ABOUT LAST NIGHT...

Dunedin erased an early four-run deficit to secure its second straight walk-off win, defeating Clearwater 8-7 on Thursday night. The Threshers struck for four in the 1st against MLB rehabber José Berrios, but Dunedin answered with three in the 2nd on RBI hits from Eric Snow and Dariel Ramon. After Clearwater added a run in the 3rd, Ramon's first professional homer, a two-run shot in the 4th, capped a chaotic inning that put the Blue Jays ahead 6-5. Nolan Perry dominated in relief, striking out 12 over five innings of one-hit ball. But Clearwater tied the game in the 9th and took the lead in the 10th, before Dunedin responded in the bottom half. Juan Sanchez reached on an error to tie it and Aldo Gaxiola forced in the tying and winning runs to seal the comeback victory. The Jays have now come back from 3+ run deficits to win on back-to-back nights.

HE IS THE JUAN

In his stateside debut on Thursday night, Blue Jays No. 7 prospect Juan Sanchez slugged his first hit as a Blue Jay with a single in the 4th inning, then scored the game-winning run in the 10th after reaching on an error. Sanchez was one of the most feared hitters in the Dominican Summer League last year, slashing .341/.439/.565 with eight home runs in 56 games. He was named a DSL All-Star. Sanchez reportedly hit a ball 115.8 MPH in 2025. He starred in the 2026 Blue Jays vs. Phillies Spring Breakout game, where in the 9th inning, Sanchez launched a bases-clearing 105.6 MPH double off the wall in left-center to make it a one-run game and put the tying run in scoring position.

BYE BYE BASEBALLS

The Blue Jays launched a season-high four homers on Tuesday night and another on Thursday. The Jays' 13 home runs this season are tops in the Florida State League and 5th among all 30 Class-A clubs. Dunedin hit 12 home runs through 10 games in the MLB Research Portal era (2005).

CURSE YOU, PERRY THE PLATYPUS

RHP Nolan Perry turned in a dominant outing last night, firing 5 shutout innings while allowing just one hit and no walks with a career-high 12 strikeouts, facing one batter over the minimum. Perry opened his appearance by striking out the first seven batters he faced, the most by a Dunedin pitcher since Ricky Tiedemann fanned eight straight on April 29, 2022 vs. Bradenton. In his first inning of relief, Perry was one pitch shy of an immaculate inning, needing just 10 pitches (9 strikes) to record three strikeouts. He completed his outing on only 60 pitches. His 12 strikeouts are the most by a Dunedin pitcher since Trey Yesavage (May 13, 2025), tied for the most by a Minor Leaguer this season, and T-2nd most in a game by a D-Jay since 2005.

JOJO SIWA

After working a nine-pitch walk-off walk in the 10th inning on Wednesday, JoJo Parker smacked a double in the 4th inning yesterday to extend his on-base streak to ten games, over which he is batting .286 with a .993 OPS and 10 RBI. He has a hit in eight of his last nine games after going 0-for-7 to open the season. He launched his first professional homer on Tuesday at 108.3 MPH over the right-field admin building. This spring, MLB's No. 40 prospect slapped a single at 109.1 MPH in the Blue Jays Spring Breakout game, and launched home runs in Minor League Spring Training at 109.3 MPH and 111 MPH.

PINTO BEAN

Blue Jays No. 29 prospect Adrian Pinto made an immediate impact in his return to Dunedin on Tuesday. The minor league rehabber crushed a two-run homer in the 9th inning with Dunedin down to their final out, trimming the deficit to two runs. His 411-foot blast left the bat at 105.7 MPH, and he also scorched a 106 MPH lineout to center. Pinto begins a minor league rehab assignment after being one of the most exciting players in the Blue Jays farm system since he was acquired in the Randal Grichuk deal in 2022, though his career has been plagued by a string of injuries. He's spent most of the season on the IL in each of the last four seasons. Pinto appeared in just 19 games with High-A Vancouver in 2025 but launched seven home runs with a .985 OPS. In 2024, he played in only 26 games, but was an Arizona Fall League All-Star for Scottsdale and launched a 414-foot homer in the Fall Stars Game. He's a career .295 minor league hitter with a .877 OPS but has been limited to 181 games over five seasons.

HEADING WEST

In Wednesday's win, Jaxson West tallied a pair of hits including an RBI single in the 6th for his fourth multi-hit game through six games played this season. In Sunday's series finale in St. Lucie, West fell a triple shy of the cycle in a three-hit game that included his first professional home run, a solo blast in the 5th inning.

AROUND THE FSL

Zack McDonald smashed his league-leading 4th HR for Lakeland, although the Flying Tigers fell 7-4 to Ft. Myers. After winning seven straight to open the season, the Flying Tigers have lost four of their last five and the Mighty Mussels have caught up to them atop the FSL West standings. Fort Myers won on an Eduardo Beltre walk-off homer on Thursday night... Palm Beach fell to Jupiter 4-2 last night to snap the Cardinals seven-game win streak... Bradenton beat Tampa 5-4 at LECOM Park... Daytona took down St. Lucie 8-6.

2026 DUNEDIN BLUE JAYS COACHING STAFF

Ryan Casteel | Manager Year with Toronto: 1 | Year with D-Jays: 1 | Born: Chattanooga, TN

Casteel makes his managerial debut in 2026, joining the Blue Jays organization after a 14-year professional playing career. Casteel spent time in the Colorado Rockies, Seattle Mariners, and Atlanta Braves farm systems, while also playing winter ball in Australia and Puerto Rico. A four-time minor league All-Star, he was named Australian Baseball League MVP in 2013 after earning California League Catcher of the Year honors that summer with the Mariners' High-A Modesto Nuts. Casteel spent parts of six seasons at the Triple-A level, including the final four years of his career with the Gwinnett Stripers. After being placed on the Gwinnett Development List for much of the 2024 season, Casteel was activated for a July series against Jacksonville and delivered a ninth-inning, walk-off home run on July 12 in his first game in nearly two months, lifting the Stripers to a 7-6 win after entering as a late-game defensive replacement. Two days later, on July 14, he announced his retirement following a nearly 900-game minor league career. Casteel immediately transitioned into a coaching role with Gwinnett and served as a coach with the FCL Braves in 2025 before stepping into his first managerial role. Was Arizona Fall League teammates with Blue Jays Farm Director Joe Sclafani in 2014 for the Salt River Rafterers on a team that won the AFL Championship and also included Byron Buxton, Trevor Story, Taylor Rogers, Max Kepler, and Tyler Heineman.

Eight position players earned their first promotions to High-A in 2025 under Knight, including JR Freethy, who reached Double-A by season's end. The Denton, Texas native spent six seasons as a player in the Blue Jays organization from 2015–2021, reaching the Triple-A level. She spent the prior two seasons in the same role with the High-A Vancouver Canadians, where she helped guide the club to a Northwest League championship in 2023. Inducted into the Canadian Baseball Hall of Fame in 2024, Stephenson has enjoyed a storied multi-sport career. She starred collegiately in hockey at Wilfrid Laurier University, winning four conference titles and a CIS National Championship before playing professionally in both the National Women's Hockey League and Canadian Women's Hockey League. On the diamond, Stephenson represented Canada's women's national baseball team from 2004–2018, earning two Team MVP honors, an All-Star selection at third base at the 2008 IBAF World Cup, and the 2011 Baseball Canada Jimmy Rattlesnake Award, which was later renamed in her honor. In 2022, she became the first woman to manage a Canadian national baseball team, leading her squad to two victories over Team USA in the Friendship Series, before joining the Blue Jays organization.

Andy Fermin | Position Coach Year with Toronto: 9 | Year with D-Jays: 1 | Born: Cleveland, OH.

He returned stateside as manager of the FCL Blue Jays in 2024 before serving as the club's Bench Coach in 2025. Fermin returns to Dunedin after spending parts of three seasons at TD Ballpark as a player in 2014-2016. SCOUTING REPORT: The right-hander wields a three-pitch mix that features a fastball that sits in the 93-95 range and tops out at 98 MPH, a gyro slider that's his main put-away pitch that produced solid whiff rates, and a changeup that flashes potential with more usage down the line. Ligon joins the Blue Jays with an arsenal highlighted by a mid-to-high-90s fastball and is another example of Toronto betting on stuff after he struggled with his command at Mississippi State, but still struck out 27.9 per cent of hitters in 2025.

COLLEGE NOTES: Began collegiate career by pitching two years at the University of Miami in 2021 and 2022, before transferring to Mississippi State for the 2023, 2024, and 2025 seasons. Ligon became a full-time starter as a grad senior in 2025 after only throwing 23.2 innings in 2024 and relieving 13 of his 15 appearances. In his final season in Starkville, he posted a 5.40 ERA across 56.2 innings while walking 29 and punching out 73, starting in all 15 weekends on the year. On March 31, 2023, Ligon pitched 8 shutout innings, allowing only three hits while striking out six in an upset victory over rival Florida State, earning Ligon ACC Pitcher of the Week honors. In the 2022 season Ligon was named Freshman All-ACC, Pitched in 16 games, making 15 starts in rookie campaign...Finished season with 6-6 record, 4.90 ERA and 67 strikeouts over 75.1 innings pitched....Posted 4-1 mark and 1.45 ERA, while holding opponents to .197 batting average across first seven appearances.

PERSONAL NOTES: Sarasota native, an hour-and-a-half drive from Dunedin. Ligon said he received offers from two teams in the seventh round of the draft, but declined them both for financial reasons before accepting the Blue Jays' offer. Only Canadian knowledge was from a trip to Niagara Falls in his youth with his family. Son of Jeff and Page Ligon. Has one older brother, Kendall. Got engaged to fiancé, Amanda, this offseason.

CAREER NOTES: Ligon's Kick-Change is his most used secondary offering, complimenting a 95 MPH FB. The pitch was ranked as having the best advanced data on a kick-change at the D1 level last year. Ligon transferred because he felt like he had the chance to develop better if he left Miami. Early on in the process he narrowed his list of schools down to seven, visited four, and fell in love with Starkville on his visit and knew that's where he wanted to go by the time he left Mississippi. On his way to his recruiting visit, he missed his connecting flight due to delays and they ended up flying him into Birmingham, almost 2 and a half hours from campus. Pitching Coach Justin Parker drove to pick him up in Birmingham, so they had the chance to catch up for a couple of hours in the car and build a strong relationship. On the visit, Ligon was blown away by the facilities and the pitching lab, and they showed him some video and analytical breakdown of his pitches and how they plan to develop him. Upon being drafted by Toronto, he follows up former Bulldogs starter Khal Stephen who was taken by the organization in the 2nd round in 2024, and high school signee JoJo Parker was selected eighth overall by the Blue Jays in 2025. Ligon hit 100 MPH in the Cape Cod League last summer, and said he got emotional in the dugout when he got back and found out he hit 100 MPH on trackman, saying that's something every baseball player dreams of. On baseball atmosphere at Mississippi State: would be stopped on the street and asked to take photos and sign autographs. "Starkville definitely is a baseball-only place," Ligon said. "The people there love their baseball and they kind of live and die with the wins and losses. When you're losing or you're not performing, the fans let you hear it, and when you're winning and you are performing, they really let you hear it. That's what makes it such a cool place because it really matters to the whole city."

DRAFT NOTES: Selected in the 1st round, 8th overall, by the Toronto Blue Jays in the 2025 MLB Draft and signed for a $6.2 million bonus. The Blue Jays sent 14 different scouts and talent evaluators to watch Parker play ahead of the draft. The Blue Jays had scouted Parker for who years, and displayed high levels of interest leading up to the draft. Parker was expecting to be selected within a pick or two of Eli Willits, the top prep infielder in the draft. Despite being mocked closer to the Blue Jays, Willits went first overall to the Nationals in a surprise selection. Parker first was called by his agent with the Blue Jays offer, then after hearing his name called at a draft party at his local church, got a call from Blue Jays Scouting Director Marc Tramuta. "There was quite a consensus in the room, between scouts and analysts," said Tramuta. "This was one of the best, if not the best, hit-power combos, with plate discipline, that we felt (was) in the draft."

PERSONAL NOTES: Full name is Joseph John Parker. Fraternal twin, Jacob, was also a highly touted draft prospect with first round hype in 2025, but chose to honor his commitment Mississippi State. The twin brothers do absolutely everything together and are extreme competitors in everything, from ping pong to golf, who could eat the fastest. JoJo hit leadoff and Jacob hit second on their high school team, and they were often walked back-to-back because nobody wanted to face them. Jojo and Jacob attended all the same showcases, played on the same teams, were Co-Mississippi Players of the Year, in the same BP group at the MLB Draft Combine, and both committed to Mississippi State. Some teams, including the Blue Jays, White Sox, and Rangers even discussed drafting the pair together in 2025, although no teams were able to meet Jacob's signing bonus demands. The twins played football through junior year of high school, with JoJo at QB and Jacob his top target at WR. Parker's father, Joesph (Jop), became paralyzed in nearly all of his body at 16 years old after going to make a tackle on the football field, breaking his neck and he has been confined to a wheelchair ever since. Despite being told he wouldn't even be able to graduate high school, Jop went on to become a lawyer and is currently a county court judge. Despite not being able to have a catch with them, Jop coached all of the twins little league teams growing up. Native of Purvis, MS, is a small, old railway town of approximately 1900 people per the 2020 census, which was a stop on the New Orleans to Northeast Rail Line. JoJo described it as a three stop light town with a couple of stop signs here and there. The Parker family grew up close friends with the family of MLB No. 1 prospect Konor Griffin. Griffin and Parker are best friends, and played on the same teams growing up before Griffin reclassified, and they train together in the offseason. Closest MLB team to his home in Mississippi was the Atlanta Braves, over six hours away, so never had a favorite team but grew up idolizing Derek Jeter. Hobbies include fishing, hunting, and play golf. In 2nd grade wrote on a piece of paper that his teacher gave him that he wanted to be an MLB baseball player.

Saum's father was in the navy, and their family lived in Hawaii when he was between the ages of 7-12, attending many Rainbow Warriors games and that's where Saum says he fell in love with baseball. - G2 on Thursday: tripled home a run in the 5th inning of game two as part of a three-hit night. His hits left the bat at 106 MPH, 105.7 MPH, and 98.7 MPH. Williams tallied his second multi-hit game of the season, and Dunedin's first three-hit game of the season. His 5th inning three-bagger was his fourth professional triple.

2025: Played 88 games for Double-A New Hampshire, over which he batted .217 with 9 HR and a .633 OPS. Became the first Fisher Cat in franchise history to hit a pinch-hit walk-off home run on 4/16 to beat HBG 10-9 at Delta Dental Stadium. Batted .160 over first 25 games of the season. in the league's home run derby, where he belted 7 HR in the first round.

2022-23: Played 28 games for Class-A Dunedin in 2022 pro debut...split 2023 between Dunedin and High-A Vancouver.

COLLEGE: Played three seasons at the University of Iowa. Named to the first-team All-Big Ten roster in 2022, boasting a .317 career batting average. Made Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-American list in 2020

PERSONAL NOTES: Nicknamed "The Iowa Meat Truck." Back home in Des Moines, Iowa, Williams' neighbor owns a business called the Iowa Meat Truck, which sells and delivers premium meats. That neighbor gave Williams a shirt with the company's logo, and one day, Williams threw it on before heading to the ballpark. The coaching staff loved it, as did Vancouver Canadians Broadcast Tyler Zickel, who began working it onto the broadcast whenever able. Growing up, Williams was usually six inches taller than most of his classmates. He said his parents have pictures of him as a 10-year-old hovering over the other kids. By his freshman year of high school, Williams checked in around 6-foot-5. Grew up idolizing Anthony Rizzo for his abilities as a left-handed hitting first-baseman.
