or more. The Dogs have stolen eight bases in two different contests and seven in another. Noah Myers leads the team and is tied for fifth in the league with 11.

Don't Test Me: Catcher Bryan Broecker has thrown out nine of 16 attempted base stealers this season. That number has him tied for 13th among all catchers in Minor League Baseball. Among the top 18 catchers in MiLB in runners caught stealing, he has allowed the fewest successful stolen bases (7). A 13th round pick from Michigan State, Broecker closed the 2023 season with the RiverDogs, starting a pair of playoff games.

Prized Pups: The RiverDogs opening night roster contains four members of MLB Pipeline's Top 30 Rays prospects list entering the 2024 season. The highest-rated is 18-year-old shortstop Adrian Santana who slots in at #6. Sitting at #9, pitcher Santiago Suarez returns to the Holy City after making his full-season debut with the RiverDogs late last season. Finally, former LSU standout Tre' Morgan (#14) figures to be a regular at the top of the lineup after a brief appearance with the Dogs following the 2023 draft. Finally, pitcher Andrew Lindsey rounds out the list at #29.

Running it Back: 11 players who played a part in last year's championship run are currently on the team's roster. The pitching staff features returnees Gary Gill Hill, Samuel Mejia and Santiago Suarez. Catchers Bryan Broecker and Raudelis Martinez are on the Opening Night roster after suiting up in the Holy City for the second half last season. Three infielders (Carlos Colmenarez, Tre' Morgan and Odalys Peguero) and two outfielders (Cristopher Barete and Angel Mateo) are also back to defend the Carolina League title.

RIVERDOGS FIELD STAFF

Manager: Sean Smedley

Smedley's coaching career began when he was the video coordinator for the rookie-level Princeton Rays in 2016. In 2017, he returned to Princeton, this time as the bench coach. For the next two seasons, Smedley was part of Blake Butera's staff as the bench coach for the Hudson Valley Renegades. The native of Colorado was announced as the manager in Princeton for the 2020 season, but COVID-19 canceled the season and, when play resumed, he joined Butera in Charleston. During his playing days as a catcher, Smedley was a prep standout at Desert Vista High School in Phoenix, Arizona. He played one year of junior college ball at Yavapai College before transferring to Division II Texas A&M International. He went undrafted at the end of his college career but was signed as a free agent by the Rays shortly after the draft's conclusion. In three professional seasons, he appeared in 24 games total between the Gulf Coast League Rays and Single-A Bowling Green. This is Smedley's second season managing the RiverDogs.

Pitching Coach: Levi Romero

Romero returns for a second year as the RiverDogs pitching coach after serving in the same role with the FCL Rays in 2021. Romero was the pitching coach for one of the Rays two entries in the Dominican Summer League in 2021. His professional career began in 2003 when he was signed out of Venezuela by the Houston Astros. In all, he pitched for five years in Minor League Baseball with the Astros and Texas Rangers before embarking on a seven-year international career that included stops in Venezuela and Japan and ended in 2015.

Hitting Coach: Brett Schneider

Schneider heads to the Lowcountry as the RiverDogs hitting coach in his first year as a member of the Rays organization. He spent the previous four years as a hitting coach in the Seattle Mariners farm system, including with the Arizona Complex League Mariners in 2023. His roster in the ACL finished with the most home runs in the 17-team circuit and hit a combined .263. Prior to coaching in the professional ranks, Schneider was a volunteer assistant coach at Florida Atlantic University. He also served as hitting coach for the Green Bay Bullfrogs of the Northwoods League in 2016 and managed the Great Lakes Collegiate League's Richmond Jazz in 2017.

Coach: Ronnie Richardson

Richardson is embarking on his fourth season with the Rays, and second with Charleston, following two years in the Florida Complex League. Richardson previously coached in the Miami Marlins organization, with Hillsborough Community College and in the Northwoods League with the Madison Mallards and Wisconsin Woodchucks. He was selected out of Central Florida University in the 16th round of the 2012 MLB Draft by the San Diego Padres. He played three seasons in their farm system, posting a .262 career batting average.

Athletic Trainer: Halee Williams

Williams begins her fifth year with the Rays and second with the RiverDogs. She served in the same role with the Florida Complex League Rays in 2022. Williams graduated with her bachelor's degree in athletic training from Indiana Wesleyan University. While in school, she interned with the Arizona Diamondbacks and, after graduating, spent a season with the Oakland Athletics. She began working with the Rays in 2019 while completing her Global master's degree in Sports Management and Legal Skills through Instituto Superior de Derecho y Economía and FC Barcelona in 2020. This winter, Williams worked for the Bravos de Margarita of the Venezuelan Professional Baseball League.

Strength Coach: Gio Caraballo

This will be Caraballo's first season as the RiverDogs Strength & Conditioning coach after a brief stint working in Charleston last summer. Caraballo was hired by the Rays in late 2022 and spent last season in the same role with the Florida Complex League Rays at their facility in Sarasota. A New Jersey native, Caraballo began his career with the Houston Astros after graduating from Montclair State University with a Bachelor of Science with a major in Physical Education.
