- The Dragons are 13-10 in May after going 8-13 in April. They are 15-11 in road games.
- In the month of May, Dragons pitchers have a 3.16 ERA to rank second in the MWL (0.01 behind Cedar Rapids). Opponents are batting .204 against the Dragons in May, also the best mark in the league, and Dragons pitchers have issued the fewest walks in the league in May (70 in 23 games).
- For the year, Dragons starting pitchers rank third in the MWL in ERA rankings at 3.38.
- Since April 20, the Dragons have held a lead after the sixth inning in 28 of the 32 games played. Eleven of the Dragons last 15 losses have come by one run.

- The Dayton bullpen has struggled to protect leads in close games, allowing a league-leading 13 blown saves while successfully converting nine saves on the year. However, the Dragons have played better in close games recently. In the current series, the Dragons have won two games when the score was tied at the end of the seventh inning (Thursday, Friday) and earned a one-run win Saturday.

Player Notes

- Dragons starting pitcher Julian Aguiar will be a strong contender for Reds Minor League Pitcher of the Month for May (he will not pitch again in May). He allowed only one earned run in May covering 22 innings (allowing one unearned run), just seven hits with four walks and 23 strikeouts with an ERA of 0.41. For the year, he leads the MWL in ERA (1.60) and opponent batting average (.147).
- Jose Acuña is third in the MWL in ERA (2.41). Aguiar and Acuña rank first and second in WHIP and Opponent's Batting Average.
- Two other Dragons starting pitchers have posted excellent ERAs on the year. Hunter Parks (2.84) would rank eighth in the league but falls short of the minimum innings to qualify. Chase Petty has an ERA of 0.75 in just 12 innings (three starts).
- Michael Trautwein over his last 18 games is batting .318 (17 for 54) with two home runs, three doubles, one triple, and 7 RBI. He is 10th in the MWL in slugging percentage at .451.

- Blake Dunn has been hit by a pitch 16 times this season. No other MWL player has been hit more than seven times.

- The Dragons roster is headlined by Edwin Arroyo, a shortstop who entered spring training as the Reds #3 prospect (based on MLB.com and Baseball America). Arroyo is the 10th player in Dragons history to enter a season ranked as the Reds #3 prospect or higher based on Baseball America's list. Others have included Homer Bailey, Adam Dunn, Jay Bruce, Billy Hamilton, and Hunter Greene. Basics for 2023: This is the third year in which the league is classified at the High-A level of Minor League Baseball. The Midwest League was a Low-A league prior to 2021. The 12-team Midwest League operates with two six-team divisions.

The Midwest League will continue to utilize a Pitch Timer to encourage a quicker pace of play. Pitchers are required to deliver each pitch within a 14-second time limit (or 18 seconds with a runner on base). Defensive positioning rules require at least two infielders on each side of second base, with at least four infielders positioned on the infield dirt. Pitchers are limited in the number of unsuccessful pick-off throws they can make to a base. The third pick-off throw must result in an out, or the runner will be awarded the next base.

Rated as Reds organization's "Best Defensive Infielder" by Baseball America.

2023 World Baseball Classic: Played for Team Puerto Rico

Notes: 2022: Acquired from Seattle along with INF Noelvi Marte, RHP Levi Stoudt and RHP Andrew Moore in exchange for RHP Luis Castillo at the 2022 trade deadline...Selected by Baseball America as a Low-A All-Star (SS)...Played for Seattle's Low-A club, Modesto, prior to being acquired by the Reds and subsequently assigned to Daytona...Entered the season as the third youngest player in the California League...Ranked among offensive leaders at Low-A in hits (137, 1st), triples (10, 2nd), total bases (224, 3rd), runs (92, T4th), RBI (83, 7th), and extra-base hits (49, 7th)...Was rated by Baseball America as the best defensive infielder in the Mariners system. 2021: Selected by the Mariners in the second round (48th overall) of the First-Year Player Draft. High School: Attended Arecibo Baseball Academy in Puerto Rico and Central Pointe Christian Academy in Kissimmee (FL)...can throw with both hands and pitched left-handed as a prep.

From MLB Pipeline: "(Arroyo) has the chance to be a dynamic up-the-middle player. He swings the bat well from both sides of the plate and was productive each way, showing the ability to make hard contact with a line-drive approach. He's added a good amount of strength to his wiry build already, and that led to more power than anticipated out of the gate, though he's still more of a hit-over-power type. He could become even more of an impact hitter as he tightens up his approach...If he continues to hit at all, Arroyo could be an elite-level player because there's no doubt he's going to be able to play shortstop for a long time. He has excellent hands and actions at the premium position, with more than enough arm to make throws from all over the infield. Assuming he gets his bearings with his new organization, he should continue to prove he has the tools to be an everyday shortstop in the big leagues."
